Co-op Research With Slippery Rock for Programmed Learning

Clarion State College has entered into a cooperative agreement with Slippery Rock State College on a federally supported research project into programmed instruction of superior students in small high schools, with a federal grant of approximately $70,000.

The grant is the first one of its type awarded to any State college in Pennsylvania. With the exception of books and materials, it will completely support the 15-months' research project.

The study will measure the effects of programmed instruction techniques in modern mathematics and English for superior students in the smaller high schools that normally lack the finances and staff sufficient to provide this additional education for its superior pupils.

In announcing the cooperative aspect of the joint study, Dr. James Gemmell, president of Clarion, and Dr. Norman Weisenfluh, president of Slippery Rock, named Dr. William Page, director of student teaching and placement at Clarion, and Dr. Nelson Hale, chairman of the secondary education division at Slippery Rock, as co-investigators. In addition to the two faculty investigators, a research director, two research assistants, and a secretary will also be utilized in the project.

"We will be using self-instruction methods, specifically utilizing programmed instruction in the two areas of study," Dr. Page explained.

"The results of the study should answer some highly practical questions about education," he continued. "For example, we will know the effect of this programmed instruction on school teachers, administrators, and on the students and their parents. We hope also to measure the attitudes and their changes toward college study, toward future careers, and other attitude changes that may result from this additional education opportunity. We will gauge the needs for course content adjustment, and for adjustments in teaching methods. We want to know if the programmed materials need changes that will make them better teaching tools. We want to know if there is beneficial overlap from this instruction to other courses and areas of study. We want to measure the degree of acceptance and success that programmed instruction receives in our schools. Above all, however, we basically want to measure the performance and educational growth of the students involved in the study," Dr. Page concluded.

Twenty high schools have been selected to aid the two colleges in the research. Ten are in the Clarion area, while ten are in the Slippery Rock area.

The first step of the study, which is already underway, is the selection of superior students in grades 10 through 12 from the twenty schools to take part in the project. All students taking part will be doing so voluntarily, Dr. Page explained.

The program is beginning this fall and will end with the close of school next spring. During this time each of the students involved will be regularly and consistently observed by the project's research director and others involved in the study. Each individual's progress will be noted, and development recorded.

The approximate cost of the study, $70,000 will be paid by a United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

Workshop Will Prepare New Term Leaders

Clarion State College again hosted its student leaders during the annual Student Leadership Workshop held on campus just before the start of the semester.

This year's Workshop, the 7th annual one, began on Friday, Sept. 4, and ran until Sunday, September 6. A total of 56 students participated in the program, the theme of which was "Where Are We Going?"

In reporting on the success of the program, the student co-chairman for the Workshop, Pam Murphy, of Mt. Lebanon, and F. Earl Wensel of Meadville, said the students formed into four groups to discuss problems and situations under four headlines.

The first of these groups under the guidance of Dr. Joel Haines, professor of Social Science at Clarion, discussed "Where Are We Going as Leaders in Future World Situations." The second group had a stimulating time with "The Relationship Between the College Community and the Town of Clarion; Who is Leading Us, and Where Are We Going?" This group had Dr. Samuel Wilhelm, chairman of the College's Department of Social Sciences as its consultant.

"How to Create a Better Relationship Between Independent and Fraternity-Sorority Students," was the discussion topic for the third group, led by Mr. Frank Lignelli, associate professor of Education and assistant Dean of Students. The fourth discussion group, with Mr. Kenneth Vayda, associate professor of Education and director of Special Education, as consultant, handled the topic "Where Are We Going in Individual Responsibility?"

In addition to these group topics, the students assembled as a main body to hear addresses by Dr. James Gemmell, president, Dr. Roger Hufford, associate professor of Speech and Debate Coach and by Mr. Thaddeus Droast, security officer for the College.

The Workshop opened Friday morning with registration, and the initial group meetings. Dr. Gemmell welcomed the group, and spoke to the students at the Friday luncheon. The afternoon was devoted to group meetings. Friday evening the speaker was Dr. Roger Hufford. A dance followed.

Saturday morning's sessions opened with Mr. Droast's address, followed by group discussion. The annual Buffet Dinner for students, faculty consultants, and members of the College administration was held Saturday evening. The speaker for the Buffet Dinner was Dr. William B. Crafts, dean of men at the University of Pittsburgh.

The three-day conference ended Sunday afternoon with a picnic at Clarion Venango Campus.

Two Seniors Obtain Nat'l Scholarships From ZTA Sorority

Two Clarion State College seniors have been awarded Zeta Tau Alpha Foundation Scholarships for the coming College year.

The two women, Sally Luczka and Bertha Vidak, were selected for the annual scholarship on the basis of their scholastic work, recommendations from professors and from the College's academic administration, and consideration of their extra-curricular activities. In addition, a need for financial assistance was considered.

Sally Luczka is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Luczka, of RD2, Aliquippa. She is a 1961 graduate of Aliquippa High School, where she had been a member of the National Honor Society, Science Club, Future Teachers of America, Leaders' Club, Yearbook Staff, and Girl's Chorus. She received the Aliquippa Education Scholarship in 1961 to come to Clarion. While a student at Clarion, Miss Luczka has been President of the Association of Women Students, a Student Resident, a member of Zeta Tau Alpha, the Council for Exceptional Children, Association of Women Students, and the College Disciplinary Board. Upon graduation from Clarion, she will go into elementary teaching and Special Education. She also plans to do graduate work in Special Education.

Miss Vidak, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Vidak of 619 Maple Lane, Sewickley, is a 1961 graduate of Quaker Valley High School in Leedsdale. While in high school, she was a member of the band, the National Honor Society, Junior Red Cross, the Yearbook, and Tri-Hi-Y.

Miss Vidak entered Clarion in 1961 as an Elementary Education major. She is a member of Clarion's Concert Band and the College Choir, the Pennsylvania Student Education Association, and of Zeta Tau Alpha Fraternity. Upon graduation from Clarion, she plans to teach and attend graduate school.

YOU'D SMILE, TOO, if you'd just signed a contract for about $70,000, the approximate amount of a research contract awarded as a cooperative project between Clarion and Slippery Rock State Colleges. Clarion's happy penmen are (left to right) Darl Callen, business manager; Dr. William Page, director of student teaching and placement, and co-investigator of the research; and Dr. James Gemmell, president.

Venango Enrollment Reaches New Record

The Venango Campus of Clarion State College has the biggest enrollment of its four-year history.

As figures now stand the Oil City College has an enrollment of 232 students for the Fall semester.

This includes 150 freshman, 52 returning students, and 30 part-time students.

Of the 232 students who are enrolled, eighty-nine of them will be out of town people who will live in Oil City. Forty-five are women and 44 men students.

Special arrangements have been made to provide 20 of the young women with rooms in the Oil City School of Nursing. The other 25 women and 44 men will be staying in private homes.

Another new development for the Venango Campus this year is the provision for bus transportation for a limited number of out-of-town students.

The bus will be operated by the Meadville City Bus Line. The cost to the Student will be $25 for each semester. A transportation card will be issued and only regular riders will be permitted to use the bus.

Arrangements also have been made with the YMCA cafeteria to offer students, especially those using the bus, special prices for meal tickets for the evening meal. The bus will wait at the cafeteria until the students are through eating.

The calendar for the opening of the semester at the Venango Campus began Sunday, Sept. 6, with a reception from 2 to 4 p. m. in the multi-purpose room of the West End building. Tuesday, Sept. 8, was registration day. All regular students registered at the main campus in Clarion. Part-time students registered at the Oil City campus from 8 a. m. to 4:30 p. m., Tuesday, September 8.

On Wednesday, Sept. 9, all Venango Campus students reported to the campus at 9 a. m. The day was taken up with tests and class meetings.

The regular class schedule for Venango Campus began at 8 a. m. Thursday, Sept. 10.

STARING INTO THE BIG HOLE soon to be filled by the new dining hall are Carol Jar-sinsky and Faye Daniels, awed by the summer construction going on at the College.

Editorially Speaking

Hot Air Out; Cool Air In

This semester opens with one hard, cold fact. Every student here is "in" with regard to being in college. Throw away the petty gripes and consider that you are "in." The Admissions' Office reports that five candidates are turned away from Clarion for every student accepted. The situation is the same elsewhere. College is something like big-league baseball. It's education's major league, and there is a great amount of competition for position here. This should be a thought in every student's mind. Of this we are sure.

However, some of the things we are uncertain about include the opening of the football field, the new gymnasium, and the new Science Building. The College promotional brochures keep promising that they're "coming soon." It appears that everything, indeed a bit more, has been done locally to finalize and start these projects essential to Clarion's growth. The crime of "ho hum" must rest elsewhere, perhaps in Harrisburg—the "seat" of State government. This inefficient, plodding building program certainly supports the State colleges' plea for local control of money. It would seem that each college should assume responsibility for its own budget expenditure and building programs, instead of the present bureaucratic dole system that often robs Peter to pay Paul for robbing Sam, ad nauseum.

A small group of people have been crying "RED" about our College. By this time the only thing red around here is the color of anger in the faces of administration, faculty, and students. Instead of trying to get evidence and prove these preposterous statements, this group of loose thinkers keeps shouting their false charges about our College.

Every faculty member and administrator undergoes a thorough security and police check by the State before he or she is hired.

What then makes us "pink" or unloyal as these people charge? Is it because we support the Constitution and its guarantee of freedom of speech? If this is the case, then we don't live in a democracy, we live in the United States of Lunacy.

There is no proven, sane reason to doubt the loyalty to the United States of any person on the Clarion State College campus. Indeed, this asinine situation makes us wonder just WHO is dangerous to the overall good of our nation.

Mouse Mouths Off

hi gang, greetings to all from the mouse and his family. we hope that this year will be a successful one for all.

to start off the new school year, we will bring up an old subject, the controversial speakers policy and communists. we would like to wholeheartedly support the prexy on his stand concerning this subject. i hope that we have heard the end of this from certain outside antagonists.

sorry to hear that the proposed field house was not approved in harrisburg. maybe somebody pulled too many strings. we hope that the college looks at the acceptance of the new football field objectively.

i am very happy to see that both the physical and financial conditions are being improved in the union. my home sure needed some changes. thanks.

hey gang, how do you like our standardized judicial code? your penalty varies with the mood of the committee. it is nice to know that you might get off easier than someone else.

even though i'm a mouse and can run fast, the way the clocks are around here i can leave one building and already be five minutes late for my next class. maybe there is a twilight zone somewhere in between.

don't feel bad about those i. d. pictures, even this mouse had his mug shot, complete with number, taken. someone wants to put bars in front of mine.

we could complain about the cafeteria, the condition of jefferson hall, the water and heat problem in coker and ralston halls, and the cockroaches in becht, but, what the hell, we've been writing about that for a long time and getting quite tired of it. maybe someone else can push the issue.

so long now, mike

Authority on John Milton to Give Lecture Here on Sept. 28

Clarion State College's 2nd Annual Visiting Scholar's program will open Sept. 28 with Dr. James H. Hanford, professor emeritus at Western Reserve University, as the initial lecturer. He will speak on "The Living Milton."

Dr. Hanford has been attached to the Princeton University Library as Visiting Bibliographer since 1953. He is a graduate of the University of Rochester with a A. B. degree, the Ph. D. from Harvard University, and the LL. D. from the University of North Carolina and Western Reserve University. He has been Professor of English at the University of North Carolina, the University of Michigan, and at Western Reserve University.

He has been visiting professor at Texas Technological College, the Pennsylvania State University, Damascus University in Syria, Columbia University, Harvard and Princeton.

Widely regarded as a leading authority on British poet John Milton, Dr. Hanford has authored several books and many articles on the subject. He regards himself, however, as a teacher of literature primarily and a researcher and author secondly.

Dr. Hanford will be speaking both in English Department Seminars and to the student body. Details will be announced later, according to Dr. Paul Shank, program chairman.

FEDERAL GRANT

Grant. The only cost to the local school districts will be for students' books and study materials. The total local cost will not exceed $100 for any school district. There will be no cost to the students.

"This is an extremely gratifying thing for us at Clarion, as it is for the people at Slippery Rock," remarked Clarion's President, Dr. James Gemmell.

"We are pleased to be able to provide this opportunity to aid the high schools in our service area. However, we are also proud to have been selected to make this initial study into this type of educational approach. This is a valuable project that could lead to significant developments, and a betterment of our children's education," Dr. Gemmell concluded.

Schools in the Clarion State College service area taking part in the project include Allegheny-Clarion Valley High School, Clarion Area High School, Clarion-Limestone Jointure, Keystone Jointure, North Clarion Jointure, Redbank Valley Jointure, Union Jointure, Brookville Area Joint High School, West Forest Jointure, and East Forest Joint High School.

Special Education Program Announced

The Council for Exceptional Children, a student organization under the auspices of the Clarion State College Special Education program has announced its program for the year.

Although exact dates have not been given, faculty advisor, Kenneth G. Vayda, director of Special Education, has announced a general monthly program, opening with a "coffee welcome" for new members and installation of officers.

In October, members of the Council will attend the Annual State Federation Convention in Pittsburgh. In November they will tour the Johnstown Rehabilitation Center, and in December, they will view films on speech correction.

The January session will be a coffee hour and reception for the January graduates at the College. The formal program will begin in February with a seminar on graduate study and admission to graduate school. Professor Vayda will bring in noted authorities in the area of Special Education for this meeting.

The March meeting will cover special services in Pennsylvania's schools, and the Speech pathologist and Special Education Supervisor in the Schools. April will bring field trips to Pittsburgh, with stops in the Eye and Ear Hospital for the Speech Correction people, and a visit to the Westmoreland County Hospital for the Special Education students. The final program is planned for May. It will be a reception for graduating seniors and panel discussion by student teachers who have been working in Special Education.

"Naturally," Professor Vayda commented, "we hope anyone desiring to go into Special Education can see the value of membership in this Council. It's value in bridging the gap between classroom and actual field experience will grow as the student grows professionally."

The Clarion Council is affiliated with the national organization of the Council for Exceptional Children.

Current officers are Denny Hetrick, of Rimersburg, president; Dave Jones of Dogwood Drive, Penn Hills, vice-president; and Sally Luczka, of RD 2, Aliquippa, secretary-treasurer.

Freshman and other new students are invited to inquire about membership.

Circle K News

The Circle K Club of Clarion State has entered a year of great activity. Heading the list is a membership drive, which is taking place this week. On September 17 and 18 the members of Circle K held a sign-up session. The people who signed up at this time, and all of those who wish to become members of this important organization are invited to attend an open meeting on Monday, September 21, in the Day Room of Davis Hall at 7:30. This meeting will provide the male students of Clarion with an opportunity to observe the work that Circle K undertakes, and the many awards that they have won for their services.

Other activities on the list for this year include a drive with the local Kiwanis for the benefit of handicapped students, and the possibility of constructing a float for the Homecoming Parade. The activities are just a few of the many standard community services that Circle K performs for the College. For these many services Clarion's Circle K Club has been cited and awarded on both the state and local levels.

All male members of the Clarion student body are invited to join this important part of Clarion State. All of those interested in joining are welcome to attend the meeting in the Day Room of Davis Hall on September 21, at 7:30 P. M.

Clarion State Opens 98th Year

Clarion State College opened its 98th academic year last week with a full schedule of faculty and student orientation and class registration.

The first official day was Thursday, September 3, when the entire faculty gathered for a general session and for later divisional conferences in liberal arts and professional education. In addition, a coffee hour and orientation meeting was held for the 29 new faculty members.

Friday was taken up with faculty meetings within the College's various academic departments. There were also several general sessions for all faculty. Registration began for Student Leadership Workshop too.

The campus was flooded with cars and crowds of freshman students and their parents on Monday, as College began for the largest Fall enrollment in its history, 2550 students. The day was given over mainly to freshman orientation, including a picnic.

Freshman testing and registration for all students began Tuesday and continued until classes opened Friday morning. Evening entertainment was in the way of a movie, "Bell, Book, and Candle," presented Wednesday night, and a College Players production of "Crawling Arnold," in the Chapel Thursday night.

The President's Reception for the freshman class was Sunday, September 13.

By this week, according to a veteran teacher, the newness has rubbed off and classes and college life will go on as usual at Clarion State College—for the 98th year.

Haines, Truby Given Chairmanships, Moses Accepts Committee Invitation

Dr. Joel Haines, professor of Social Science at Clarion State College, has been named Chairman of a major committee of the Regional Council for International Education.

Dr. Haines was named Chairman of the Faculty Exchange Committee of the Regional Council for International Education by Shepard Witman. His committee will consider the potentials for developing a faculty exchange relationship with institutions abroad. Specifically, according to Dr. Haines, his group will study some of the details of faculty exchange with regard to length of exchange, areas of instruction, finances, and other things involved in such a complex educational exchange program.

Dr. Haines is also in charge of Clarion's British Cultural Center.

The College Association of Public Relations Officers named J. David Truby, director of public relations at Clarion State College, chairman of a committee to research, plan and program a series of high school and college newspaper clinics for scholastic newspaper advisors and staffs.

The clinics will be designed to provide contact between the scholastic advisors and their student staffs and professional newspaper people. In addition, the clinics will provide practical and helpful instruction for the students and their advisors. A third benefit of the clinics will be the benefit to the newspaper industry of having the young student-journalists exposed to actual situations and professional newspaper people.

Dr. Elbert R. Moses, Jr., chairman of the Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts at Clarion State College, has accepted an invitation to serve on a planning committee for the Sixth Annual Conference of the Regional Council for International Education.

The purpose of the organization is to provide cultural and educational exchange between the nations of the World, and to promote international education through the exchange of ideas, curriculum plans, publications, etc.

Dr. Moses has been extremely active in the area of international education, and is president of the American Overseas Educators Association.

PROFESSOR CHARLEY at the foundry preparing bronze for sculpture. This year the class will experiment with alloy sculpture as well as bronze.

Clarion State College art professor Alfred Charley was a featured guest on Don Riggs' "Daybreak" show on KDKA-TV this past Wednesday morning.

Mr. Riggs interviewed Professor Charley and showed live examples and films taken of his unique bronze sculptures.

Bronze sculpture began at Clarion State College when Professor Charley arrived last year. Working with an improvised furnace, which is one of the few in the nation and the only one used educationally (for courses) in the State, Mr. Charley and his students have been creating art all summer. Their work was exhibited this summer in the Rena M. Carlson Library.

A photo feature of Professor Charley and his students was done for the Pittsburgh Press Roto section this summer.

Hetrick Confers at Penn State

R. Dennis Hetrick, student speech pathologist, conferred at the regular staff meeting on August 31 with the resident staff of the Department of Psychiatry, Mercy-Douglas Unit of the University of Pennsylvania. Speech pathology as it presented itself in selected patients was discussed. An informal question and answer period followed.

A student at Clarion, Denny is a member of Sigma Alpha Eta, speech honorary society; President of the Clarion State Chapters of the "Council for Exceptional Children", and an Associate member of the American Speech and Hearing Association.

R. R. WHITMER, president of the College's Board of Trustees, presents Rena M. Carlson, librarian emerita, with a gift during library dedication ceremonies held last Spring. The library was officially dedicated as the Rena M. Carlson Library.

Following the Ithaca game, the Golden Eagles will return to the home field for a September 26 game with Grove City. The following week they travel to Lock Haven.

The annual Homecoming game, against Edinboro State College, will be October 10, hopefully in the new stadium. Indiana State College invades Clarion the following week, October 17. On October 24, the Golden Eagles play California State College on their field. Then Shippensburg State College will play here. The final game of the season, November 7, is played against Slippery Rock State College. The Conference playoff is set for November 14.

Clarion's record last year was 4-4.

Gemmell Named Group Chairman

President James Gemmell of Clarion State College has been named chairman of the Invest-in-America Advisory Committee on Economic Education, it was announced late last month by Frederic A. Potts, chairman of the Board.

Among the functions of the Committee are to advise the Invest-in-America National Council on relationships with educational institutions at all academic levels; to assist educators to emphasize the necessity of a free flow of private capital for the maintenance of the American competitive enterprise system; to stimulate the production and distribution of materials in the area of private finance and capital flow in a competitive economy; and to recommend the establishment of scholarships and fellowships and fellowship programs designed to improve the teaching of economics with particular emphasis on the finance function.

In making the appointment Potts said, "Invest-in-America wishes to build for tomorrow by raising the capabilities and increasing the understanding of individuals in matters of finance, and that Dr. Gemmell is ideally suited to head the group in the Invest-in-America structure which is in effect the program committee of the Board."

Appointment Made

Dr. Harold Simmons, director of Professional Studies at Clarion State College, has been named to the interim Board of Directors for the Allegheny Educational Broadcast Council.

The Council, which will utilize the facilities of WPSX, the educational television station at the Pennsylvania State University, will administer and disseminate educational programming into the schools and colleges in the service area of the station.

Readings to Be Held

The Clarion State College Oral Interpretative Reading Guild cordially invites all Clarion State students interested in participating in the CSC Oral Interpretative Reading Guild's Invitational Festival, being held in November, to meet Tuesday, September 22, at 7:30 in room 355 of Music Hall.

The festival will include readings from prose, poetry, and drama. Freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors are welcome.

For those who cannot come to Tuesday's meeting, a similar session will be conducted on Wednesday, September 23, at 7:30 in the same room.

Beauty and the Band

MISS GINNY COLLETT, featured as CSC's "Golden Girl" with the marching Band of Director Stanley F. Michalski, Jr. The Band makes their 1964 debut at the Grove City game next Saturday.

Golden Eagle Marching Band Opens New Season on Saturday

Clarion State College's Golden Eagle Marching Band opens the 1964 season next Saturday with a halftime performance at the Grove City football game, held on the main campus field.

With 80 members, the Band is the largest in the history of Clarion. It has been growing steadily each year, with the growth in popularity attributed to Stanley Michalski, Jr., the College Band Director, who has been building and improving the Band each year.

In addition to the increased size of the Band, a newly styled front will be evident, featuring the "Golden Girl". The "Golden Girl", who will be the featured twirler at games and concerts, and will serve as captain of the band front, is Ginny Collett, a senior from Corsica.

The majorettes will be headed by Janet Susa of Irwin, and will include Peggy Dabelko of Pittsburgh, Amy Woody of McKees Rocks, Barbara Keller of Glenshaw, and Karol Koman of Hopeville.

Director Michalski announced that the Band will make two football trips this year, to the Lock Haven game and to the California game.

Shearing, Folk Group Signed For CSC, on October 20

After a series of toots, whistles, and cheers across the country, The Ford Caravan of Music will be making its stop at Clarion State College on October 20, in the Clarion Area High School Auditorium at 8 p. m.

Featuring the George Shearing Quintet and the Serendipity Singers, the concert is being sponsored by The Clarion State College Students' Association, and is the first of a series of performances featuring what promises to be great entertainment.

Headlining the evening will be George Shearing, the English-born blind-from-birth, jazz pianist and his group. Already World famous, Shearing will be bringing his jazz artistry to Clarion to thrill an audience still tingling from the jazz sounds of Kai Winding and Stan Kenton. Shearing, who has gained a reputation on the Continent and in this country as a top jazz man, will be making his first appearance in the Clarion area.

Adding to the double-header appeal of this "bigger and better opening" of what promises to be the College's finest Concert-Lecture program are the Serendipity Singers, of "folk jazz" fame.

Now presenting seven boys and two girls, the group has starred on television's "Hootanany" show, as well as making guest appearances on other shows.

The Serendipity Singers are a versatile group featuring jazz arrangements and instrumentation, folk music, comedy sketches, and dramatic production—all coupled with their unusual musical sound.

Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., associate professor of Music and chairman of the Concert Lecture Committee, announced that ticket distribution would follow the same pattern as last year. College students will get first choice at the tickets, with the general public being seated after 7:45.

This policy, Michalski explained, is designed to protect the interest of the students, whose money is used to finance the Concert-Lecture Series.

A Peek at Greeks

PHI SIGMA EPSILON

The Brothers of Phi Sigma Epsilon extend a hearty welcome to the 1964 freshman class of Clarion State College.

The brothers thank all those who attended the initial Phi Sig "jammie" of the fall term last Saturday. The jam session proved to be just that, for the participants were literally jammed into the House Parlor. The capacity crowd not only filled the first floor rooms, but eventually included the lawn as a dance floor. The tremendous crowd of students insured the session's success, but the presence of advisors and faculty members demonstrated the popularity of the almost traditional Phi Sig "jammies."

Last Saturday, Bill Stankiewicz and John Howard played electric guitar, while Dave Pisani accompanied with the sax. In addition, a few of the brothers have recently formed a vocal group, and it is hoped that with practice, the group may furnish entertainment for the whole campus, as well as the brothers.

At the present time, the Phi Sig House is undergoing some long-needed interior redecorating. Ceilings are being lowered and rebuilt, walls repainted, and floors refinished. The brothers are expecting new furniture and drapes, also due very shortly.

DELTA ZETA

The sisters of Delta Zeta would like to welcome the Freshman class to Clarion and wish them luck in the forthcoming year.

President Connie Woollsey and Advisor Mrs. Ernest Johnson attended the Delta Zeta National Convention held in Cincinnati, Ohio, this past summer during the week of June 21. The trip proved successful, as they returned with many new ideas which will benefit the chapter.

CSC Is Growing Student Resident Program In Achievement Enters 2nd Successful Year

"Increased enrollment figures do not tell the total story of Clarion State College's great growth," Walter Hart, director of admissions, told a group of prospective students the other evening.

"The quality of our students has risen sharply in the past four years also," he continued.

Supporting Mr. Hart's statement is the fact that nearly 90 per cent of Clarion's 1964 freshman class ranked in the upper half of their high school graduating classes. In 1963, this figure was only 76 per cent. In addition, Mr. Hart pointed out that the college board average score was 46 points higher this year than it was last year.

"Next year's freshman class will average 100 points above the national average for college board scores," he said.

Following a very successful debut last year, the Student Resident Program begins its second year of operation under the Office of the Dean of Students.

The Student Resident Program provides for selected students to serve as in-residence counselors to the men's and women's residence halls at Clarion. They serve under a regular Head Resident.

Picked on the basis of leadership, maturity, and general character, the students share a great deal of responsibility in these positions.

The following have been named for the men: Fred Jones, Bruce Zigenfuss, Alvin Kennedy, Robert Daerr, William Downs, Wayne Galore, Earl Wensel, John Buzzinotti, Ken Garrison, Ed Lambert, Wesley Semple, Louis Johnson, Gerald Marterer, and Veli Lahdinpaa.

Named as Student Residents for the Women's residence halls were Judith Baille, Donna Caciolla, Barbara Chervenick, Rosemary Dilling, Bonnie Feather, Barbara Hanky, Pamela Hopkins, Gwenith Hummel, Mary Janice Ihnet.

In addition, Ruth Kraeuter, Jean McConnell, Jo Ellen Marshall, Linda Marshall, Pam Murphy, Elizabeth Phillips, Evelyn Pillschke, Gloria Ravera, Marlene Scardamalia, and Marian Todd.

Anyone wishing to send compliments or complaints concerning last year's yearbook may send them to Box 933 in the inter-campus mail.

MR. WALTER HART
Director of Admissions

Clarion's extra curricular accomplishments have paralleled this academic improvement, too. The wrestling team was undefeated last year, and one wrestler went to the finals in the National Tournament held in South Dakota. The Debate team won over 50 decisions, including victories over major universities. The College Band made many guest tours at the invitation of towns and schools all over Pennsylvania. The Choir traveled to Baltimore at the request of the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra and presented "The Messiah" together with the Symphony.

Other areas of accomplishment pointed out by Mr. Hart included the winning of graduate grants and assistantships by four Special Education students and three foreign language students, Dr. Konitzky's archaeological field studies, Clarion's $70,000 co-op research grant, the $7,500 National Science Foundation grant, the $10,000 Special Education grant, and the $3,000 3M grant.

Innovations in the academic areas included the use of an IBM computer class, instruction by closed circuit television, and a greatly expanded offering of courses.

In the area of enrollment, Mr. Hart announced that the College has about 2500 students this fall. In 1956, the enrollment was 688. Clarion is currently the fourth largest State college in Pennsylvania.

Old Field Is Still Used This Year

The three remaining home football games will be played on the College's old field bordering Greenville Avenue, according to a statement released this week by the Board of Trustees.

The Building Committee of the Board made an inspection of the field and stadium early in the week and announced their decision was based upon their observations of the project. It was reported that sodding operations are not at all satisfactory, and that many other construction details are incomplete.

College officials who visited the project also expressed a fear for player injury resulting from the condition of the field. This factor also entered strongly into the decision not to play, a Board spokesman said.

Following a meeting of College Administrative Officers, and members of the coaching staff, held after the Trustees' decision, there was complete agreement as to the wisdom of the decision not to play this season.

Construction progress has been extremely slow on the project, which was scheduled for completion August 31.

The Homecoming Game with Edinboro set for October 10, the Indiana game on October 17, and the season's home finale against Shippensburg on October 31, will be played on the old field.

Mr. Atchison reminded that all students must have ID cards to have checks cashed.

Robbe Named to Planning Commission

Charles Robbe, assistant professor of Social Studies at Clarion State College, has been appointed to the Planning Commission of the Regional Council for International Education of the University of Pittsburgh, as a result of his work with the Council's Institute.

In announcing Professor Robbe's appointment, Clarion President, James Gemmell said that it was based on Professor Robbe's experience and studies in Jordan, Syria, Lebanon, Israel, and Turkey; his contributions in class use of audiovisual instructional materials; his course syllabus; and his long teaching experience in this area.

A graduate of the University of Illinois, Professor Robbe earned his M. A. from the University of Vermont. In 1957, he was awarded a scholarship to Harvard for advanced graduate research in the history of the Far East. The following year he earned a scholarship at Brandeis University to do graduate study on the archaeology and history of Southwestern Asia. He has done additional graduate work at the University of California, and at the University of Texas.

Bloodmobile on Campus

The Clarion County Chapter of the American Red Cross will have their Bloodmobile on the Clarion State College campus on October 29 for donations by students and faculty of the College.

Circle K Club, a Clarion College service organization, will be in charge of the College program, Professor George Murdoch, a Circle K advisor, announced.

Mr. Murdoch said that although the Clarion County Red Cross met its quota last year, the College donations were not up to expectations.

"This was due to a lateness in getting registration forms for our donors," Mr. Murdoch explained. "However, this year we have plenty of time for this and expect to meet our responsibilities," he added.

The Circle K Club will have blood donor forms available for students and faculty on October 6, 7, 8—Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of next week — at a booth set up by the Library entrance.

Mr. Murdoch reminded that students under 21 must have a parent's signature on their form before they may donate blood.

"We have purposely set this program up before Homecoming so that students under 21 years of age may pick up the forms, fill them out, and have their parents sign them over the Homecoming weekend — if the students go home, or if the parents should come up for the weekend," Mr. Murdoch said.

Faculty participation was stressed also by the Circle K. An example of the benefits of the program was exemplified this past summer when two members of the College staff required blood in medical situations, and it was provided immediately and fully by the Clarion County Red Cross.

The Bloodmobile will be parked in the Campus parking lot by the Harvey Gymnasium. Circle K members and the Clarion County Red Cross have urged all students and faculty that are able to give blood to do so.

S. C. A. Makes Plans

The Student Christian Association has plans for a year filled with a wide variety of activities. At present they are planning a float for the Autumn Leaf Festival. A field trip is being planned for the near future.

The goal of the Student Christian Association is to bring a realization of God on campus. Their meetings provide fellowship and brotherhood for all.

Meetings of SCA are every Tuesday evening at 8:00 in Room 314—second floor of Seminary Hall. Everyone is welcome!

Season of International Theatre

The Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts at Clarion State College will present a season of International theatre this year featuring the College Players, Studio Players, and the College-Community Players under the sponsorship of the Clarion Student Association.

Four plays were selected to illustrate this field of drama. They are: The Beggar's Opera by John Gay, Call Me By My Rightful Name by Michael Shurtleff, The Visit by Friedrich Durrenmatt, and Blood Wedding by Federico Garcia Lorca.

The first production, The Beggar's Opera, will be presented on November 21, 22, 23, and 24. The play is a satire on gamblers, lawyers, courtiers, and politicians — in short, on everyone who makes his way at the expense of society. It comments about the high incidence of crime in the early 18th century. Also, it comments on its ridiculous standards for imposing the death sentence. The plot of The Beggar's Opera is a very simple narrative, ideally suited as a vehicle for Gay's satire and wit. Basically, it is a love story with interference from the bride-to-be's parents. However, it is not the usual Romeo and Juliet love tale, but a story with a clever turn-a-bout used to amuse the audience. The play has no moral intent; it was written to entertain, without any moral purpose. This ballad opera is one of those rare literary works, a truly popular classic.

Greeks Decide To Withdraw From Festival

The latest development in the Autumn Leaf Festival Parade issue involves a group of students beginning a telephone campaign urging friends and family to stay away from the Parade and from the College Homecoming.

Mr. Henry Troese, general chairman of the Festival, told the Call that there will actually be more floats in this year's parade than there were in last year's. The Festival will continue as usual, Mr. Troese stated, despite the insistence of the Greeks to the contrary.

Interrelations between the Greek organizations and the Autumn Leaf Festival Committee have reached a deadlock, the outcome being that there will be no Greek floats in the Autumn Leaf Parade.

The forewarning of this action took place last year when three Greek representatives, Robert Cornali, Alpha Phi Gamma; James Opeka, Phi Sigma Epsilon; and Nelson Enos, Theta Chi, met with Henry Troese, Autumn Leaf Festival Chairman. The Greeks stated the revisions they wanted for this year's parade. The five issues presented were: Judging by paid professional judges, but this request was later reduced to competent judges such as an artist to judge the structural qualities, an architect to judge the design qualities and a carpenter to judge the structural qualities; - raising more prize money; - separate judging divisions for fraternities, sororities, and other organizations; - informing the organizations of the regulation standards set up by the Autumn Leaf Committee; - assisting the organizations find locations for the building, and supplying tractors, flat beds, and other equipment needed for the floats. At the conclusion of this meeting, both the Greeks and Mr. Troese were under the impression that a decision had been made. For the rest of the year, no further communication was made, except between Mr. Troese and the individual Greek presidents, namely Bob Cornali.

At the beginning of last semester, the fraternities, under the auspices of I. F. C. sent a letter, signed by all the fraternity presidents, to Mr. Troese stating the issues they stood behind. At this time, Mr. Troese stated he would go along with some of the issues, but not all. According to him, he didn't know whether there were professional judges, and even if there were, he didn't feel the added expense was justified. This he gave as his excuse for not even

Editorially Speaking Campus Views

The decision of the Building Committee of the College Board of Trustees not to utilize the new football stadium shows solid, thoughtful judgement.

The popular feeling around the school has been to play at least the Homecoming Game on the new field. There has been a certain amount of public desire to open the field for Homecoming. There was a waft of political overtones concerning opening of the new stadium for Homecoming.

However popular and proud these reasons are, the realistic view is that the field and stadium just aren't ready for play. Large soft spots are still evident on the playing field, parts of the sod are dead, the parking areas and other physical facilities are not complete. In brief, the contractor hasn't completed his job, and the Trustees have made the wise decision not to accept the field for the College until he has completed the work, and it has been approved.

Why it wasn't completed on time is a question the contractor must answer. In this instance it seems College officials are blameless. The Trustees have made the right decision under the circumstances.

Young Republicans Hear Sen. Goldwater Supporters At Meet

On Saturday, September 6, eleven members of the Clarion State College Young Republicans traveled to Pittsburgh for a state-wide meeting of Young Republicans, which was held at the Pittsburgh Hilton.

Among the speakers on the program was James Malone, former district attorney of Allegheny County and currently president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association. Mr. Malone's talk was both entertaining and informative, with many references to the Bobby Baker scandal of the present administration. He also pointed out that many of Mr. Goldwater's ideas have been misconstrued by the press, and that it was up to the Young Republicans to bring the true meaning of conservatism and of Barry Goldwater home to the people.

After a luncheon, the CSC representatives heard a talk by The Honorable Frank Bow, Congressman from the 16th District, Ohio. Congressman Bow spoke of the vital role that must be played by the Republicans in the coming election. Stressed also was the need for returning Republican incumbents to the Senate and House of Representatives.

Other dignitaries present were John Acton, Chairman of Young Republicans of Pennsylvania, and Congressman Frank Fulton, of Pittsburgh. An address was delivered on minority groups in the election by Clay Clayborn, a Negro from New Jersey, who was an important man on the staff of Gov. William Scranton at the Republican National Convention. To conclude the program a session was presented entitled "101 Questions and Answers". It brought up many of the questions that Americans are asking themselves and others about Barry Goldwater. An informal supper and evening dance were also scheduled.

Vayda Chairs Panel

Kenneth Vayda, director of Special Education, and Daniel K. Shirey, associate professor of Special Education, at Clarion State College, will participate in a Workshop at the Pennsylvania Federation Council for Exceptional Children's convention in Pittsburgh next month.

Addressing the convention on Saturday, October 17, Professor Vayda will act as chairman of the Workshop on "The Child with Cerebral Dysfunction." Professor Shirey will be chairman of a Workshop group on "Reading Development of Children."

In addition, Professor Vayda has been nominated for the posts of First Vice-President, and Treasurer of the Federation.

Teacher Tests Are Set For Year

College seniors preparing to teach school may take the National Teacher Examinations on three different test dates each year instead of one, Educational Testing Service announced today through Dr. William Page, director of Student Teaching and Placement at Clarion State College.

New dates set for the testing of prospective teachers are: December 12, 1964; and March 20 and July 17, 1965. The tests will be given locally at Clarion State College.

Scores on the National Teacher Examinations are used by many large school districts for employment of new teachers and by several States for certification or licensing of teachers. Some colleges require all seniors preparing to teach to take the examinations.

Lists of school systems which use the examination results are distributed to colleges by ETS, a nonprofit, educational organization which prepares and administers the examinations.

On each full day of testing, prospective teachers may take the Common Examinations, which measure the professional and general preparation of teachers, and one of 13 Teaching Area Examinations (formerly called Optional Examinations) which measure mastery of the subject they expect to teach.

Prospective teachers should contact the school systems in which they seek employment, or check with Dr. Page's office, for specific advice on which examinations to take, and on which dates they should be taken.

A Bulletin of Information containing registration forms, lists of test centers, and information about the examinations may be obtained from Dr. Page, school personnel departments, or directly from National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey 08540.

Dear Campus:

What the hell happened to Frosh Week? Yes, that is the big question mark in the minds of this campus. What had the potential of being one of the best beginnings of a school year become a first rate flop. Where does the blame lie? Freshman Orientation Committee, upperclassmen, frosh, who? In our minds the main problem was a severe attack of laziness. You cannot expect one man to do all of the work. And a one man job is what this year's frosh week flop was. But it wasn't to be a one man job; it is supposed to be the college community action with everyone taking an active part. But as usual, Clarion's "great" school spirit came through and nobody did a damn thing. Yea team! We, as the entire student body, decided to sit back and let the frosh run where they may.

Sincerely,
TWO INTERESTED STUDENTS

To Clarion State College Students:
The efforts of the Speech and Dramatic Arts Department to bring the finest in dramatical entertainment to Campus are most praiseworthy. This year's schedule upholds their fine record of accomplishment.

Most sincerely,
THE CALL STAFF

A Noble Profession

You aren't likely to find a teacher yearning for the good old days . . . if he's aware of conditions that existed nearly a century ago. Here are a list of rules for teachers posted by a principal in the City of New York in 1872:

1. Teachers each day will fill lamps, clean chimneys and trim wicks.
2. Each teacher will bring a bucket of water and scuttle of coal for the day's session.
3. Make your pens carefully. You may whittle nibs to the individual tests of the pupil.
4. Men teachers may take one evening each week for courting purposes, or two evenings a week if they go to church regularly.
5. After ten hours of school, the teacher should spend the remaining time reading the Bible or other good books.
6. Women teachers who marry or engage in unseemly conduct will be dismissed.
7. Every teacher should lay aside from each pay a goodly sum of his earnings for his benefit during his declining years, so that he will not be a burden on society.
8. Any teacher who smokes, uses liquor in any form, frequents pool or public halls, or gets shaved in barber shops will give good reason to suspect his worth, intentions, integrity and honesty.
9. The teacher who performs his labors faithfully and without fault for five years will be given an increase of twenty-five cents per week in his pay providing the Board of Education approves.

Judo Team Presents Exhibition

The Clarion State College Judo Club, organized last year by Andor S. P-Jobb, assistant professor of art, opened its fall activities last week with a Judo and Karate exhibition in the College gymnasium.

The program, which was presented to an overflow audience of more than 300 people, featured four women, three Clarion students and Mrs. P-Jobb, instructor of Russian at Clarion. The three students were Joan Moody of Butler, Karen Lynch of Hunkers, and Nancy Noal of Pittsburgh. The men participating were John Egolf of Franklin, David Salopek of Duquesne, Lino Colangelo of Pittsburgh, and Jack Giering of Clarion, son of professor Ray Giering of the Clarion faculty.

Mr. P-Jobb gave a brief history of Judo and Karate. Each participant demonstrated a number of basic holds, falls, and techniques. Colangelo was the Karate specialist. In addition, a self-defense demonstration was presented. Mr. P-Jobb had taught Ohio police officers this self-defense art against attackers with weapons while teaching in Ravenna, Ohio, before coming to Clarion.

Faculty and students may register with P-Jobb for Fall classes in Judo. They meet at 8 p. m. on Monday and Friday evening. Last year nearly 150 students participated in the classes.

Folk, Jazz Show Headed For Campus

After winding its way through such exotic places as Carnegie Hall, the Ford CARavan of Music will bring "A Folk and Jazz Wing Ding" to Clarion State College on October 20.

The concert slated to begin at 8 p. m., will feature the SERENDIPITY SINGERS and GEORGE SHEARING QUINTET. The concert is being sponsored by the College Concert Lecture Series, Stanley F. Michaelski, chairman. The concert will be held at the Clarion High School Auditorium.

GEORGE SHEARING

If you have been humming "Crooked Little Man" or "Beans In Your Ears", blame it on a business administration student, a prospective ancient historian, a would-be psychologist and a bunch of music majors — all possessing a boundless zest for singing—who, having become compatriots at the University of Colorado, formed the original core of the Serendipity Singers. Enlarged by the addition of two University of Texas graduates, the formalized group of seven boys and two girls was born.

When word of the Serendipity Singers reached New York and Fred Weintraub, owner of New York's celebrated night spot and folk mecca, "The Bitter End," he arranged to bring them to his club, where they entertained capacity audiences for several months.

The group composes about 90 percent of their musical material, which is, to quote Fred Weintraub "the new direction folk music is taking. I'd classify their unique sound as 'Folk-Jazz'—folk orientation but with jazz arrangements and instrumentation. They are building an act which will be an entire show in itself, utilizing each of the kid's great versatility and including comedy sketches, dramatic blackouts, as well as their extraordinary musical sound."

The Serendipity Singers have recorded 3 albums for Philips and have appeared on six "Hootenanny" television shows. In view of the definition of "serendipity" meaning "the unexpected discovery of a new and happy event", the group seems to have chosen a most appropriate and descriptive name.

The story of George Shearing is one of tremendous talent and courage. Totally blind from birth, he faced obstacles which might have easily discouraged a less optimistic or determined artist. After his formal education ended at sixteen, George Shearing considered himself lucky to land a piano playing job in a neighborhood pub. He studied classical music diligently during his off-hours, and eventually began getting supper club engagements with a band led by a friend of the family. After touring Britain with an all-blind band for 9 months, some musical arrangements, and a first personal BBC broadcast, England began to take notice of the shy, slender nineteen-year-old, who varied between piano and accordion with equal dexterity. Broadcast and recording dates began multiplying rapidly, and just before the outbreak of World War II, George Shearing landed his own BBC radio show. By 1946, he had headlined at virtually all the top clubs in London with his own groups, and his records were acknowledged best-sellers in the jazz field.

Having long confessed a desire to see the birthplace of jazz, Mr. Shearing sailed for the U. S. A. in December of 1946, for a 2 month visit, which was pleasant but unproductive, since Shearing was a name then virtually unknown in America. It was almost a year later before he returned to investigate offers, which unfortunately did not materialize, and he again left for England. Not until nightclub impresario Irving Alexander was persuaded to feature Shearing at his new "Clique" — on the Broadway site currently occupied by "Birdland" — was he again convinced to return here. Immediately he began to command attention from a growing circle of trade reviewers and critics, who soon acclaimed him unanimously as the outstanding foreign-born musician in the U. S.

SERENDIPITY SINGERS

Eagles Defeat Grove City; Meet Lock Haven

The Clarion State College footballers defeated Grove City, 36-6, last Saturday for their first win of the young season.

The week before Clarion lost to Ithaca, 16-7, in their season opener and now own a 1-1 record.

In the first quarter Clarion received the opening kick-off, but a penalty forced Grove City to rekick, and this time Clarion halfback Ken Gaudi raced the ball 80 yards to the visitors' six yard-line.

Three drive plays later fullback Don Hohman reared off right guard for a one-yard tally. Jim Miller's extra point attempt was wide, and Clarion took a quick 6-0 advantage.

Clarion kicked-off to Grove City and the Wolverines started a drive on their 35 which ended on Clarion's one-foot line. At this point of the game the staunch defense of Clarion proved to be most tough.

Clarion took over on their own one-foot line and pushed the ball to the 29, but were forced to punt. Ken Bracco punted to CSC's 45, but quickly recovered Grove City's fumble on their own.

A pass play covering 37 yards from quarterback John Krieger to halfback Jim Miller put the ball on Grove City's 13 yard-line.

Ken Gaudi picked up six yards, Krieger roared-up the middle for six more yards, however, Clarion fumbled on the next play.

Grove City then fumbled the pigskin in their desperate attempt to move the ball, and Clarion again recovered the loose ball.

Clarion was still unable to move the ball, and again found long yardage on fourth down situation. A field goal attempt was successful as Mike Zaccari booted a 15 yarder splitting the uprights.

However, Grove City appeared to come alive as they drove from their own 25 to a touchdown. Clarion's defense held for three downs, but on fourth down, inches to go for the tally, Grove City's Shear went off his own left tackle for the score. The PAT attempt was blocked and the score was 10-6, Clarion.

The Golden Eagles were not to be denied even though Grove City had managed to hit the score board once.

Clarion received the kick-off on their 40 and five plays later registered their second touchdown of the game.

The TD was scored on a pass play from quarterback John Krieger to right end Ralph Cutruzzella covering 35 yards. Zaccari's PAT attempt was good and the halftime score stood at 16-6, with Clarion leading.

The Eagles came out of the locker room for the second half, howling; the second half was all Clarion.

Clarion State kicked-off to start the second half. Seven plays later Grove City drove to Clarion's 11, but were forced to attempt a field goal. However, Clarion's defense blocked the attempt and Clarion took over.

The ball exchanged hands for two set of downs with only one exceptional run being mastered. John DeRiggi ran around his own right end for a 74 yard run to the Grove City 25. However, Clarion lost the ball on downs after that.

On the next series of plays, Grove City could not make the first down and went to punt, but the center sailed the ball over the punters' head with Clarion recovering the ball on the visitor's 11.

Jim Levey carried for five yards on the first play, then carried for another five yards to get the first down.

On the next play reserve quarterback Mike Zaccari, on a quarterback sneak, carried the ball over from the one-yarder for the score. Zaccari's PAT was wide to the left and the score was 22-6, Clarion.

Grove City received the ball but had to punt with Clarion taking over on their own 35. The key play for the next TD was Zaccari connecting with Harry Notto for a 14 yard pass.

On the next three downs, the ball was carried to the visitor's one-yard line where Zaccari went over on a QB sneak. The PAT was good and Clarion led 29-6.

Setting the stage for Clarion's final tally of the day came when linebacker Bob Buriak intercepted a Grove City pass on their 30.

Harry Notto capped the 30 yard drive with a one-yard TD plunge. Zaccari's PAT was good and the final score read, Clarion 36, Grove City 6.

The Clarion State College gridsters travel to Lock Haven State College today to tangle in their first Pennsylvania State College Conference tilt of the season with the Bald Eagles at 2 p.m.

Just how bald the footballers of Lock Haven will be after the tilt remains to be seen. With Lock Haven under the capable guidance of head mentor Hubert Jack, anything is possible.

Jack welcomed 21 returning lettermen to practice on the first day with a host of promising underclassmen also out.

Losing only one letterman, Lou Mascaro, in the backfield, the Bald Eagles' secondary is well set.

Meade Johnson returned for his third year at quarterback while Bob Gutshall, Chris Klingner and Kent Schlopy are supplying most of the ground power.

Veteran linemen Rich Bieda, Mike Minnucci, and Jim Shimp form the nucleus on the forward wall. Dave Rhoades at 260 pounds will give the squad added insurance on the line for Lock Haven. Joe Pascale, one of the country's leading pass receivers, returns to scamper around in Clarion's secondary.

With its biggest, fastest and most experienced starting unit in recent years, Lock Haven could make a lot of noise in the Pennsylvania State Conference before November rolls around. Clarion hopes to muffle the noise before it starts.

Head coach Hubert Jack is in his 19th season at Lock Haven. To date his teams have won 86, tied 7, and lost 64 varsity games.

Last year Clarion shutout Lock Haven, 27-0, before a capacity crowd at CSC's Homecoming. It was the third straight shut out for Clarion last year.

Clarion has won eight, lost four, and tied one, in the series which originated in 1928.

The Golden Eagles have beaten Grove City and lost to Ithaca. Meanwhile, Lock Haven defeated Bloomsburg and lost to California.

Robbe Named Representative

Charles Robbe, assistant professor of Social Studies, has been named as Clarion State College's representative to the Faculty Institute for International Studies by Dr. James Gemmell, president of Clarion, and recently presented a program at the Institute's Seminar.

The Institute was created through the aid of the Ford Foundation, and is administered through the Regional Council for International Education at the University of Pittsburgh. The Institute was created for the purpose of strengthening the academic background of faculty in different areas of the World. The area to be studied in 1964-65 is Asia.

The Institute will meet with and encourage other colleges in initiating courses in history, culture, and politics of Asiatic nations, and aid individual faculty in preparing outlines for the courses.

Professor Robbe presented his program at Theil College in Greenville, on September 24. He will be covering three areas: The making and use of a course syllabus, which is an outline explaining the course; the use of educational films in the course; the use of educated, observant travelers in the lectures.

Well qualified in this area, Professor Robbe has spent 7 years preparing his own syllabus for a course in the History of Asia, and has taught his own classes in the same manner he will be presenting at the seminar.

A Peek at Greeks

THETA CHI

With the present academic year just underway, the brothers of Theta Chi would like to welcome back the upperclassmen and extend a warm greeting to the incoming Freshman class. We would also like to congratulate the football team for its fine performance against Grove City, and wish them the best of luck for a prosperous season.

With the newly innovated, pre-planned social program, the brotherhood is anticipating a highly successful year. We believe that the combo party held at the house last Saturday is a strong indication of future activity. The party, which featured the "Argyles," was deemed a success by the many who attended. In addition to a complete social program the brothers have acquired new livingroom furniture and have begun extensive interior work in order to improve the overall appearance of the house.

Best of luck to Brothers Cargo and Bond, who are student teaching this semester. Also to Brother Ed Neville, who is now attending W. V. U., and to Brother Taraphack, who is doing graduate work at Ohio U.

ALPHA CHI RHO

On September 7, Brothers Dan John and Glenn Roadman flew to New York to attend the National Convention of Alpha Chi Rho. They returned to Greater Pittsburgh Airport on September 12. While at the convention they acquired much information that will aid our chapter.

We wish to express good luck and much success to the following Brothers, who are doing their student teaching this semester: Dennis Kanouff, Ken Rigby, Lou Labino, Rick Richards, and Chuck Klamer. We also wish good luck and success to Brother David Blisard, who transferred to Penn State, where he is studying pre-law.

The "Crows" are proud to announce that Brother Denny Ramyer was elected vice president of I. F. C. Brother Ken Roadman was appointed corresponding secretary, replacing Brother Blisard, and Brother John Switzer was appointed assistant treasurer.

The "Crows", united with the college student body, wish good luck to the Clarion Golden Eagles and Coach Al Jacks.

THETA XI

This September the Brotherhood moved into the addition to their house located across the street from Davis Hall. Our official open house festivities will be held on Homecoming, October 10, starting at 9 a.m. All students, their parents, friends and faculty are invited to attend.

The Brothers are looking forward to another exciting year in intramural competition. This semester we have teams entered in football, soccer, volleyball, and bowling. Good luck, Brothers!

We would like to congratulate the Interfraternity and Panhellenic Councils for their combined efforts in the lawn display for Homecoming. It is only through such cooperation that Homecoming can continue to be the highlight of the fall semester.

We wish continued success to Coach Jacks and his football squad.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

President Adele Campbell, who was accompanied by the membership chairman, Karen Martz, had a pleasurable and informative trip to Miami Beach, Florida, this past summer at the Zeta Tau Alpha National Convention. The members are hoping that through this recently obtained knowledge they will be better enabled to function as a sisterhood.

Chris Stevens was presented with a trophy for being Miss Congeniality in the Miss Bucks County Contest this past summer. Congratulations!

White violets are extended to Barbara Keller, who has recently joined the majorettes.

Best wishes are extended to our thirteen sisters who are student teaching this semester.

White violets are also extended to Vivian Kramer, who was recently elected Chairman of the Referral Board.

A sincere welcome is extended to our fall pledges: Peggy Brammer, Sandy Carlin, Barbara Koch, Peggy Lou Norris, and Linda Ralston. Congratulations!

Plans are now being made for an outing at the cabin of our sister, Patty Blain. The sisters anticipate a day of boating, water skiing, and an evening of entertainment and refreshments.

We wish to thank Dan Pruz, Jay Santore, and Tom Weaver for extending their services in providing transportation for the officers to Thiel where they initiated forty-five new members into the sorority. Thank you.

We are pleased to see Dr. William Paige recovering from his recent illness and are wishing him a speedy recovery.

The sisters wish to congratulate the Golden Eagles and their coaches for their recent victory, and wish them a continuing successful season. Good luck!

Theatre Season

tation of American theatre. It is an honest, moving, and courageous drama that holds your attention right up to its touching ending. It tells the tale of two Columbia students rooming together in New York: Doug is white, a young rebel, fearful of doing anything that will stamp him with the mark of conformity; Paul is a Negro, attractive, and a good student. Doug falls in love, but to his distaste discovers that the girl has once been in love with his roommate, Paul. Shurtleff endows his characters with a sense of humor and the gift of laughter; they are highly individualized and sensitively characterized. It is truly a play written with skill, and a play that has something to say.

The Visit was chosen as a representation of German theatre. The story of the play begins when an incredibly wealthy woman returns to her hometown. The town is in economic trouble, and the townmaster hopes the lady will come to their aid. She does, but there is one condition, she wants the life of a villager who in the past caused her to be expelled from the town in disgrace. The play shows the corruption of everyone in the town. This is truly a devastating drama; one of the most disquieting plays of our time.

The final production for the year, will be Blood Wedding, illustrating Spanish theatre. It is a powerfully passionate modern tragedy which has won fame all over the world as one of the world's better dramatic, lyrical works.

This season, besides the presentation of International Theatre, the Studio Players group will produce several experimental dramas. Also, one act plays will be directed by the students in the field of Speech and Dramatic Arts. There will be sixteen of these plays produced this semester. The College Players, Studio Players, and College-Community Players are striving to present an educational, entertaining, and exciting season of dramatic performances.

New Depts; Heads Named

The Board of Trustees at Clarion State College has approved the establishment of two new academic departments at the College, and the appointment of two administrative positions.

In the first action, R. R. Whitmer, president of the Board, announced the establishment of a Department of Physical Science with Dr. Donald D. Peirce named as department head, and the Department of Biological Science with Dr. Bruce Dinsmore as head.

This action was taken to reflect the broadened scope of science in the College's program of studies, and is expected to promote better balance in the development of the major divisions of science.

In their other action, the Board approved the appointment of Dr. David A. Hilton as Administrative Assistant to the President. Dr. Hilton's responsibility will be to coordinate the central administrative activities of the College, relating to college relations, development, and research contracts. Dr. Hilton comes to Clarion from Detroit, where he served on the faculties of Wayne State University and Highland Park Junior College. During the past year he served in Pakistan as Fulbright Lecturer in Chemistry.

The Trustees also approved the appointment of Dr. C. J. Shontz as Administrative Assistant to the Dean of Instruction. Dr. Shontz will aid the Dean in handling much of the administrative work of that office, which has grown rapidly with the enrollment and curriculum expansions at Clarion. In addition, Dr. Shontz will continue to devote part of his time to teaching in the Department of Biological Science.

Greeks Withdraw

presenting this issue before the Chamber of Commerce.

According to the fraternities, no further communication was received from Mr. Troese till the very end of the semester, the last day of exams. He wanted a meeting with all the presidents, but a majority of them had left for the summer. Mr. Troese, however, has said that there were several communications, but nothing was settled.

This semester, however, brought new light on the subject. The first meeting between I. F. C. and Mr. Troese ended as a general discussion, with nothing decided. At this meeting the Greeks restated their position unanimously. After this, I. F. C. officially contacted Pan Hel and got their full support and backing. Also, at this time they received the support of Dr. James Gemmell, president of the college. Dr. Gemmell commented on the long term relationship between the students and the Festival, but concluded that the organizations were free to do as they pleased.

It is interesting to note that at a meeting with the Theta Xi fraternity this semester, Mr. Troese tried to persuade them to change their minds. He would say nothing except to say that they couldn't go along with all the issues. He has been said to have commented that without the Greek floats, the parade will be shortened about an hour.

As an explanation for these actions, the president of the Interfraternity Council, Dennis Gelvin has made this statement: "The Greeks have taken this stand with the hope of having an improved parade in future years. We feel that the causes and reasons of withdrawing are justified."

DR JAMES H. HANFORD, famed authority and scholar on the English poet Milton, who held departmental seminars and a public lecture on "The Living Milton" last week at CSC.

Art Workshop Held At CSC

Joseph R. Spence, Head of the Clarion State College Art Department, announced that students enrolled in art department courses, College Demonstration School teachers, and art teachers from this area participated in a two-hour art workshop last week.

The workshop, conducted by Miss Polly Arthurs, art consultant for the Bemiss-Jason Paper Company, featured demonstrations of the uses of corrugated, fadeless, and tissue papers for both classroom application and personal expression.

The uses of corobuff, a relatively new medium, were presented to show the diversity of expression possible. Methods of scoring and the production of basic shapes were developed in a clear and effective manner. Miss Arthurs also demonstrated the application of this visual material for bulletin board preparation, block printing techniques, three dimensional construction, and mural activities.

Fadeless all-purpose paper was used to show the broad scope of possibilities with a common material. Paper sculpture techniques, the making of monographs, printing with gem-o-lite, and crayon etching procedures were some of the approaches presented.

The use of colored tissue papers for collage work, printing, three-dimensional construction, mobiles, and seasonal activities were well received by the participants. A new material for art production, tissue papers in a broad color range of fer unusual creative possibilities with modest cost.

Miss Arthurs proved to be an experienced and helpful consultant. She received her A. B. degree from Catawaba College and was awarded an M. A. from Columbia University. She served as Art Supervisor for ten years in the Portsmouth, Virginia, public schools, and has taught extension classes for the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Virginia. Aside from her valuable consultative activities, she is recognized as a painter in her own right. Her paintings have been exhibited in the Norfolk Museum of Fine Arts, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, and the Gibb Gallery of Charleston, South Carolina.

The workshop, sponsored by the Clarion College Art Department, was secured through the courtesy of Kurtz Brothers, school supply firm of Clearfield, Pennsylvania.

Robbe on Commission

Professor Robbe's Asian study program at Clarion consists of three presentations. One is an introduction to the history of Asia in the Course "Twentieth Century World History." The other two courses are "The History of the Near East," and "The History of the Far East."

CSC Hosts 'Lively Ones' On October 20

The "Lively Ones" are coming....The "Lively Ones" are coming to Clarion State College to be even more exact....at 8 p.m. on October 20, the "Folk and Jazz Wing Ding" will wing its way to Clarion Area High School Auditorium for an evening of superior musical entertainment, sponsored by Clarion College Students' Association.

The featured performers will be the Serendipity Singers and George Shearing Quintet.

Direct from hit appearances on ABC's "Hootenanny", and headlining engagements at New York's "Bitter End" and Chicago's "Mr. Kelly's" come the remarkable Serendipity Singers, a group of seven boys and two girls who will keep you singing and clapping throughout one of the most uniquely exciting musical evenings of the year. If you have found yourself humming "Crooked Little Man" and "Beans in Your Ears" blame it on the unexpected discovery of a new and happy event called the Serendipity Singers.

The velvet and satin sound of George Shearing and his Quintet have made him one of the most consistent best sellers in the recording industry, and the biggest crowd-draw in the history of jazz. Among his memorable contributions to the music world are such all-time favorites as "September in the Rain" and "Lullaby of Birdland". He has been named No. 1 pianist in a dozen nations, including Japan, France, Australia, Germany, and South Africa; and has won every trade and disc-jockey poll of any significance, some of them as many as seven times.

The Ford Motor Company is underwriting this concert series, which is presently touring the U.S. and appearing at the leading colleges.

The concert will be open to the public after 7:45. Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., chairman of the Clarion State College Concert-Lecture Series, has announced.

Disciplinary Holds Initial Meeting of Year

The Clarion Disciplinary Board held its initial meeting of the semester last week to consider two cases.

In the first case, a male student, 21 years of age, was brought in for a disturbance in his residence hall. He had been drinking downtown and became noisy and ill upon entering his room. The Board decided to have him report to the Chairman for reprimand and final warning. The Board statement promised definite, serious consequences in the event of another incident involving the student.

Another man had been arrested for violation of a Borough ordinance. He had been in a local tavern, as a minor, and created a disturbance over his change at the bar. The student did not produce identification and was arrested. He pleaded guilty at his hearing. The College Board voted on a strong reprimand, impressing the strong degree of penalty for future violations.

Clarion Expands Music Program

Dr. Robert Van Meter, acting head of the Music Department, recently announced the development of expanded curriculum offerings in the Music Department at Clarion State College. The new program consists of a major in the Humanities (under Liberal Arts) with a field of specialization in music.

Dr. Van Meter termed this broadened curriculum "a significant and meaningful sequence in music...a blending of the traditional courses with a focus on the treasures of musical literature, emphasizing the historical, philosophical, and theoretical development of music." He noted that this particular program "provides a broad liberal arts background with a music specialty to educate private teachers, professional musicians, community music leaders, and people concerned with the business end of music; such as television music directors, personnel for radio, movies, and record companies."

The newly-developed curriculum has a sequence of core courses in a five-consecutive-semester program in which the various disciplines of music are coordinated. It acquaints the students with a much wider range of music, as they engage in the applied areas of music as well as the theoretical.

The second phase of this curriculum has the students choosing elective subjects and studying further into their particular areas of specialization and interest, such as choral, operatic, orchestral, keyboard. The teacher-preparation portion of the program will not be engulfed by the additional liberal arts curriculum, Dr. Van Meter explained. This expanded curriculum will, in part, satisfy the urgent need for more elementary education majors having a strong understanding of music.

Future plans call for a balanced program with an eventual major in elementary and secondary education, music education, and a music major in liberal arts. These will dovetail into a complete Music Department at the college.

Clarion State College is presently the only state college in Pennsylvania granting a liberal arts degree with a field of concentration in music. A strong program of recruitment has been instituted

'Beggar's Opera' Will Open Wed., October 21

The Broadway musical comedy team of Eleanor Edie and Larry Pool will appear with Clarion State College's College Players in "The Beggar's Opera," with the show being presented October 21, 22, 23, and 24 at 8:30 p.m. each evening in the College Chapel Theatre.

Mr. Pool and Miss Edie have worked together in several Broadway and road productions. Their most recent assignment was for Abe Burrows in the touring show, "How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying," and later on in the summer season on Broadway in the New York version of the show. Miss Edie appeared as an executive secretary and standby for the leading role. Mr. Pool appeared in several standby roles vacated by other leading performers. They took a leave-of-absence this year to perform as co-stars in a festival memorial to Shakespeare in the "Taming of the Shrew" produced at the University of Denver, where they both started their acting careers.

Other recent productions in which they have featured roles are: "Destry Rides Again," "West Side Story," and "Subways Are for Sleeping." Mr. Pool also doubles in brass as a Stage Manager and has been on "Gypsy," "I Can Get It For You Wholesale," "Damn Yankees," and numerous trade shows for industry in that capacity.

Miss Edie also has worked separately in such shows as "Lady in the Dark," "Maggie," "Home is the Hero," "Othello," "Damn Yankees," "Bells Are Ringing," "Most Happy Fella," and with Dan Dailey in his package show of "Burlesque."

Editorially Speaking

The indifference and laziness which has struck down the student body at Clarion has apparently permeated the ranks of the Clarion Call. Except for a few eager freshmen, very few students' faces seem to stop in the Call office for work assignments. The attitude is summed up with "I'll be glad to help a little, if it doesn't take too much time . . . I don't have the time for any responsibility."

When the editor is forced to resign from her position of responsibility due to personal and academic reasons, where does she turn for a successor? The advice-givers and assistants of last year suddenly become extremely busy and can't devote the time to the job. Others are perhaps willing to work now, but have never demonstrated it in the past. Where does she turn?

Surely there must be a qualified student on this campus who isn't too lazy or indifferent to be editor of the Call. If one is not found by Spring, the future of the Clarion Call is quite honestly in very grave doubt. For the present, the staff, working under the Advisor, who will be interim editor, will continue to publish the Call.

This apathy-turned-to-indifferent-laziness is quite a feather in the cap of the fourth largest State college in Pennsylvania. It's something we can all look back on, and something of which to be very proud.

Campus Post

The CALL received two replies to the letter in the last issue which blasted the Freshman custom's program. Neither letter was signed; therefore neither will be printed. ALL letters must be signed on the original copy submitted for publication. Names will be withheld if you request this. However, your signed original must be in our file. We will not consider unsigned letters!

Students, Surely somewhere out there among our mature and sagacious student body there dwells some people with a minimum of photographic knowledge. Isn't there someone who has some knowledge of taking pictures with a camera other than a Kodak Baby Brownie? Somebody has a working knowledge of darkroom equipment and how to use it—doesn't somebody? I'm willing to trade hard, Yankee dollars for such people. Since the semester began I've been trying to hire photographers and darkroom people to work for the public relations department—for pay!!! All I ask is a little experience, not 5 years on the New York Times, or experience as a Life staff photographer.

If anyone who would like the work reads this final gasping plea for help—please stop in to see me.

J. DAVID TRUBY

Director of Public Relations

in the area high schools to attract the type of student desired in this program.

This recruiting has involved many performances by C.S.C. musical groups in these schools. The appearances of the band, the choir, and the performance of orchestral productions have afforded the Music Department much well-deserved praise and publicity coverage.

Dr. Van Meter added, in conclusion, that the department anticipates a great growth in this expanded music program—one that will strengthen considerably the existing music program at the college."

Dr. Moses serves as P.S.A. Area Speech Consultant. Dr. Hufford serves on the P.S.A. Rhetoric and Public Address Committee. Professor Hoover serves on the P. S. A. Convention Resolutions Committee.

Venango News

This year twenty girls from the Venango Campus live at the Oil City School of Nursing at 202 East Bissell Avenue. They occupy 20 single rooms on the top floor of the four-story building. Each floor has a lounge with a refrigerator and stove where the girls can prepare breakfast and snacks.

On the first floor there is a recreation lounge with a television and Hi-Fi. It also contains several tables and chairs, and a "Coke" machine. In one part of the building on the first floor there is an auditorium that seats 120 people. It has a piano and a ping-pong table. Near the auditorium there is a library that is used as a study by the college students. There are three small rooms near the lobby that are date rooms. All the facilities of the building are open to the Venango Campus girls.

The building was finished in May of 1958. It has accommodations for eighty students. Living quarters are on the second, third, and fourth floors. On the ground floor are two classrooms and two laboratories used by the nursing students.

A bus provided by the Meadville City Lines is available for transportation to and from the campus and for special events at the school.

The girls are under the supervision of Miss Ruth E. Benfield, the director of the School of Nursing.

CSC Marching Band Plays At Lock Haven

The Clarion State Golden Eagle Marching Band completed another in their series of successful tours, as 80 band members traveled to Lock Haven to give their usual excellent performance by participating in Lock Haven's Homecoming Festivities two weeks ago.

The Golden Eagle Marching Band proved to be the largest marching unit in the two-hour parade and its performance, according to Lock Haven officials, gave Clarion students something of which to be very proud.

Ginny Collett's performance as Clarion's newly selected Golden Girl made a very marked impression upon those in attendance at the parade and game. Her attractive outfit and polished twirling ability merited the admiration and respect which she received.

The band cheered the football team on to a close victory and was the mainstay in school spirit behind the team on this long road trip. The cheerleaders led the band in cheers as the band participated in half-time activities at the game and presented a well-practiced program for the approval of the large Homecoming audience.

The band returned Sunday afternoon after the completion of an enjoyable and successful weekend.

A breakdown of the band membership shows that it is fairly evenly divided between men and women, as there are 42 male members and 46 female members.

In addition, there are 9 seniors, 16 juniors, 33 sophomores, and 30 freshmen. The distribution by curriculum shows 34 in Elementary Education, 35 in Secondary, 8 in Library Science, and 11 in Liberal Arts.

There are 88 members in the Marching Band this year.

4 CSC Students Awarded Grants

Four Clarion State College students, three men and a woman, have been selected by the Theta Xi Educational Foundation of Pittsburgh to receive Theta Xi Scholarships for the school year.

Miss Patricia Patch of Gibsonia, William Nabors of McKeesport, Robert Nichols of Oakmont, and Dan John of 216 Sixth Street in Monaca, were awarded the $125 scholarships.

The Theta Xi Foundation awards four scholarships annually to cover a semester's tuition. Two of the scholarships go to members of Theta Xi Fraternity, while the other two are open to any student in good standing at Clarion.

CSC Bows, 14-7; Fight Mars Tilt

After losing a hard-fought conference game to Edinboro State College, Clarion's head coach, Al Jacks, is preparing his Golden Eagles for the highly-rated Indiana State College Indians today, at home with game time slated for 2 p.m.

According to many soothsayers and coaches of the State College Conference, the Big Indians of Indiana State College are predicted to win the honors this year.

A lead coach named Chuck Klausning, who has an outstanding record of 58 wins and 2 losses as a head coach in high school and college, is one of the reasons the oddsmakers pick the Indians.

Despite Indiana's loss to tough Waynesburg last Saturday, 19-13, Klausning's boys are expected to bounce back and provide a rough contest for Clarion.

Indiana still has an excellent record in four wins and one loss. They head the Western State College Conference ahead of Slippery Rock and California State Colleges.

Meanwhile, Clarion State College holds a 2-2 slate, losing to Ithaca and Edinboro, while winning over Lock Haven and Grove City.

Coach Jacks is expected to go all out against Indiana as it is the Eagle's biggest game of the year, according to a college spokesman. Clarion hopes to be a Spoiler.

The starting lineup for Indiana is as follows: Belissimo and Adioria at ends; Epley and Lippencott at tackles; Panaia and Ross at guards; Schrock, center; Watson, quarterback; Duffalo and Moul, halfbacks; and Cessna, fullback.

Last year Indiana upended Clarion, 34-0.

VanMeter Heads Department

Dr. Robert S. VanMeter, associate professor of Music at Clarion State College, has been named acting head of that department by Dr. James Gemmell, president.

Dr. VanMeter came to Clarion last year from Central Michigan University, where he had been assistant professor of Music. Previously he had been Music Instructor at Hastings College in Nebraska.

A graduate of the Juillard School of Music in 1950, Dr. VanMeter earned his M.S. degree from the same institution the following year. He received his Doctoral degree from Indiana University in 1962.

Active in other areas, he was a private teacher of piano for seven years and held piano recitals in several major American cities.

Later this month, Dr. VanMeter will go to St. Louis to play for a testimonial dinner honoring one of Missouri's best known music educators, Miss Estelle L. Windhorst, who taught in Missouri for many years and who also worked for the Columbia Record Company.

Sisters Marianne Barnhart, Becky Easton, Sue Gilcrest, Jan Mitchell, Dot Pavlock, and Nancy Schneider are student teaching this semester. The sisters wish them the best of luck and hope to see them next semester.

Best wishes to our sister, Gloria Ravera, who is a student resident at Given this year.

The Beta Chi sisters hope that Mrs. Robinson has a speedy recovery from her illness.

Continued success to Sister Kathy Hewston and the debate team in Philadelphia on October 17.

The current projects that the sisters are involved in are the selling of Greek glasses and CSC pennants.

DELTA ZETA

The Delta Zeta Sorority would like to congratulate the sisters who were members of the 1964 Homecoming Court. They are Cheri Picadio, Senior representative; Toni Martinelli, Junior representative; and Elaine Daniels, Sophomore representative. An extra special D Z congratulation goes to our sister, Barb Blackburn, Clarion's Homecoming Queen.

The Alumni Tea held by the sisters on Homecoming was a great success. Present were the active members, their parents, our sponsors, and our special guests, the Delta Zeta Alumni.

An invitation to an open house in the D Z suite is extended to all freshmen women. It will be held after the Panhell Tea on Oct. 26.

This year, as in previous years, the sisters will be participating in the annual candy drive for the children of Polk. The drive is scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 28.

Good luck to the Clarion Eagles in their game against Indiana State today.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

The brothers of Sigma Tau Gamma would like to thank all those who attended the Homecoming Open House on October 10. The brothers were especially glad to see the return of over 65 alumni. A special note of appreciation goes out to Social Chairman Mike Donovan and Brothers John Cuthbertson and Bob Caldwell for their efforts in making the Homecoming party and the open house a success. Brother Donovan is already making plans for a Roaring Twenties Party.

The brothers are happy to see the Sig Tau intermural football team in second place with a 5-1 record. Good luck and keep up the good work brothers.

Preparations are now well underway for the initiation of the fall pledge class.

Congratulations to Brother Al Lynch on being initiated into Phi Sigma Pi Honorary Fraternity.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

Since this is our first year on campus, here are a few facts about our fraternity. It was founded in 1873 at the University of Massachusetts. It has grown to 78 active chapters across the country and numbering among these are the ones at Penn State, East Stroudsburg, Waynesburg, and West Virginia. At the present time we are only a colony, but we are looking forward to our initiation near the end of the academic year into the chapterhood of Phi Sigma Kappa.

We would like to send out our warm thanks to our new advisors, Mr. Joy and Mr. Brupbacher.

On September 1, Brother Wes Semple was initiated into the brotherhood of Phi Sigma Kappa in Los Angeles, California. He was the guest of the fraternity at their National Convention and gained information which will help in the growth of the colony here at Clarion.

The brothers of Phi Sigma Kappa wish the Golden Eagles and Coach Al Jacks good luck in the remaining games.

THETA XI

The brothers of Theta Xi would like to express their thanks to all students and faculty who attended our open house. We give special thanks to our Theta Xi Queen, Miss Marilyn Heilman. The brothers express their thanks to Tom George for his fine performance as chairman of our Homecoming activities.

The brotherhood congratulates Brothers Frank Stewart on his election to Senior Class President, and Tom George on his election to Senior Class Treasurer.

Congratulations to Barbara Blackburn and her court for their fine representation of Clarion State College as Homecoming Queen and attendants.

To Coach Jacks and the football team, we say BEAT INDIANA!

Senate Fills Busy Slate

The Student Senate met October 13, in the Student Government room. Present were: President Gene Hauman, Vice President Earl Wensel, and Senators Linda Addis, Peggy Brammer, Dennis Gelvin, Thomas George, Gerald Marterer, Dennis Sheraw, and Janet Susa. Present also were Advisors Dr. Rishel and Mr. Duffy, and visitors Mr. Edward Roncone and Carla Burgason.

Mr. Edward Roncone, Clarion Area Symphony Orchestra Director, attended the meeting to answer questions concerning allocation of funds to the organization. After the question-answer session, Mr. Roncone left and discussion followed. Earl Wensel made the following motion: "I move that the Student Senate not allocate any funds to the Clarion Area Symphony Orchestra for the year of 1964-65." Tom George seconded the motion; a question was called and roll call vote followed. Those for: Addis, Gelvin, George, Susa, Wensel. Those against: Brammer, Sheraw. Abstention, Marterer. The motion was carried.

President Hauman introduced the topic of courtesy tickets to the Concert Lecture Committee's presentations and read the list of allocations of those tickets.

A stand will be set up in the Administration Building to collect money for the J.F.K. Library Fund instead of using the previous plan of collecting the money at football games.

The Car Committee requested additional time to study their problem.

The Cafeteria Committee reported that the problem in the cafeteria has been taken care of.

Mr. Duffy explained the University of Pittsburgh's Association of Unions Convention which six senators were planning to attend. Due to lack of funds and the consideration that other trips in the future would be more advantageous, he recommended that the Senators send a lesser amount of delegates, or not attend this particular convention. Peggy Brammer made the following motion: "I move that we do not send any representatives to the Student Union Convention in Pittsburgh." Marterer seconded the motion and discussion followed. The question was called. Those for: Addis, Brammer, George, Marterer, Susa, Wensel. None against. Abstaining: Gelvin and Sheraw. The motion was carried.

President Hauman yielded the floor to Earl Wensel for consideration of several budget requests. President Gemmell requested a $400 rubberized canvas cover for the new score board, but recommended holding this matter for later.

Speech and Hearing Sets 1964-65 Program

The Speech and Hearing Society of Clarion State College lists an active program of events for the 1964-1965 terms.

The Society has received word from the national office of Sigma Alpha Eta, honorary professional fraternity in Speech and Hearing, that they will receive their charter in November 1964 at the National Convention in San Francisco and will be known as the Gamma Phi Chapter of Sigma Alpha Eta.

The fraternity encourages college students to become interested in the field of speech and hearing rehabilitation; encourages professional growth through various learning experiences not offered in the formal course of study; encourages a spirit of unity among those interested in this profession by providing situations in which students and faculty may work together as a team to advance the profession as a whole, and inspires high levels of achievement in academic and clinical activities.

24 Hour Staff On Duty At New Infirmary

On October 19, 1964, Dr. Darrell F. Rishel, Dean of Students, and Mr. Joseph Spence, director of development at Clarion State College, announced the opening and full-time operation of the college's new infirmary.

This medical service center, located in Egbert Hall, is open on a 24-hour, 7-day basis, with registered nurses on duty at all times.

The installment of this center necessitated the reconversion of all rooms on the first floor of the Hall, with the exception of the office of the Dean of Students. In addition to the dispensary outpatient service, which has been provided in past years, a ten-room bed station with lavatory facilities is presently available.

Some of the policies to be followed by the new infirmary are:

1. The college physician holds office hours for out-patient service between 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m., Monday through Friday. (Routine visits to infirmary patients will be made as required.)

2. Day (commuting) students have the same infirmary services and privileges as on-campus resident students. However, neither the college nurses nor the physician can make house calls off-campus.

3. Resident students should come to the infirmary for treatment if at all possible. Nurses will call at residence halls only in emergencies, and then, only after arrangements have been made for someone to be present in the infirmary and answer the telephone during the nurse's absence. An escort must be provided for the nurse after 11:00 p.m.

4. A parental permission form must be on file in the infirmary before a minor student can be treated by the staff of the Student Health Service.

Concerning admittance to the infirmary:

1. Students with simple, non-complicated illnesses may be admitted to the infirmary by the college physician, college nurses, or by any personal physician retained by the student. (In the latter case, admittance must be approved by the college physician.)

2. Once admitted, students will be released from the infirmary only by a signed statement from a responsible member of the family, the family physician, or the college physician or nurse. Students who are twenty-one years of age or older may sign their own release.

Concerning medical service fees:

A charge of $3.00 per day will be assessed to all non-boarding students to cover meal cost. An additional charge of $1.00 shall be assessed to all students for each day beyond three days as a patient in the infirmary during the academic year. Students will be charged for all consultations with other medical specialists or consulting physicians and for any medicines not stocked by the infirmary. They have the privilege of employing their own physician at personal expense if they desire. If, in case of serious illness or injury, the nurse or college physician believes transportation is necessary to the infirmary or to a local or home hospital, such transportation will be provided, with the expense borne by the student.

Mr. Joseph Spence, Director of College Development, termed the opening of the campus infirmary "representative of a sizable achievement for our students."

Who Are These Unitarians and Universalists?

Unitarians and Universalists believe the striving to live nobly and constructively more important than the accepting of religious creeds.

Unitarians and Universalists are convinced that religious truth cannot be contrary to truth from any other source.

Unitarians and Universalists offer a religious program for children and adults of all cultures, with reason as our guide, and service as our aim.

They further believe that "the great end in religious education is not to stamp our minds irresistibly on the young but to stir up their own."

CROOKS SHOES

Editorially Speaking

Recent news stories from Harrisburg tell us that our busy bureaucrats are going to "study" and "investigate" the financial "situations" at the 14 State colleges.

When are these paper shufflers, red tape artists, and students going to realize the State colleges have been studied to death? When will someone finally get around to some ACTION? Are the students of the 14 State colleges always going to have to share crowded residence hall rooms with extra roommates and cockroaches?

The students of the 14 State colleges are tired of having livestock accommodations while students in private colleges, which freely obtain State tax money also, live first class. The officers and faculty of the State colleges are weary from begging the State to relax the choking grip of bureaucratic control over their finances. Pennsylvanians are starting to raise their eyebrows over the big giveaway of tax money to the private colleges, while the State-owned, public colleges grumble for their "here today, gone tomorrow" dole from the Budget Office.

Yes, Harrisburg is going to "study" the situation. This is smoke-screen talk that means they still intend to do nothing. We hope the Legislature has enough guts to do something for the 14 State colleges of Pennsylvania.

It's time someone in Harrisburg got off their big, fat indifference and started some ACTION toward a realistic and practical solution to the case of the "State Colleges vs. Harrisburg." In our book, clearly an open and shut case of non-support.

One administrator recently remarked on the quiet nature of the campus this year. Everyone seems to be buckling down to his or her studies. The noise in the men's residences seems to be nearly inaudible this year. The general attitude of the student body seems to be one of reserve, quiet, and moderation. Emotion has been kept down to a minimum. People are not letting controversy bother them in the least. Why, one can say most anything these days and get away with it unscathed. So far there hasn't been a single "letter to the editor" on any controversy, local or otherwise. There seems to be quite a wholesome conformity and complacency surrounding the whole campus. What better atmosphere could one desire? It is almost monastic.

One could not conclude other than that most everyone is very satisfied, very content, sort of like a herd of cows chewing lazily on their cud. It seems that not even a potent bull can stir these cows. Is it that the cows are sterile? Let us hope not. Let's hope, at least, it is nothing as permanent as sterility.

"WE, THE STUDENTS...."

By WAYNE HARPER

They told me not to do it.

"You can't open your mouth in this school," they said. "You'll get cut to shreds by the administration and your teachers." "Why do you think we have the mouse?" they asked me. "To voice our opinions for us, that's why. He states our views under the cape of anonymity and no one gets hurt." "The mouse accomplished a heck of a lot last year!" they told me. When I asked them what he actually accomplished, no one could tell me.

So I voiced my opinion on the subject.

"How in the world can even the students, let alone the administration, respect anything that is afraid to show itself?" I asked. "And how can anything that nobody respects accomplish anything?" Let's face it folks, the mouse is cute, but functional he is not.

What would be functional is a legitimate complaint department, where we, the students, could voice our opinions openly, and at the same time not be afraid of having our grades slashed to death by our various teachers. Now all we need are complaints, or opinions, or even praise concerning any subject at all. And we need them from US, the students.

Don't worry, your name won't appear unless you allow it to. I'm the scapegoat, and if anyone's grades get cut, they'll be mine, not yours. But the only way for this column to work is for us to back it. And what will happen if we, the students, as a body, back this type of thing? I think we could accomplish one hell of a lot this way. The administration would have to listen to us if we came up with a legitimate gripe. Why? Because we're voicing our complaint in the open and as a body, that's why.

Don't forget, people, this is our column, so let's get behind it, dammit! Well, I guess that's all I have to say for now. Let me know how you feel about things. See you in two weeks.

Simmons Named Broadcast ETV Director

Dr. Harold Simmons, director of Professional Studies at the college, has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Allegheny Educational Broadcast Council.

The Council will administer and disseminate educational television programming into the schools and colleges of this area, utilizing the facilities of WPSX, the educational station at Penn State.

Dr. Simmons had previously served on the interim Board of Directors last year. His current appointment is permanent.

APPEARING AT CSC . . . Drew Pearson, controversial national columnist, will bring his views on national and international events to campus. Pearson will speak Tuesday, November 10, at 8 p.m., in the High School Auditorium, a guest of the Concert-Lecture program.

An audience vote taken at the conclusion of a parliamentary debate held in the College Chapel this week indicated that the majority of the audience was opposed to Senator Barry Goldwater becoming President.

By a slim margin of seven votes, the majority of the audience of about 400 persons rejected the proposal "This house looks forward to Senator Goldwater's inauguration in January."

A spokesman reported that 167 people voted for the resolution, while 174 voted against it. He also commented that many did not vote. The total audience, made up mainly of students, but including a few faculty and townspeople, was estimated at 400 people.

Dr. Hugh S. Park of the English faculty proposed the motion, and Mr. Jay Vanbruggen of the Social Science department opposed it. Jean Elliot and Jan Callen, student members of the college debate team, gave seconding speeches for and against the motion respectively.

After the main speeches on each side of the motion, the debate was thrown open for speeches from the floor. Floor speeches were limited to three minutes in length. At the conclusion of the floor speeches, each of the principle speakers was given five minutes to summarize, and the vote was taken.

AND I DON'T AGREE WITH YOUR EDITORIALS WHICH I NEVER READ

Believe me, My dear Editor, I find your newspaper a bore. It's biased, poorly put together, and always misses on the weather. The comic pages are not funny and all those ads—they cost me money!

You have too many world reports. Why don't you give more space to sports? Please print more news by local staff-ers.

And banish so-called paragraphers. Society I'd do without, But that's not what my gripe's about:

Your paper boy, I must complain,

Has passed me up today again,

Forgetting the delivery

And ruining my day for me.

Discipline Board Handles Charges

Two male students appeared before the College Disciplinary Board last week on charges of disorderly conduct, following a disturbance and fight in a local restaurant earlier this month.

The students, who had been drinking, became involved in an exchange of words with two other customers of the restaurant. One of the students was reported to have used foul, abusive language toward one of the other men. A brief scuffle followed, in which one of the students was knocked down. The other student hurled a chair at the men, missing them, but causing damage to the chair and other restaurant property.

The owner of the restaurant did not prefer charges with the police, but requested the college to handle the case. The students have agreed to make financial restitution for the damages.

The one young man has been placed on disciplinary probation for the remainder of the semester, as he was cited by witnesses as the primary aggressor in the disturbance. The other student was given a warning and reprimand, as it was judged that he had not really been at fault in causing the trouble.

Eagles Tip California

The Clarion State College football team made a strong come from-behind effort in the waning minutes to tie the California State College, 14-14, last Saturday on the Vulcans' field.

According to many observers, great determination and desire paved the way for Clarion's fine showing.

Not only did the Eagles fight the highly-touted Vulcans to a stalemate, but served notice to future opponents, Shippensburg and Slippery Rock, that they meant business.

The contest was bitterly played in front of 4,000 California homecoming fans.

Loads of excitement was in store for CSC fans when Mike Zacari attempted to put the winning points on the score board with a 35-yard field goal. However, the kick fell short, and the game ended after the play.

Halfback Don Hohman scored Clarion's first touchdown on a one-yard plunge in the second quarter. Then late in the fourth quarter, Mike Zaccari led his team to their second score as he completed several passes which set the stage for the tally.

Halfback Ken Gaudi went the final four yards for the score and Zaccari again kicked the extra point.

Ed Perri was the big gun for California, as the star romped over the goal twice during the game.

Perri scored in the first quarter on a 50-yard pass from Quarterback Al Cairns and again in the second quarter on a 35-yard pass from Cairns.

Fine defensive play on the part of the Golden Eagles, strave-off several other Vulcan attacks.

During the final minutes of the game, Clarion's line held on their one-yard line for four downs.

Associate Prof Named At CSC

Clarion State College's Science Department announced the addition of an Associate Professor of Chemistry to the faculty.

Before his duties at TPI, Dr. Hart was on the faculty of Maryland State College for two years, and was head of the Physics and Chemistry Section of the Institute of Textile Technology for six years. In addition, his other non-teaching experience included four years as Technical Director of the Barbizon Corporation, and two years as a research chemist with Celanese Corporation.

Dr. Hart is a graduate of George Washington University, with an A. B. and M.A. from that university. He earned his Ph.D. from the University of Maryland.

He holds four major patents in the scientific area, and is the author of 10 major publications, as well as articles for periodicals. Dr. Hart is a member of many honorary fraternities and scientific associations.

He is currently involved with a continuing grant from the National Science Foundation for studies in inorganic chemistry. He began the research this summer at Georgia Tech, but moved the grant and the program to Clarion this fall.

Peace Corps Gives Tests

Non-competitive Placement Tests for Peace Corps volunteers will be given Saturday, November 14, on the campus, in room 254 of the Administration Building.

The tests, which begin at 8:30 a.m., are designed to aid in determining the most appropriate assignment for each applicant. There are no "passing or failing" marks. The placement aspect of the tests was stated by Dr. Elbert R. Moses, Jr., College Liaison Officer for the Peace Corps.

The General Aptitude Test consists of problems in three areas: verbal, mathematics, and spatial. The Modern Language Aptitude Test is designed to measure a person's probable degree of success in learning to speak and understand a foreign language. However, language tests are given for those people with a knowledge of French or Spanish. The tests measure the degree of familiarity with the language.

Any American citizen may volunteer for the Peace Corps. Married couples are eligible if both qualify and have no dependents under 18 years of age.

Interested persons should contact Dr. Moses in the Speech Department.

CSC Speakers Listed by PSEA

The Clarion State College Speakers' Directory, a topical listing of College faculty and staff available for speaking engagements, was listed in the Pertinent Pamphlets Review of the Pennsylvania School Journal's Publication Section.

The Journal, which goes to members of the Pennsylvania State Education Association—most of the State's teachers and education students—lists books and pamphlets of value to people in education in a separate section. The current issue included the Clarion State College Directory.

The Directory was published last year to provide area civic organizations, private clubs, religious groups, and other interested organizations with a listing of speakers available at Clarion State College. The Directory lists the faculty and staff speakers by topic. Copies may be obtained by writing to the Public Relations Department, Clarion State College, Clarion, Pennsylvania.

Indians Defeat Eagles, 18-7

The Clarion State College footballers made a fine showing against Indiana State College two weeks ago, despite an 18-7 loss on the college field.

Clarion's lone tally of the game came in the fourth quarter, while Indiana scored in the first, second, and third periods.

The offensive unit for Clarion had trouble getting any substantial scoring drives started. Many times during the course of the game, Clarion was found punting on fourth down situations. However, the defensive unit turned in a fine performance.

After a series of plays for both teams, Indiana notched the first real drive of the afternoon. The Big Indians received the ball when Clarion punted to the 29 yardline.

Three plays later Indiana was on Clarion's five yardline and in another three plays Dave Cessna plunged for a one-yard touchdown. However, Clarion's defensive unit came alive and put a furious rush on Larry Panaia's extra point bid, which was wide to the left.

After Indiana's touchdown, Clarion's John DeRiggi returned the kickoff for 15 yards to his own 20. On the next play Clarion picked up a first down, as the first quarter ended.

However, Clarion was forced to punt with Indiana receiving the ball on their own 25. But on the next play, Indiana's Tom Duffalo raced to Clarion's 20 for a first down.

A holding penalty against Indiana, however, set the ball back on Clarion's 30. Second down and 20 yards to go for the first down, John Levey intercepted an Indiana aerial on CSC's 11-yardline.

Clarion's offense gained three straight first downs in the next series of plays, only to have Indiana's Steve Mizerak intercept a CSC pass.

But Clarion bounced right back with an interception of their own, when Dan Orchik made a fine play on CSC's 18 yardline.

Clarion's offense still couldn't move the ball for the first down, and they punted to Indiana's 42 yardline.

The Klausung-coached Indians put their second touchdown of the game on the board, as eight plays later Tom Duffalo scored on a four-yard run. The PAT failed and Indiana led, 12-0.

The last play of the first half showed Quarterback Mike Zaccari trying to put Clarion on the scoreboard with a long pass, but failed to get it off.

In the second half, Indiana kicked off to Clarion's 10, with John Kriceri returning the ball to his 34 yardline.

Again Clarion was put in the position to punt with Don Hohman placing the ball on Indiana's 22. The end of the third quarter

Brother Garritano is to be congratulated for he was cited as being "Clarion's best lineman" in Indiana's school paper, The Indiana Penn.

The Red and Black would like to take this opportunity to thank those who entertained at the closed smoker held on Oct. 15: the ZTA sextet, the Delt-tones, Judy Tumella, Sandy Fallereta, and Carol Siehek, who entertained by dancing. A special vote of praise and thanks goes to singer Gayle (Tracee) Hamburg, who captivated the audience. Thanks also to Brothers Mikus and Tumella who were responsible for providing the entertainment.

Belated wedding congratulations go to Brothers Gary Lukas and Stanley Ralfalko. Brother Ron Ripaski will be married Saturday, October 31. All the brothers are expected to attend this, the biggest social event of the year.

SIGMA DELTA PHI

Although it has been some time since Homecoming, we would still like to openly congratulate Sister Marilyn Heilman on being chosen Theta Xi Queen. She was presented roses from the brothers of Theta Xi and also from her sisters.

We would also like to congratulate Sister Pat Patch on being one of the four recipients of a scholarship from the Theta Xi Fraternity.

The plans for our hayride, still scheduled for October 31, have almost been completed. Among other plans we have included a skit and a hootenanny. We are looking forward to seeing everyone there.

Our teams are now being organized for participation in the AWS volleyball tournaments. We would like to wish the best of luck to all the participating teams.

Our sisters were happy to help Pan Hel with the selling of programs for our Homecoming and Indiana games.

We are anxiously anticipating the initiation of our sixteen pledges on November 2.

We were glad to see so many of the Freshmen women attending the Pan-Hellenic Reception, Monday night.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

The brothers of Phi Sigma Kappa send out their thanks to Mr. Michalski and the Golden Eagle Band for their fine performances at halftime at the home games and at the pep rallies. We enjoyed them and hope that they keep up the good work.

The brothers and their dates are looking forward to their first party this year, which is going to be a sweater party in Cook Forest.

The brothers send out their best wishes to Brother Ed Holben on his engagement to Nancy Elaine Faulker of Kittanning. Lots of luck in the future to you both.

THETA CHI

Congratulations to Mr. Van Bruggen and Mr. Williams, who have recently been named advisors to Theta Chi and to our intramural bowling and soccer teams, which are in first place and tied for first place, respectively.

This year's social program has enjoyed a very pleasant reception, thus far, from all those who have participated. One of the highlights of our calendar was the selecting of the Theta Chi Dream Girl, Miss Janet Royer. Janet is a sophomore at Clarion, a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority, and is the current Miss CSC.

The brothers are in the process of planning a Halloween party this weekend, under the excellent supervision of Social Chairman Joseph J. Brewer. Arrangements are also being made for a Christmas party and the annual Founders' Day Banquet.

Our Increasing Library

The Clarion State College Library presently houses sixty-five thousand books. Nearly 10,000 of these texts were added just within the past year.

This is a significant addition in that the number available in 1961 was just 46,500. By 1962, this had increased to 50,000 books. Within the last two years, however, a total of 15,000 additional volumes have been placed on the shelves.

There are also 1200 rolls of microfilm which are available for student and faculty use at all times. Many more of these valuable education aids will be added this year. A strong emphasis is being placed on enriching the library's present collection of resources with the addition of supplementary newspapers, periodicals, historical documents and publications, speeches, and various classic works.

Microcar's concerning the area of the British Commonwealth and other such regions of historical interest will become library materials. Many bound publications of historical significance will also be filed as resource items.

There has been, within the past few years, a great increase in inter-library loan between Clarion State College and libraries in our district. The college library, under the supervision of Miss Martha Stewart, head librarian, is growing rapidly. Its strides toward achieving a more complete and valuable source of materials are a praiseworthy attempt to accommodate the large student-faculty population on campus.

Venango News

A group of former Venango Campus students, most of whom are now attending classes on the Clarion Campus, have placed a book, Treasury of the Familiar, by Ralph L. Woods, in the Venango Campus Library in memory of Doris Baker, a deceased classmate. Miss Baker was a student at Clarion at the time of her death last spring.

The Venango Campus Library was the recipient recently of a $25 grant from the Oil City Exchange Club.

On October 24, the Athletic Committee of Venango Campus sponsored a hayride for the students. They met at Craig's farm in Seneca at 7:00 p.m. Upon their return to the farm a bonfire was built and there was a wiener roast. The attendance was estimated at 65 students.

Convention and Tour For Special Ed Group

Students in Special Education and Speech Correction attended the Fifth Annual Convention of the Pennsylvania Federation Council for Exceptional Children. The theme throughout the convention was "Exceptional Children — Accent on Abilities".

Many outstanding speakers were heard and much was learned from the Saturday Workshops.

Another highlight of the convention was a tour of the Cumberland Hills School, a Center for retarded, orthopedic, sight and hearing handicaps. This school is located in the North Hills area. A visit to all the classrooms, tour of the entire building, and discussion of the school's program provided much enrichment for the student.

The convention was held at Hotel Webster Hall, Pittsburgh, October 16, 17, and 18.

On October 7 and 8, Brothers W. Henson Watchorn, the National Secretary, and the new Field Secretary, Cris Siedel, visited our Chapter. While here Brother Watchorn discussed many things, including the construction of our Chapter House. Brother Watchorn also brought a film with him which was produced by the National Interfraternity Council and The National Panhellenic Council. This film was shown at our formal rush party on October 8.

During the weekend of October 23, 24, and 25, Brother Dan John and Pledge Joe Eckhardt visited the Phi Phi Chapter at the University of Pennsylvania. While there they attended their Homecoming party and received ideas for our proposed fraternity house.

The brothers of Phi Sigma Epsilon congratulate Brothers Dale Frye and Jerry Marterer on being elected to the offices of Junior Class President and Sophomore Class Vice President, respectively. Unanimously, the fraternity expresses its appreciation to one brother, the infamous Bob Foster, for an unequalled accomplishment with the Phi Sigs' social calendar for this year. Thanks, Bob.

Congratulations and best wishes to the fraternity's advisor, Mr. Moorehouse, and his wife, on the recent arrival of a daughter.

By elimination, the following men have been selected as the 1964 Fall Pledge Class for the Phi Eta Chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity of Clarion State College: Bill Brady, Gary Rothrock, Bill Beebe, Ed Sarver, Tom Kellgren, Keith Will, Bob Glasber, Tom Weaver, Wayne Schuricht, Bill Potter, Buzzy Young, George Timko, Gary

Bricker, John M. Kohan, Jim Wikal, Jim Morrow, Tony Vincent, Pat Murphy, and Herbie Crawford.

Addressing these yet prospective members:

Be consciously aware of the position which has been granted you. Do not shirk the responsibilities inherent in this position. Finally, remember the common goal this class is working toward and, resultingly, act accordingly. —The Brothers of Phi Sigma Epsilon.

Congratulations to those brothers of the Horseshow Team for their effort, winning the first place trophy for this sport. Good luck to those brothers still battling for trophies in volleyball and football. The fraternity awaits the opening of the basketball and pool intramurals, hoping to contest for and gain these two sectional trophies.

The Phi Sigs appreciate greatly the presence of the various advisors at those social functions of which they are a part. Thank you for the time and efforts devoted.

Belated thanks to Brother James Opeka, Phi Sig President, for his work making the new exterior shield possible; not to mention his outstanding service and achievements throughout the year.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

As one of our service projects this year, the sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha have contributed many therapeutic and educational games to the Special Education Department of the school.

Best wishes are extended to the officers of the pledge class: Peggy Brammer, president; Sandra Carlin, vice president; Lynda Ralston, secretary; Barbara Koch, treasurer; and Peggy Lou Norris, program chairman. Congratulations!

White violets are extended to Corky Kourkoulis for being elected secretary of the Junior Class.

The Zetas spent an enjoyable day at the cabin of their sister, Patty Blain, which is located near Bradys Bend, on October 25. The sisters went boating, hiking, and competed against each other in various games. Entertainment was provided by the pledges and sophomore class. The climax of the day was a feast in picnic fashion. Thanks again Patty!

The Zetas enjoyed meeting the freshman women at the Pan-Hellenic Tea and wish to extend an open invitation to visit our sorority suite at any time. Come and see us!

The sisters are looking forward to renewing old friendships with their alumni this Saturday. A tea will be held in the sorority suite for this purpose.

Plans are now being made for our dinner dance which will take place on November 21.

Dr. Coffey to Lecture At Clarion

On Tuesday evening, November 17, the Clarion State College Visiting Scholars Committee will present their special guest of the year, Dr. Howard T. Coffey. The Visiting Scholars Committee, headed by Dr. Paul L. Shank, of the Science Department annually sponsors various men prominent in their respective fields.

Dr. Coffey, a research physicist for the Westinghouse Electric Corporation, will give a demonstration lecture in the Clarion State College Chapel at 7:30 p.m.

His lecture will be related to the properties of metals at low temperatures. Dr. Coffey will be using liquid helium in his demonstrations. He will also discuss some of the research in low temperature physics, and present some fascinating displays.

In general, the talk to be delivered by Dr. Coffey will be non-mathematical, and will be centered around the more fundamental metal properties at low temperatures. The phenomenon of super-conductivity will be among the demonstrations presented.

Situation 'Test' Patience and Prudence For Teachers

This is a short answer quiz. Answer the questions in one sentence. Do not answer the question if you don't know the answer, jerk. You have five minutes before papers will be collected. Ready, go.

1. If your math instructor says you are a bright kid, but he's afraid you'll have to take a C in the course because that's the way the curve falls, what do you say?

2. There are three discussion sections open in your history lecture. Should you take the good one, meeting at 8:00 in the morning, or the bad ones, meeting at 2:00 in the afternoon?

3. You are a B student in English and your section head says, "I want to see you in my office this afternoon. Bring a copy of the August, 1957, Kenyon Review with you, the one with Richman's article on Henry James. I know you happen to have that issue, young man." What's going to happen to you and how will you explain it to your father?

4. Why does your Psych. professor twitch like that?

5. You fall asleep in the back row of your astronomy lecture. You are awakened by the genial old professor rapping you on the skull with his pointer. Everybody is laughing. What should you say to the genial old prof?

6. What's going on between your Marriage Relations professor and the secretary in the Marriage Relations Department?

7. Is it ethical to cheat in your Ethics exam?

8. You find that you have filled only four pages of your final exam blue book. What do you write at the end to convince the grader that you deserve an A for being concise?

9. If he's so smart, why is he only making $7,000 a year?

10. At a local beer hall you see your Theology professor completely blotted with a woman who is not his wife. You are failing his course. What is the proper form of greeting?

ALPHA CHI RHO

The brothers of Alpha Chi Rho would like to congratulate two of our brothers who were recently awarded scholarship loans. They are Brother Dan John, who was awarded the Theta Xi Scholarship, and Brother Dennis Raymer, who was granted the scholarship loan from the Alpha Chi Rho Educational Foundation, Inc.

The "Crows" are proud to announce our fall pledge class. They are Bill Benson, Glenn Cochran, John Dalton, and Joe Eckhardt. The pledges will be doing many worthwhile projects during their ten-week pledge period.

On October 7 and 8, Brothers W. Henson Watchorn, the National Secretary, and the new Field Secretary, Cris Siedel, visited our Chapter. While here Brother Watchorn discussed many things, including the construction of our Chapter House. Brother Watchorn also brought a film with him which was produced by the National Interfraternity Council and The National Panhellenic Council. This film was shown at our formal rush party on October 8.

During the weekend of October 23, 24, and 25, Brother Dan John and Pledge Joe Eckhardt visited the Phi Phi Chapter at the University of Pennsylvania. While there they attended their Homecoming party and received ideas for our proposed fraternity house.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

The brothers of Sigma Tau Gamma would like to welcome the following pledges into the brotherhood: Ed Barr, Kip Schnars, Dan O'Tell, Lou Gurecka, Denny Colucci, Ken Wilson, Larry Strong, Ted Kelly, Al Jones, John Papsium, Darrell Smith, and Bob Lajoie. Congratulations to Brother John Cuthbertson for being elected Junior Class Vice President.

On October 31, a Halloween Party will be held by the brothers. The band and other entertainment will be provided by the pledges.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON

The brothers of Phi Sigma Epsilon congratulate Brothers Dale Frye and Jerry Marterer on being elected to the offices of Junior Class President and Sophomore Class Vice President, respectively. Unanimously, the fraternity expresses its appreciation to one brother, the infamous Bob Foster, for an unequalled accomplishment with the Phi Sigs' social calendar for this year. Thanks, Bob.

Congratulations and best wishes to the fraternity's advisor, Mr. Moorehouse, and his wife, on the recent arrival of a daughter.

By elimination, the following men have been selected as the 1964 Fall Pledge Class for the Phi Eta Chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity of Clarion State College: Bill Brady, Gary Rothrock, Bill Beebe, Ed Sarver, Tom Kellaren, Keith Will, Bob Glasber, Tom Weaver, Wayne Schuricht, Bill Potter, Buzzy Young, George Timko, Gary

Bricker, John M. Kohan, Jim Wikal, Jim Morrow, Tony Vincent, Pat Murphy, and Herbie Crawford.

Addressing these yet prospective members:

Be consciously aware of the position which has been granted you. Do not shirk the responsibilities inherent in this position. Finally, remember the common goal this class is working toward and, resolutely, act accordingly. —The Brothers of Phi Sigma Epsilon.

Congratulations to those brothers of the Horseshow Team for their effort, winning the first place trophy for this sport. Good luck to those brothers still battling for trophies in volleyball and football. The fraternity awaits the opening of the basketball and pool intramurals, hoping to contest for and gain these two sectional trophies.

The Phi Sigs appreciate greatly the presence of the various advisors at those social functions of which they are a part. Thank you for the time and efforts devoted. Belated thanks to Brother James Opeka, Phi Sig President, for his work making the new exterior shield possible; not to mention his outstanding service and achievements throughout the year.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

As one of our service projects this year, the sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha have contributed many therapeutic and educational games to the Special Education Department of the school.

Best wishes are extended to the officers of the pledge class: Peggy Brammer, president; Sandra Carlin, vice president; Lynda Rals-ton, secretary; Barbara Koch, treasurer; and Peggy Lou Norris, program chairman. Congratulations!

White violets are extended to Corky Kourkoulis for being elected secretary of the Junior Class.

The Zetas spent an enjoyable day at the cabin of their sister, Patty Blain, which is located near Bradys Bend, on October 25. The sisters went boating, hiking, and competed against each other in various games. Entertainment was provided by the pledges and sophomore class. The climax of the day was a feast in picnic fashion. Thanks again Patty!

The Zetas enjoyed meeting the freshman women at the Pan-Hellenic Tea and wish to extend an open invitation to visit our sorority suite at any time. Come and see us!

The sisters are looking forward to renewing old friendships with their alumni this Saturday. A tea will be held in the sorority suite for this purpose.

Plans are now being made for our dinner dance which will take place on November 21.

We are planning a party on November 2 to celebrate our fifth anniversary. Skits are being prepared and all the sisters are anxiously awaiting this event.

For the Coed

The Really New Diet

Mademoiselle recently visited an endocrinologist for a specialist's last word on diet. He gave us a plan as basic as "common sense" with new insights that add up to a really fresh approach to dieting. The key idea is to "think food," not calories. It's too easy to forget a snack here, a second helping there. Think in terms of food groups—so many servings of meat, of fruits, of vegetables. Thus, to think food you must know food and food values, so stick with the foods you're familiar with. You begin, then, to "educate" your taste so that you reach instinctively for fruit instead of cake.

It is, clearly, a "sensible" diet, medium in protein and fat, playing down fluid intake and carbohydrates. This is where the college girl's special problem, starchy institutional food, calls on all her dietetic resources and determination.

Our consultant had a clear-cut list of "don'ts". One dictum is the near-elimination of salt—it retains extra water in the tissues. Liquids are limited to six cups a day. Most of the others are the usual, obvious ones—no pastry, nuts, butter, cream, macaroni, second helpings, and so on. The less obvious ones had special reasons: no corn on the cob (it never comes without salt, dripping with butter); no raisins (who stops at a few? They're consumed by the boxful); no Chinese or Italian foods (eat foods you know).

Some of the "do's" are even more intriguing. Drink all the fizzy water you like. It's not retained in the tissues; besides, how much carbonated water can anybody drink? A "do" we like is the four o'clock pick-up, a cup of coffee or tea with sugar or a sweet, to ward off afternoon fatigue. In fact, happily, it's almost a "do" on this diet to splurge occasionally, as a safety valve to keep you on the diet. The doctor says, "It's like a budget. There's no point in having one if it's so strict you can't stick to it."

Program Set For Annual Lecture Series

A colorful, full schedule of entertainment was projected for the students of Clarion State College, as the College's Concert-Lecture Committee released the official program for the 1964-65 Series.

Headlining the program is a concert by the Count Basic Orchestra, set for spring. The exact date and time have not yet been settled, according to Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., chairman of the Concert-Lecture Committee.

Another featured attraction of the Program is a cooperative effort by the Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts in the production of "Can-Can". This show will run in the College Chapel, May 3 through May 8.

Because of limited seating capacities at both the College Chapel and at the Clarion High School Auditorium, tickets are distributed first to Clarion College students. This is done, Mr. Michalski explained, because the Concert-Lecture program is financially sponsored through Student Activity fees, paid by all students. Therefore, the students should have first call for tickets. Remaining tickets will then be made available to the public for each event. This is the policy which will be followed for each event on the program, Mr. Michalski announced.

The entire program is as follows: "CALL ME BY MY RIGHTFUL NAME," a dramatic production by the Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts, presented December 9-12, in the College Chapel, at 8:30 p.m.; CLARION STATE COLLEGE CONCERT CHOIR, Christmas Program, December 14, at 8 p.m., in the High School Auditorium; RECITAL, by Rodney Schmidt, violin, and Dr. Robert Van Meter, piano, presented by the College Music Department, on February 3, 1965, in the College Chapel at 8:15 p.m.

"THE VISIT", a dramatic production of the Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts, February 17-20, 8:30 p.m., in the College Chapel; THE DON COSSACK CHORUS, presented by the Concert-Lecture Series, 8 p.m., High School Auditorium, on March 2; CLARION STATE COLLEGE CONCERT BAND'S World's Fair Concert featuring Warren Covington, trombone soloist, presented March 15, at 8 p.m., in the High School Auditorium.

The Music Department will present a RECITAL, with Dr. Robert Van Meter, pianist, on March 25, in the College Chapel at 8:15 p.m. "BLOOD WEDDING", a dramatic production by the Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts, will run April 7-10 in the College Chapel. The CLARION STATE COLLEGE CONCERT CHOIR will have a program April 12 in the High School Auditorium at 8 p.m.

The Concert-Lecture Series will present LOUIS UNTERMEYER, writer and journalist, on April 26, in the High School Auditorium at 8 p.m. CAN-CAN is listed for May 3-8, while the CLARION STATE COLLEGE CONCERT BAND will present their annual Mother's Day Concert on May 9, at 3 p.m., on the Campus Lawn.

Alumni Association Forms Loyalty Fund

The Alumni Association of Clarion State College has announced the formulation of a Loyalty Fund, contributions from which will be used to aid the College's development program, and to support additional alumni activities, Eugene L. Rhoads, president of the Association announced this week.

EUGENE RHOADS

In a letter, signed jointly by Clarion's president, Dr. James Gemmell, and by Mr. Rhoads, the rapid growth of Clarion is spelled out for alumni, and a request is made for their help. The letter, mailed to all alumni, details the growth of Clarion in enrollment, faculty, buildings, scholarships, and student loans. It further spells out the need for a stronger, more active alumni organization, and requests the help of the alumni in expanding their alma mater.

A brochure, printed by the Association, has also been sent to each alumnus, explaining the purpose of the Loyalty Fund, and in hopes of building a Fund to be used for purchases of definite items of need for the College, which will be donated in the name of the Alumni Association.

"Our first reaction has been really good," Mr. Rhoads remarked. "Some of the suggestions for Fund contributions have been the establishment of an Alumni Room for the College's new dining hall, equipment for the new gymnasium, equipment or displays for the new science building, dedication plaques, support for additional Alumni Day activities, and other things we need, but have never had."

"Naturally we hope each Clarion alumnus will have the generosity and means to support our Loyalty Fund. The College really needs their help, so we surely hope every Clarion College graduate in this area, will offer us whatever help possible in building our Loyalty Fund, and in strengthening our entire Alumni Association," Mr. Rhoads concluded.

ZTA Sorority Donates Toys

The local Chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority has donated sets of educational toys to the College's Speech and Hearing Clinic, Professor Harold Hartley, Clinic director, announced.

The sorority chose the Clinic as the recipient of its service project because of the excellent work being done there with children and adults in Special Educational programs.

Mr. Hartley said the Clinic has provided services for children and adults from Clarion, Brookville, Oil City, Franklin, Rimersburg, New Bethlehem, Shippensburg, Emlenton, and many other smaller communities in the area.

The Clinic is located in the Special Education Building on Clarion's campus. They utilize senior students as clinical trainees in the Speech and Hearing Clinic, where the students do their clinical practice work with the adults and children.

Pre-Registration Is Announced

Pre-registration for second semester classes and for summer school was announced by Dr. Charles J. Shontz, assistant to the Dean of Academic Affairs.

According to Dr. Shontz's statement, pre-registration will be the week of November 16-21.

"You should contact your adviser before this time to see if he or she would like you to make an appointment at a mutually convenient time for the completion of this pre-registration. It is your responsibility to know what is required of you for graduation, certifications, and major or minor fields. If these requirements are not completely clear to you, consult the college catalog and/or your adviser," Dr. Shontz said.

Dr. Shontz lauded the student

Editorially Speaking

Drew Pearson, one of America's most outstanding syndicated newspaper columnists, honored Clarion State College with a lecture entitled, "Krushchev, the End of an Era—What Next?" on Tuesday night as part of the Concert-Lecture Series. The lack of attendance at this lecture was quite appalling.

Compared to the 1300 people who crowded the auditorium to hear the Ford Caravan of Music, not even 300 were on hand to hear Mr. Pearson's lecture. A majority of the students attended only because it was an assignment, not because they wanted to go. Although Drew Pearson is just as famous in the field of journalism and world affairs as the Serendipity Singers and the George Shearing Quintet are in the area of music, less than one fourth the number of people attended his lecture.

Most students were bubbling with excitement when the Ford Caravan of Music arrived at Clarion, but these same students showed no excitement whatsoever before Drew Pearson spoke. Most of them had no idea who Drew Pearson was; furthermore, they did not care.

Wondering why this lackadaisical attitude was shown with such a famous personality as Drew Pearson, I asked some students why they did not attend the lecture. Answers such as, "I just didn't want to go," or "I didn't feel like getting dressed up," or a mere disinterested shrug of the shoulders were the general responses to the question.

Maybe the students could not be bothered with something that would challenge their intellects. The only conclusion to be drawn is that there is a great lack of interest in the educational extras that this college offers.

It is a real pity that only one ninth of the college population took advantage of Drew Pearson's visit to Clarion after all the time, effort, and money that went into the planning. Mr. Stanley Michalski, Jr., chairman of the Concert-Lecture Committee made all arrangements for Drew Pearson's stay at Clarion. In addition, Mr. Mickalski and Mr. J. David Truby drove the speaker to Franklin after the lecture. From the $10,200 appropriated from the Student Activities Budget to the Concert-Lecture program, $750 was paid to Mr. Pearson.

Think, Clarion students! Remember the great opportunity to broaden your background that you turned your backs on last Tuesday night. Remember for the future that intellectual discussions are just as important and enjoyable as any other facet of life on this campus. Attend these lectures—you are paying for them!

"WE, THE STUDENTS...."

By WAYNE HARPER

It's about line-jumpers. Are you a line-jumper? What? You said no? Okay, so nobody's a line-jumper, so what's the problem? Now that we're done talking nonsense, let's get down to things. And the thing is, in plain, simple, unadorned, American Lingua, "Who the hell do they think they are?" That's how one student I talked to put it. I'm inclined to agree with him. Last week I was standing in line waiting for supper. I happened to get there during the lull between rushes, and there were only fourteen people in line. How do I know there were only fourteen people in line? I stood there and counted them after I watched two students walk in, put their books down, and walk directly to the front of the line. Ridiculous, isn't it? Oh well, what can you do? People are people, and it takes all kinds of people to make a world.

Now to cap on the Call's sports page. I'm sorry, people, but that's one subject I just can't cap on. Why? Because the Call doesn't have a sports page, that's why. And why doesn't the Call have a sports page? This time we, the students, are at fault. It's one of those things where everyone complains but no one does anything. Everybody thinks the Call should have a sports page, but nobody seems to have the ambition to join our paper and give us one. We have an organized editorial page, and I think, we should also have an organized sports page. I don't mean just a column here and a column there, but a good, sound, organized section of the paper that would be devoted to giving us full coverage of our school's athletic program. However, until someone takes the initiative to give us this, our paper will continue to lack the sports coverage it needs to make it complete. And who is that someone? One or more sports minded students, who want to see our paper have a sports page and have the ambition to build one.

I was reading a back issue of the Pitt News the other day. It seems that that school retired the late "Doc" Carlson at the age of seventy. Nothing important except that he is supposed to have said once that there are too many good guys in the world to bother criticizing the bad ones.

See you next issue!

and faculty cooperation during past pre-registration, and asked for continued cooperation to facilitate and improve the procedures further.

In particular, he asked students to plan their schedules very carefully with their advisers, keeping in mind the normal course sequence and graduation requirements for major fields. Dr. Shontz also told students to consult their advisers now for summer school offerings and summer pre-registration forms.

He reminded that now is the time to change majors, minors, or curriculums. In any change, the adviser must be notified.

2 Faculty Members To Speak at Program

Two faculty members will be on an In-Service Training Program to be presented by the Brockway Area Joint Schools on Monday, November 16.

Dr. Everett A. Landin, area projects coordinator of the Curriculum Bureau of the Department of Public Instruction and of Clarion State College, and Dr. George R. Lewis, head of the Mathematics Department and of the Computer Center at Clarion, will be featured speakers at the first session of the program to be held in the Brockway High School Auditorium.

Dr. Landin will speak on "Good Elementary and Secondary Schools," while Dr. Lewis will present an address titled "Modern Math—Why?"

Dr. Gemmell to Attend Symposium

The Invest-In-America Philadelphia Council has invited Dr. James Gemmell, College president, to participate in its Symposium on Debt Management, being held in that city next Thursday, November 19.

Recently, Dr. Gemmell aided the Invest-In-America Council in launching an "action" drive toward bettering education and appreciation of the American economic system.

He is chairman of the Invest-In-America Advisory Committee on Economic Education.

MOUSE MOUTHS OFF

Dear Editor:

I would like to personally congratulate Mr. Wayne Harper on the initiation of his new column in the CALL, "We the Students...." I think that his aims are sound, noteworthy, and meritorious. I entirely agree with him that the best voice of a group is one that is open and recognized, especially if one is dealing with a contemporary who respects this approach, one who is practiced at listening before deciding. It is my sincere hope that his column does not become a forum for petty gripes, and that it approaches problems with as broad a scope as his apparent ideals. However, I am afraid that we shall again discover that in campus life, as in all areas, solutions can only be found and put to use by the dedication and hard work of individuals.

A word or two about the Mike the Mouse column, and what has happened to it. The purpose of my column was not to solve any problems but to merely call them to the attention of the members of the college community. In answer to your statements, I have not disappeared nor have I been run out of town, I have merely decided to retire to the sidelines and become an interested onlooker while a "second generation mouse takes over". Good luck Wayne, you have my best wishes for success.

CSC Debaters Score Wins In Peachtree Tournament

Clarion State College's affirmative varsity debate team of Kathy Hewston of Pittsburgh and Nancy Caldwell of Oil City tied for second place at the Peachtree Invitational Tournament sponsored by Emory University in Atlanta, Ga. last week end.

Twenty-six teams from nine states competed in the fourman division, and the Clarion affirmative compiled a 5-1 record, which placed them in a tie behind Florida State, the only undefeated team in the tournament. The silver plate went to Memphis State, on the basis of speaker points. Hewston and Caldwell defeated negative teams from Florida State, Lenoir Rhyne, Birmingham Southern, University of Florida, and Randolph-Macon. Their sole loss was to David Lipscomb, the negative team that won the second place negative trophy.

The Clarion negative team of Barbara Artuso of Arnold and Jan Callen of Tarentum had a 2-4 record, with wins over the University of Florida and Spring Hill and losses to Bridgewater, University of Kentucky, second place Memphis State, and first place Florida State.

Two weeks ago, the Clarion State College novice Debate Team opened their regular tournament schedule by compiling an impressive 11-1 record at Wake Forest College in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

The eleven victories were good enough to place Clarion in a two-way tie for third with Emory University of Atlanta, Georgia. Forty-one colleges and universities from eleven states and the District of Columbia competed in the tournament. Georgetown University of Washington D. C. and the University of Kentucky tied for first with 12-0 records. Teams finishing behind Clarion in the top ten were: University of Pittsburgh, Wake Forest, University of North Carolina, University of Maryland, University of Richmond, and Duke.

John Mann of Irwin and Ruth Helfrich of Titusville were undefeated in six rounds on the negative for Clarion. Richmond's loss to the Clarion negative was their only loss in the tournament, and it prevented them from winning the first place affirmative trophy for what would have been the third consecutive year.

Joyce Boch of Tarentum and Twila Yates of Cannonsburg upheld the affirmative for Clarion, and after dropping their first

SCA Plans Program, Elects New Officers

The Student Christian Association has elected officers Chuck Blynn, president; David Rose, vice president; and Barbara Shaner, secretary for the 1964-65 school year. Activities have been in full swing since Homecoming.

S. C. A. participated in the Homecoming Parade with a float entitled, "The Goal in Life Is Christ." Other activities of the club included a hayride and wienner roast at Dr. Penny's farm.

The Halloween dance held Oct. 31 brought forth many creative spooks, but only three prizes were awarded. First prize of five dollars was won by Tim Erhard who dressed as a Ku Klux Klansman, second prize of four dollars was given to Diane Hershberger who dressed as a mummy, and third prize of three dollars was won by Mary Cimino, who had crumpled tissues covering her dress with a sign on the back, "Rejected Float."

On Nov. 10, Mr. Francis Baptis, Assistant Professor of Art, presented a series of colored slides entitled, "The Power of Decision Among Others."

Future meetings of the club will feature a series of films and lectures. All are invited to attend.

Sequelle Undergoes Preparation Stages

The 1965 Sequelle, under the direction of editor-in-chief Linda Whipkey and assistant editor Mike Talvo, is now in the preparation stage. There are to be a few new features which Miss Whipkey does not wish to reveal at this time.

Currently, there are eight staff members working on the 1964-65 Sequelle. The two seniors are Pat Forejt and Jack Schrekengost. The advisors are Mr. J. David Truby and Mr. William J. Karl.

The deadline for this Sequelle is set for the end of January. Some group pictures have already been taken.

This year's yearbook, like those of the past, will be published in Erie.

According to Miss Whipkey, the 1965 Sequelle will be entered in national competition.

THETA CHI

Thanks go to the special talents of brothers Ray Forquer and Joe Brewer, along with the combined efforts of the pledge class, for the original and imaginative job of decorating for the Halloween party held on October 31. A host of characters, some in questionable attire, attended the masquerade which took place in the grotesque atmosphere of graveyard decor. First prize was won by brothers Sproull and Shevchik for the most unique costumes.

In intramural activity, the football team completed the season with a commendable 7-6 and 1 record, while the team effort exerted by the soccer team finds them in first place with one game remaining. Also, the bowling team is undefeated to date. The brothers are looking forward to intramural basketball season with the anticipation of a successful performance.

We are proud to announce the pledging of brother Darryl Bauer to Phi Sigma Pi National Academic Fraternity. Darryl was appointed as "little brother" to brother "Tex" Gelvin.

A belated thanks goes out to "The Toby Hill Travelers," the Zeta "sextet," Connie Hyde, Barbara Koch, and the "Old Crusty Minstrels," who provided the entertainment for the Theta Chi rush party held on October 15.

BETA CHI UPSILON

The sisters of the Beta Chi Upsilon Sorority send our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Al Jacks with blue and white carnations on the birth of their son, Glenn.

The Betas send best wishes to our sister, Kathy Hewston, and the debate team on their success at Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia.

We sincerely thank the Lasiks for the enjoyable weekend that we spent at their cottage.

On Monday night, November 16, the Beta Chi sisters will have the formal initiation for our pledges: Mae Hartzell, Carol Rogers, Janet Slye, and Vivian Talago.

Driver's Ed. Program For Student Drivers

Clarion State College has a Driver's Education Program for students who want to learn to drive.

At present, thirty-two students are enrolled in the Driver's Education Program at Clarion S.C. They are taught by twenty student instructors: Terry Allman, Ron Carrick, Jim Cignetti, Ramo Cignano, Linda Craig, John Crust, Ralph Cutzulla, Barry Drandakis, Herb Freidhoff, Harry George, Frank Grundler, Jeff Juris, Dave Mooney, Ed Pieropan, Bob Reading, Gloria Ravera, Sam Sliker, T. Treoncz, K. Warnick, and Ray Zediker.

The Program is a service provided free of charge for college students who, for one reason or another, have not learned to drive. It also gives the student teacher practical training. In addition to the two hours a week spent teaching a student in the Driver's Ed car, the student teachers attend class for three hours. They concentrate on developing proper habits and skills of driving and a knowledge of the rules of the road.

According to Associate Professor, Mr. Frank Lignelli, head of the Driver's Ed Program, schools have had problems convincing the public of the necessity of such a program of instruction.

CLARION STATE COLLEGE BAND performed for the last time on Harvey Field during the halftime of the Clarion-Shippensburg game. The game, won by Clarion 13-7, is the last game to be played on that field. Next year's home games will be played at the new stadium, located

State College Alumni Group Petitions Legislature

The administration of the College has announced its approval and support of the united plea issued by the Council of the Alumni Association of the State Colleges of Pennsylvania.

The plea, issued by the Council, called for greater financial aid to the 14 State colleges, including Clarion. These colleges are owned and operated by the State as public colleges. In addition, the Alumni group asked for:

1. Greater autonomy for each local college with regard to its financial management, curriculum planning, and faculty policies.
2. A "hold-the-line" policy on student fees at the 14 colleges.
3. Development of a master plan of growth to enable the State colleges to provide for the huge increases in enrollment during the next decade.

4. Legislation to enable the State colleges to take advantage of the Federal Higher Education Facilities Act.

The group explained their needs have arisen from the trend toward the Budget Office's arbitrary control of the money appropriated to the State colleges by the Legislature. They had specific reference to lapsed funds and centralized purchasing controls which actually add, rather than reduce costs.

Other examples needing reform include the present policy of having students pay for new dormitory buildings which will not be built for 5 or 6 years, as is the case now with General State Authority construction.

In making the plea for increased aid, and for a master plan, Leon Lunn, council president, remarked "The state colleges are the best hope of the great majority of college-bound Pennsylvania boys and girls. The state must fulfill its obligation to these students by providing high quality instruction in a wide range of studies, academic excellence in the faculties, proper student-teacher ratios, and fully adequate physical plants, classrooms, laboratories, dormitories and all the facilities necessary to a modern college."

"At the same time, the student cannot be called on to finance the colleges' expansion. Student fees are already paying half of the colleges' operation. Fees must be kept in line with student costs at state-owned colleges and universities in other states," Lunn continued.

"The children who will be seeking admission to college in 1970 are already in our public schools. We can count them — and 60,000 must be admitted to the state colleges or be denied higher education in Pennsylvania. The physical limitations, if not the high cost, will turn them away from private colleges, and they must look to the publicly supported state colleges. Only by planning and building now can we be ready for them."

The majorette corps was headed by Janet Susa, a senior from Irwin, Pa. The other members of this popular part of the Band Front, included Peggy Dabelko, Amy Woody, Barbara Keller, Karol Koman, and Joyce Paup, alternate majorette.

The Band was termed the "mainstay" behind College spirit at football games by several College officials. The Athletic Department was extremely pleased with the spirit and drive given to the pep rallies by the Band.

With the marching season over, the Marching Band members dissolve into the Clarion State College Concert Band, ready to pick up a bigger and busier schedule than ever before—all without missing a note.

Club Elects Five, Plans Activities

The Newman Club announces the election of officers and plans for the present and future of the club.

The 1964-65 officers are: president, Bob Costello; vice-president, Marti Ricciuti; recording secretary, Marie De Maggio; corresponding secretary, Francine Apple; treasurer, Fred Burger. The officers will be going to two Newman Club conventions. The local convention will be in Maryland and the national convention will be at West Virginia University. (Continued on page 6)

Band Ends Big Season

The music of the Clarion State College Marching Band blended into the finale of what Director Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., termed "a very active and successful season," last Saturday following the Clarion - Slippery Rock football game.

In addition to appearances at the Clarion football games, the College Marching Band participated in the Homecoming activities at Lock Haven State College, and at California State College. The 11th annual Autumn Leaf Festival, Parade, held in Clarion, was led this year by the College Marching Band. They also appeared in many other community parades, usually as the largest marching unit.

This year's Band had 80 playing members, 5 majorettes, 1 Golden Girl and 2 Managers, for a total of 88 members. Four years ago, the Band had 44 people.

Along with this doubling of size in 4 years, the Band has added several new attractions. Easily the most popular of these moves, at least for the males, was the addition of the Golden Girl, Miss Ginny Collett, to the Band Front. Miss Collett, a senior at Clarion State College, from Corsica, Pa., was hailed and lauded everywhere the Band performed for her poise, appearance, and twirling ability.

Another feature of this season's Band, was the new Drum Major, Bill Cook, from MacDonald, Pa. Cook had some tall shoes to fill with the graduation of Clarion's talented Drum Major of past years, Bob Avery. From all reports, Cook filled the shoes exceptionally well.

The majorette corps was headed by Janet Susa, a senior from Irwin, Pa. The other members of this popular part of the Band Front, included Peggy Dabelko, Amy Woody, Barbara Keller, Karol Koman, and Joyce Paup, alternate majorette.

The Band was termed the "mainstay" behind College spirit at football games by several College officials. The Athletic Department was extremely pleased with the spirit and drive given to the pep rallies by the Band.

With the marching season over, the Marching Band members dissolve into the Clarion State College Concert Band, ready to pick up a bigger and busier schedule than ever before—all without missing a note.

Creative Work Needed By Literary Magazine

The Clarion, a literary magazine sponsored by the English Department, is published once a year, at the end of the spring semester. Dr. Gilbert Nieman, associate professor of English, sponsors this publication and Miss Nerissa Broad edits it. The magazine is devoted to the creative works of Clarion students.

Students are invited to contribute to The Clarion. They may leave their writings with Dr. Neiman or Miss Aaron, the receptionist in the English Department. The contents of the publication are mainly creative poems and stories; however, a small section is devoted to creative art work. It is the hope of Mr. Spence, head of the Art Department, that in the future a larger section of paintings can be included.

Copies of The Clarion are available to the student body and can be obtained in the English Department at the time of publication.

COLLEGE BOOKSTORE

With unbeatable spirit and team effort, the Clarion State College Golden Eagles upended Slippery Rock State College, 26-12, last Saturday in a PSC game played on the losers' field.

The Rockets also had a lot of spirit going for them as last Saturday was the commencement of "Greek Week" and the school was figuratively on fire.

However, it didn't take Al Jacks and his Eagles long to dampen the blaze of their opponents. In the opening minutes of the game, Clarion drove to the Slippery Rock one-yard line. After using three downs in trying to plunge the pigskin in the endzone, Quarterback Mike Zaccari bootlegged the ball and sliced off his own right tackle for the score.

The kickoff, but failed to move it. Zaccari was successful in his placement kick and the Golden Eagles gained a quick lead of 7-0.

The Rockets received the ball on so Clarion immediately received another scoring opportunity. After getting the ball to the 25-yard line, Clarion's drive was stopped cold, with Zaccari missing a field goal.

Slippery Rock scored their first TD of the day in the second quarter. Lynn Hoffman scored the six-pointer on a one-yard plunge. However, Clarion's Chuck McKinney bulldozed in and blocked the try for the PAT, and Clarion still held the lead at halftime, 7-6.

In the third quarter it appeared that Slippery Rock was given a halftime pep talk, as the Rockets actually roared onto the field.

Minutes later, the Rockets roared to their second tally, and took the lead in the battle when Quarterback Stan Truskowski threw a pass from his 40, with Tom Wilt on the receiving end at Clarion's 20. He went the rest of the way for the score. The extra point bid again was blocked by Clarion, but the Rockets led 12-7.

In the fourth quarter, Clarion couldn't be stopped. During the opening minutes of the quarter Clarion registered their go-ahead touchdown. Don Hohman capped a 65-yard Clarion drive with a one-yard plunge. The PAT was good and Clarion gained the lead, 14-12.

In the final minutes there was plenty of excitement for Clarion rooters, as burly Bob Garritano, who makes a habit of this, blocked a Slippery Rock punt in the Rockets' end zone. Senior Linebacker Bob Buriak pounced on the leather for the score. The extra point attempt failed, and Clarion led, 20-12.

Late in the fourth quarter, ace defensive tackle Bob Garritano intercepted a Rocket aerial and rumbled some 25 yards before running out of bounds on Clarion's 40.

Linebacker Bob Buriak went to his position of yesterday—full-back—and literally carried the ball play after play until he bulled over on a one-yard plunge for six points. Buriak even attempted to run for the extra point, but his bid failed. Clarion held a commanding lead of 26-12 with six seconds remaining in the contest.

Coach Al Jacks will lose only two seniors from this year's squad. Bob Buriak of Ford City and Don White of Punxsutawney will graduate in January.

The win gave Clarion second place in the State College Conference with a 4-3-1 record. During the past four games Coach Jacks moved his team from the cellar to second place in the league.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

As a local tradition in our sorority, the sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha are participating in Buddy Week in honor of our pledges. Several sisters do good deeds and leave special turquoises and gray gifts and anonymous notes for each pledge. At the close of the week, each pledge tries to identify her "Secret Buddies."

The alumni tea which was held in the sorority suite on October 31 was very successful. The sisters enjoyed visiting and renewing old acquaintances with one another.

The Zetas will be holding their annual dinner dance at the Red Raven in New Kensington on November 21. The sisters are anticipating an enjoyable evening of dining, dancing, and entertainment.

SIGMA DELTA PHI

Despite the fact that we lacked the Harvest moon, our hayride was a booming success. The hay was soft, the cider fresh, the chocolate hot, the singing gay, and the games lively. We're sure everyone had a lot of fun. We received the large crowd that we had anticipated, and are now looking forward to another one next year.

A Big Sister-Little Sister party was held at the Clarion Restaurant following the initiation of our sixteen pledges Monday night. As usual, everyone enjoyed themselves.

We would like to congratulate one of our new sisters, Pat McQuiston, on being President of the Oral Interpretive Reading Guild. Her sisters give her and the other members of the Guild our support in their coming event.

A Founder's Day dinner is now being planned for November 30.

CSC Defeats Shippensburg

Led by the fine running of half-back Don Hohman, and the absolute power of the offensive and defensive lines, Clarion State College rolled over powerful Shippensburg, 13-7, on October 31, in a Pennsylvania State College conference tilt.

Hohman, along with quarterback Mike Zaccari and halfbacks John Kriceri and Ken Gaudi, sparked the play for the day continuously for the Golden Eagles. These men were called upon several times to get the first down on long yardage plays in last-down situations.

The win gives Clarion an overall 3-3-1 record and also was the final game for the Eagles on Harvey Field. Next year CSC will play on the new college field.

Quarterback Mike Zaccari starred at his position, throwing two touchdown passes in the third and fourth quarters, respectively.

The first quarter saw the ball exchanging hands with neither team making any real scoring threat.

However, in the second quarter, Clarion charged down the field and into Shippensburg's end zone for a score. John Kriceri scored on a twisting, 30-yard pass and run play from quarterback Zaccari. But Zaccari's extra point attempt was wide to the left and Clarion held a 6-0 advantage.

During the remainder of the first half, Clarion had several scoring opportunities, but fumbled or had a pass intercepted to stop their advance.

Shippensburg never reached Clarion's 10-yardline, as the tough defensive unit for Clarion was throwing Red Raider runners for consistent losses, or "no gains".

In the third quarter, Clarion scored their second touchdown of the day when Don Hohman, all alone in the flat, made a perfect catch of a 10-yard pass, and strolled the other 20 yards, all alone, for the tally. This time Zaccari's kick was good, and Clarion led, 13-0.

After the score, Shippensburg managed to hold Clarion's offense to little yardage throughout the game. In the meantime, the Red Raiders put a strong passing attack to work to score on a one-yard plunge by Tom Ecker. Wilseback's kick was good, and Clarion's lead was cut to 13-7.

The ball exchanged hands several times, but Shippensburg kept the pressure on Clarion in a keen effort to place another score on the boards. However, Clarion's defenses held the victory together.

VENANGO NEWS

October 31, a Halloween Party was held in the Multi-Purpose Room. All sorts of witches and goblins attended this once-a-year get-together. Among them was a masked female marvel, a female Frankenstein, Aunt Jemima, and Tom the Hobo. Prizes were awarded to the scariest, the most original, the prettiest, the funniest, and the most authentic.

During the evening, dancing was enjoyed. The highlight of this event was the folksinging of Bob Killen, who entertained with his "on the spot" songs about various people at the party and a song or two about the professors at the campus.

The party was planned by the Social Committee. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Williams chaperoned the party.

The excellent decorations were by Karen Johnson. The party was a success, even though most of the goblins and witches were out playing their usual Halloween pranks.

The political season at Venango Campus was quite lively a week prior to the November 3 general election. The two parties debated the issues in two separate debates held October 26 and 28. Representing the Democratic side were Samuel Cangemi and Helen Marschink. The Republicans were represented by Robert Killen and Melissa Walters.

The debates were run according to strict debate rules much like the rules during the Kennedy-Nixon election of 1960.

Student interest was high, as in both debates a large number of the students attended. During a question and answer period, the students voiced their views for their particular candidate.

The American Government class of Mr. Alastair Crawford ran a mock election on Monday, November 2, to end the successful political campaign at Venango Campus. A special election poll was set up in the Student Activity Room and was run according to strict voting procedure. Mrs. Michael Anderson, who is a poll officer during election time and is a member of the class, set up and helped run the poll along with the rest of the class, who manned the poll during the various periods of the day.

After the polls were closed, the long task of counting the ballots was accomplished with the help of a representative of each party, two Student Senate members, several members of the Government class, and Mr. Crawford.

The results of the election were: President: Lyndon B. Johnson, 126; Barry Goldwater, 52.

U. S. Senate: Hugh Scott, 107; Genevieve Blatt, 71.

Auditor General: W. Stuart Helm, 53; Grace Sloan, 112.

State Treasurer: Robert Fleming, 92; Thomas Minchart, 78.

Representative in Congress, 23rd District: Albert Johnson, 94; John Still.

Representative in the General Assembly: Alvin Kahle, 70; Robert Lewis, 100.

President Changes Board's Decision

An immediate suspension decision by the College Disciplinary Board has been changed to "deferred suspension" by President James Gemmell following his review of the case.

The students involved had been arrested by Borough police following incidents of gasoline theft from parked automobiles. In addition, one of the students had stolen a portion of garden hose to be used in the theft of the gasoline. They admitted their guilt to police, were charged with disorderly conduct, ordered to make restitution, and fined by a local justice of the peace.

Under the President's "deferred suspension" ruling, the two men will report for weekly conferences with a faculty member.

In another case, a student was given a reprimand for failure to pay accumulated fines for repeated violation of College traffic regulations. He paid his fine just prior to the hearing. The third case involved a man who had been suspended for violation of College liquor laws last summer. He was granted permission by the Board to re-apply for admission.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

As a local tradition in our sorority, the sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha are participating in Buddy Week in honor of our pledges. Several sisters do good deeds and leave special turquoise and gray gifts and anonymous notes for each pledge. At the close of the week, each pledge tries to identify her "Secret Buddies."

The alumni tea which was held in the sorority suite on October 31 was very successful. The sisters enjoyed visiting and renewing old acquaintances with one another.

The Zetas will be holding their annual dinner dance at the Red Raven in New Kensington on November 21. The sisters are anticipating an enjoyable evening of dining, dancing, and entertainment.

SIGMA DELTA PHI

Despite the fact that we lacked the Harvest moon, our hayride was a booming success. The hay was soft, the cider fresh, the chocolate hot, the singing gay, and the games lively. We're sure everyone had a lot of fun. We received the large crowd that we had anticipated, and are now looking forward to another one next year.

A Big Sister-Little Sister party was held at the Clarion Restaurant following the initiation of our sixteen pledges Monday night. As usual, everyone enjoyed themselves.

We would like to congratulate one of our new sisters, Pat McQuiston, on being President of the Oral Interpretive Reading Guild. Her sisters give her and the other members of the Guild our support in their coming event.

A Founder's Day dinner is now being planned for November 30.

Editorially Speaking

A college library should be a quiet place for those who wish to read. The reader who comes to the library expects and, indeed, is entitled to an atmosphere free from noise and disturbance. Such an atmosphere can be maintained only if each individual makes an effort. This is a student responsibility. The success of a campaign to create a proper atmosphere depends upon the cooperation of each library user. It is not the duty of the librarians to act as police officers. Such activity interferes with the reference service which the librarians offer. A campaign for a quiet library requires strong student support.

Freddie Freshman, Sally Sophomore, Jim Junior, Sue Senior, what can you do in this campaign? You can enter and leave the library without chattering. You can converse with your friends and have group conferences in spots other than the library. You can let the clowns and loudmouths know that you do not appreciate their behavior. You can be considerate of the student who wants to read. You can make the library a place in which concentration is possible for the investigator of the problems of the migrant worker, for the searcher of the mysteries of Zen Buddhism, for the scientist interested in the DNA molecule. You can spread the word that you need a quiet library.

Concert Choir Issues Record

The performance of Handel's Messiah by the Clarion State College Concert Choir with the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra in the Lyric Theatre, Baltimore, Maryland, has been captured on tape and will be available in record album form on December 1, 1964.

This album, which represents the second recording of a major musical work by any musical organization on Clarion campus, will be on sale in the bookstore for $2.50.

To quote the Oil City Derrick editorial, this album is "a milestone in the musical progress of the Clarion Concert Choir."

School Boards Back More Aid

Further support for increased financial aid and operational independence for Pennsylvania's 14 State colleges came from the Pennsylvania School Boards Association in a resolution passed at their recent meeting.

This action, plus an earlier action passed by the State Colleges' Alumni Council, have both received backing from the Administration of Clarion State College.

The more recent action, by the School Boards Association, urges the General Assembly to provide for the number of State colleges, expand the present facilities at the existing 14 colleges, and remove the archaic and unrealistic budgetary and administrative controls presently fettering the administration and operation of these colleges.

Congrats are also due to the football team itself for turning in a second place of the conference record of 4-3-1.

I would sincerely like to thank the "mouse" (all seven of them) for wishing me luck with my column. He is nobler than I gave him credit for being.

Happy Turkeyday,
Wayne Harper

CSC Debaters Compete In State-Wide Matches

Clarion State College's novice debate team drew their first taste of varsity competition last weekend in the St. Joseph's College Tournament in Philadelphia.

John Mann of Irwin and Ruth Helfrich of Titusville compiled a 3-3 record on the negative, while Joyce Boch of Tarentum and Twila Yates of Sarver had a 5-1 record on affirmative. The Clarion team defeated Lehigh, Johns Hopkins, Rutgers, and LaSalle.

Another unit of Clarion debaters competed in the Edinboro Tournament. Bob Jannone of Bound Brook, New Jersey, and Merrill Naugle of Beaver Falls had a 2-1 record on affirmative, while Cathy Edner of Falls Creek and Rose Buetter of Ellwood City scored 1-2 on negative.

This weekend Barbara Artuso of Arnold and Nancy Caldwell of Oil City will represent Clarion State College in the Duquesne varsity tournament in Pittsburgh.

Faculty Sponsors CSC Student Liberties Union

A faculty-sponsored student liberty organization has been formed on campus under the name of the Clarion State College Student Civil Liberties Union.

As their first order of business, the Union has released one point of policy. The organization has stated, through its faculty spokesman, Dr. Joel Haines, Professor of Social Science, that it feels the College has an obligation to see that students are not disciplined for alleged misconduct without adequate procedural safeguards. To this end, the Union has proposed the following policy which was presented to the Student Senate and approved.

A. Disciplinary proceedings should be instituted only for alleged violations of adequately defined standards of conduct made known to the students in advance.

B. For premises such as dormitories controlled by the institution, an appropriate academic authority should be designated to whom application must be made before a search can be conducted. The application should specify the reasons for the search and the objects or information sought. For premises not controlled by the institution, the ordinary requirements for lawful search should be followed.

C. Students detected or arrested in the course of serious violations of institutional regulations, or of ordinary law, should be informed of their applicable rights under institutional regulations and under general law. No form of harassment, including isolation from counsel, should be used by institutional representatives to coerce admissions of guilt or information about conduct of other suspected persons.

D. The student should be informed, in writing, of the reasons for the proposed disciplinary action in sufficient time to ensure opportunity for a proper defense.

E. Pending action on the charges, the status of a student should not be altered.

F. After investigation, if it appears that the alleged offense may expose the student to serious sanctions, for instance expulsion, suspension, substantial fine, or notation on a permanent record, he should have the right to appeal the initial judgment of his culpability to a Hearing Board.

1. The student appearing before the Hearing Board should have the right to be accompanied and represented by an adviser of his choice, and by legal counsel if he so requests.

2. Whenever possible, the accused should be given an opportunity to cross-examine adverse witnesses.

3. Improperly acquired evidence should not be admitted.

4. The Proceeding before the Hearing Board should be open, subject to the student's waiver.

The Union announced their next meeting would be held November 30, and that the exact time and place would be in the Daily Bulletin.

Faculty advisors are: Dr. Haines, Mr. Gifford Frazee, Dr. Gustav Konitzky, Mr. Werner Peterke, and Mr. Jay VanBruggen.

CSC Features Yule Program

The Music Department of Clarion State College will present their annual Christmas program at the Clarion High School Auditorium, on Monday evening, December 14.

Mr. Rodney Schmidt, instructor of music, will appear as soloist, accompanying the Clarion State College Choir, under the direction of William McDonald, assistant professor of music, in the presentation of "Jesu Meine Freude" by Bach.

"Marienlieder", composed by Brahms, will also be presented. The program itself will deal with those works of 16th century composers which concern a Christmas theme.

Both the Bach motet, "Jesu Meine Freude" and Brahms' "Marienlieder" will be accompanied by the harpsicord, played by Dr. Robert Van Meter, acting head of the College Music Department.

An additional feature of the program will be a sonata presentation by Dr. Van Meter and Mr. Schmidt, also treating of a 16th century composer and concerning a piece for violins.

Dr. Van Meter has termed this coming Christmas program an "unusual presentation with deep meaning".

Dr. Everett Landin Receives Government Cooperative Grant

Dr. Everett Landin has received a research grant from the United States Office of Education titled, "Programmed Instruction for Superior Students in Small High Schools, in association with Clarion State College and Slippery Rock State College.

It is a cooperative grant from several standpoints: (1) Slippery Rock is the cooperative college with Clarion in the project; (2) Of the twenty public schools being used for the program, ten are in the area of Slippery Rock, and ten are in the area of Clarion; (3) Not only does the staff consist of members both at Slippery Rock and Clarion, but also of professional workers in each high school in the program.

There are also staff members in the Department of Public Instruction, which is part of the United States Office of Health, Education, and Welfare. Mr. Frank Palaggo is the research assistant at Clarion; Dr. Lloyd Johnston is his counterpart at Slippery Rock.

A proposal was designed and submitted to the government by Dr. William Page and Dr. Nelson Hale, who according to Dr. Landin, are "facetiously called the grandfathers" of the plan, so that the grant could be given.

Dr. Landin stated that the main purpose of the project is "to demonstrate that programmed materials are an efficient, economical, and effective means, by means of which gifted students in small high schools can receive the advantages of curriculum opportunities which are otherwise impossible within the limitations of the smaller and more remotely located public school systems."

The students participating in the project, who are chosen on the basis of tests, grades, ability, etc., must be recommended for the project by the staff, and both the student and his parents must consent to the program. These selected students are representatives of all the able students both in their own school and in similar schools. There is an average of twenty students in each school within each state college area.

The materials for the first semester "introductory descriptive statistics" have already been given to the students. There has yet been no final decision on next semester's program.

The staff is in the process of administering a measurement scale to all students in the project. This scale was specially developed by Dr. Dutton of the University of California. Dr. Charles Jones of Bucknell University, a consultant for the project, has adapted the scale to fit the needs of the project.

There will be a meeting on Tuesday, November 24, 1964, for a consultation with Dr. Thomas Clemens and Dr. Hugh McKeegan concerning additional tests and instruments to be used in the project.

Venango Campus News

A group of freshman and sophomore students have formed a committee to promote the establishment of a Student Union at Venango Campus. The committee consisting of Robert Gray and Margaret Stewart (co-chairmen), Mary Kay Corio, Jill Norris, Joyce O'Neill, Dorothy Bearer, and Sandra Leonberger has held two meetings in pursuit of its goal.

Similar groups as this have endeavored in previous years in the same field, but they have failed due to a lack of student response. This year's record enrollment, however, has been cited as the controlling factor in determining either success or failure for the proposed Union. It is felt that the freshman class in particular will play a leading role.

Co-chairman Gray stated that he and his committee feel that this is a more spirited class than Venango Campus has ever known, and that it will rally to the support of a Union.

The committee has received permission to use the school's Multi-Purpose Room as a Student Union. Students use this room during the day as a between class retreat. It contains food and candy machines, a ping pong table, and tables and chairs. The room will be open on Saturday nights from eight to twelve o'clock if no other organization has scheduled it for use. Music will be provided by a record player, and refreshments will be sold. Students' parents will serve as chaperones.

The cost of operation has been absorbed from the Student Union fund. Therefore, the students will be able to enjoy a free evening of ping pong, dancing, and visiting with their classmates.

Venango Library

"Small yet adequate" are the key words in the description of the library at Venango Campus. Presently, there are slightly over three thousand volumes, but by the end of the present school year, this figure will be doubled. An inter-library system has been set up between the library here and the Rena Carlson Library at Clarion State College so that the facilities from both libraries are available to all students.

The library, which seats forty, offers over one hundred periodicals for both the curriculum and student enjoyment. A large reference section and a collection of newspapers including the Franklin, Oil City, and Titusville papers, The Pittsburgh Press, The Christian Science Monitor, and The New York Times complete the library.

A microfilm receiver will soon be obtained and shortly thereafter The New York Times will be completely on microfilm to conserve space. Because of the limited space, the library is also photocopying various articles from back journals. To acquaint the students with new books, displays are arranged on the bulletin board in the main hall.

The library boasts a listening center containing a stereo record player with eight earphones. The Cultural committee, a branch of the Student Senate, periodically adds to the collection which now includes just over one hundred records.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Mary E. Williams, head librarian, are employed eight students: Karin Fruth, Faye Jackson, Paulette Loper, Dennis Lavery, Linda Pilkey, Cheryl Rosenberry, Jean Sibily, and Carol Schwabenbauer.

Madrigal Group

The Madrigal group of Venango Campus has been newly organized under the direction of Miss Sterling Price, Assistant Professor of Music. Serving as co-directors are Sister Charles of St. Stephens, and Ronald Shumaker, English Department.

The Madrigalians will sing a Christmas program at the Titusville Women's Club on December 14. Rodney Schmidt of the Clarion Music Department and M. S. Schmidt will play a Corelli Concerto at this time.

Mr. Schmidt attended Oberlin Conservatory of Music, Oberlin, Ohio, and the Akademie Mozarteum, Salzburg, Austria. He has done work towards his Doctorate at the University of Colorado and has served as Concert Master of the Boulder Philharmonia Orchestra of the University of Colorado Baroque Ensemble. While at Oberlin, he was Concert Master at Oberlin Musical Union of Oberlin Conservatory Orchestra. He was First Violinist of a Quartet which toured Europe (1959-1960) and which gave one hundred and eighty concerts in ten countries.

The Madrigal group has elected officers for the year: Joseph Burgert, president; Richard McClain, vice-president; Jill Ann Norris, secretary-treasurer; and Robert Gray, Librarian.

Women of the Madrigal are: Susan Arkwright, Peggy Black, Cheryl Caldwell, Edwinna Coughlan, Alana Gazetki, Prescilla Green, Nancy Keeler, Jo Marschinke, Maureen McGinty, Robin Morris, Jill Ann Norris, Jill Samonsky, Veronica Seebold, and Sue Shumaker.

Students Await '64 Vacations

Upon returning from Thanksgiving vacation, students can begin the count-down until Christmas. The close of classes on Saturday, December 19, marks the start of Christmas recess. This second holiday will end with the start of classes on January 4, 1965.

Final exams will be given one week after the Christmas vacation. Exams extend from January 11 until January 19. Registration for the second semester is January 25.

Schmidt Cancels Nov. 23 Recital

The violin recital of Rodney Schmidt, instructor in Music, scheduled for Monday evening, November 23, has been cancelled, according to Mr. Schmidt and Dr. Robert Van Meter, acting head of the College Music Department.

Both Dr. Van Meter and Mr. Schmidt will perform as part of the Music Department's annual Christmas Program on December 14, and again on February 3. Mr. Schmidt has another solo concert scheduled for April 21.

Mr. Michalski announced that the sections this year are well balanced and the spirit and interest in the band are very high this year.

HUNGARIAN CHAMP

Prof Teaches Self-Defense

By RUTH BELLMAN

The Judo Club is in its second year at C. S. C. under the direction of Mr. Andor S. P-Jobb, assistant professor of art.

Mr. P-Jobb took up the art of Judo after being beaten on the streets in Hungary when he was in high school. One and a half years after starting his Judo training, and spending twenty hours per week on it, Mr. P-Jobb became the national Judo champion of Hungary in the featherweight division.

Members of the Judo Club pay $3.00 per semester, which covers the rent on the Judogi, the official costume for Judo, which consists of a white light padded jacket with loose sleeves and lapels which are overlapped. The trousers are loose. For beginners, a white belt is worn. As the student participates in matches and takes exams, he can attain different colored belts, varying according to his skill, until he gains the 'black belt. Mr. P-Jobb has the black belt and feels that six of his students are ready to take tests for the black belts. The highest belt is the red one which two men in the world have.

In addition, Mr. P-Jobb teaches Judo to six Boy Scouts as a project in Scout training.

The Judo Club puts on shows in high schools and also has matches with other clubs such as the Ravenna Club in Ohio. When paired for matches contestants' weight usually vary from six to ten pounds from their opponents.

Judo is fascinating to most people. A janitor expressed his curiosity of certain holds to a female member of the Judo Club. The woman, willing to oblige, performed a few of the holds on the janitor who required medical attention after the satisfaction of his curiosity.

Observation of the students at Judo practice reveals many interesting positions. Some students can be seen diving over the seated instructor, others grapple in matches on the mats. One girl sits on her opponent trying to choke her by tightly pulling the lapels of her Judogi in opposite directions. A boy and girl bow to each other, shake hands and the boy lands on the floor. Other trainees leap into the air and fall on their sides on the mats.

The purpose of the Judo Club is to teach the individual the art of self-protection so that he can be a good ready patriot for his country. Mr. P-Jobb feels that students who participate in Judo also receive better grades.

Club members include: Ruth Barnhart, James Biondi, Eric Blumensaat, Carol Colcombe, Pat Coppersmith, James Daniels, Sandra Datz, Dennis Dolmayer, Edward Edder, John Egolf, Jr., Robert Fryer, Prof. Robert Flanagan, Herbert Guenther, Ruth Helfrich, John Hutchias, Richard W. ## Lecture Series Cites Program Set For CSC

The Visiting Scholars Lecture Series announced its future speakers and explained its procedure of selection.

The program has been announced for the remainder of the year. Dr. Harbough will speak in the field of Social Studies on March 16 and 17. Dr. Lawrence Epstein will lecture on March 9 in the field of chemistry. On February 24 and 25 a speaker appointed by the American Society of Agronomy will speak in the field of Biology.

The committee for the Visiting Scholars program is comprised of: Dr. P. L. Shank, chairman, Dr. L. D. Moody, Dr. H. E. Simmons, Dr. D. S. Still, and Mr. F. S. Takei.

The visiting scholars are nominated by the faculty members of each department. The following criteria is the basis for nomination: 1. The visiting scholar should qualify as a scholar in the area of specialization of the department which makes the recommendation. 2. The topic should be in the subject area and approved by the department which makes the recommendation.

After the Visiting Scholars Committee receives the nominations from the heads of departments, action is taken and a committee report is submitted to President Gemmell. The President makes the final approval or disapproval.

Mr. Michalski announced that the sections this year are well balanced and the spirit and interest in the band are very high this year.

HUNGARIAN CHAMP

Prof Teaches Self-Defense

By RUTH BELLMAN

The Judo Club is in its second year at C. S. C. under the direction of Mr. Andor S. P-Jobb, assistant professor of art.

Mr. P-Jobb took up the art of Judo after being beaten on the streets in Hungary when he was in high school. One and a half years after starting his Judo training, and spending twenty hours per week on it, Mr. P-Jobb became the national Judo champion of Hungary in the featherweight division.

Members of the Judo Club pay $3.00 per semester, which covers the rent on the Judogi, the official costume for Judo, which consists of a white light padded jacket with loose sleeves and lapels which are overlapped. The trousers are loose. For beginners, a white belt is worn. As the student participates in matches and takes exams, he can attain different colored belts, varying according to his skill, until he gains the black belt. Mr. P-Jobb has the black belt and feels that six of his students are ready to take tests for the black belts. The highest belt is the red one which two men in the world have.

In addition, Mr. P-Jobb teaches Judo to six Boy Scouts as a project in Scout training.

The Judo Club puts on shows in high schools and also has matches with other clubs such as the Ravenna Club in Ohio. When paired for matches contestants' weight usually vary from six to ten pounds from their opponents.

Judo is fascinating to most people. A janitor expressed his curiosity of certain holds to a female member of the Judo Club. The woman, willing to oblige, performed a few of the holds on the janitor who required medical attention after the satisfaction of his curiosity.

Observation of the students at Judo practice reveals many interesting positions. Some students can be seen diving over the seated instructor, others grapple in matches on the mats. One girl sits on her opponent trying to choke her by tightly pulling the lapels of her Judogi in opposite directions. A boy and girl bow to each other, shake hands and the boy lands on the floor. Other trainees leap into the air and fall on their sides on the mats.

The purpose of the Judo Club is to teach the individual the art of self-protection so that he can be a good ready patriot for his country. Mr. P-Jobb feels that students who participate in Judo also receive better grades.

Club members include: Ruth Barnhart, James Biondi, Eric Blumensadt, Carol Colcombe, Pat Coppersmith, James Daniels, Sandra Datz, Dennis Dolmayer, Edward Edder, John Egolf, Jr., Robert Fryer, Prof. Robert Flanagan, Herbert Guenther, Ruth Helfrich, John Hutchias, Richard W. Kellogg, Arthur Kennedy, Randy Knapp, Carol Kribel,

Also, Mary Lask, Nancy Lehm, Rachel Leonard, Philip Lucas, Karen Lynch, Ronald Miller, Theodore Miller, Thomas Mink, Joan Moody, Carol Murphy, Richard Murphy, John McDonald, Gerald McElrauy, Craig McMalan,

DELTA ZETA

The Sisters of Delta Zeta Sorority are proud to announce that the blankets and drapes that were purchased for the suite last spring have arrived. The blankets are a dark green color with the white Delta Zeta crest on them. The drapes are white fiber glass.

On November 2, the Delta Zeta pledges held a party for the active members. The theme was "Haunted Hall," and a great time was enjoyed by all.

Sisters are going as a group to 11:00 a.m. Mass at the Immaculate Conception Church and the 11:00 a.m. morning service at the Methodist Church on Sunday, November 22.

Pink roses go to Kathy Ward and Marlene Scardamalia, who were recently initiated into Sigma Tau Delta national English fraternity.

We wish to express our gratitude to Lois Petrovich for her demonstration on dress standards at the last regular meeting.

Thanksgiving vacation is just around the corner and the Sisters wish everyone here at C. S. C. an enjoyable holiday and vacation.

ALPHA CHI RHO

On November 7, pledges Bill Benson and Joe Echardt visited our Chapter at Slippery Rock. While there, they were impressed with the many activities in which the "Crows" are participating. They also attended their annual Greek Week party.

During the weekend of November 14, our Chapter visited the Lambda Phi Chapter at Penn State. While there, we attended several of the social functions of the Chapter.

Plans are almost completed for a "Beatnik Party" to be held tonight, November 21. The refreshments and entertainment will be in accord with the theme.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

On the past two weekends, the Brothers of Phi Sigma Kappa made visits to our Kappa Chapter at Penn State. We had an enjoyable visit and we are looking forward to future visits to some of the other chapters in the area.

On Sunday, November 15, 1964, the following brothers were taken into the brotherhood of Phi Sigma Kappa at Penn State:

Mike Falvo, Larry Martin, Ken McCall, Bob Griffin, and Andy Zajac.

In the near future, other brothers will be taken into the brotherhood of Phi Sigma Kappa.

Today, November 21, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., a car wash will be held at Emerson's Drive-In. We extend an invitation to all the members of the faculty and student body to bring their dirty cars out for a good cleaning.

The brothers send out their congratulations to Coach Al Jacks and the football team for the wonderful season and ending up in second place in the Western League. The brothers send out their best wishes of good luck to our advisor, Mr. John Joy, and the basketball team in their coming season.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

The brothers of Sigma Tau Gamma wish the best of luck to brother Walt Rodgers who, after a successful performance in "The Beggar's Opera," is now undertaking the production of a one-act play. With the help of brothers Siffero, Donovan, and Caldwell, everyone is sure it will be a success.

New televisions have been added to the lounge and third floor of the Sig Tau house. The addition of the new televisions is the beginning of the reorganization and redecoration of the interior of the house.

Several of the Sig Tau intramural teams have finished their seasons with commendable records. The football team finished third in a close race with a 10-3-1 record, while the volleyball team finished second in the standings.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

The sisters of Sigma Sigma Sigma wish to thank everyone who attended our spaghetti dinner on November 11. The proceeds of this project will be used for the support of our young Greek boy, Constantine Stathis. We would like to thank Judy Wood and Andy Yanshak, who were chairmen for this event.

Purple violets go to sister Carol Blair, who was the winner of the Extemporaneous Public Speaking Contest. A trophy was presented to Carol at the banquet after the Oral Interpretation Meet.

A Sigma thank you goes to Joe Izzi, who handled publicity for our sorority in the Clarion Democrat.

Today, November 21, will be the last day to order shaker sweaters from a Tri Sig. We would also like to have a $3.00 deposit from anyone who has ordered a sweater. This can be paid in Room 337, Given Hall.

Tri Sigma Sorority will have an evening of festivity at our Dinner Dance, December 5. It will be held at Kay's Smorgasbord in Oil City and will be titled "Winter Wonderland." All the Tri Sigma sponsors and local alumnae have been invited to attend. Recognition will be given to a special Sigma pin-mate who will be chosen by the sorority sisters. The plans for this dance have been under the direction of Joanne Kersch.

W. A. A. Opens Tournament

The Women's Athletic Association of Clarion State College is presently sponsoring an intramural volleyball tournament. The twelve participating teams are composed of women from the various dorms and the commuting women students. Eight of these teams have been competing on Monday nights, the remaining four teams have contended on Thursday evenings.

Later in the academic year, the W. A. A. hopes to promote tournaments in basketball and badminton also.

Co-educational volleyball is another sport which the W. A. A. sponsors. The first of these co-ed volleyball games took place last Thursday evening, November 19.

CORRECTION NOTED

The editorial staff of the Clarion Call regrets the typographical error that reported Bells for Lou Rich and Lynne Shuck. We wish them great happiness in their engagement, which was reported correctly.

Announcements concerning future games will appear in the daily bulletin.

At a recent meeting, the members of the W. A. A. chose their officers for the coming year: Jean Lemish, president; Beverly Kessler, vice-president; and Amy Woody, secretary-treasurer.

DANCE TONIGHT

The Waiters' Club is sponsoring a dance tonight in place of the Talent Show that had been scheduled.

Annual Yule Concert Ready for Monday

The annual program for both students and for the community will be presented by the College's Concert Choir on Monday, December 14, in the Clarion Area High School Auditorium at 8:00 p.m.

The major work to be performed is the motet, Jesu Meine Freude by Johann Sebastian Bach. Of the six motets written by this master of music, Jesu Meine Freude, is in a class by itself. It is Bach's only chorale-motet, and his longest work in this form. The text and the music express both depth of thought and emotion.

In addition to the Bach motet, the Concert Choir will sing several liturgical compositions:

In Natali Domini by Praetorius Cantate Comino by Viadana From Heaven Above by Schein. Dies Sacrificatus by Jacob Handl Laudate Dominum by Hasler Adoramus Te by Palestrina Alleluia by Bach

A special added feature of the December 14th Christmas Concert will be the appearance of two soloists, both members of the Music Department. Mr. Rodney Schmidt, instructor in music, and Dr. Robert S. Van Meter, acting Department head, will play:

1. Sonata in A Major by Arcangelo Corelli
2. Sonata in G Minor by Antonio Vivaldi

Both compositions are sonatas for violin and harpsichord. Dr. Van Meter will accompany the choir in the Bach motet, playing the Continuo part on the harpsichord.

The choir is conducted by William M. McDonald, assistant professor of Music, and a man highly respected and lauded for his excellent choral work at Clarion.

In Harrisburg

Prof Returns From Meeting

Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., associate professor of music and director of Bands at Clarion State College, has returned from last week's Pennsylvania Music Educators Association annual conference — held in Harrisburg.

Mr. Michalski served on the official planning committee of the association, which involves planning and scheduling of clinics, concerts, lectures, demonstrations, concerts by professional musicians, along with coordination with scholastic band groups.

The purpose of the PMEA's annual convention is to keep the music educators abreast of the new materials, textbooks, instruments, and other teaching aids available.

In addition, the group plans activities for the coming year.

LAST NIGHT

Controversial Drama Scores Well & Hard

The controversial drama "Call Me By My Rightful Name" has scored well in its sociological impact upon its audience the past three nights. Saturday is the final performance.

Directed by Mr. Robert Copeland, the play features Louis Johnson, Richard Lewis, and Carol Kribbe in major roles, with supporting parts undertaken by Reverend Robert Reader, Sybil Wein, and Edgar Huffman.

The presentation deals with the provocative and timely racial problem and interracial relationships. It concerns a trio of ill-adjusted young people who emerge as a triangle; their attitudes caustic, sharp, and belligerently defenseless. A sensitive and realistic treatment of the race problem, the drama refrains from the sermonizing which seems characteristic of such presentations.

Making its first appearance on Broadway on January 31, 1961, "Call Me By My Rightful Name" drew stirring newspaper tributes for its author, Michael Shurtleff. During the course of its stage production, the drama won for itself and its female lead, Joan Hackett, many awards and literary salutes. Two weeks after its initial performance, the play was vitalized by Time Magazine as an attempt "to push beyond specific race problems to a basic human-race one."

Mr. Robert Copeland, director of this college presentation, stressed that "Educational theatre has more of a responsibility to its College Community than presenting situation comedy entertainment. This production is in keeping with this thought; it is for the thinking and mature audience."

To be held in the College Chapel, with curtain time at 8:30 p.m., "Call Me By My Rightful Name" is a play whose worth must be judged by each individual for himself — not a drama to be lauded or criticized upon the second-hand opinions of another viewer.

Michalski is Selected As Chairman of Band Group

The President of the Eastern Division of the College Band Directors National Association has selected Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., associate professor of Music and director of Bands at Clarion State College, to serve as Chairman of the Pennsylvania Chapter of the Association.

As State chairman, Mr. Michalski will coordinate activities of the Association and its Pennsylvania members to build the betterment of band programs in the Commonwealth.

Commenting on Mr. Michalski's appointment, Dr. James Dunlop, a national officer of the Association, said "Mr. Michalski, as director of one of the finest active bands in Pennsylvania, deserves this honor of serving in a capacity which will bring added prestige to his organization at Clarion State College."

STANLEY F. MICHALSKI, JR.

Mr. Michalski is also Chairman of the membership committee of Phi Beta Mu, national bandmasters association. He is a charter member and past president of that organization.

Editorially Speaking Campus Views

A follow-up survey of Pennsylvania's high school seniors from the class of 1958 was conducted by the Joint State Government Commission of the General Assembly. A summary of their findings is extremely interesting, but not encouraging.

Nearly 50 per cent of the young men and women from the class of 1958 who went to college said they felt handicapped or that they were insufficiently prepared for college. The areas of inadequate high school education most often cited were English, mathematics, and the physical sciences.

Most of the students who decided to attend college reported annual expenses of less than $1,500. However, nearly one-third of the students received some type of scholarship which contributed on the average about 40 per cent of the money needed to meet expenses.

About 40 per cent of the students going on to college enrolled in a state college or state aided university. The others went out of state or into private colleges and universities.

Current salaries per week for students who did not go to college were reported as $81 for men and $64 for women. These, naturally, are average figures. On the other hand, unemployment rates for the age group of the people in this study are about 40 per cent above the national average.

However, the most depressing fact reported in the study was that over one-third of the students who went on to, and graduated from, college left Pennsylvania for employment. The smarter the student, the study reported, the more likely he is to leave Pennsylvania. In addition, 1 out of every 2 engineers and engineering technicians educated in Pennsylvania colleges leave the State to work elsewhere.

Coupled with these sobering statistics was the previously released figure that 1 out of 4 teachers leaves Pennsylvania shortly after graduation.

The Governor has had a promotional campaign to bring Pennsylvania up off its knees, and pad the nearly flat Commonwealth pocketbook with a little extra spending money. The hoopie-rah, magazine ads, newspaper ads, stories, and TV spots are fine. But, an effort should be made at the "people" level also. Let's do something about the "people drain." This is where our State is really leaking away valuable resources. Our young, bright, college educated or vocationally trained people are leaving Pennsylvania for greener pastures. Why? They say it's because of money, better towns, less taxes, and better schools in other states.

We don't know if this is right. It seems logical. It's what the young people give as their collective reason for leaving Pennsylvania.

Whatever the cause, it must be found, analyzed, and used to put Pennsylvania on a competitive basis with other states in this bid for young minds and hands.

Maybe we ought to let the promotional campaign march in place for a little while, and start to combat the "people drain." A state is as rich as its resources, and Pennsylvania's best resource for the 20th century is its young people. It should try to keep them.

A never-ending problem in any institution of higher learning is one of CHEATING. Like anywhere else, this problem does exist on Clarion State Campus. Many students go through course after course, semester after semester, and year after year, depending on their ability to cheat, not their ability to think and learn.

The basic question is WHY? Why does a student cheat to get through a course?

The courses where cheating occurs are usually ones in which the teachers use the same notes, give the same lectures, and administer the same exams semester after semester. The tests that they have given circulate throughout the campus, and most students inevitably find out what the test will contain. Some tests are actually kept on file by students for future reference.

Students pay no attention to lectures in class and never remember the material. All they must do is memorize the exact questions from previous tests, and they receive a high grade from the course.

Professors must be able to tell who has cheated by the results of the exam. Surely they could use enough energy to make new exams to challenge the class . . . unless maybe they went through their courses in the same cheating manner . . .

Prof. C. Robbe, Four Students Attend Opportunities Sessions

Four students and Professor Charles Robbe attended the Conference of Summer Opportunities Abroad held at the University of Pittsburgh this week.

Sponsored by the Office of Cultural and Educational Exchange, the Conference was designed to explore and relate possibilities for study, travel, and work in foreign countries to area college students. Attending the all-day conference from Clarion State College were: Janet Rabold of 54 Admiral Dewey Avenue in Pittsburgh; Trevalyn Williams of 1008 N. Beaver St., New Castle; Gini Lusebrink, RD 2, Irwin; Bill Potter, 558 Edward St., Johnstown; and Professor Robbe.

Dear Editor,

Why the double standard on parking violations? Students must observe regulations and pay fines for violation. This is a logical move in view of the increased pressure of autos on this campus.

However, what happens to faculty when they get tickets? Nothing! One professor has 8 or 9 tickets already and doesn't seem to care. Why? Simply because no one will do anything about it.

The College Security Office, the Dean, or Faculty Senate should have some power to make faculty responsible for traffic violations. Our "leaders" are setting a darn poor example, and frankly, to the students this double standard stinks.

If we must have these regulations, and it is generally agreed that we must, let's have them apply to everybody!!

Name withheld for fear of retribution.

ED: A check with the College Security Office revealed that almost 100 percent of faculty violations are paid promptly and politely. Mr. Thaddeus Droast had high praise for the cooperation of almost all faculty on the traffic problem caused by swollen enrollment at Clarion. However, we agree with the author of this letter in his suggestion that something be done to make total enforcement a reality. We urge Dean Moore to take action in this matter whenever necessary.

Dear Editor:

We think a note of tribute should be paid to one of our students of exceptional character. He is our "House Mother of the Month," the man who runs Elk Hall, Wayne Galore.

A man of peculiar, to say the least, ways and disciplinary means, Mr. Galore is "campusing king" bouncer, counselor, Mr. Fix-it and others. He is also the prowler of the halls at night, vice squad man, and friend.

We believe that this is the first time a full-time student has ever assumed this position on the staff of the Dean of Men in the history of Clarion State College. The results are praised by the Dean, and the owner of the building, Mr. McGinley.

We await recognition of our house mother, better known as the "Tiger" or the "Bear." We hope that there can be more of this type of student governing from the Dean's Office.

Postcard view collectors will be happy to know that the Clarion State College Bookstore has received a large shipment of new color views of the campus.

The new color photographs, taken by Richard C. Miller, have been printed in postcard form and are available at the Bookstore.

Sr. Class Rings

Are Re-Designed

The Office of the Dean of Student Affairs announced that senior class rings are in the process of being re-designed, and that the new ones will be available this coming Spring, probably in late April.

Present models will then become unavailable. However, they are still available in the Bookstore for people who prefer the old model.

"WE, THE STUDENTS...."

By WAYNE HARPER

I was asked a question the other day by a student who at least appeared to be thinking and observing his collegiate environment. He wanted to know, since there are over twenty-two hundred students at CSC, why our school gives out only twelve hundred tickets for student activities? For example, more than a few students who wanted to, did not get to see the Serendipity singers last month because of lack of tickets. Why no tickets? To answer: we all know that activities such as just mentioned take place at Clarion High School. The auditorium of this school only seats twelve hundred. This, in short, explains why only this number of tickets is scattered among twenty-two hundred.

What can be done about the problem? The closest place with a larger auditorium would be Redbank Valley High School, seventeen miles away. The seating capacity here is thirteen hundred. It, obviously, would not be profitable to go to Redbank. The second closest place would be Butler's high school. Would you pay for bus transportation, and travel 98 miles round trip to watch what is procured for our entertainment? I think not.

An answer to the problem would be the construction of the proposed field house. However, this is an answer that is, at the same time, not an answer. To explain: the common word on campus is that our plans for a field house have been rejected at Harrisburg. This is partially true. The field house is not dead and gone; it is simply being re-drawn so that it can be re-proposed at our state's capital. This means that the pictures which you see adorning the walls of various buildings, in all probability, will not be the same structure our school may have someday. A word of caution at this point, I mentioned previously that the field house was an answer and not an answer. I meant this: do not think about having one until at least 1967; furthermore, for all practical purposes, do not expect one until 1970. Returning to the original problem, the only solution I can think of would be to make sure you have tickets by getting them early.

There has been a lot of thievery and vandalism in the residence halls. I don't have to go into detail. We all know that Elk Hall is slowly being torn down by its residents. The three local students from Ballintine aren't helping our school's reputation either. The ring

Merry Christmas!

AWS Schedules Holiday Events

At the December 7th meeting of the Association of Women Students of Clarion State College Christmas plans were made. On Sunday, December 13, the women's dormitories will have open house from 1 to 7 p.m., Christmas door decorations will be judged from 2 to 3 p.m. and the prizes are $7 first prize and $4 second prize. To conclude the day everyone is welcome to go caroling at 6:45 at Becht Hall and afterwards refreshments will be served. The playing of Christmas carols over the campus between the hours of 5 to 10 was also planned.

Other business discussed included the problem of conduct in the lounges and the attendance of cab-in parties. To these problems A. W. S. asks the women to remember that they are to maintain actions befitting those of young ladies.

A. W. S. would like to thank the students for their participation in Pennylate and would like to wish everyone a "Merry Christmas."

A native of Wexford, Miss Kramer is a graduate of North Allegheny High School. She is also a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority of Clarion State College.

Miss Kramer will represent Washington and Jefferson at competitions at Penn State, Pitt, and Gannon College. In February, she will return to W & J to take part in All-College Military Queen Honors.

Call Initiates Use of Color

This issue of the Clarion Call marks the first time spot color has been used in the newspaper. It may be, as far as the staff has been able to learn, the initial use of spot color in any State College newspaper.

In addition to the use of color on the front page, one of the Call's advertisers, the G. C. Murphy Company, has purchased a spot color advertisement on the last page of the paper.

DON'T SQUELCH THAT BELCH!

CHICAGO (AP) — If you feel like belching, belch. That's the advice of Dr. Arnold Barga, a gastroenterologist from Temple, Texas.

Dr. Barga said yesterday that a person who tries to be polite by stifling a belch may develop serious gastronomic trouble.

"If a person feels like belching," Dr. Barga said, "he should go into a corner, open his mouth widely, and let the air come out."

Novice Debate Unit Captures Trophy

The College's top novice debate unit of John Mann of Irwin, Ruth Helfrich of Titusville, Twila Yates of Canonsburg, and Joyce Boch of Tarentum, won the third place trophy at the Westminster Tournament with a 7-1 record. These four novices now have a record of 18-2 for the season in novice competition, having compiled an 11-1 record at Wake Forest at the beginning of November.

Yates and Boch were undefeated on the negative at Westminster, winning over Grove City, Kent State, Geneva College, and California. Mann and Helfrich, on the affirmative, defeated West Virginia University, Gannon and Penn Military, and suffered their sole loss at the hands of second place Geneva. The two teams thus reversed their roles from the Wake Forest Tournament, where Mann and Helfrich were negative and undefeated, and Yates and Boch were affirmative, and lost one round.

Clarion's varsity had a 5-5 record at the Pittsburgh Cross-Examination Tournament. The University of Alabama won first place in this tournament, in competition with teams from thirteen states, the District of Columbia, and Canada. Marilyn Naugle of Beaver Falls, and Bob Jannone of Bound Brooks, New Jersey, had a 3-2 record on the affirmative, with wins over University of Maryland, Marietta, and University of Western Ontario, and losses to Augustana and Duquesne. Jan Callen of Tarentum, and Kathy Hewston of Pittsburgh, were 2-3 on the negative defeating University of North Carolina and Cheyney State, and losing to Pittsburgh, Michigan State, and Wooster College.

A second unit of Clarion novices attending the Westminster tournament had a 4-4 record. Lis Stallings and Jean Elliot on the affirmative, and Martin Troutman and Mary Ann Trance on the negative were each 2-2.

Next weekend Clarion will be represented by Barbara Artuso of Arnold, Nancy Cladwell of Oil City, Cathy Edner of Falls Creek, and Rosewitha Bueter of Ellwood City in the Villanova Varsity Tournament.

The presentation of the citation to Dr. Landin was made by Dr. James Gemmell, president of Clarion State College, at a special meeting of the Dean of Academic Affairs Council.

SIGMA DELTA PHI

We would like to congratulate the basketball team for winning their first game last Saturday over Walsh College. We hope that it is the first of many victories. Good Luck.

The sisters of Sig Delt are very proud of our new navy blue blazers, which arrived in time for us to wear them on our Founder's Day, which was November 30.

Also on November 30, we had our Founder's Day dinner, which was held at the Manor House. Our dinner was delicious, and the program was very entertaining. We would like to thank all who attended and took part in making it such a wonderful evening.

On Friday, December 4, we had a party with our new brother fraternity, the Theta Xis. It was held at the Xi House, and it was a very enjoyable evening.

Our annual Christmas service projects are now in progress. The first of the two is that of delivering to some needy family of the Clarion area a Christmas basket of gifts and food. The parents and children will each receive several gifts, and a box of assorted foods will be given to the family. All of these will be delivered during our Christmas vacation. Making gifts for the men and women of the County Home is our second project. We will deliver these gifts on Friday, December 11.

Also on the night of December 11, our sisters, along with the Theta Xis, are going caroling, after which another party is planned. We are looking forward to another gay time.

Our own sorority Christmas party is planned for December 15. It will be held in our sorority room following the Open House for Freshmen women. We will have our usual gift exchange in the form of a grab-bag, refreshments, and entertainment.

We would like to thank all of our sisters who helped to decorate our sorority room. The job was well done, and it looks very beautiful. Anyone who would like to see it is welcome.

We are ordering more notecards, and anyone who would like to purchase them can still give their order to any Sig Delt.

BETA CHI UPSILON

The Beta Chi Upsilon Sorority congratulates the basketball team for its fine performance in the last two games. We all hope that they continue the good work.

Getting into the Christmas spirit, the Beta Chis are trying hard to guess the identities of their Secret Santas. These Secret Santas do good deeds and buy Christmas presents for their secret friends.

As we did at Thanksgiving, the Beta Chis are collecting a basket of food for a needy family in the Clarion vicinity for Christmas.

The sisters of Beta Chi Upsilon are looking forward to the Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. Bonner, our sponsor, the thirteenth of this month. At this party the identities of the Secret Santas will be revealed.

At this time, the sisters of Beta Chi Upsilon Sorority wish each and everyone of you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

The sisters of Sigma Sigma Sigma had an enjoyable evening at their dinner dance, on December 5. Special recognition was given to Al Pollak, who was chosen king. We would like to thank Jo Anne Kersch, who directed the planning of this dance.

The sisters sent a Christmas package of blankets, food, clothing and toys to our adopted Greek boy, Constantine. A letter was received from him, telling more about himself and his family.

Karen Clawson, Jeanne Khel and Margery Himes are three new Tri Sigma initiates. The initiation took place November 30, and was followed by a party given by the pledge class. Joan Toy was acknowledged as "Best Pledge." Their class presented a six foot paddle to the sorority, and paddles and gifts to their big sisters.

Wednesday, December 2, was Tri Sigma color day. The sisters proudly wore their new purple skirts.

December 13 has been designated a Sigma Sunday. The sisters will go in a group to their respective churches.

Those who ordered shaker sweaters can pick them up in the Tri Sigma suite the week after Christmas vacation. A $3.00 deposit is due before vacation and the balance when you pick them up.

Freshmen girls are cordially invited to the Tri Sigma Sorority suite for open house on December 14. The members will be happy to meet you and show you the sorority displays and Christmas decorations.

Our sorority Christmas party will be held December 13. Plans for refreshments and entertainment are under the direction of Kathy Dilts, our president.

The sisters of Sigma Sigma Sigma wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

The brothers of Sigma Tau Gamma are anxiously awaiting the Sig Tau basketball tournament. This year it will be held by the Beta Iota chapter of California State College on January 29. This tournament is an annual event with all the chapters in Western Pennsylvania participating. A trophy will be awarded to the best team. Good luck, brothers.

The brothers would like to extend their greatest appreciation to brother Frank Campbell for the beautiful Christmas tree he has donated to the Fraternity. Also, for the active part he has taken in all the fraternity activities for the past years. Thank you, brother Campbell; your efforts are greatly appreciated.

Redecoration of the Sig Tau house was continued this week when pledge Papsun undertook the decoration of the ceiling in one of the bedrooms. Social Chairman Mike Donovan has proposed the idea of the brothers decorating their rooms for the Christmas season, with a prize being awarded to the best one.

A Christmas party has been planned for December 12, with entertainment to be provided by a professional combo.

Congratulations to Coach Joy and the Clarion State basketball team for their victories over Westminster, Walsh, and St. Vincent. The brothers will be particularly watching brothers Terry Thompson and Bill Muha.

Initiation of the fall pledge class will be held this week. Thanks go out to Pledgemaster Al Pollak and his assistant, Bill Shepler, for their capable handling of the pledge period.

A sports car race was recently held by our sports car enthusiasts—Rodgers, Young and Sferro. The winner was brother Bill Sferro in his new Jaguar, with brother Walt Rodgers placing second in his Austin Healy, and Duff Young in his MG placing third.

Best wishes are extended to everyone by the brothers of Sigma Tau Gamma for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON

The Brothers of Phi Sigma Epsilon would like to congratulate the wrestling team on a very impressive showing made at the scrimmages with Lock Haven and Waynesburg and in their first match. The fraternity shows special interest in and wishes much luck to these Brothers who are members of the wrestling team: Dale Frye, Ken Lockey, Jack Davis, and John Crust, manager. Good luck to the wrestling team at the Christmas tournament at Edinboro this Saturday.

The Brothers welcome John Crust, who has been received as social member of Phi Sigma Epsilon, Phi Eta Chapter.

Congratulations to a deserving Clarion State basketball team on their two initial victories. Good luck to the team and coach for a fine season. Special wishes to Brother Dan Bartolovic.

The Brothers express due appreciation to Head Pledge Master Jim McNeill and the Pledge Committee for a fine job of organizing and perpetuating the pledges during the initiation period. Thanks go to Gyrenne Nellis from the Brothers, and surely from the Pledges, for instituting Clarion Boot Camp and fostering and fathering the first Clarion Leatherneck Platoon.

Congratulations and continued best wishes go to Brother Dale Frye on his pinning to Miss Peggy Lou Norris of Zeta-Tau Alpha Sorority, and Brother Ron Young on his engagement to Miss Sue Zerbe of Sigma Sigma Sorority.

The Brothers duly congratulate Miss Vivian Kramer of Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority on her election to the office of Queen of the Pershing Rifle Company (H5). Miss Kramer will represent this organization at Penn State, Gannon College, and Pitt, at Hunt Armory. She will also represent the Company at Washington and Jefferson's ROTC Military Ball. From the girls preliminarily chosen, the Queen of the Military Ball will be chosen in February. The Brothers find this honor one of special interest since Miss Kramer did not pass a reviewing stand, but rather, was singled out from the group of guests as the appropriate girl for the office of Queen. Deserved congratulations are extended to Miss Kramer as well as continued well wishes in the coming eliminations.

The Brothers of Phi Sigma Epsilon have scheduled their annual Christmas Party. The house will be fully decorated with entertainment and favors provided.

In passing, the Brothers wish to extend the heartiest wishes to all those of Clarion State College for a joyous and eventful, but a safe Christmas and New Year!

THETA XI

The Brothers of Theta Xi announce the new officers for the coming semester: President, Larry Miller; Vice President, John Acklin; Secretary, Rodger Eichenmiller; Treasurer, John Bellizia; House Manager, Tom Hixson; Pledgemaster, Bruce Heigel; Scholastic Chairman, Tom Guthridge; Sergeant at Arms, Dennis Rumbaugh; Chaplain, Dave Coughlin. We wish them success in their new positions.

The Brothers of Theta Xi are pleased to announce that Sigma Delta Phi has become our sister sorority. In conjunction with the bond which was formed, a party was held last weekend at the Theta Xi house. We were pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. Pfaff as chaperones. We hope they enjoyed the party as much as we did.

Again the Brothers of Theta Xi, through their conscientiousness for scholastic progress, have attained the highest quality point average among the fraternities. Also, congratulations are due Sigma Delta Phi for achieving the highest sorority average.

The Brothers will hold their annual Christmas Formal on December 12, at the Carriage Inn at Knox. We are looking forward to this coming event.

This past week, the Beta Omicron Chapter was pleased to have as its guest Mr. Jerry Lily, the Assistant Secretary from the National Headquarters at St. Louis, Missouri.

We wish the best of luck to Brother Rich Lewis in his leading role in the play Call Me By My Rightful Name, to be presented December 9-12.

ALPHA CHI RHO

The brothers of Alpha Chi Rho recently added another member to our close-knit brotherhood when Bruce Horwath, a pledge of last semester, was formally initiated. The initiation took place under the Ritual on Saturday morning, December 5. Our congratulations to Brother Bruce.

The Crows are looking forward to a big weekend. On Friday night, December 11, our annual Christmas Dance and Party will be held, and Sunday night we will go Christmas caroling.

Alpha Chi Rho also sends out its congratulations to the basketball team for the victories over Walsh College and St. Vincent College. We also have high hopes for the wrestling team's repetition of last year's successes.

Since this is the last issue before Christmas, we wish to take this opportunity to wish all CSC students a very Merry Christmas.

SCA Modifies Speaker Stand

A statement has been released by the Student Christian Association regarding the appearance of two Christian Crusade speakers who had been co-sponsored by S. C. A.

The statement of the group said that "although the . . . Association is very interested in politics from the Christian's viewpoint, we are fundamentally a Christian, not a political organization. The views expressed by these speakers are not necessarily those of the Student Christian Association."

The Christian Crusade is an ultra-rightist organization led by Dr. Billy Hargis, and based in Oklahoma.

Garritano and Buriak Named All-Stars Linemen Fare Well in Post-Season

The Clarion State College football team, runners-up in the Western Division of the Pennsylvania State College Athletic Conference, had two of their star players selected to the State all-star team.

Bob Garritano was named defensive tackle and Bob Buriak was voted defensive middle guard.

Both Garritano, of North Braddock, and Buriak, from Ford City, starred on the Golden Eagle team this season, helping Clarion in its powerful late-season climb to a second-place finish in the league. The all-star teams were selected by the coaches of the 14-team State College Conference.

Garritano is a junior, majoring in Social Studies. He graduated from Scott High School in 1962.

Garritano played varsity ball during his junior and senior years in high school on offensive tackle and defensive end. In his senior year, he was named All WPIAL in Class A competition. This was despite the fact that Bob did not play football during his freshman or sophomore years in high school.

While a freshman at Braddock High School, he was manager of the football team. But he found this job dull and moved to a different managerial position during his sophomore year. That new position found him in the stands, as the manager of the school band.

But this also seemed to be out of his line, Garritano stated, and he decided to give it up as another lost cause.

However, he stated that after his sophomore year, his family moved from Braddock to North Braddock, where he then attended Scott High.

At Scott High, Bob decided to give the fast-moving, hard-hitting sport of football a try. Try he did, as his natural ability for the sport was easily seen throughout all the pre-season drills. Sure enough Bob Garritano made the starting eleven, weighing in at 170 pounds.

Now at Clarion State, he tips the scales at 220 solid pounds, which combined with his speed and agility make him one of the hard-hitting tackles Clarion has ever seen.

Garritano feels he would like to try the professional brand of football after graduation, and plans to play all out next year, his senior year, for this goal and to make his team a state college conference powerhouse.

Bob stated that he felt California State was the toughest game he has played in during the past season. However, he stated that Edinboro was the roughest game he ever played in, which was CSC's homecoming, and during which a full-scale riot broke out.

However, he is quoted as saying, "I don't want to make any predictions for next year, especially about myself. I have heard of junior ball players who made good in that year and turned out to be a flop during their senior year. I hope I am not one of them."

Clarion's other fine all-star selection, Bob Buriak, comes from Ford City where he graduated in 1960. Buriak played linebacker and middle guard for Clarion during the past season.

However, last year the highly-touted, versatile athlete also ran from the fullback position for the Golden Eagles. But head-coach Al Jacks needed his bull-like power more on the defensive line, and there he excelled.

Buriak is a senior and is majoring in Elementary Education. He will graduate in January. He is married and is the father of a one year old boy.

Buriak participated in the Senior Gem Bowl which was held in Erie two weeks ago. In that game he scored a touchdown, playing as a fullback.

He lettered at the fullback position for Ford City three straight years. Buriak, a burly 225 pound-

WRESTLERS START ON ROAD TO REPEAT CHAMPIONSHIP

The Golden Eagle wrestling team opened their season this week by pinning St. Francis to the loss column with a 32-0 score.

They travel to the Western Conference Tournament being held in Edinboro this weekend. The next regular match is set for January

Frank Lignelli

16, with West Liberty College. It is a home match.

Head coach Frank Lignelli has high hopes of another undefeated season, however, a "tough road lies ahead," he commented.

Last season, the team posted a perfect 11-0 record; the year before, 11-1; two years before, 8-2. During the past three years the Golden Eagles have posted a tough 30-3 mark.

Also, for the past three years, Clarion State has taken the Western Pennsylvania Christmas Tourney.

Coach Lignelli states that this year's freshmen are really helping the team by keeping the experienced boys on their toes with tough competition for starting spots.

With nine lettermen and 22 other candidates on the squad, attitude and desire are high among these boys, the coach stated.

The lettermen are as follows: Tony Catalano, junior from Greenville; James Cignetti, junior from Greensburg; Dale Frye, junior from Tyrone; Joe Izzi, junior from New Bethlehem; Ted Kelly, junior from Sharon; Jerry Kemp, junior from Pittsburgh; Don McColim, sophomore from Kittanning; Bob Tweedy, sophomore from Johnstown; and Ken Warnick, junior from Blairsville.

Christmas Television Show Is Scheduled For Saturday, Dec. 12

Television, talent, fun, and entertainment will be the key words at Clarion State College this coming weekend as the annual Christmas Television Show will be presented over the College's closed circuit facilities on Saturday evening, December 12, at 8 p.m.

Utilizing both student talent and professional guests, the show will follow the same general format as last year's Christmas production, "Cool Yule." The title for this year's show is "Humbug '64."

Director for "Humbug '64" is Bill Flynn of the College's Instructional Television Center. He is being assisted by Miss Barbara Westenberg of Levittown. Floor Manager will be Tim Erhard, with Buz Joyce as cameraman. Title art, props, and scenery are being handled by Connie Woolsey, Kenneth Schuster and Margaret Schwartz. All of these people are students at Clarion. Technical Director for audio and video is Mr. Lou Trosese, also of the College's TV Center.

Talent appearing on the show includes the Delittes, a dancing trio, starring Judy Tuminella, Sandy Falloretta, and Carol Sichak. Margaret Heid, a folk singer from Pittsburgh, will make a guest appearance also. Gail Hamburg, also of Pittsburgh, will sing several solos and aid in the musical portion of several skits.

Stanley F. Michalski, and his Melomen, Jay Moorhouse, Denton Bond, and Bill Eustice, will provide musical backup for the entire show, as well as being featured in several numbers. The Melomen are well known entertainers in this area. It will be their second television appearance at Clarion State College.

More musical mastery will come from the piano of Joan Moody.

Dr. James Gemmell, president of the College, will make a brief Christmas address to the audience. The Master of Ceremonies and host for "Humbug '64" will be J. David Truby, director of public relations for Clarion.

The Christmas Show is open to the public and is free. It may be seen in rooms 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, and B53 of the College Administration Library Building at 8 p.m. on Saturday, December 12.

FIELD HOUSE CONSTRUCTION COULD START THIS SUMMER

Construction on the CSC Field House could begin by early summer if approvals from Harrisburg are forthcoming on submission of plans.

The structure had been originally vetoed in Harrisburg, but was given a conditional reprieve by the GSA. As it stands now, according to a College spokesman, the project is neither definitely on or off, but that it stands much closer to being approved than before.

When completed, the Field House will solve the problem of tickets for exceptional concert/lecture events. The planned seating is about 4000 people, as compared with the top seating of 1100 in the Clarion High School.

The Field House is part of the Gymnasium project which had originally been scheduled for construction on the present Harvey Football field site.

CSC Cooperates In PNPA Journ Promo

In cooperation with the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association, Clarion's Public Relations Department is sending copies of "Window on the World", an attractive recruitment booklet published by PNPA, to high school guidance counselors in its service area.

The book outlines the role and purpose of newspapers, and reviews the many attractive career opportunities in newspaper work, including reporting, writing, advertising, and printing.

"We have a belief at Clarion that good newspapers are extremely important to our State and our Nation. As an educational institution it is our duty to help these newspapers get the young people they need," commented J. David Truby, director of Public Relations.

"We hope this booklet will aid in gaining young people for newspapers or that it will furnish the students with the desire for college journalism education, aiming for a career in newspaper work. Naturally, the high school guidance counselors will play an important role in guiding these young people. This is why we have sent them this booklet," he continued.

Clarion State College is an affiliate member of PNPA.

Dr. Gemmell Leads Hearing on Education Aid

Dr. James Gemmell presented the initial testimony on behalf of the 14 State colleges during current public hearings being conducted by the Council of Higher Education of the State Board of Education.

Speaking to the Council in Pittsburgh, Dr. Gemmell underscored and repeated the need for additional financial and legislative support for the 14 State colleges.

He opened with the statement that the undergraduate enrollment of the public colleges will have tripled during this decade. The graduate student enrollment will have increased twelvefold.

Specifically, Dr. Gemmell commented on four major areas in which the State colleges needed immediate help if they are going to be able to properly educate Pennsylvania's young people, as follows:

1. Capital facilities: A more realistic and less involved approach must be developed for providing buildings for the State colleges. Presently, a minimum of 4 and one-half to 5 years is needed to plan, develop, and construct a building. There is far too much red tape and agency reviews of the projects. Dr. Gemmell used his own institution as an example.

"Clarion is scheduled to have 13 new buildings by 1972, to handle our projected 3000 students. We already have 2500 students now, only 500 short of the 1972 goal. However, of the 13 new buildings we need, just one is under construction and only four are in planning stages. Absolutely no action has been taken on the other eight!" said Dr. Gemmell.

"A crash program of building is needed now, in view of the tide of students already upon us. We need buildings," he concluded.

2. Branch Campuses: Presently, branch campuses are being operated by a few State colleges on a very, very thin "shoestring budget." In truth, much of the money currently being used to finance branch campuses comes from funds needed for projects on the main campuses. Yet, these branch campuses have already proved their value in providing education for more young people who wouldn't have been able to go away to school, Dr. Gemmell told the Council.

"There is a need for more financial aid to the State colleges to develop these branch campuses to their fullest potential. If we don't, we are again failing to serve the people of the Commonwealth," he remarked.

3. Salaries: Although termed as "better" by Dr. Gemmell, faculty salaries at the State colleges still do not compare with salaries of other institutions of higher education both in and out of Pennsylvania.

"For example," he told the Council, "at Ohio State, the average of all faculty salaries is nearly identical to the average full professor's salary at Clarion."

"In addition," Dr. Gemmell said, "we could offer other competitive fringe benefits, such as hospital and medical plans, insurance, etc. These are being offered in other states, and would aid us greatly in recruiting the caliber of faculty we need to support excellence in Pennsylvania higher education. We want the best for your tax dollars, and I'm sure you want the best for your children. Very well, let's go out and get the best."

4. Research: "There is a definite need for more local activity in research at the State colleges. This is where new learning techniques and ideas beneficial to mankind are found," Dr. Gemmell said. In addition, the Clarion president pointed out that the State colleges should be serving the taxpayers of Pennsylvania in this manner as well as in the direct education of the young people.

"There is presently just a minimal amount of research," he said.

In justifying his request for additional support, Dr. Gemmell pointed out the fact that the annual income of the State's average family is barely $6000, hardly enough, he said, to support youngsters in a higher-education private college. To this end, he reported, the educational interest of the public would be better served through the increased financial and legislative support of the 14 State colleges, as against tax support for private schools.

"The 14 State colleges are the only colleges that meet all of the

$10M Work-Study Grant Will Provide Aid For CSC Students

In the latest of a number of governmental grants awarded to Clarion State College, $10,377 has been approved for a student Work-Study Program at the College.

Notified of the approval of the grant by U.S. Senator Hugh Scott, Dr. James Gemmell, president of Clarion, said the grant would be used to provide money for part-time jobs for Clarion college students. These jobs, he said, would be both on and off campus.

The grant was awarded under the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964. Locally, it will provide work for students in need of financial assistance to continue college. Students will be selected for the positions on the basis of their need and their ability to meet the job requirements.

The Clarion State College Representative for the Grant, Dr. Darrell F. Rishel, dean of student affairs, said that approximately 92 students would be employed by the College this spring. This would be in addition to the normal number of part-time students employed at Clarion.

In addition, the College has agreed to provide student library assistants for the Clarion Free Library in Clarion. Dr. Rishel said that Library Science majors at the College will be assigned to the position, in so far as is possible.

On-campus employment includes positions in The Audiovisual Instructional Services Center; Closed Circuit Television Graphics; Direct Teaching, and Technical Assistants; College Library Assistants; Foreign Language Instruction and Laboratory Assistants; Biological Science Laboratory Assistants; Physical Science Laboratory Assistants.

Also, positions in Music Activities; English Instruction Assistants; and Residence Hall Assistants and Counselors.

It is hoped that students will be able to work in related Work-Study as corollary activities to their courses of study.

The general coordination of the Work-Study Program will be conducted by the College's Financial Aids Committee, Dr. Rishel said.

Slip and Slide

At last report, no students have been seriously killed using the icy steps of the treacherous route between the dorms on the hill and central campus. Five mountain goats were reported lost there last week.

"CHOKING UP" seems to be the hazard of this scene from rehearsals for "The Visit" which opens in the Chapel Theatre on February 17. This is the third dramatic presentation of the season. (Craig Conroy Photo)

Players Stage 'The Visit'

On February 17-20, the College Community players, under the direction of Mr. Robert Copeland, will present Friedrich Duerrenmatt's dynamic sociological drama, "The Visit."

Translated by Maurice Valency, the play concerns the aging, fabulously wealthy Claire Zachanassian, who returns to Gullen, the impoverished European town of her birth to pour money into its lap—on one condition. Town and townspeople can divide a billion marks if they will kill Anton Schill, the man who in Claire's youth denied that her child was his and made her an outcast and a prostitute.

Duerrenmatt, the leading dramatist writing in the German language today, has fashioned from these elements a many-leveled play which is in composite a grisly fable, a deeply moving tragedy, and a scathing indictment of the power of greed.

The play features David Caldwell of Clarion, Jean Port of Clarion, and Reverend Robert Reader of Knox in major roles. "The Visit," as produced on Broadway, featured celebrated performances by Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne.

Significantly, in the townspeople, Duerrenmatt exposes the most corruptible of all forces, the social human being; and at the mass end of the spectrum, one sees himself as capable of the villainous and hypocrisy here exposed.

The third production of the 1964-65 International Theatre Season at the College, "The Visit" has many dramatic elements not merely to entertain but to provoke deep thought on the part of the audience. Mr. Robert Copeland, director of this College presentation, asserted that "The Visit" is a play which viewers will not forget, but one which will make them face up to what Duerrenmatt calls "the grotesque world in which we live."

Tickets may be purchased at the Haskell Furniture Company in town, or at the College Theatre box office, in the lobby of the Chapel Theatre, beginning Monday.

Talk Copies To Library

Copies of a talk given by Dr. G. A. Konitzky, associate professor of Anthropology, to the Board of Overseers of the International Center in Boston have been presented to the College library.

Dr. Konitzky's talk, titled "Of Time and Space", deals with the importance of international education, and the great developmental role it can play in preserving democracy. The talk was termed "an excellent profession of faith in education" by several who reviewed it.

Clarion Graduates Awarded Doctorates

Clarion received word this week from The National Research Council that six of its graduates were awarded doctorate degrees in 1962 and 1963.

They are Edwin Dunmire, '54; Lawrence Ianni, '52; Leroy Olson, '49; Glenn Thompson, '52; Joseph Uzmack, '52; James Wilson, '53.

The Council announced that the listings of 1964 doctoral level degrees had not yet been compiled.

34 Students In 'Who's Who'

A record number of students from Clarion State College were named to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities," as 34 were listed in the national collegiate listing.

The list, announced by Dr. Darrell F. Rishel, dean of Student Affairs, is made up of students selected by faculty. Criteria used in selecting the students for "Who's Who" include general leadership, scholarship, social and academic achievement, plus overall contribution to the campus community, Dr. Rishel explained.

Students are nominated by Clarion's Department Heads and Administrative Officers, utilizing individual faculty and student suggestions. A college review board passes on the qualifications of each nominee, and sends a final list to the Who's Who central bureau for approval.

Students named included Robert Benson, of Windber; Mildred Bichsel, of Pittsburgh; Carroll Byers, of Apollo; Rebecca Clever, of Dayton; Virginia Collett, of Corsica; Eleanor Daniels, of New Kensington; and William Downs, of New Stanton.

Clarion Graduates Awarded Doctorates

Clarion received word this week from The National Research Council that six of its graduates were awarded doctorate degrees in 1962 and 1963.

They are Edwin Dunmire, '54; Lawrence Ianni, '52; Leroy Olson, '49; Glenn Thompson, '52; Joseph Uzmack, '52; James Wilson, '53.

The Council announced that the listings of 1964 doctoral level degrees had not yet been compiled.

Slip and Slide

At last report, no students have been seriously killed using the icy steps of the treacherous route between the dorms on the hill and central campus. Five mountain goats were reported lost there last week.

Players Stage 'The Visit'

On February 17-20, the College Community players, under the direction of Mr. Robert Copeland, will present Friedrich Duerrenmatt's dynamic sociological drama, "The Visit."

Translated by Maurice Valency, the play concerns the aging, fabulously wealthy Claire Zachanassian, who returns to Gullen, the impoverished European town of her birth to pour money into its lap—on one condition. Town and townspeople can divide a billion marks if they will kill Anton Schill, the man who in Claire's youth denied that her child was his and made her an outcast and a prostitute.

Duerrenmatt, the leading dramatist writing in the German language today, has fashioned from these elements a many-leveled play which is in composite a grisly fable, a deeply moving tragedy, and a scathing indictment of the power of greed.

The play features David Caldwell of Clarion, Jean Port of Clarion, and Reverend Robert Reader of Knox in major roles. "The Visit," as produced on Broadway, featured celebrated performances by Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne.

Significantly, in the townspeople, Duerrenmatt exposes the most corruptible of all forces, the social human being; and at the mass end of the spectrum, one sees himself as capable of the villainous and hypocrisy here exposed.

The third production of the 1964-65 International Theatre Season at the College, "The Visit" has many dramatic elements not merely to entertain but to provoke deep thought on the part of the audience. Mr. Robert Copeland, director of this College presentation, asserted that "The Visit" is a play which viewers will not forget, but one which will make them face up to what Duerrenmatt calls "the grotesque world in which we live."

Tickets may be purchased at the Haskell Furniture Company in town, or at the College Theatre box office, in the lobby of the Chapel Theatre, beginning Monday.

Talk Copies To Library

Copies of a talk given by Dr. G. A. Konitzky, associate professor of Anthropology, to the Board of Overseers of the International Center in Boston have been presented to the College library.

Dr. Konitzky's talk, titled "Of Time and Space", deals with the importance of international education, and the great developmental role it can play in preserving democracy. The talk was termed "an excellent profession of faith in education" by several who reviewed it.

Editorially Speaking

By MASON DENISON

Editor's Note: Mr. Denison's column, a syndicated service, is being used as a guest editorial, with his permission. This particular column appeared in 48 newspapers in Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg—Every now and then some chap stands on his own two feet and calls a spade a spade; usually he's shot down before he leaves the podium.

Fortnight ago this very thing happened, but there's been no shooting—yet!

In this particular instance Dr. James Gemmell, president of smallish (enrollment: 2,500) Clarion State College stood before a score of lawmakers from Western Pennsylvania and called for cutting out all state aid to private colleges and universities in Pennsylvania for two years.

Silence—momentarily—until legislative wits were duly collected. Actually the move was flying in the face of both the legislative and executive branches.

The Legislature by its actions and the Administration by its actions have condoned the very procedure this president of one of Pennsylvania's 14 state colleges would eliminate!

Literally, here was an "employee" telling "the big boss" what should be done!

He may be fired (or shot down) by his administration and legislative bosses—but at least he had the gumption to stand on his own two feet and say publicly what is long, long overdue.

(The only drawback: he didn't go quite far enough; state aid to private colleges and universities should be ended—period.)

Dr. Gemmell made the assertion because the 14 ("little sister") state colleges need the money desperately if they are to even remotely continue to interlock in Pennsylvania's bulging higher educational needs. What he meant was just this, using his own words:

"If the Legislature would declare a moratorium on spending state tax money for private colleges for one biennium (two years) this would, when coupled with student fees, provide every cent needed by the 14 public state colleges to accommodate 60,000 Pennsylvanians the state colleges will need to admit by 1970."

The state college issue in full spectrum was pointed up by this column in April of last year in a series of four articles, at which time the ludicrous state aid to private institutions versus the state college situation was underscored thusly:

"Only two other states—Vermont and Maryland—make any appropriation from public funds to other than state-owned institutions, and their combined appropriations for 1962-63 were only $764,000—while Pennsylvania taxpayers footed the bill for a whopping $41 million gift to state-aided colleges and universities! In addition, the state built more than $154 million worth of new buildings which were turned over to the private schools with no strings attached!"

To sum it up another way, of all state aid to private higher education in the entire United States, Pennsylvania taxpayers pay 97 percent!

Toddy higher education in Pennsylvania has become a three-headed fiscal dragon—with which Pennsylvania lawmakers in this 1965 session will have no other choice than to do battle, the three heads being: (1) the quasi-state university, Penn State, (2) the 14 state-owned colleges, and (3) the growing horde of state-aided private colleges and universities.

There's never been any logical answer as to why Pennsylvania alone of all the 50 states (with the exception of the picaresque dole already mentioned in the case of Vermont and Maryland) should dig into its taxpayer pockets for private colleges and universities.

Like Topsy, it has grown into a politico/socio monster, coming home to rest in this now-developing critical era of higher education in Pennsylvania.

(Little) Clarion State College's Dr. Gemmell has demonstrated his courage on the public block; will the Legislature match it?

Beauties and 'Beat Around the Bush'

CALL EDITORS questioned Governor Scranton during his collegiate press conference held in Harrisburg. Miss Diane Croskey, news editor, and Ruth Bellman, editor-in-chief, met with Pennsylvania's GOP leader. Talk centered mostly around Scranton's attitude toward education, and his political future.

Call Editors Have Interview With Gov. Scranton in Capitol

Ruth Bellman, Call editor, and Diane Croskey, news editor, attended the College Press Conference held by Governor William W. Scranton in Harrisburg, Pa.

Forty-seven colleges were represented by 112 students from all over the State of Pennsylvania.

Many topics were discussed and a few of them are listed below.

Question: Is there a chance that the Federal Government or State Government would subsidize the student, rather than subsidize the school?

Governor: I see. You're talking about the scholarship theory. Well, when I was running for Governor in '62, I pointed out that I was favorably inclined toward the student loan program, and we got this put through last year. Incidentally, we're going to request the Legislature to include freshmen, by legislation coming up this year. I said at the time that before attempting a State-wide direct Scholarship program we ought to see if the loan program would work. It seems to be working; it's coming along quite well. Now we are going to open it up to freshmen. When I say quite well, as a matter of fact, it's been the most successful student loan program in its first year that any state has had, in the history of the United States—so that's very successful.

When I was in Congress, I got into this matter of scholarships on a national level. I do not think it would be helpful to have such a program, and as you know, we have the NDEA, which helps in this field, but I think scholarship programs generally would be a helpful thing to do. I do think in the case of Pa. that we ought to hold off this effort until we see what the Council of Higher Education has to say about the Master Plan, which would be one year from now. You understand why I feel that way? It's because of the financial business involved here.

Question: The private colleges are now being subsidized greatly by the state. Will that continue as it is?

Governor: I don't know, because it depends entirely upon what the Council comes up with. Will it continue for this coming year? Yes. And it depends upon what you mean by subsidy. You know we did change the theory and practice of construction programs under the General State Authority so that the private colleges and institutions now pay rentals on same, which is not true of the state colleges. But as far as outright grants are concerned, this has not changed perceptibly, and we will have a recommendation to the legislature on this for this year, too, but I assume that in the future, a lot of it will be guided by what the State Board and the Council of Higher Education suggest.

Question: Governor Scranton, last year quite a movement was started to repeal the sales tax on textbooks and school supplies. This year, with the support of the National Student Association, schools interested in this area have received commitments from several State legislators in the Philadelphia area. What is your position requirements of public higher education. There is a State college conveniently located within commuting distance of almost every Pennsylvanian. We offer quality education at a cost which is reasonable, and the quality of instruction has risen sharply in the past years, and will continue to get better, as long as we support it," Dr. Gemmell continued.

Ed Aid

"Let's not make education the privilege of the intellectually and financially gifted. Don't deny college to our young Pennsylvanians who could benefit themselves and our society by attending college. Let's keep the doors of our 14 State colleges open to the citizens of the State. It is our charge and responsibility to provide this education, but we can't do it without your help and support. We need it now," Dr. Gemmell concluded strongly.

This plea for increased help for the State colleges is part of an increasing tide of interest in the financial and centralized-administrative control plight of the 14 State colleges. Alumni groups, some legislators, and the presidents of the State colleges have been questioning the general lack of aid given to the public colleges in the past.

Pennsylvania remains as one of two states that provides public tax money as aid to private colleges. This is a situation which educational and governmental leaders have gone on record as "needing study and change."

CSC Represented At News Seminar

Two representatives of Clarion State College attended the news seminar held by ABC-TV's news department in Pittsburgh last month.

J. David Truby, director of Public Relations, and William Mushrush, of Clarion's Instructional Television facility, attended as guests of WTAE-TV, channel 4 in Pittsburgh.

"The State of the World" was the major topic of discussion presented by the ABC-TV newsmen, representing the major news beats from around the globe.

By WAYNE HARPER

I'd like to welcome the incoming frosh and wish them luck. Believe me, you're going to need it!

I have a rather touchy subject at hand. It's touchy because I don't really have any proof of what I have to say. All I can do is write what I see and hope somebody sitting in the right chair will understand and investigate. Just what exactly is going on among the house-mothers? Why do they want to oust a very capable young man from their ranks? Is it because of his seemingly strange disciplinary actions, or is it really a battle of age, experience, and possibly prejudice against youth, ambition, and new ideas? That's all I want to say about it for now, except that maybe somebody better investigate soon before a possible injustice is done.

I have a question. When we start using our new cafeteria, are we going to have enough cloak room space? We're going to look nice for the state inspectors and the propaganda pictures in our coats and ties and dresses. Just don't let them see where we have to put our overcoats. However, all this is going to happen next year. What about this semester. How much longer are we, the students, going to have to use book shelf and even floor space because there aren't enough hangers? I wonder.

When I began writing this column, I tried to make it clear that it was simply an instrument of the students with which they could express their opinions and points of view. A student recently handed me a piece of paper with the following written on it and asked me to put it in my column. Here it is:

The pressure is on
I'm going crazy
My stomach is tied in knots
Assignments are due that I haven't started yet
I can't sleep at night for worrying
Read, write, listen, study, read, write, listen, study
Work, work, work, work
The ! ! ! with it—I quit!

The above may not be a poetic masterpiece; however I think it reflects every college student's feelings at one time or another.

See you next issue,
WAYNE HARPER

Venango Campus News

The Venango Campus basketball team played Warren Center, a branch of Edinboro State College, on Saturday, January 31, 1965. The score was 92-68 in favor of Venango Campus. A return match will be played on Saturday, February 6, 1965. Warren Center will give a dance for the Campus after the basketball game.

Mr. Bromley, science professor at Venango Campus, gave a talk on chemistry in the home at the National Secretary's Association dinner on Thursday, January 28. He discussed the different textiles such as wools, linens, and cottons and the manufactured materials such as acetate and orlon.

He demonstrated how hand lotion is made and passed it around to the ladies. He explained to them the effort of the American Medical Association to control false advertising and adulteration of cosmetics. He also discussed the quality points of the fine and better soaps.

This week, Mr. Bromley will give a talk and show slides on Germany at the Lutheran Church in Shippenville.

A record hop was held on January 30 to begin the new semester at Venango Campus.

Chaperones for the event were Mr. John Cliff and Mr. Ronald Shumaker.

Jack Williams, senior at the main campus, was the disc jockey for the evening.

Refreshments were served to the approximately one hundred students attending. Also at the dance were a group of students from the Warren Campus who were invited after the basketball game.

Sam Cangemi, a student at Venango Campus, made a trip to Washington over the semester break to attend the Inauguration and the Inaugural Ball.

He served as a page for the Democratic Convention in Atlantic City and was active in the campaign in this area.

This semester at Venango Campus there were two hundred full-time students registered along with twenty-nine part-time. Night classes have started for people who want to brush-up on certain subjects. Twenty-five people have registered for these classes.

The Circle "K" Club of Venango Campus collected and sold used books during the first week of the semester beginning January 25. New students bought books at reduced prices, while those students who sold books kept most of the money from the sale.

A handling charge of 25 cents per book made a small profit for the club, but the chief aim of the sale was to eliminate the confusion that results from the individual sale of books.

The Circle "K" Club of Venango Campus has elected new officers and filled other positions. Mr. Dalph Cook, biology instructor, is the club's new faculty advisor, and Mr. James Schwab, the Vice Principal of Oil City High School, is their Kiwanis sponsor. The new officers are Paul Jones, president; Bill Rosenberger, treasurer; Dave Heinzer, secretary. New members are Nick Gbur, James McCormick, Dennis Pelhan, George Case, Kurt Krahling, Norm Milliken, Bob Killen, Marty Kerchner, Tom Kleck, and Bob Gray.

For the past two weeks, the club members have been selling Venango Campus felt emblems, and an enthusiastic student body purchased the entire lot. The success of this sale has prompted the club to inquire about similar plastic stickers for display on windshields and bumpers. The proceeds from these sales will be used for a worthwhile school or community project.

Take time to think—it is the source of power.

Every man carries with him the world in which he must live.

If we don't stand up for something, we may fall for anything.

Money 'Moratorium' Termed Essential to Stop Taxpayers' Dollars Going to Private Institutions

A proposal for a two-year moratorium on granting tax money to private colleges and universities was presented to a group of western Pennsylvania legislators and political leaders by the president of Clarion State College, Dr. James Gemmell, as the highlight of the Area Legislators' Day Conference at Clarion.

Dr. Gemmell declared that "if the Legislature would declare a moratorium on spending state tax money for private colleges for one biennium, this would, when coupled with student fees, provide every cent needed by the 14 public state colleges to accommodate the 60,000 young Pennsylvanians the state colleges will need to admit by 1970."

Governor Conference

on this repeal in view of the projected $50 million surplus, and secondly, would you sign a bill if it were passed?

Governor: First of all, may I say that I think you know I am sympathetic to this idea, and I pressed that point of view during the campaign, and again last year when I was asked at this Conference. We have, however, run into some very deep legal problems. The Supreme Court case of the Leary Book Store in Philadelphia has made it most difficult, without a constitutional revision, to produce the result that you want. I hope that this means that not only in that instance but in a great many other ways you would support Constitutional revision, which I happen to believe is the greatest governmental need in Pa.

Question: Governor, you said you would await the formulation of the Master Plan, which you expect at the end of 1965. Is there any guarantee that you will accept the Master Plan?

Governor: No. No, I don't guarantee anything, and I don't think you'd want me to. I would like to know what it says first.

Question: (Question to State Attorney General, Walter Alessandrini) What are you going to do if the teachers strike?

Alessandrini: I would think that the teachers would not strike!

The Governor's answers were very vague and held no information that was not already known at the time. Many of his answers referred back to a Master Plan which seems more like an escape mechanism for his problems on higher education in the state of Pa. rather than a reality which seems to be taking so long in coming into being.

Going further, Dr. Gemmell told the group that Pennsylvania is the only State in the Nation which allocates millions of dollars in tax funds for privately-controlled colleges and universities.

"This policy has impoverished our own public colleges, the 14 State colleges. It is morally wrong to use public tax funds for the support of private education if it leads to neglect of public institutions," he added.

In providing factual data for his statements, the Clarion president showed that the 1963 Legislature authorized $136 million for construction of facilities in colleges and universities. Of that amount, private colleges and universities got more than 60 percent, Penn State alone received more than 10 percent, while all of the 14 state colleges, the only public institutions, received less than 30 percent of these public funds.

In addition to the urgency to provide these public funds to public institutions rather than to private ones, proposals were introduced and discussed that would expedite the design and construction of new buildings. At present, a minimum of 5 years elapses between legislative authorization and occupancy of a building. A great deal of unnecessary and expensive duplicate-effort is encountered due to outmoded administrative procedures.

In other areas of concern, members of Clarion's faculty demonstrated how admission standards have risen sharply at the College. This alarming rise in standards, which has forced Clarion to become extremely selective in its admissions, is part of the trend which is making public higher education for the academically "average" high school student an impossibility.

Our congratulations also go to Louise Buzzard on her pinning.

We would also like to thank all those women students who visited our sorority suites during Open House on February 1, and we wish them the best of luck during spring rush.

Karen Lynch receives our congratulations for being nominated our candidate for the Miss CSC Pageant.

Our congratulations also go to Arlene Fisher for being appointed student resident of third floor in Given Hall.

It will be easy to recognize any of our sisters since our new sweat shirts have arrived. They are light blue with navy crest and letters, and we are very proud of them.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

The Sisters of Sigma Sigma Sigma are very happy to report that we now have a sorority room. It is located in Given Hall basement and we are busy rearranging furniture and sorority displays. Our thanks go to Dean Rischel and Dean Kochenour for making it possible to use this room.

Plans are now underway for the informal and formal rush parties. We are looking forward to becoming better acquainted with the freshmen girls.

Girls who have ordered shaker sweaters and have paid their deposit should pick them up in the Tri Sigma suite soon. A new order is being placed. Anyone wishing to purchase a sweater should order them in Room 322, Given Hall.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

Congratulations are extended to our new initiates who recently joined our sisterhood. They are: Peggy Brammer, Sandra Carlin, Barbara Koch, Peggy Lou Norris, Lynda Ralston, Janet Royer, and Chris Stevens.

White violets are extended to Vivian Kramer, who was chosen Queen of the Persian Rifle Patrol, Company H-5, of ROTC at Washington and Jefferson College on Dec. 5. She will represent them at Pennsylvania State University, Gannon College, and the University of Pittsburgh. Vivian will compete with four other contestants in February at the Military Ball. She was presented with a purple and white braid which has the crest of the Company on it. Good luck!

A "good luck" party was held in honor of our seniors who are student teaching this semester. This party was attended by all the girls on the third floor, Ralston Hall.

The sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha are happy to have the new initiates and the seniors residing and participating in the activities on third floor Ralston. We were pleased to hear that our sisters Linda Addis, Carroll Byers, Kathleen Doyle, Sally Miller, Ronda Masters, and Mandy Woomer enjoyed their student teaching. We are also pleased to welcome back our sister, Jackie Clark, who has been out for a semester.

The Zetas enjoyed visiting with the freshmen women at their Open House, held in the sorority suite on Feb. 1. In honor of this event, decorations were displayed not only in the sorority room, but also on each Zeta's door. Prizes were awarded to Linda Addis and Vivian Kramer for the most decorative door. Honorable mention went to Jackie Clark and Peggy Lou Norris, Marilee Geller and Marti Ricciutti, and Connie Harmed and Barb Keller.

White violets are extended to our sister, Patty Blain, who was chosen to represent A. W. S. in the Miss C. S. C. Pageant.

So often we overlook the important while attending to the urgent.

Dr. E. Moses Writes Paper

A scholarly writing by Dr. Elbert R. Moses, Jr., chairman of the Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts, has been accepted for presentation at the 13th Congress of the International Association of Logopedics and Phoniatrics, to be held in Vienna, Austria, this summer.

Dr. Moses' paper, entitled "Conjectures on the Future in Phonetic Research", was accepted for presentation by the Scientific Committee of the Association.

The paper presents present and future developments in phonetics which will aid in research and education in that field. Particularly, it stresses the increasing role that computers will play in synthesizing speech from phonetic transcription.

In addition, Dr. Moses reports that research on the phoneme, which is the smallest recognizable unit of sound which carries meaning, should soon give it proper perspective in phonetics. There may also be a wider use of ITA (Initial Teaching Alphabet) in the public schools. ITA has been the topic of several articles in current national magazines.

Finally, the National Educational Association has suggested the need for more scholars in the educational process to stimulate curricular and instructional research and experimentation.

The Congress will be held August 23 to 29 in Vienna.

Journal Prints Hartley Article

Harold Hartley, associate professor of Special Education and in-charge of the Speech and Hearing Clinic, had "Deafness of Sudden Onset" published in the current issue of the "Journal of Speech and Hearing Disorders."

The article was based on a case study of sudden deafness. The study was unique since there are very few reported cases of sudden hearing loss.

Professor Hartley's article presents the clinical case history of a person before the sudden deafness occurred, continuing during and after treatment, and following the completion of medical treatment. A summation of medical therapy is included with the study.

The contribution the study makes is that it proves the value of medical therapy in cases of this nature. Previously, people afflicted with sudden loss of hearing were considered poor candidates for medical therapy.

The original research was done by Mr. Hartley while he was Clinical Audiologist at the Pennsylvania State University's Speech and Hearing Clinic.

CSC Designated as Test Center For National Teacher Exams

The College has been designated as a test center for administering the National Teacher Examinations on March 20, 1965, Dr. William J. Page, director of Student Teaching and Placement at the College, announced.

College seniors preparing to teach and teachers applying for positions in school systems which encourage or require applicants to submit their scores on the National Teacher Examinations along with their other credentials are eligible to take the tests. The examinations are prepared and administered by Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey.

The designation of Clarion State College as a test center for these examinations will give prospective teachers in this area an opportunity to compare their performance on the examinations with candidates throughout the country who take the tests, Dr. Page said.

At the one-day test session, a candidate may take the Common Examinations, which include tests in Professional Education and General Education, and one of the thirteen Teaching Area Examinations, which are designed to evaluate his understanding of the subject matter and methods applicable to the area he may be assigned to teach.

Bulletins of information describing registration procedures and containing Registration Forms may be obtained from the Placement Office at Clarion State College or directly from the National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, Box 911, Princeton, New Jersey.

Archaeological Laboratory Helps Research Program

Clarion State College has added a new facility to its growing number of educational programs. The Archaeological Laboratory located on the third floor of Science Hall provides urgently needed research facilities for students and faculty in connection with the archaeological program at the College.

This one year old project is to provide scientifically accurate data on the prehistory of the upper Allegheny drainage, an area only imperfectly known by archaeologists at the present. Since its start in 1963 and 64, Clarion State College students under the direction of Dr. Gustav A. Konitzky have excavated a number of important archaeological sites in the Allegheny and Clarion valleys, establishing the presence of Indian cultures in the area ranging from 3,500 B.C. to the historic period.

This research project is carried out in close cooperation with the Carnegie Museum of Pittsburgh and the Bureau of the Pennsylvania State Archaeologist in Harrisburg. Numerous local residents and property owners have assisted by providing valuable information.

Dr. Konitzky's work, in addition to its historical and archaeological importance, also provides the Clarion students with an opportunity for actual field work.

Peace Corps To Give Test

The Peace Corps will hold a Placement Test on campus for students interested in Peace Corps work.

The test will be given today, Saturday, February 6, at 8:30 a.m. in room 202 of the Administration Building.

Dr. Elbert R. Moses, Jr., head of the Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts and Peace Corps Liaison Officer at Clarion, said that the Corps needs approximately 8000 qualified volunteers to begin training this summer. Persons are needed in over 300 skills categories to serve in 46 countries, Dr. Moses said.

In addition, he said that the Corps would invite college juniors who would be available for service in 1966 to begin a six weeks training program this summer.

A complete questionnaire must be filled out by each volunteer before the test is taken. These questionnaires are available at all post offices and may also be obtained from Dr. Moses. Additional information on the Peace Corps and its program may also be obtained from Dr. Moses.

Prof. Appointed National Chairman

PROFESSOR LESTER OAKES

Lester C. Oakes, associate professor of Geography at Clarion State College, was appointed chairman of the Journal of Geographic Education Awards Committee of the National Council of Geographic Education.

The appointment was made by Melville V. Scarfe, dean of the College of Education at the University of British Columbia, who is president of the National Council.

The purpose of Professor Oakes' committee is the selection of the best article on geographic education and geography for the years 1964-65.

Visiting Scholars Committee Lists Future Speakers

The Visiting Scholars Committee of the College has released its program for the second semester.

On February 24 and 25, the Biology Department will sponsor Dr. Ronald Menzel, soil scientist for the U.S. Soils Laboratory, U.S. Department of Agriculture, in Beltsville, Maryland.

A seminar sponsored by the Chemistry Department will be held on March 9. Leading the seminar will be Dr. Lawrence Epstein, research chemist at the Westinghouse Research Center in Pittsburgh.

Dr. William H. Harbaugh, professor of History at Bucknell University, will present the final program on March 16 and 17. He is being sponsored by the Social Studies Department.

The Sports Scene

Cagers Blast 3 In 2nd Place

Following a successful road trip into Ohio last week, the cagers of Coach John Joy tore into Slippery Rock for a 98-61 victory on the home floor.

Despite the loss of two regulars, cut down by the old bugaboo of grades, the Clarion quintet has won its last three games. Apparently Coach Joy threw in the crying towel too early when John Derlink and Dan Bartolovic were declared ineligible by College, rather than Conference academic standards.

At Canton, Ohio, last week, Clarion State scored an impressive, 81-72, win over Malone College. In winning their sixth game, a fine second-half rally enabled the Eagles to gain the victory.

According to Coach Joy, Dave Griffen played the best game of his career against Malone. Griffen pumped in 12 field goals and had two points at the foul line for a total of 26 points. The 26-point total was an all-time high for Griffen.

Also hitting in the double figures for Clarion against Malone were Terry Thompson and Gerhard Klann, 21 and 14 points, respectively.

Clarion tallied 31 field goals, while Malone scored only 23. However, Malone had a better percentage at the foul line garnering 26 out of 33 attempts.

Then, last Saturday at Cleveland, Ohio, Clarion defeated a strong Penn five, 60-58.

With three seconds left in the game and the score tied at 58-58, McKay Jones attempted a shot from the middle of the key, but the shot missed the hoop and hit the rim.

A superb effort by Blaine Pendleton was achieved as he charged in on the ball and tipped in the winning basket with three seconds remaining on the clock.

In attempting to tie the score, Fenn called time out after Clarion made the go-ahead two points. Fenn needed a fast play and Bartel took the ball out of bounds and attempted a long pass to Deny Lenk. However, the ball was thrown wild and hit the ceiling of the gymnasium, stopping the play and giving Clarion the ball again.

According to Coach Joy, Fenn was setting up a play whereby Bartel passed the ball to Lenk and Lenk was to in turn pass the ball to Weldon Kytte, a six-foot seven senior, who was standing under the basket.

With four minutes and thirty seconds remaining in the game, Clarion was trailing 58-51. Therefore, Fenn didn't score another point after that time.

EAGLES' COACH, JOHN JOY

Terry Thompson, who has not been exactly setting the scoring race on fire this season, led the Eagle scorers with 28 points in their victory over Slippery Rock. The victory threw the Western Division race into a four-way tie. Other top scorers for Clarion included Dave Griffen with 17 points and Blaine Pendleton with 16 points.

Klann is now playing in Derlink's position, and is doing a fine job according to Joy.

Derlink was ranked 27th in the nation in scoring with an average of 24.6 points per game. He also averaged 15 rebounds per game.

Clarion State ranks 6th in the nation in rebounding and 28th in scoring with 89.8 points per game.

Clarion's record now stands at 7-2 and places the College in third place in the Western Pennsylvania State College Conference.

The Eagles travel to Indiana State College today, as both the freshmen and varsity face action on the Indian's court.

CSC Eagles Cop SRSC

Coach Frank Lignelli's Clarion State wrestlers returned to action on Tuesday night and came on strong to defeat an improved Slippery Rock team, 27-10.

The Golden Eagle grapplers are now 3-0 on the season, and Coach Lignelli considers the fine showing against Slippery Rock as a big boost which should help his matmen as they pursue their goal of another undefeated season.

Clarion won three straight matches to take an early lead which was never threatened. In the 123-pound bout, unbeaten Tom Todd set the stage for victory as he flattened Slippery Rock's Bill Fleming in 49 seconds of the first period for the fastest pin of the match.

In the 130-pound battle, Jim Cignetti added three more points to Clarion's score as he ground out a 4-1 decision over Ron Jadlocki. Not to be outdone by his teammates, Ken Warnick, Clarion's outstanding 137-pounder, went to work and pinned Del Simmons in 1:11 of the first period.

At this point, Clarion held a 13-0 lead. However, Slippery Rock was determined to get into the scoring column, one way or another.

Clarion's Tony Catalano was beating Slippery Rock's Dave Anderson, 3-2, early in the third period of the 147-pound clash. Then, in a disputed call, the referee awarded Anderson a point for an illegal slam by Catalano. Anderson claimed that he was injured on the slam, and he was awarded the victory by default, giving the losers five points.

At 157, a determined Marty Rusnak set out to get revenge for an earlier loss to Clarion's Bob Tweedy. Tweedy met Rusnak's aggressive attack and stopped the Slippery Rock grappler for the second straight time. The score was 4-2.

Wrestling at 167, Clarion's Jerry Kemp surprised a powerful Ray Brinzer, who had been beaten only once previously. Brinzer, attempting to maintain his slight lead, slammed Kemp with just one second remaining in their match. Kemp suffered a shoulder injury on the slam and was awarded the win by default.

Dale Frye, who had been ill at home for a few days, drove all the way from Tyrone to Slippery Rock to participate in the match. Frye's trip proved to be fruitful as he topped Slippery Rock's Herb Chereck, 10-8.

In the 191-pound bout, Clarion's Frank Grundler continued his winning ways by decisioning a stubborn Dave Dresser, 2-0. Grundler rode his opponent during the entire second period and then scored on an escape in the third period.

Slippery Rock's second win of the night came in the unlimited match when Frank Puschnigg pinned Clarion's Paul Sonoski in 2:06 of the third period. Sonoski, trailing 3-1, was attempting to even the score with a reversal when he was caught on his back.

In preliminary action, Clarion made a clean sweep of five exhibition matches. Bill Matthews and Ron Hamilton scored first period pins, while Don McCollim, Rick Gilmore, and Jerry Bish won by decisions.

This coming Saturday afternoon, Coach Lignelli's matmen will host Indiana State College.

Disciplinary Board Decides 4 Cases

Two students whose suspension from Clarion was deferred by President James Gemmell were removed from this "deferred suspension" status, and placed on disciplinary probation until the end of the Easter vacation by the College Disciplinary Board.

The original case had evolved from theft of a hose and several gallons of gasoline within the Borough last fall. The two young men were fined for disorderly conduct by local officials.

Under their "deferred suspension," the two men reported for conferences with a faculty member and with the Chairman of the Disciplinary Board.

Another student was placed on social probation and several reports of a disciplinary nature were discussed during the last meeting of the College Disciplinary Board held in December.

Senators Meet to Discuss Dances, Ring, Constitution

The Student Senate met December 15, 1964, and January 5, 1965. Those present at the December 15 meeting were: President Gene Hauman, Vice - President Earl Wensel, Senators Brammer, Gelvin, George, Grande, Marterer, Stewart, Warnick, Secretary, Jayne Moore, and visitor Mike Flory. Present also were advisors Mr. Duffy and Dr. Rishel. Those attending the January 5 meeting were: President Gene Hauman, Vice-President Earl Wensel, Senators Addis, Brammer, George, Gelvin, Grande, Marterer, Sheraw, Warnick; visitor Dr. Hilton; and advisors Mr. Duffy and Dr. Rishel.

The business discussed at the meetings was as follows: President Hauman read a letter from Dr. James Gemmell concerning a proposal adopted by the Clarion State College Board of Trustees. The Board regrets the withholding of funds from the CSC Symphony Orchestra and hopes that in the future the Student Senate will be more receptive to similar requests.

Mr. Duffy clarified that the funds for the rental of the harpsichord used for the choir Christmas program came from an allocation made to the Concert Lecture Committee for guest soloists.

The problem of poor television reception in Ballentine Hall was discussed. Earl Wensel and Mr. Duffy are concerned with the problem.

A recent article in the Call stated that the policy and plans of the Clarion State College Civil Liberties Union had been approved by the Senate. This was not the case. The Senate approved the college group's constitution, not their policy or plans.

President of the Sophomore class, Mike Flory, requested Senate approval for tentative dates for free record hops sponsored by the Sophomore class, to be held in the Union. The dances were already planned, but the Sophomore class wanted permission to sponsor them. Jerry Marterer made the following motion: "I move that the Student Senate allow the Sophomore class to have the Union on six dates providing it does not conflict with other activities and safety provisions are made." Tom Grande seconded the motion.

The constitution of the Interfraternity Council was introduced for approval. Dennis Gelvin made the motion, "I move that we accept the proposed Interfraternity Council constitution. Tom George seconded the motion. The question was called and a roll call vote taken. Those for: Addis, Brammer, George, Gelvin, Grande, Marterer, Sheraw, Warnick. None against. Wensel abstained.

Tom Grande and Dr. Rishel are forming a committee to investigate the efficiency of service in the Student Union and the improvements necessary.

MORATORIUM

Clarion's Admissions Director, Walter Hart, released data which showed that Clarion can admit only 1 out of every 5 students who have already applied for admission next fall. This is despite the fact that Clarion State College is one of the fastest growing colleges in Pennsylvania. They have more than doubled the enrollment in just 5 years.

"The 14 State colleges have traditionally been public higher educational institutions where young people could obtain a first-rate, low-cost college education. These colleges are quickly becoming selective in admissions, forced to deny academically average high school students because of lack of facilities. Since these state colleges offer high quality, low-cost education, it is the major opportunity in the State for students from middle and low income homes," was the statement made by Dr. David Hilton, administrative assistant to the president.

A progress report of present and proposed academic programs, plus a review of community services and research activities was presented by James D. Moore, dean of academic affairs. He added that the College would look forward to increasing its activity and growth in the important fields of service to the people of western Pennsylvania.

A review of the physical facilities, present and proposed, was conducted by Joseph Spence, director of development for the College.

Mr. Spence pointed out the need for a "crash program" of building to provide for the enormous enrollment increases in the next five years.

"Of the 13 buildings needed to accommodate our proposed quota of 4000 students by 1970, only one is under construction, four are in the planning stage, and no action at all has been taken on the other eight!" Mr. Spence said.

Dr. Gemmell presented the budget picture at Clarion, and told the group of the general financial picture for Pennsylvania's higher education system.

The Legislators had attended the informational seminar as guests of the College. They represented eleven counties in western Pennsylvania from which Clarion draws most of its students.

The purpose of the meeting, as outlined by Dr. Gemmell, was "informational in nature, to provide our legislators with our purposes, achievements, and goals. The importance of the public colleges' role in the lives of the people of Pennsylvania represents a great deal in the future growth of your area, indeed of the Commonwealth as a whole."

The Legislators had attended the informational seminar as guests of the College. They represented eleven counties in western Pennsylvania from which Clarion draws most of its students.

The purpose of the meeting, as outlined by Dr. Gemmell, was "informational in nature, to provide our legislators with our purposes, achievements, and goals. The importance of the public colleges' role in the lives of the people of Pennsylvania represents a great deal in the future growth of your area, indeed of the Commonwealth as a whole."

Instructor Writes Advertising Article

Clarion State College's Director of Public Relations, J. David Truby, had an article on retail advertising published in the current issue of the Missouri Press News, official publication of the Missouri Press Association.

The article, titled "Brighten Those Drab Ads", deals with the use of photography in retail advertising, and is based upon his experience as a retail advertising manager.

Mr. Truby recently addressed a meeting of delegates to the 40th annual Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association Convention held in Philadelphia. His talk covered newspaper promotion toward better advertiser relations.

Schmidt Gives Violin Recital

A program of sonatas for violin and piano was presented in the Chapel, Wednesday, February 3, at 8:30 p.m., and sponsored by the Students Association Concert Lecture Series.

The recital was the first local appearance by violinist Rodney Schmidt, instructor of music at the College, who was assisted by Dr. Robert Van Meter, pianist, acting head of the Music Department.

Compositions included in the program were the Sonata No. 4 in D major, Handel; Sonata in G major, K. 301, Mozart; Sonata for Violin and Piano (1917), Debussy; Four Pieces for violin and piano, Op. 7 (1910) by Webern; and Beethoven's Sonata in A major, Op. 47, the "Kreutzer."

Mr. Schmidt, who is in his first year at Clarion, was formerly on the faculty of the University of Colorado College of Music. A graduate of the Oberlin College Conservatory of Music and the San Fernando Valley State College, he is a student of the noted violinist, conductor and teacher, Andor Tot. Having served as concertmaster of many orchestras, Mr. Schmidt was most recently concertmaster and assistant conductor of the University of Colorado Symphony, Baroque Siring Ensemble, and the Boulder, Colorado, Philharmonic.

Dr. Van Meter, who is well known to Clarion area audiences, has had a long and varied musical career. A graduate of the Juilliard School of Music with undergraduate and graduate degrees in piano, Dr. Van Meter taught at Hastings College in Nebraska, and Central Michigan University before joining the Clarion faculty last year.

Program For Talented Youth Offers Many Special Courses

A cooperative program for the educational enrichment of able and ambitious high school students has been worked out between Clarion State College and the County Boards of Education in Clarion, Forest, and Jefferson counties.

The program, to be known tentatively as the Talented Youth Program, offers special enrichment courses, taught by college professors on the Clarion State College Campus to a group of academically able high school students selected from among the student bodies of schools in the three county area.

Mr. John Bower, Jr., supervisor of Special Education for Forest, Clarion, and Jefferson counties, is serving as the coordinator and liaison officer for the public schools in the program. Dr. Harold Simmons, director of Professional Education at Clarion State College, is representing the College in the Talented Youth Program.

"Basically," Dr. Simmons and Mr. Bower explained, "the Program consists of four study areas, Science, Mathematics, Social Studies, and Humanities I. The students choose one of these areas for study during a 10-week period. The study is of a horizontal, survey nature, encompassing many fields within each of the four major study areas."

A total of 100 academically talented high school students are participating in the program, with approximately 25 in each of the four major sections. The students are volunteers in the project, and will receive no formal credit or grades. Their work will be evaluated, however, along with the evaluation of the program.

"This is really an enrichment program, designed to give these able and ambitious students a chance at additional learning beyond the four walls of the high school classroom," Dr. Simmons further explained.

The students were chosen by joint selection of faculty, guidance counselors and administrative officers of the high schools taking part in the program. Mr. Bower added.

"Planning for this really began two years ago," Mr. Bower said, "However, this year it becomes a reality, now that we are drawing on Clarion State College as an educational resource."

The Program began with a Sequential Test of Educational Progress on January 16. This Test was held on the Clarion State College campus and measures the ability and achievement of the students in the program. A five-man selection committee will review the test results and applications to make the final choices of the one-hundred students who will take part in the Program.

Classes begin February 6, and will be held for a total of ten selected Saturdays, the dates of which have yet to be finalized. Each seminar will run from 9:30 a.m. until noon, with a half-hour break at the mid period.

Dr. Simmons explained this is the first step in what could lead to many similar programs, including enrichment instruction for junior high school students, and even grade school youngsters. In addition, many other study areas can be added to a program such as this.

"We are glad to cooperate with the public schools in the area on projects such as this program," Dr. Simmons concluded.

Financing for the Program came from the County Boards of Education in Clarion, Forest, and Jefferson counties.

Second Extemporaneous Speech Contest Is Held At Clarion State

The second Clarion State College Extemporaneous Speaking Contest was conducted at the College. The topic for consideration was: Is the present U.S. Foreign Policy in relation to Latin America, Africa, Russia, and its Satellites and the U.S. Allies really promoting peace?

Miss Sharon Brodick, a sophomore from Charleroi, speaking on the subject of U.S. Foreign Policy in Latin America, won first place and received a $15 cash award and a trophy. Miss Patti Albright, a freshman from Greensburg, speaking on the subject of U.S. Foreign Policy in Africa won second place, $10 and a trophy. Mr. Richard Stock, a freshman from Pittsburgh, speaking on the subject of U.S. Foreign Policy in Russia won third place and received $5 and a trophy.

The judges for the semi-finals were Professors Robert Copeland, Vernon Pierce and Amelia Hoover. Dean James Moore, academic dean, Dr. Dana Still, assistant academic dean, and Dr. Lester Moody, chairman of the Department of English and Linguistics served as judges for the final contest.

Miss Patricia McQuiston, a sophomore from Mercer, served as contest manager. Miss Amelia Hoover is the faculty sponsor. The awards are sponsored by the G. E. Grant Foundation.

JUDITH ANN SYMIONOF

CSC Graduate Receives Grant

Judith Ann Symionof, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Symionof of 892 Kenneth Avenue, New Kensington, has been awarded a traineeship grant at the University of Pittsburgh.

A 1965 graduate of Clarion, who majored in Speech Correction, Miss Symionof will receive $2400 a year, plus her tuition at Pitt while studying for a Master's Degree in Speech Pathology and Audiology. The grant is sponsored by the Veteran's Rehabilitation Administration.

While a student at Clarion, Miss Symionof was a member of Sigma Alpha Eta, National Speech and Hearing Honorary Fraternity, Student Senate, Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority, Pennsylvania Student Education Association and a class officer. In addition, she was named to the Dean's List for Academic Achievement, and Who's Who.

'Creativity' Sells Books Quickly

"Creativity, visual thinking, impact" are three words members of the Call advertising staff hear all the time from the advisor.

Apparently these leaked out, and the idea sunk in, as evidenced by the new approach to used textbook sales currently being tried by one student.

The creative young man has clipped a photo of a young blond, well endowed with fetching and ample charms on display, and has pasted it to the top of his list of used books for sale. Score 100 points for effective, attention-getting ad layout. There is no report on the effect his approach had on the sales of his books.

One member of the Call staff did recall, however, seeing a similar photo in a Playboy ad. Hmmm?

Never get mad at somebody who knows more than you do. After all, it isn't his fault.

Students Excavate Archaeological Sites

Field teams from Clarion State College excavated a total of 11 archaeological sites during the past summer and fall. The specimens recovered in these investigations are currently being processed and catalogued in the newly established Archaeological Laboratory at the College.

Students, under the direction of Dr. Gustav A. Konitzky, have assisted in the recovery of vital information about the little known prehistory of the upper Allegheny drainage. Although this first season was a successful one, much work remains to be done to complete the present survey, according to Dr. Konitzky.

Future plans include the production of an educational motion picture showing the archaeological methods of excavation and interpretation to provide regional schools with an accurate instructional aid. This film, "Information from the Earth," should be completed during the spring since shooting began during the past semester.

During the pre-session of summer school, Clarion will offer a three-week course in Field Archaeological under the direction of Dr. Konitzky. The course will be open to all undergraduates. Course participants will spend three weeks in actual excavation work and will learn modern methods of archaeology.

Community groups will be interested to learn that Dr. Konitzky has just put together a color slide lecture showing some phases of the archaeological project. The lecture was first given before the newly established Clarion State College Archaeological Association, an organized group of students particularly interested in field archaeology.

Dr. Konitzky's program makes Clarion State College the only state college in Pennsylvania actively engaged in archaeological research and teaching.

Discusses Aid

MR. WALTER HART

$ $ Here For Aid

By BARB KULLA

Nine scholarships are available to Clarion State College students who are able to meet the requirements for the grants, Walter Hart, director of admissions and chairman of the College's Financial Aids Committee said during a recent interview.

The nine include State scholarships and grants from civic organizations, private individuals, and trusts.

In addition, the College makes a number of NDEA loans and has other arrangements available to help the student who needs financial aid to continue college.

A brief summary of each of the nine scholarships available follows:

State Scholarships — Holders of State Scholarships may attend Clarion. These scholarships may be obtained from high school guidance counselors. These examinations are administered by the County Superintendents of schools.

Mary Corbett Dixon Scholarship Fund—This fund is established for a ten-year period by Donald Corbett Dixon in memory of his mother, who graduated from Clarion State College in 1903. A grant of $200 each year will be paid the girl graduate of a Clarion County high school selected by the administration of the college. Criteria for selection are scholarship, need, and citizenship. Application must be made before May 1 of each year.

Hanna Kent Schoff Memorial Scholarship — from the Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers, through the Hanna Kent Schoff Memorial Trust Fund, is presenting 2 four-year scholarships valued at $150 each year or a four-year value of $600 to each of the 14 state colleges in Pennsylvania beginning in 1959. The scholarship committee of each State College will select the candidate for the scholarship assigned to the college on the basis of ability, achievement, citizenship, need, and interest in preparing for the teaching profession. Applicants must be seniors in high school who have already been accepted by the college. Scholarship applications must be made before March 1.

Oil City Lions Club Scholarship—This is an annual scholarship fund of $250 available to a selected student from any Oil City high school or the Cranberry Area High School for use at the Venango Campus of Clarion State College. Details concerning application may be obtained from high school guidance counselors or from the secretary of the Oil City Lions Club.

Oil City Adelphi Club Scholarship—This is an annual scholarship of $250 available to a selected student from any Oil City high school entering the Venango Campus of CSC. Details concerning application may be obtained from high school guidance counselors or from the secretary of the Adelphi Club of Oil City.

Aside from these scholarships offered to high school seniors, other scholarships are available to college students by making an application to Mr. Hart, head of the Financial Committee. The selection is based on ability, scholarship and need.

H. W. Colegrove Scholarship Awards—A trust fund established at the First National Bank of Port Allegany by Mr. H. W. Colegrove provides for scholarship of $100 each per year to be awarded to students from McKean County (Port Allegany).

Jr. Wins Debate Honor in Michigan

Ruth Helfrich of Titusville, a junior at the College, received the top speaker's award in the "less experienced" division at Michigan State Debate Tournament last week end.

Ruth, who is in her first year of debate at Clarion, finished ahead of fifty-seven other speakers from fifteen colleges, and received a plaque for the honor. Both of Clarion's entries in the "less experienced" division had two wins and two losses in the tournament. The affirmative team of Joyce Boch of Tarentum, and Twila Yates of Canonsburg, defeated Denison University and Port Huron, while Ruth Helfrich and John Mann of Irwin, had wins over Lansing and the University of Michigan.

H. W. Colegrove Scholarship Loan Fund Trust—The will of Mr. H. W. Colegrove provides that the First National Bank of Port Allegany may make loans from his trust fund up to $200 in any one year, and not more than $500 to any one student, at the rate of 2 percent interest per annum while the borrower is attending school and 4 percent per annum after leaving school.

Elvira C. Moyer Scholarship—A scholarship of $130 a year established by Anna B. Lilly will be awarded annually to a student of the college selected by ballot by the faculty of the college. Application should first be made to any faculty member.

Theta Xi Foundation Scholarship — The Theta Xi Foundation of Pittsburgh has established a scholarship for four students which pays full tuition and fees for one semester. At least two of the grants must be made to a member of Theta Xi fraternity; the others are open to any student in good standing at the college. Applications are made to Dean Ruschel's office.

New Book on Speech Errors

"An Analysis of Pronunciation Errors in the Clarion-Brookville Area," a book published cooperatively by a Clarion State College department head and by a former student at the College, has been released for sale in the College bookstore.

Dr. Elbert R. Moses, Jr., chairman of the College's Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts, and Donald H. Dinney, a speech therapist in the Brookville Area School System, have co-authored a practical publication which points out pronunciation errors and their underlying causes. The book begins with the development of speech, and goes on to point out the factors basic to the understanding of speech and its function in oral communication. The book covers articulation, syllable, phoneme, rate and stress, overlapping movement, and the International Phonetic Alphabet.

Included also is a list of 100 words commonly mispronounced in this local region. An analysis of each word is given along with the correct pronunciation. The authors attempt to create interest in this subject, and turn individuals toward better pronunciation and a resultant increase in effective communication.

Debaters Add to Trophy Collection

Clarion State College's sophomore debate team of Barbara Artuso of Arnold, and Jan Callen of Tarentum, won third place in the Championship Division at Illinois State University late last semester. Clarion was in competition with a field of fifty teams from thirteen states, including seven members of the Big Ten and such distant teams as the University of Colorado, Southern Mississippi, and Wake Forest (North Carolina).

Clarion entered the quarterfinals by compiling a 5-1 record in the preliminaries, defeating University of Minnesota, Augustana, Illinois State, Northern Illinois, and Shimer, and losing only to Northwestern. Clarion was joined in the quarterfinals by Minnesota, University of Wisconsin at Oshkosh, Augustana, two Northwestern teams, and Macmurray.

In the quarterfinals, Clarion met Macmurray, which had the best preliminary record of the eight quarterfinalists, having won all six rounds and compiled top speaker ratings. Clarion lost the toss of the coin to determine sides, and Macmurray chose the negative. Clarion won the debate by a two to one decision of the three quarterfinal round judges. In the semifinals Clarion lost a two to one decision to Northwestern University. Northwestern in turn was defeated 3-2 in the finals by University of Illinois at Chicago, the same team that took first place in the championship division last year. Northwestern received the second place trophy, and Clarion and the University of Wisconsin at Oshkosh each received third place trophies.

In the varsity division, Kathy Hewston of Pittsburgh, and Nancy Caldwell of Oil City had a four-two record on the affirmative, and John Mann of Irwin and Ruth Helfrich of Titusville were three-three on the negative. The affirmative had wins over Monmouth, University of Wisconsin at Oshkosh, Eastern Illinois, and Indiana State. The negative defeated University of Chicago, Wheaton College, and Greenville College.

Four Clarion novices compiled a three-three record at the Duquesne Novice Tournament. Debby McKindree of Butler, and John Bodamer of Titusville won two out of three on the affirmative, while Jean Elliott and Liz Stallings had a one-two record on the negative.

Don Cossack Chorus, Dancers to Entertain

Debaters Travel to Kent, Harvard, Mt. Union, Ohio Wesleyan, St. Vincent

Clarion State College's novice debaters tied for third place last weekend at Kent State, where they were in competition with 18 colleges from four states.

Best record for the novices was compiled by Liz Stallings, of Hyndman and Jean Elliott, of Sligo, on the affirmative. Stallings and Elliott had wins over Grove City, Mount Union, and Anderson College, and a loss to University of Buffalo. It was the first time this season that Stallings and Elliott have won tournament honors for Clarion. Joyce Boch of Tarentum and Twila Yates of Canonsburg upheld the negative for Clarion's third place unit, and had wins over Ohio Wesleyan and Akron, and losses to Otterbein and Marietta.

In the varsity division, Clarion had a four-four record, Cathy Ed-

ner, of Falls Creek and Nancy Caldwell, of Oil City, were victorious over Baldwin-Wallace, Kent State, and St. Vincent, and lost only to Marietta. John Mann, of Irwin, and Ruth Helfrich, of Titusville, on the affirmative, defeated Dayton University, but lost to Geneva, Wooster, and Bowling Green.

The debate teams won a total of seven out of sixteen debates at Harvard Feb. 5-6, where 34 teams from all over the United States and Canada gathered for one of the nation's largest tournaments. Dr. Roger Hufford, Clarion debate coach, was one of a panel of five judges who rendered the decision in the championship round.

High-Leaping Dancer of Don Cossack Troupe

Noted Group To Perform On March 2

Clarion State College's Concert Lecture Series will present the internationally famous Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers on March 2, at 8 p.m. in the Clarion High School Auditorium.

The well-known choral and dancing group, organized in Prague, Czechoslovakia, has toured all six continents and performed over 7,500 concerts in 65 countries. Half of these concerts have been held in the United States.

The group is famous for their strong, choral renditions and the variety of striking, nationalistic dance numbers.

The membership in the Cossack Chorus and Dancers has been chosen from among the best available choral and dancing talent available from the White Russians, the pioneer exiles from Russian communism. Many individuals fought in the United States Army during World War II, several in the O.S.S. The Cossacks, as a group, have also performed extensively for the U.S.O.

In addition, their art has been witnessed by government, royalty, and by millions of ordinary citizens the world over.

Public ticket distribution for this performance will follow the same policy used in past Concert Lecture Series events. That is, all Clarion State College students will be given preference in admission.

"Student funds support the program, and it is only fair they be given first opportunity to see it," was the explanation of Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., chairman of the Series.

Dr. Gemmell To Visit SSC

Dr. James Gemmell has been selected by the Middle States Association of College and Secondary Schools to serve in an evaluatory position during a visitation this week to Salisbury State College, Salisbury, Maryland.

Library Displays Pakistan Articles

Youth Program Offers Courses

The Talented Youth Program, a cooperative educational effort between Clarion State College and the County Boards of Education in Clarion, Forest, and Jefferson counties, began instructional operation at the College.

The program offers special enrichment courses in four academic study areas, Science, Mathematics, Social Studies, and Humanities.

Approximately 160 selected students from high schools in the three-county area took voluntary, competitive examinations to qualify for the courses. Of this number, 100 may be taken into the program.

John Bower, Jr., supervisor of Special Education for the public schools in the program and Dr. Harold E. Simmons, director of Professional Studies at Clarion, is administering it from the College's end.

The two library showcases are presently decorated with articles and information from the Asian country of Pakistan.

Materials for the display were brought from Pakistan and loaned to the library by Dr. and Mrs. David A. Hilton. Dr. Hilton, who is assistant to President Gemmell, was a Fulbright Professor of Science Education at the University of Peshawar, West Pakistan in 1963-1964.

Most of the items on display were purchased at the bazaar in Peshawar, a city famous for its handicrafts. The remaining articles were from Lahore, Rawalpindi and several other Pakistan cities. Such unusual pieces as copper dishware and utensils, a hand-carved wood cigarette box and a woven basket for holding a cobra snake are only a few of the items on display.

CEC Meets to Discuss Study Opportunities

A CEC meeting will be held at the Special Education Center, February 23, at 7:30 p.m.

The main speakers will include two faculty members from the University of Pittsburgh, Department of Special Education and Rehabilitation, and two graduate students, who will discuss opportunities for graduate study in the various fields of Special Education.

Circle 'K' Club Sponsors Dance

Winter Capades sponsored by Circle "K", February 15 to 20, comes to a climax tonight, February 20, with a semiformal dance, Winter Daydreams, in the gym.

At the dance, a king and queen of the Winter Capades will be crowned. Each sorority enters a queen. Other on campus organizations nominate a king or a queen. Those nominating queens or kings are to have a snow sculpture, weather permitting.

Debaters Travel to Kent, Harvard, Mt. Union, Ohio Wesleyan, St. Vincent

Clarion State College's novice debaters tied for third place last weekend at Kent State, where they were in competition with 18 colleges from four states.

Best record for the novices was compiled by Liz Stallings, of Hyndman and Jean Elliott, of Sligo, on the affirmative. Stallings and Elliott had wins over Grove City, Mount Union, and Anderson College, and a loss to University of Buffalo. It was the first time this season that Stallings and Elliott have won tournament honors for Clarion. Joyce Boeh of Tarentum and Twila Yates of Canonsburg upheld the negative for Clarion's third place unit, and had wins over Ohio Wesleyan and Akron, and losses to Otterbein and Marietta.

In the varsity division, Clarion had a four-four record. Cathy Ed-

ner, of Falls Creek and Nancy Caldwell, of Oil City, were victorious over Baldwin-Wallace, Kent State, and St. Vincent, and lost only to Marietta. John Mann, of Irwin, and Ruth Helfrich, of Titusville, on the affirmative, defeated Dayton University, but lost to Geneva, Wooster, and Bowling Green.

The debate teams won a total of seven out of sixteen debates at Harvard Feb. 5-6, where 34 teams from all over the United States and Canada gathered for one of the nation's largest tournaments. Dr. Roger Hufford, Clarion debate coach, was one of a panel of five judges who rendered the decision in the championship round.

Noted Group To Perform On March 2

Clarion State College's Concert Lecture Series will present the internationally famous Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers on March 2, at 8 p.m. in the Clarion High School Auditorium.

The well-known choral and dancing group, organized in Prague, Czechoslovakia, has toured all six continents and performed over 7,500 concerts in 65 countries. Half of these concerts have been held in the United States.

The group is famous for their strong, choral renditions and the variety of striking, nationalistic dance numbers.

The membership in the Cossack Chorus and Dancers has been chosen from among the best available choral and dancing talent available from the White Russians, the pioneer exiles from Russian communism. Many individuals fought in the United States Army during World War II, several in the U.S.S. The Cossacks, as a group, have also performed extensively for the U.S.O.

In addition, their art has been witnessed by government, royalty, and by millions of ordinary citizens the world over.

Public ticket distribution for this performance will follow the same policy used in past Concert Lecture Series events. That is, all Clarion State College students will be given preference in admission.

"Student funds support the program, and it is only fair they be given first opportunity to see it," was the explanation of Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., chairman of the Series.

Dr. Gemmell To Visit SSC

Dr. James Gemmell has been selected by the Middle States Association of College and Secondary Schools to serve in an evaluatory position during a visitation this week to Salisbury State College, Salisbury, Maryland.

DR. JAMES GEMMELL

The Middle States Association, which is the recognized organization that accredits the activities of schools, has asked Dr. Gemmell to evaluate the organization and administration of Salisbury State College.

Last week, Dr. Gemmell presided over a meeting of the executive committee of Invest-in-America. Dr. Gemmell also serves as chairman of the National Advisory Committee on Economic Education to this national organization.

Library Displays Pakistan Articles

The two library showcases are presently decorated with articles and information from the Asian country of Pakistan.

Materials for the display were brought from Pakistan and loaned to the library by Dr. and Mrs. David A. Hilton. Dr. Hilton, who is assistant to President Gemmell, was a Fulbright Professor of Science Education at the University of Peshawar, West Pakistan in 1963-1964.

Most of the items on display were purchased at the bazaar in Peshawar, a city famous for its handicrafts. The remaining articles were from Lahore, Rawalpindi and several other Pakistan cities. Such unusual pieces as copper dishware and utensils, a hand-carved wood cigarette box and a woven basket for holding a cobra snake are only a few of the items on display.

CEC Meets to Discuss Study Opportunities

A CEC meeting will be held at the Special Education Center, February 23, at 7:30 p.m.

The main speakers will include two faculty members from the University of Pittsburgh, Department of Special Education and Rehabilitation, and two graduate students, who will discuss opportunities for graduate study in the various fields of Special Education.

Youth Program Offers Courses

The Talented Youth Program, a cooperative educational effort between Clarion State College and the County Boards of Education in Clarion, Forest, and Jefferson counties, began instructional operation at the College.

The program offers special enrichment courses in four academic study areas, Science, Mathematics, Social Studies, and Humanities.

Approximately 160 selected students from high schools in the three-county area took voluntary, competitive examinations to qualify for the courses. Of this number, 100 may be taken into the program.

John Bower, Jr., supervisor of Special Education for the public schools in the program and Dr. Harold E. Simmons, director of Professional Studies at Clarion, is administering it from the College's end.

Circle 'K' Club Sponsors Dance

Winter Capades sponsored by Circle "K", February 15 to 20, comes to a climax tonight, February 20, with a semi-formal dance, Winter Daydreams, in the gym.

At the dance, a king and queen of the Winter Capades will be crowned. Each sorority enters a king and each fraternity enters a queen. Other on campus organizations nominate a king or a queen. Those nominating queens or kings are to have a snow sculpture, weather permitting.

However, cheating seems to be ignored by the administration and many of the professors on Clarion's campus.

Cheating has many different definitions and is interpreted many different ways. The purpose of this article is not to define cheating, that is up to each individual's own standards.

During last semester's finals, there were at least two final tests that were "out." The tests of these same professors had also been out during the semester. It makes no difference that some students passed the course because they cheated their way through and didn't learn anything. They received the grade, which was most important to them.

Neither does it make any difference that some professors don't have enough professional pride to watch their tests or change them from one semester to the next. This is the attitude of the professor and reflects on him as a professor and a person.

Not only does cheating hurt the student who uses test copies, but these students and indifferent professors penalize those students who work for their grades honestly. Professors grading on a curve or by a point system actually give the advantage to the student who cheats and gets the highest points. You may say, study and you can get the high grade anyway, but what are the chances of getting a high-scoring paper when another student has an exact copy of the test two days before it is given and shares it with a few friends.

The lazy or indifferent student will always try to cheat, but must professors penalize the honest students?

Frank Stewart proposed the following motion for discussion and vote: "I move that permission be granted, for any recognized campus organization to raise money for charitable purposes, with the consent of the senate and with the advice of the Dean of Students." It was seconded by Dennis Gelvin. Roll call vote followed. Those for: Addis, Brammer, Gelvin, George, Marterer, Sheraw and Stewart. Those against: Wensel. No abstentions. The motion was carried.

Attending the February 9 meeting were: President, Gene Hauman; Vice-President, Earl Wensel; Secretary, Barbara Hankey; Senators, Addis, Brammer, Gelvin, George, Grande, Stewart, Warnick; Advisors, Dr. Rishel, Mr. Duffy and Dr. Hufford.

President Hauman reported that Josten's Company could not provide the particular type of plaque the Senate requested for outgoing presidents, but will submit another design as soon as possible.

The election committee was appointed and the members are as follows: Gene Hauman, Linda Addis and Dennis Gelvin.

President Hauman announced, regarding the present Senate by-laws, that anyone running for the office of President cannot be student teaching during his term of office. There was considerable discussion on the interpretation and possible change of this section of the by-laws. Frank Stewart made the following motion: "I move that Part A, Section I—Qualifications for office of President, Article III of the By-Laws of the Clarion Student's Association be changed to read: 'The President shall be a member of the Sophomore or Junior class at the time of his election and must be enrolled at the Clarion Campus. The office of President cannot be held by a student who is scheduled for student teaching during the fall semester of his term in office.'" The motion was seconded by Tom Grande. The roll call vote showed the following: Those for: Brammer, Grande, Stewart, Warnick and Wensel. Those against: Addis, Gelvin, George. None abstaining. The motion was defeated. (Amendment of by-laws requires approval by a three-fourths vote of the total membership of the Student Senate.)

Frank Stewart proposed the following motion for discussion and vote: "I move that the Senior Class be given permission to sponsor a jam session in the Student Union on the afternoon of February 27, a record hop on that evening after the basketball game, and that they be given permission to limit attendance to these events and to the record hop currently scheduled for Friday, the 26th, by selling tickets; the funds obtained in this manner are to be donated to the World University Service."

The motion was seconded by Earl Wensel. The vote showed: Those for: Addis, Gelvin, Grande, Stewart, Warnick and Wensel. Those against: Brammer and George. No abstentions. The motion was carried.

YOU MEAN SOME PEOPLE MISUSE THE STUDENT STATION WAGON??

Earl Wensel mentioned that there are several dangerous walking areas on campus due to the work of the contractors this semester and asked what could be done about it. Tom Grande made the following motion: "I resolve that a letter should be drafted and sent to the President of the college that some action be taken on the condition of the parking lot behind Becht Hall, and also the steps and walk leading from Given and Ralston Halls, because it is endangering the students." The motion was seconded by Gelvin. The vote revealed the following: Those for: Addis, Brammer, Gelvin, George, Grande, Stewart and Warnick. None against. Wensel, abstaining. The motion was carried.

Earl Wensel mentioned that it had been brought to his attention that the dances being presently held in the Student Union this semester have been too crowded to allow for the safety of the students attending. It was suggested that the sponsors of these dances be reminded of the previous agreement that they had made, whereby, if the attendance was too high to be properly accommodated in the Student Union, the group would move upstairs to the gymnasium, and the dance would be held there. Earl agreed to meet with the sponsors and remind them of their agreement.

Gene Hauman mentioned that he felt action should be taken to see why students cannot always use the gym on weekends. Tom Grande suggested the formation of a committee to speak with Mr. Waldo Tippin to discuss how the situation could be changed to allow this. Ken Warnick will serve on the committee and will talk with Mr. Tippin.

Dr. Manzel To Lecture

On February 24-25, Dr. Ronald G. Manzel will lecture in the field of agronomy as guest speaker of Clarion State College's Visiting Scholars Program. Dr. Manzel, Soil Scientist for the United States Soils Laboratory under the United States Department of Agriculture, will present a 2-day program, with both College seminars and a public lecture.

His lectures will deal with the radioactive contamination of crops and the uses of nuclear radiation in the study of the soil. The latter topic will concern "how nuclear radiation has facilitated the study of soil" and "convenient methods which have been developed using sources of nuclear radiation to measure soil moisture and density."

Clarion State College has been fortunate to get Dr. Manzel as a guest speaker because The American Society of Agronomy is presently interested in making known widely the opportunities for graduate study in crop and soil science. Also, The American Society of Agronomy Placement Service has expanded its list of assistantships for 1965-66 to nonagricultural schools. Visiting scholars such as Dr. Manzel provide an excellent opportunity for prospective graduate students and others interested in agronomy to learn of the available benefits and advantages in this field.

Clarion Band Plans Tours

The Clarion College Band is composed of three parts: marching, concert and dance band. Each year the Golden Eagle Marching Band performs at home games and travels to several away ones. The highlight of the marching band season is the Autumn Leaf Parade followed by Homecoming.

The dance band has many opportunities to play at social functions. Recently, the dance band played for Grace M. Sloan's testimonial here in Clarion. As a result, they have been invited to play at her inauguration in Harrisburg. They have also played for many college dances.

Also, each year the concert band is delighted to play host to a guest soloist. This year, the guest soloist will be Mr. Warren Covington, trombonist. Mr. Covington will perform several selections with the band at the annual spring concert which will be presented at the Clarion Area High School, March 15 at 8 p.m.

In the concert facet, the band, besides presenting an annual concert, makes an annual tour lasting about one week. This year's excursion will take the band to the New York World's Fair where it will play a concert at the Tiparillo Band Pavilion and one at the United States Pavilion.

On return from New York this year, the band will play concerts at high schools in eastern Pennsylvania as it does each year in the Clarion area schools. The final activity of the concert season this year will be the Mother's Day Concert to be presented on the campus lawn, May 9 at 3 p.m.

Band Director Michalski, Associate Professor of Music, and a corps of student helpers work continually to keep the concert organization functioning as efficiently as possible.

'HORSELESS CARRIAGE' STARTED HIGHWAY CARNAGE

In September of 1899, a man by the name of H. H. Bliss stepped off a trolley car and was struck down and killed by a horseless carriage. ## College Players Stage 'The Visit,' February 17-20

HELLO D'ERE—Joe Thomas represents one of the many students working "behind scenes" to achieve success for "The Visit."

Can money buy morals?

The Clarion State College Community Players, under the direction of Mr. Robert Copeland, are staging Frederick Duerenmatt's "The Visit" from Feb. 17 to 20 in an attempt to explore this question.

The central figure in the play is Claire Zachanassian, an aging and fantastically wealthy woman, who spent her girlhood in Gullen where she fell in love with Anton Schill. Schill's denial of Madame Zachanassian's charge that he was the father of her illegitimate child, and her subsequent fall to prostitution, motivate her visit to Gullen with the intention of gaining revenge. Her revenge is stated in an electric scene when she tells the poverty stricken townspeople that she will give them a billion Marks if they will kill Anton Schill.

Mr. Duerenmatt's development of the play from this point shows why he is considered the leading dramatist writing in the German language today, and that his exploration into the question of morality is universally applicable.

The cast, admirably directed by Mr. Robert Copeland, includes Jean Port, of Clarion, as Madame Zachanassian, and Dave Caldwell, also of Clarion and a student at the college, portrays Anton Schill. Major supporting roles are played by Barry Bright, of the college, and Reverend Robert Reader, of Knox. The set, designed by Mr. Vernon Pierce, follows the new concept of stage design called Non-objective Constructionism.

"The Visit" is the third production of the 1964-1965 International Theatre Season at the college and has been produced on Broadway.

Clarion SC Student Senate Adopts New Class Ring Designs

Clarion State College has recently adopted a newly designed official class ring created by the Josten Company of Minnesota.

Previously, two different ring companies displayed their rings in the college bookstore. One design was outdated and the other had never been adopted as the official college ring. Complaints had been numerous as to the service rendered by these ring companies and the general quality of the rings. The adoption of a new class ring design which would be the official Clarion State College ring was found necessary.

The Student Senate extended invitations to several ring companies to present their ring proposals to them. On December 1, 1964, the L. G. Balfour company representative was the guest of the Senate. The Herff-Jones company displayed their rings on December 8, and the Josten company, on December 15.

After viewing the rings and designs of the three companies, and discussing the merits of each, the Senate voted unanimously to accept the ring proposal of Josten, Inc. At subsequent meetings, the Senators decided upon the different elements they wished to be contained in the ring design. The Senators decided to incorporate the founding date of the college, graduation date, state seal, degree, mascot, and college name into the design. On February 2, 1965, Mr. James Killen, Josten's official artist, worked with the Senators and interested students to create a ring design. At the evening meeting of the Senate on the same day, Mr. Killen presented the sketches and adapted them to the specifications of the Senators. The Senators requested the school mascot, the golden eagle, be placed in a "different" pose, and Mr. Killen produced a fighting golden eagle to adorn the new ring. After discussion, the Senate unanimously adopted the design as the official design for the Clarion State College's men's ring. The official women's ring is a dinner-type ring containing several elements of the men's ring design. A dinner-type ring was chosen in preference of a smaller version of the men's ring because of the practicality of such a ring design. In future years, the graduate woman may wear the ring not only as a college ring, but also as a dinner ring.

Women's Class Ring

The rings are available with fourteen different types of stones, including birthstones, in smooth or facet cut. The stone of the ring may be engraved with Greek letters or a block "C." Purchase of the new rings will be limited to juniors and seniors only. The prices are comparable or less than the previous prices on the college class rings.

The ring will be on display in the college bookstore on March 1, 1965. Delivery will be four weeks after receipt of the order, except for initial orders which may be slightly delayed. The rings will be shipped directly to the purchaser, not to the bookstore.

All Josten rings are fully guaranteed and there are no repair costs for a student in college. After graduation, repairs are handled at Josten's prices.

A cold is both positive and negative. Sometimes the eyes have it and sometime the nose.

Faculty Senate Drops Exams

Faculty Senate unanimously moved to remove the Junior Standing Requirement at Clarion State College during their meeting this week.

Acting on a petition presented by Dr. William Page, director of Student Teaching and Placement, the Senate held a brief discussion on the matter, then moved unanimously. The action must be approved by President Gemmell before it becomes final.

The reasons given for dropping the examinations were that they are of little value in evaluating academic achievement, showing capacity for intellectual pursuits, proving college level ability, or giving a valid reason for a student's becoming a junior. In addition, Dr. Page's petition said the examinations are difficult to interpret, onerous to administer, and expensive to purchase.

The petition had also been discussed at the Dean's Academic Council earlier. After extended discussion, the Council voted to recommend to the Faculty Senate that the examinations be dropped as a requirement.

Dr. Page serves as chairman of the Committee on Academic and Professional Standing.

YOU MEAN SOME PEOPLE MISUSE THE STUDENT STATION WAGON??

Earl Wensel mentioned that there are several dangerous walking areas on campus due to the work of the contractors this semester and asked what could be done about it. Tom Grande made the following motion: "I resolve that a letter should be drafted and sent to the President of the college that some action be taken on the condition of the parking lot behind Becht Hall, and also the steps and walk leading from Given and Ralston Halls, because it is endangering the students." The motion was seconded by Gelvin. The vote revealed the following: Those for: Addis, Brammer, Gelvin, George, Grande, Stewart and Warnick. None against. Wensel, abstaining. The motion was carried.

Earl Wensel mentioned that it had been brought to his attention that the dances being presently held in the Student Union this semester have been too crowded to allow for the safety of the students attending. It was suggested that the sponsors of these dances be reminded of the previous agreement that they had made, whereby, if the attendance was too high to be properly accommodated in the Student Union, the group would move upstairs to the gymnasium, and the dance would be held there. Earl agreed to meet with the sponsors and remind them of their agreement.

Gene Hauman mentioned that he felt action should be taken to see why students cannot always use the gym on weekends. Tom Grande suggested the formation of a committee to speak with Mr. Waldo Tiffin to discuss how the situation could be changed to allow this. Ken Warnick will serve on the committee and will talk with Mr. Tiffin.

Clarion Band Plans Tours

The Clarion College Band is composed of three parts: marching, concert and dance band. Each year the Golden Eagle Marching Band performs at home games and travels to several away ones. The highlight of the marching band season is the Autumn Leaf Parade followed by Homecoming.

The dance band has many opportunities to play at social functions. Recently, the dance band played for Grace M. Sloan's testimonial here in Clarion. As a result, they have been invited to play at her inauguration in Harrisburg. They have also played for many college dances.

Also, each year the concert band is delighted to play host to a guest soloist. This year, the guest soloist will be Mr. Warren Covington, trombonist. Mr. Covington will perform several selections with the band at the annual spring concert which will be presented at the Clarion Area High School, March 15 at 8 p.m.

In the concert facet, the band, besides presenting an annual concert, makes an annual tour lasting about one week. This year's excursion will take the band to the New York World's Fair where it will play a concert at the Tiparillo Band Pavilion and one at the United States Pavilion.

On return from New York this year, the band will play concerts at high schools in eastern Pennsylvania as it does each year in the Clarion area schools. The final activity of the concert season this year will be the Mother's Day Concert to be presented on the campus lawn, May 9 at 3 p.m.

Band Director Michalski, Associate Professor of Music, and a corps of student helpers work continually to keep the concert organization functioning as efficiently as possible.

'HORSELESS CARRIAGE' STARTED HIGHWAY CARNAGE

In September of 1899, a man by the name of H. H. Bliss stepped off a trolley car and was struck down and killed by a horseless carriage. This man and this vehicle, later called an automobile, started the bloodiest chain reaction in the history of the United States. Be alert, don't become a statistic in 1965.

Seventy-two percent of all persons between the ages of 15 and 20 read a newspaper each day. For ages 30-39, the percentage is 82 percent, and from ages 40-54, the percentage is 83 percent.

College Players Stage 'The Visit,' February 17-20

Can money buy morals?

The Clarion State College Community Players, under the direction of Mr. Robert Copeland, are staging Frederick Duerrenmatt's "The Visit" from Feb. 17 to 20 in an attempt to explore this question.

The central figure in the play is Claire Zachanassian, an aging and fantastically wealthy woman, who spent her girlhood in Gullen where she fell in love with Anton Schill. Schill's denial of Madame Zachanassian's charge that he was the father of her illegitimate child, and her subsequent fall to prostitution, motivate her visit to Gullen with the intention of gaining revenge. Her revenge is stated in an electric scene when she tells the poverty stricken townspeople that she will give them a billion Marks if they will kill Anton Schill.

Mr. Duerrenmatt's development of the play from this point shows why he is considered the leading dramatist writing in the German language today, and that his exploration into the question of morality is universally applicable.

The cast, admirably directed by Mr. Robert Copeland, includes Jean Port, of Clarion, as Madame Zachanassian, and Dave Caldwell, also of Clarion and a student at the college, portrays Anton Schill. Major supporting roles are played by Barry Bright, of the college, and Reverend Robert Reader, of Knox. The set, designed by Mr. Vernon Pierce, follows the new concept of stage design called Non-objective Constructionism.

"The Visit" is the third production of the 1964-1965 International Theatre Season at the college and has been produced on Broadway.

Clarion SC Student Senate Adopts New Class Ring Designs

Clarion State College has recently adopted a newly designed official class ring created by the Josten Company of Minnesota.

Previously, two different ring companies displayed their rings in the college bookstore. One design was outdated and the other had never been adopted as the official college ring. Complaints had been numerous as to the service rendered by these ring companies and the general quality of the rings. The adoption of a new class ring design which would be the official Clarion State College ring was found necessary.

The Student Senate extended invitations to several ring companies to present their ring proposals to them. On December 1, 1964, the L. G. Balfour company representative was the guest of the Senate. The Herff-Jones company displayed their rings on December 8, and the Josten company, on December 15.

After viewing the rings and designs of the three companies, and discussing the merits of each, the Senate voted unanimously to accept the ring proposal of Josten, Inc. At subsequent meetings, the Senators decided upon the different elements they wished to be contained in the ring design. The Senators decided to incorporate the founding date of the college, graduation date, state seal, degree, mascot, and college name into the design. On February 2, 1965, Mr. James Killen, Josten's official artist, worked with the Senators and interested students to create a ring design. At the evening meeting of the Senate on the same day, Mr. Killen presented the sketches and adapted them to the specifications of the Senators. The Senators requested the school mascot, the golden eagle, be placed in a "different" pose, and Mr. Killen produced a fighting golden eagle to adorn the new ring. After discussion, the Senate unanimously adopted the design as the official design for the Clarion State College's men's ring. The official women's ring is a dinner-type ring containing several elements of the men's ring design. A dinner-type ring was chosen in preference of smaller version of the men's ring because of the practicality of such a ring design. In future years, the graduate woman may wear the ring not only as a college ring, but also as a dinner ring.

Women's Class Ring

The rings are available with fourteen different types of stones, including birthstones, in smooth or facet cut. The stone of the ring may be engraved with Greek letters or a block "C." Purchase of the new rings will be limited to juniors and seniors only. The prices are comparable or less than the previous prices on the college class rings.

The ring will be on display in the college bookstore on March 1, 1965. Delivery will be four weeks after receipt of the order, except for initial orders which may be slightly delayed. The rings will be shipped directly to the purchaser, not to the bookstore.

All Josten rings are fully guaranteed and there are no repair costs for a student in college. After graduation, repairs are handled at Josten's prices.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

The sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha Fraternity are pleased to announce that their nomination for king for the annual winter carnival is Dale Frye, Phi Sigma Epsilon.

Congratulations are extended to our sisters who have been chosen as candidates for the Miss Clarion State College Pageant. They are Patty Blain, A. W. S.; Karen Connolly, Junior Class; Josie Marshall, Zeta Tau Alpha; Patty Palmer, Clarion Band; Chris Stevens, Waiters Club.

Four sisters were named to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." Congratulations are extended to Carroll Byers, Sally Luczka, Judy Symonoff, and Bert Vidak.

On Monday, February 15, the Zeta's basketball team defeated the Giver. Untouchables. Keep up the good work, sisters.

The frigid weather at Clarion has prompted the sisters to take up knitting; not sweaters as you might imagine, but the turquoise mittens they have been wearing lately.

The Zetas recently elected their new officers for the coming year. They are: Patty Palmer, President; Peggy Brammer, Vice-President; Barb Townsend, Secretary; Sherry Ellis, Treasurer; Maureen Bojalad, Ritual Chairman; Sandy Carlin, Membership Chairman; and Marilee Geller, Historian-Reporter. Congratulations!

On Sunday afternoon, February 21, the sisters will be participating with the Civic Club of Clarion in the Heart Fund Drive. This will be their service project for this semester.

White violets are extended to sisters Reenie Bojalad, who will be representing Phi Sigma Epsilon, and Janet Royer, who will be representing Theta Chi as their candidates for Queen of the Winter Carnival. Best of luck!!

THETA XI

The Brothers of Theta Xi would like to announce that Miss Patricia Sexton is our candidate for the position of Miss C. S. C. Pat, majoring in elementary education, is a freshman hailing from Penn Hills. Also, we would like to announce that Miss Sandy Steiger will be our candidate for Snow Queen on campus. Sandy is a freshman from Linesville and is also majoring in elementary education. We wish success to both girls.

At the formal rush party of Theta Xi, February 10, the Brothers were proud to present their advisor, Dr. Lawrence Penny, head of the psychology department at C. S. C., with the pin of the fraternity. We would like to thank Dr. Penny for his guidance and advice through the years that Theta Xi has been on campus.

Congratulations are due to our fine wrestling team, coached by Mr. Frank Lignelli, on their very successful record so far in the season, and especially for the smashing of an excellent Thiel College team. We hope that the team may have another undefeated year.

We would like to thank Brother Thomas Hixson for his good work redecorating and adding to the new party room. With work like this from Brother Hixson, we will have a very colorful party room.

SIGMA DELTA PHI

The sisters of Sigma Delta Phi would like to congratulate sister Carol Jarsinsky on her recent pinning, and to sister Dianne DeCorte on her engagement.

We wish sister Carol Jarsinsky the best of luck during her student teaching this semester. We forgot to include her with our other student teachers, and we apologize, Carol.

The plans for our annual Dinner-Dance are underway. It is scheduled for May 1, and will be held at the Garden Gate Restaurant near Butler. As usual, we are expecting a very enjoyable evening.

We would like to thank Randy Girling for accepting our nomination to be our entry as our king candidate for this year's Winter Capades. Good luck, Randy; you have our fullest support.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

Greetings from the Brothers of Phi Sigma Kappa. The Clarion chapter would like to welcome our national vice-president, Mr. John Silinich, to the campus. He has made this visit to the campus to give us help in completing our house plans. We were also happy to meet with Mr. Dick Dender, who is a field secretary from national headquarters. Brother Dender attended our formal smoker on Tuesday night and also cleared up our organizational problems.

We are also looking forward to our first pledge class. We have just completed pledge party activities during the past three weeks. Pledgmaster Larry Martin has begun preparations for the pledge training period, which will begin on February 22.

Congratulations to the Kappa's bowling team. The Kappas have entered a three-way tie for first place with their victory last Wednesday. We hope this is a trend for things to come.

Good luck to our candidate, Miss Linda Cooper, Sigma Sigma Sigma, in her bid for the Miss CSC title.

Congratulations to our advisor, Mr. John Joy, on the basketball team's excellent record. Keep up the good work. Belated congratulations to the wrestling team, and good luck in the state championships.

That's all from third floor McKean.

ALPHA CHI RHO

Elections were conducted in Council on February 15, 1965. The new officers are: President, Dan John; Vice President, Dennis Reymer; Ritual Officer, Glen Roadman; Chaplain, Bill Benson; Secretary, Joe Eckhardt; Treasurer, Glen Cochran; Guard, Vaughn Garvin. Also elected were Corresponding Secretary, Vaughn Garvin; and Social Chairman, Chuck Klammer. Our congratulations and best wishes to our new officers.

Preparations are well underway for the Greek Sing. Everyone insists that he can't sing, but this has never stopped us at any of our parties.

At our previous council on February 1, the Brothers carefully considered the possibilities for a candidate for Miss CSC. It was decided to ask Francine Rickel to represent us. Best wishes to Francine!

On the 28th of this month, our chapter will be honored by a visit from Mr. W. Henson Watchorn, the National Chairman of Alpha Chi Rho. We have many matters to discuss with "Hense" before he returns to the national office.

Congratulations to Brother Bill Benson for his fine performance in The Visit. The entire cast has our applause for a job well done.

Congratulations are also in order for the excellent record so far compiled by both the basketball and wrestling teams. Keep up the good work! Plans are being made for our annual Spring Formal. The time and the place are not yet determined, but everyone is trying to fit it into their already tight college social budgets.

ALPHA GAMMA PHI

The men of Alpha Gamma Phi would like to thank all the men who attended the smokers held in the past weeks. We hope they enjoyed them as much as we did. A special note of thanks goes to those groups who entertained at the closed smoker; the Sigma Sigma Sigma quartet, the Zeta sextet, the Deltets, and to Miss Gayle Tracy and the Chevells, who did another outstanding job of entertaining the men of the red and black and their prospective pledges.

Special praise also to Don Mikus, who acted as emcee for the festive occasion. We would like to thank Miss Vickie Bonnet for bringing to light that her father was once a Gamma, which only goes to prove there's a little bit of good in all of us.

We welcome back John D'Angelo, who is back after a recent struggle for life in the school infirmary. Congratulations to brother "Bo" Garritano, who has recently received a feeler from the Dallas Cowboy football team.

A special vote of thanks also to Paul Kennedy, who is the owner of the only typewriter in the Gamma household, making this column possible every two weeks.

We would also like to congratulate brothers Vic Dellabetta and Jim Patterson, who were nominated to represent the Delta Zeta and Sigma Sigma Sigma sororities, respectively, in the coming Snow King contest.

The brothers would like to congratulate brothers Garritano and Dellapiazza, who have been entertaining the brothers recently by putting on floor shows during dinner.

Thanks go to the men of Phi Sigma Epsilon for the "jammie" held last Saturday to help brighten up a dull, uneventful Saturday afternoon. The brothers were glad to see that it was held open to all students and were happy to have an opportunity to attend.

Get well wishes go to brother Lynn Colangelo, who is recuperating from a recent accident while practicing "Karate" in his room.

The Sports Scene

Clarion's record now stands at 11-3, and they will travel to Lock Haven State College on Saturday for a State College Conference game.

Coach John Joy stated that his team is in the very thick of things and his team isn't giving up hopes of winning the Western Conference championship.

Clarion has to beat Lock Haven and Edinboro next week. Clarion's league record is 5-3, while Edinboro posts a 6-2 slate.

Tuesday night at Latrobe, the St. Vincent wrestling team became the seventh straight victim of the season for Coach Frank Lignelli's Clarion State matmen.

Student Debate

Nancy Caldwell, a sophomore from Oil City, and Ruth Helfrich, a junior from Titusville in her first year of college debating, compiled a four-four record. Caldwell and Helfrich defeated Michigan State, University of Illinois (Chicago), Fordham, and St. Peter's. They lost to Auburn, Boston College, Claremont College (California), and Seton Hall.

Barbara Artuso, a sophomore from Arnold, and Jan Callen, a sophomore from Tarentum, had a three-five record. This team had wins over Columbia, New York University, and Loyola of Baltimore, and losses to Marquette, Mount Saint Vincent, Grinnell, Michigan State, and University of Illinois.

The Golden Eagle grapplers used six pins and two decisions to whitewash St. Vincent, 36-0. It was Clarion's third shutout of the season.

Tom Todd, Don McCollim, Dale Frye, and Paul Sonoski all recorded first period falls. Jim Cignetti and Bob Tweedy pinned their opponents in the third period while Ken Warnick and Jerry Kemp won by decisions to round out Clarion's scoring.

Not only have the Golden Eagles won seven in a row this season, but over the past three seasons, they have won 25 straight matches. Last Saturday night, Coach Lignelli's matmen hosted and convincingly defeated the Indiana State College wrestlers, 32-5.

Tom Todd gave Clarion a 3-0 lead as he whitewashed Tom Crew by a 10-0 score in the 123-pound match. In the 130-pound division, Clarion's Jim Cignetti had little difficulty in disposing Indiana's Jim Smalley. Cignetti pinned Smalley in 21 seconds of the second period.

At 137, Indiana's Guy Tiracorda was determined to avenge a previous loss to Clarion's Don McCollim. However, when the final buzzer sounded, the Clarion grappler came out on top with a 7-3 decision.

CSC's Tony Catalano finally got even with Rick Camden in the 147-pound battle. At the Western State College Wrestling Tourney last December, Camden defeated Catalano by a 4-2 margin, but this time Catalano topped the Indiana wrestler, 3-2.

Clarion's second pin of the night came in the 157-pound class when Bob Tweedy put Ed Eckberg to the mats in 1:24 of the second period. This was Eckberg's first dual meet loss against six wins.

At 167, Clarion's Jerry Kemp, wrestling with a slightly injured shoulder, made a fine showing against a strong Dick Pegnetter. Kemp scored a well-earned 5-2 decision over the Indiana grappler.

Earlier, the wrestlers had scored their fifth and sixth straight victories of the season, shutting out Edinboro by a 37-0 score and routing Thiel by a 29-3 margin.

The Lignellmen will go after their next win Saturday, when they journey to St. Francis. In their first meeting of the season, Clarion shut out St. Francis.

Press to Hold Verse Contest

The National Poetry Press announces its annual competition in verse written by college students. All college students are invited to submit verse to be considered for publication in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry.

The student's name, home address and college must be typed or printed on each entry submitted and sent to the National Poetry Press, 3210 Selby Avenue, Los Angeles 34, California.

Every entry must be on a separate sheet. Inasmuch as space is limited, more favorable consideration is given to shorter poems.

Closing date for submission of entries is April 10, 1965.

Trombonist Warren Covington to Perform March 15

On Monday, March 15, under the Concert Lecture Series Program of Clarion State College, the Clarion State College Concert Band will host guest soloist, Warren Covington, famed trombonist, recording star, and leader of the Warren Covington Orchestra.

This versatile personality has established a career which includes playing and teaching experience in every field of music from jazz to musical comedy.

Upon leaving high school in a Philadelphia suburb, Mr. Covington played with some of the top bands in the country, interrupted only by two and a half years in military service. Ten years followed with CBS staff orchestra doing its top shows.

In 1956, he left CBS to accept the leadership of the Decca Records' Band, "The Commanders." Shortly afterwards, when Tommy Dorsey passed away, Mr. Covington was approached by the Dorsey estate to take over the leadership of the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra.

WARREN COVINGTON

Since September 1, 1961, when he founded the Warren Covington Orchestra, this capable performer has been traveling across the country at a rather rapid pace, playing engagements in cities from Canada to Mexico. He has performed on tour at such places as Virginia Military Institute; Annapolis Ring Dance, Annapolis, Md.; Yale University; Purdue University; Michigan University; and Penn State, as well as at various other social and political functions throughout the country.

In his performance with the Clarion State College Concert Band, Warren Covington will act as soloist in several compositions: "Manana," "Sentimental Over You," "Reflective Mood," "Cherokee," "Topsy Trombone."

Acclaimed as "one of the finest talents in the country," Warren Covington, with his unusual ability and versatility on the trombone, should insure the success of this March 15th Concert Lecture Series Performance.

The 79 piece CSC Concert Band will be under the direction of Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., and will perform these numbers: "His Honor March," by Henry Fillmore; "Preambulum and Canzona," by Girolamo Frescobaldi and arranged by Justin Gray; "Concert Suite," by Frederic Asher; "Elsa's Procession to the Cathedral," by Richard Wagner and arranged by Lucien Caillat; and "Irish Tune from County Derry," by Percy Aldridge Grainger.

Also, "Proud Heritage," by William P. Latham; "Komm, Susser Tod," by Johann Sebastian Bach and arranged by Erik W. G. Leiden; "Chester Overture for Band," by William Schuman; "Valdres," by Johannes Hænssen; selections from "Carousel," by Richard Rodgers-Oscar Hammerstein and arranged by Erik W. G. Leiden; and "World's Fair March," by Alfredo Antonini.

College Coeds in Competition For Coveted Miss CSC Crown

The annual Miss Clarion State College Pageant is well into the planning stages under the able direction of student committees representing each class at the College.

Fifteen coeds have been selected as semi-finalists for the annual Pageant that decides who the beauty will be to reign over the College as Miss CSC for a year.

These 15 girls were chosen at initial judging to appear as semi-finalists in the Pageant, which will be held Wednesday evening, March 10, in the Clarion High School Auditorium. The program will get under way at 7:30 p.m.

The program will consist of judging two appearances of each contestant, and in a competitive talent presentation. Each young lady will appear in a swim suit and in an evening gown, and will present a display of talent in performing competition.

The judges will select five finalists.

Each of these girls will then be asked two questions—one humorous and one serious. Final consultation by the judges then brings the audience to the highlight of the evening—the crowning of Miss Clarion State College.

Student Director for the project, Carol Mazza, an education major from Bridgeville, said that the names of the judges have not yet been released. All, she said, are professionals.

The College is providing the Pageant with aid and guidance under the direction of Miss Eva Kochenour, assistant dean of student affairs at Clarion. The committee is made up of Tom George, Jackie Lloyd, Mike Flory and Jack Haveley.

Last year's Miss CSC was Janet Royer, of DuBois, currently Clarion's entry in the Pittsburgh Press Roto Queen contest.

Student Voting On March 8, 11

Elections will be held for officers of the Student Senate and the Association of Women Students on March 8 in the lobby of the Administration building. Student senators will be elected on March 11.

Candidates for the various offices and the student senators were introduced on March 3 at 7 p.m. in the chapel. Campaign speeches were then given by the candidates for president for both the senate and the A.W.S.

In order for students to be candidates for these positions, certain qualifications must be met. For president of the Senate, a student must be a member of the Sophomore or Junior class at the time of his election. He can not be scheduled for student teaching during his term of office. The president of the A.W.S., too, is required to be a member of the incoming Junior class.

The vice president for Senate can be a member of the Freshman, Sophomore, or Junior Class at the time of his elections while the vice president of the A.W.S. is limited to a member of the incoming Senior class.

For the rest of the A.W.S. officers, the candidates are to be

Epstein to Conduct Science Seminars

Clarion State College's second visiting scholar of the year, Dr. L. M. Epstein, supervising scientist of Westinghouse Research's Radiation Laboratory, will be on campus March 9 to conduct seminars and meetings with faculty and students of the Science Department.

A graduate of Cooper Union, Dr. Epstein received his M.S. degree and his Ph.D. degree in Chemistry from Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute.

An author as well as a scientist, Dr. Epstein has written 25 technical reports, 13 research papers, 14 memos, and has 6 patent disclosures.

He is Chairman of the Pittsburgh Polymer Group of the American Chemical Society, and Treasurer of the Isotopes and Radiation Division of the American Nuclear Society.

CSC Debaters Take Honors

Two Clarion State College debaters took first place honors in the Michigan State Invitational Experimental Debate Tournament, held in East Lansing, Michigan.

This tournament was set up at Michigan State with the help of an experimental grant, in order to study more closely the process of debate judging. In order to obtain the most valid study possible, the tournament was restricted to sixteen outstanding teams from Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Michigan. The teams invited were selected on the basis of the competency of both the debaters and the coaches who were to do the judging. Two judges were provided for every round, and each judge, in addition to the usual debate ballot, filled out a long questionnaire at the end of each speech, indicating his opinion as to how well the debaters had performed all the functions that might influence the outcome of the debate.

Clarion finished in first place at the end of the six preliminary rounds by winning eleven out of a possible twelve judges' ballots. Arturo and Callen had a split decision in the first round with Albion, then won unanimous decisions over University of Detroit.

DR. L. M. EPSTEIN

In 1943, following graduation from Cooper Union, he was a junior engineer for the Lithalloys Corporation. His work there was ended quickly by the War, as he served in the Navy for the next three years.

From 1946 to 1947, he worked as a Chemist for American Aniline Products. Dr. Epstein taught Analytical Chemistry, General and Instrumental Methods at New York University from 1947 to 1955.

From 1955 to 1956, he held a Fellowship at the Mellon Institute. And, in 1956, Dr. Epstein joined Westinghouse Electrical Corporation.

JANET ROYER

Royer Enters Roto Contest

Snow on the ground and cold weather mean nothing where beauty is concerned. So the philosophy goes at Clarion State College, where Janet Royer, a dashingly brunette coed from DuBois, has been chosen as the College's candidate for Roto Queen.

Janet, who is also currently reigning as Miss Clarion State College, is an English major. She is a 1963 graduate of DuBois High School where she was a cheerleader and member of the band.

Honors are not new to this comely young lady. She has been Miss DuBois Area High School, Miss United Fund, Foliage Queen, and a member of the Fire Queen's Court. Last spring, she was named Miss Clarion State College.

Since enrolling at Clarion last year, she has become a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority, and a member of the Concert Band.

Editorially Speaking

Miss Clarion State College for 1965 will be a coed who deserves the title, for a very efficient method of judgement has been devised to assure a fair chance for each contestant.

To leave no trace of doubt in anyone's mind, the judging of the fifteen beauties will be made by a well qualified group including a vocal instructor, a dress designer, a representative from a beauty culture school, a dancing school instructor and a former director of the Miss Clarion County Pageant.

Judging will be based on a ten point system; that is, each judge will rate the girls by marking a number between zero and ten on the score sheets. This mark will depend on the degree of ability that each contestant displays in modeling an evening gown and bathing suit and in performing a talent. Talent will be considered as fifty per cent of the basis for judgement. The score sheets are designed to cover every aspect of each field equally.

After the presentations of the candidates are completed and the score sheets are filled by the judges, two recorders, Mrs. Wolfe and Dean Kochenour, Dean of Students will tabulate the scores and return the names of the top five girls in a sealed envelope.

Each finalist will be required to answer two questions, one serious and one humorous. In contrast to previous years when each girl was asked the same questions, each candidate will be asked different questions, thus eliminating the possibility that someone could be prepared for their question.

Fairness and exactness in judgement will be an outstanding quality of this year's Miss Clarion State College contest. Hopefully, the losers as well as the winners and every student and teacher at the college will appreciate the effort on the part of the committee to assure the best possible judgement for the Miss C.S.C. contest in 1965.

"WE, THE STUDENTS...."

By WAYNE HARPER

The recent anonymous comment entitled "Notes From the Underground" caused the present writers of this column to think about its cause and possible effect. "Notes From the Underground" was an immature comment, but it was also the product of a frustrated student opinion. This space, which should be used as a platform for student criticism of happenings at Clarion State College should have satisfied that opinion. It obviously did not. But what will happen now that the "Notes From the Underground" has been circulated? The people who printed it are satisfied and the students who read it, having received vicarious satisfaction, can comfortably lapse into their former apathy. The writers of this column, however, cannot.

Because of this student comment, "We the Students..." will, in the future, endeavor to express student opinion more vigorously and, hopefully, with more effect than in the past. In order to do this, the writers make three requests of the students. They are: 1. that the students make their opinions known; 2. that they read this column with clear, open minds; and 3. that they take action. The first of these requests is the most basic.

If this space is to be used effectively, students must make their opinions known. Students may express their opinions through this column by writing letters to the editor of this paper, or by talking to members of the Student Senate. The best method of reaching the entire student body is this paper. It will be our job to print in this column the most widely held opinions, but it will be the job of every student at Clarion State College to tell us what to print. This column should be a rallying point for student opinion. This can only be done if we, the students, become interested enough in this campus to express our opinions. But the expression of student opinion is only the first step. In order for these opinions to have any positive effect, students must read this column and recognize it as a catalyst for achieving the third action on the part of the students.

Organized action on the part of any group is the quickest means of attaining results. The problem at Clarion is that even if the student body is dissatisfied, any action taken usually lacks organization. Because of this, the writers of this column will suggest actions by which the students can correct something with which they find fault. Organized action at Clarion can take two basic forms. The first is action which would be confined to the campus itself; that is action taken by Student Senate, independent petitioning of the administration and (or) Student Senate, and, in extreme cases, student organizations. The second form of action is taken off campus. This would include petitioning of the state legislature and publicizing matters deserving public attention in the public press.

As previously stated, if this column is effectively used, comments like "Notes From the Underground" will be unnecessary. But the only way this column can be effective is if we all work to make it so, and to do this, we must have expression of student opinion and dynamic student action.

THE SENATOR'S NOTEBOOK

Clarion State College Student Senate met February 16, 1965, in the Student Government room. Present at the meeting were: President Gene Hauman; Secretary Barbara Hankey; Senators Addis, Brammer, George, Grande, Marterer, Sheraw, Stewart, Susa; Advisors Dr. Rishel and Mr. Duffy.

President Hauman read a letter from Josten's Company stating that the company decided that it would be more appropriate to change the position of the founding date and graduation date on the men's class ring, and that, hoping the decision would be satisfactory to the Senate, have made the change.

Gene Hauman announced that a letter was received from the Board of Trustees approving the increase of summer school activity fees, as recommended and recorded by Student Senate in their minutes of April 28, 1964.

Tom Grange reported that he had looked into the possibility of having a separate counter installed in the Student Union for the purpose of an "express-type" service for beverages only. Nothing definite has been decided regarding this. He plans to submit an additional report at a later time.

Gene Hauman read a note from Dale Frye, Junior Class President, requesting an allocation from Student's Association Funds of $6.30, in order that the Junior Class might purchase and present flowers to its Miss Clarion State College candidate. After discussion, the following motion was made by Frank Stewart: "I move that we refuse the Junior Class request for their Miss C. S. C. candidate." The motion was seconded by Tom Grande. The question was called and voting followed. The motion was carried with none against and two abstaining.

President Hauman announced that the advisors of the college's student art and literature publication, The Clarion, are requesting an additional budget request of $100 in order to add additional student artwork illustrations in the 1965 issue of the publication. The following motion was made by Dennis Sheraw and seconded by Linda Addis: "I move that the Student Senate transfer from the Student Publications (calendar, handbook, directory), a surplus amount up to $100 for use in the publication of The Clarion." The question was called and roll call vote followed. The motion was carried.

CSC Debaters Tie for Fourth

Two of Clarion State College's freshmen debate team members, Joyce Boch, of Tarentum and Twila Yates, of Canonsburg, tied for second place on the affirmative at a tournament held at the University of Buffalo.

In competition with 24 varsity teams from a four-state area, Boch and Yates had tied with Vermont for first place, going into the final round. However, the debaters lost to Cornell in that round, and finished with a tie for second place with Colgate.

On the negative, Cathy Edner, of Falls Creek, and Marilyn Naugle, of Beaver Falls, compiled a 3-2 record.

Clarion's overall record of 7-3 was good enough for a tie for fourth place in Tournament standings.

The club is under the direction of Mr. P. Jobb, the art instructor at Venango Campus and Clarion State College. Mr. P. Jobb has attained the black belt in the sport.

Judo originated in Japan in the late 19th century, an outgrowth of jujutsu. It is not only a means of self-defense, but also a sport. The students are taught judo both as a means of self-defense and a sport.

The club meets at the Oil City High School every Thursday evening from 6 to 8 o'clock. They started out with the white belt,

Wrestlers Boast Undeclared Season

The end of another wrestling season at Clarion State College shows Coach Frank Lignelli's Golden Eagle matmen turning in an outstanding showing with ten straight wins for their second consecutive undefeated season.

Over the past three seasons, the Clarion State grapplers have won 28 straight dual matches, and in the last 33 matches, they have lost only one. In addition, this season marked the fourth straight time that Clarion has captured the Western State College Tournament Championship.

Enroute to their impressive record this season, the Golden Eagles rolled up 329 team points while limiting the opposition to just 28 points—an average of 32.9 points per match for Clarion to the opponents' average of 2.8 points per match.

Statistics show that in their ten matches this season, the CSC wrestlers had a total of 89 take-downs, 41 escapes, 37 reversals, 21 predicaments, 26 near falls, and a highly commendable total of 45 falls.

Six varsity regulars finished the season undefeated. They are Tom Todd, Jim Cignetti, Don McCollim, Ken Warnick, Bob Tweedy, and Frank Grundler. Since the beginning of his college wrestling career, Cignetti has posted three undefeated seasons in dual meet competition.

In their first two years of college wrestling, Warnick and Todd have not been beaten. Also Grundler has not lost a dual match during the past two seasons.

Individual records are as follows—in their season (wins, losses, draws, pins): Tom Todd 115, sophomore from New Castle, (9, 0, 0, 4); Don McCollim 123, sophomore from Kittanning (5, 0, 0, 1); Bill Matthews, 123 freshman from Peters Township, (0, 1, 0, 0); Jim Cignetti 130, junior from Hempfield, (9, 0, 0, 4); Rick Gilmore, 130, freshman from Peters Township, (2, 0, 0, 0); Ken Warnick, 137, junior from Blairsville, (7, 0, 0, 4); Tony Catalano, 147, junior from Greenville, (9, 1, 0, 3); Bob Tweedy, 157, sophomore from Johnstown (9, 0, 0, 5); Jerry Kemp 167, junior from Mt. Lebanon, (8, 1, 0, 0); Jerry Bish, 167, junior from Redbank Valley, (1, 0, 0, 0); Dale Frye, 177, junior from Tyrone, (9, 1, 0, 4); Jim Manuel, 177, freshman from Kittanning, (1, 0, 0, 0); Ron Wise, 177, freshman from Redbank Valley, (0, 0, 1, 0); Frank Grundler, 191, junior from Shaler, (7, 0, 0, 3); Paul Sonoski, Hwt., freshman from Oil City, (5, 2, 0, 4); and Ray Tokar, Hwt., freshman from Shaler, (1, 0, 0, 1).

In 1959, when Coach Lignelli brought the mat sport back to Clarion State College, he had 14 men out for the team. This year Coach Lignelli was greeted by 40 candidates for the squad.

Clarion has never had a losing season since the sport was reactivated. In six seasons, Lignelli's wrestlers have won 48 while losing only 9.

As far as this year's success is concerned, Coach Lignelli comments, "This was a real team effort on the part of every wrestler. We had no 'one' outstanding wrestler—every man did an outstanding job in every match."

FRANK LIGNELLI

Coach Lignelli also notes, "There was a tremendous amount of determination and desire on the part of every man on the team. The many hours of hard work and sacrifices by every wrestler contributed to the success of the team. The men were in excellent condition, and they displayed this by their aggressiveness in every match."

Although the dual match season has ended, the Clarion State wrestlers have been drilling daily in preparation for upcoming tournaments. Coach Lignelli's fine matmen are determined to win, and convinced that they can win the State College Tournament this weekend at Lock Haven.

In addition to the State College Tourney, the Golden Eagles will be participating in the small college nationals at Terre Haute, Indiana the following weekend.

A. P-Jobb Gives Instructions to Judo Club At Venango Campus

Five girls and ten boys are members of the Judo club this year at Venango Campus.

The club is under the direction of Mr. P-Jobb, the art instructor at Venango Campus and Clarion State College. Mr. P-Jobb has attained the black belt in the sport.

Judo originated in Japan in the late 19th century, an outgrowth of jujutsu. It is not only a means of self-defense, but also a sport. The students are taught judo both as a means of self-defense and a sport.

The club meets at the Oil City High School every Thursday evening from 6 to 8 o'clock. They started out with the white belt, signifying students, and will gradually work up to belts of higher standing as they become more familiar with the techniques.

The Clarion State College courtmen were nipped, 77-76, last Tuesday night in their season finale by Grove City on the winners' court.

At the half, the Golden Eagles held a 40-39 lead over their hosts, but Grove City fought back, and with just two seconds remaining in the game, Jack Marovich hit on a jump shot for the winning tally.

Marovich paced the winning attack with 20 points. He was followed by Rawlins and Drew, who hit for 17 and 16 points, respectively.

Per Clarion, Terry Thompson was high scorer with 22 points. Thompson, who holds the school scoring record, will be the only Clarion State cager graduating this year.

Gerhard Klenn was Clarion's second highest scorer in the game as he connected for 21 tallies. Blaine Pendleton and Dave Griffin also hit in double figures with 17 and 10 points, respectively.

The Clarion Staters finished the 1964-65 season with a 13-5 record. This was Coach John Joy's best record in his four years of coaching at Clarion.

Wrestlers Boast Undeclared Season

The end of another wrestling season at Clarion State College shows Coach Frank Lignelli's Golden Eagle matmen turning in an outstanding showing with ten straight wins for their second consecutive undefeated season.

Over the past three seasons, the Clarion State grapplers have won 28 straight dual matches, and in the last 33 matches, they have lost only one. In addition, this season marked the fourth straight time that Clarion has captured the Western State College Tournament Championship.

Enroute to their impressive record this season, the Golden Eagles rolled up 329 team points while limiting the opposition to just 28 points—an average of 32.9 points per match for Clarion to the opponents' average of 2.8 points per match.

Statistics show that in their ten matches this season, the CSC wrestlers had a total of 89 take-downs, 41 escapes, 37 reversals, 21 predicaments, 26 near falls, and a highly commendable total of 45 falls.

Six varsity regulars finished the season undefeated. They are Tom Todd, Jim Cignetti, Don McCollim, Ken Warnick, Bob Tweedy, and Frank Grundler. Since the beginning of his college wrestling career, Cignetti has posted three undefeated seasons in dual meet competition.

In their first two years of college wrestling, Warnick and Todd have not been beaten. Also Grundler has not lost a dual match during the past two seasons.

Individual records are as follows—in this order (wins, losses, draws, pins): Tom Todd 115, sophomore from New Castle, (9, 0, 0, 4); Don McCollim 123, sophomore from Kittanning (5, 0, 0, 1); Bill Matthews, 123 freshman from Peters Township, (0, 1, 0, 0); Jim Cignetti 130, junior from Hempfield, (9, 0, 0, 4); Rick Gilmore, 130, freshman from Peters Township, (2, 0, 0, 0); Ken Warnick, 137, junior from Blairsville, (7, 0, 0, 4); Tony Catalano, 147, junior from Greenville, (9, 1, 0, 3); Bob Tweedy, 157, sophomore from Johnstown (9, 0, 0, 5); Jerry Kemp 167, junior from Mt. Lebanon, (8, 1, 0, 0); Jerry Bish, 167, junior from Redbank Valley, (1, 0, 0, 0); Dale Frye, 177, junior from Tyrone, (9, 1, 0, 4); Jim Manuel, 177, freshman from Kittanning, (1, 0, 0, 0); Ron Wise, 177, freshman from Redbank Valley, (0, 0, 1, 0); Frank Grundler, 191, junior from Shaler, (7, 0, 0, 3); Paul Sonoski, Hwt., freshman from Oil City, (5, 2, 0, 4); and Ray Tokar, Hwt., freshman from Shaler, (1, 0, 0, 1).

In 1959, when Coach Lignelli brought the mat sport back to Clarion State College, he had 14 men out for the team. This year Coach Lignelli was greeted by 49 candidates for the squad.

Clarion has never had a losing season since the sport was reactivated. In six seasons, Lignelli's wrestlers have won 48 while losing only 9.

As far as this year's success is concerned, Coach Lignelli comments, "This was a real team effort on the part of every wrestler. We had no 'one' outstanding wrestler—every man did an outstanding job in every match."

FRANK LIGNELLI

Coach Lignelli also notes, "There was a tremendous amount of determination and desire on the part of every man on the team. The many hours of hard work and sacrifices by every wrestler contributed to the success of the team. The men were in excellent condition, and they displayed this by their aggressiveness in every match."

Although the dual match season has ended, the Clarion State wrestlers have been drilling daily in preparation for upcoming tournaments. Coach Lignelli's fine matmen are determined to win, and convinced that they can win the State College Tournament this weekend at Lock Haven.

In addition to the State College Tourney, the Golden Eagles will be participating in the small college nationals at Terre Haute, Indiana the following weekend.

Clarion State Offers New TV Reading Program in 10 Sessions

Clarion is presently offering an experimental speed reading program via the college's television station.

The materials for the program are commercially prepared and consist of a series of films to improve reading speed and rate of comprehension. The program is composed of ten sessions given over a three week period. Student participation in the reading program is on a voluntary basis.

Each session begins with tachistoscopic exercises, which consist of a series of digits and phrases flashed on the screen at gradually increasing speeds. Following these exercises, two short articles are shown and a ten point comprehension test is administered after each is finished. The reading speed increases with each story.

The purpose of the program is to ascertain whether television can be used successfully in a reading program. If this experiment proves useful, the mechanical method being presently employed may be utilized to supplement lectures on the theories of speed reading and personal aids to reading improvement. Results after two lessons seemed to indicate marked improvements in both speed and comprehension among the thirty-three students participating in the program.

Clarion State Debate Team Wins Championship of Tournament

Michigan State, Wayne State, Wooster, and Northern Illinois. The experimental feature of the tournament was concluded after the sixth round, and the top four teams in the tournament went into a semi-final elimination round. Clarion was joined in the semi-finals by Michigan State, Wayne State, and Hiram, all of whom had compiled 9-3 records in the preliminaries.

In the semi-finals, Clarion met Hiram. Hiram won the toss of the coin, and elected to take the affirmative. Clarion won the debate by a 2-1 decision. In the finals, Clarion met Michigan State. Once again, Clarion lost the toss of the coin, and this time Michigan State chose the negative. Clarion won the final round and the tournament championship by a unanimous 3-0 decision.

In winning the tournament championship, sophomores Artuso and Callen accomplished the most outstanding achievement of the past two seasons, according to debate coach, Dr. Roger Hufford. Virtually every team in the tournament had won tournament honors in previous competition this season, and the Clarion debaters won a total of sixteen out of eighteen ballots through both the preliminary and final rounds.

The next tournament for Artuso and Callen will be the District VII eliminations at Richmond, Virginia, in three weeks, at which Clarion will compete for an invitation to the National Championships, to be held at West Point, New York, in April.

While the varsity debate team was busy winning the Michigan State debate tournament, Clarion's novices were doing just as well at a novice tournament held at Hiram College in Hiram, Ohio.

Carol Copenhagen of Ramey, Debby McKindree of Butler, Jean Elliott of Sligo, and Liz Stallings of Hyndman, combined their efforts to win the second place trophy with a record of six wins and two losses.

Copenhagen and McKindree, undefeated on the affirmative, with wins over California State, Kent State, Defiance, and Rio Grande. On the negative, Elliott and Stallings had wins over Hiram and California State, and losses to Muskingum and first-place John Carroll.

Jean Elliott received a desk stand as the top speaker in the tournament, and Debby McKindree was the third highest speaker in the tournament.

The Jimmy Dorsey Band presented a concert and play for a dance last Friday night in the School Auditorium. A dance followed.

The Dorsey Band was conducted by Lee Castle, for many years its star. He is so closely connected with the Dorsey family that he has been called "the third Dorsey" many times.

The original Band played many of the numbers that made Dorsey a household word all over the world.

Venango Campus News

Dr. Russell L. V. Morgan, administrative head of Venango Campus, has an interesting biography.

Dr. Morgan began his education at Slippery Rock State College where he graduated with a B.S. degree in 1930. He then went on to the University of Pittsburgh where he received his M.Ed. in 1936. He stayed at Pitt and received his Ed.D. He used "A survey of Social Recreation in a State Teachers College with Reference to Such Activity as an Element in Teacher Education" as the topic for his thesis and received his doctor's degree in 1952.

After he finished at the University of Pittsburgh, he went on and did further graduate work at the Carnegie Institute of Technology and Allegheny College.

Dr. Morgan began his teaching career at Claysville High School in Washington County, Pennsylvania. He taught biology, chemistry, and physics. He left Claysville in 1935 and from there went to Aspinwall High School where he stayed until 1945.

Between this time he spent three years as a Lt. Commander in the U. S. Navy during World War II. He was a liaison officer in specialized personnel services. He was stationed in Norfolk, Virginia, for two years.

While he was teaching at Aspinwall, he served as the head of the social studies department. He also taught government, economics, and U. S. history. He then became the Director of Guidance and Curriculum at Greenville for three years.

Dr. Morgan then took the position as a professor of psychology from 1949 to 1956 at Edinboro State College.

From there, he went to Butler where he was the Director of Curriculum and the Supervisor of secondary schools.

In 1961, he took the job of the Administrator of Venango Campus.

Venango Campus downed the Shenango Edinboro State College of Sharon last Wednesday evening, 78-54 as Terry McElhatton led the scoring with 33 points. Also scoring the double figures for Venango Campus were Pergola 17, Lewis 13, and O'Neill 11.

The Clarion State College junior varsity out - scored Venango Campus 80-78 at Clarion Saturday. High scorers for Venango included George Kern and Terry McElhatton who each tallied 23 points.

Venango Campus will host Shenango Campus of Edinboro State at 7:30 p.m. at the Lincoln grade school in the final game of the season.

Venango Campus held its second record hop of the semester on February 26.

Upwards of 150 students shunned the blustery weather to enjoy an evening of free pop, potato chips, pretzels and music. Two freshmen, John Kallmyer, and Jim Howells, served as disc jockeys.

The dance, held in the campus multi-purpose room from 8 to 11:30, was sponsored by the social committee. Chaperones for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Alastair Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams.

No Time to Be A Teacher

Albuquerque Tribune Public Forum (about August 24, 1961).

And it came to pass in those days that the people were given too much activity and when the prophet did have a vision, he did say in a loud voice, "Let's turn to the school, and have the schools do it." And with one accord, they did turn and with one voice, they did say, "Oh school, there is much to be done. Forsake ye the ways of the Three 'R's," and the schools did hearken unto the voice and did forsake the paths of knowledge and did wander in the wilderness.

And behold, on that day, there was a teacher who, after many meetings, was weary unto death, but she did remember that today it was Wednesday and a Bank Day, and she did say in a weak voice to her pupils of tender age, "Lo, today is Bank Day." Those pupils who have brought milk money and picture money and cupcake money may go to their seats. Nay, I will not take Junior Red Cross money, nor will I take a can of peas for the hungry people for Thanksgiving, nor shall I take the old coat for the cold people at Christmas until the bank money is counted and sent to the teller at the long table in the hall. And so it was!

Therefore, she did get out the cigar box with the slit in the top to hold the money, and the pupils did crowd around her with many pennies and nickels which they did steadfastly drop onto the desk and the teacher did set down in her book what each child had brought. But it happened that some of the pupils had no seats, but did linger to see the counting of the bank money.

And behold the door did open and the cupcake messenger did enter. So therefore, the teacher did have to make an order and tell in a humble voice the children with cupcake money to come forward, and lo, some of the bank children and some of the milk children and others also brought money, great was the chaos thereof.

Now when the cupcake messenger had departed, the teacher did finish the counting of the bank money and did call the children with the milk money and each child did put down a penny, but lo, a certain child said he had already paid for his milk, but the teacher believed him not, for the last year she had his brother, who likewise did make false statements about his milk money. Nevertheless, being weak, the teacher paid for his milk because he was thin.

Capades King, Queen Chosen

Clarion State College, in timing with the weather, held their annual Winter Capades two weeks ago.

RANDY GIRLING

Although they missed the snow by a couple of days, the Capades, sponsored by the Circle K Club at the College, held their dance and selected the King and Queen for the Festival.

Selected as King was Randy Girling, a junior from Long Island, New York. He is an education major and a member of the College's

NEA Reviews Truby's Study

The research project of a Clarion State College faculty member is the subject of review in the current edition of an official publication of the National Education Association.

"PR Ideas," a departmental publication of the NEA, reviewed "Public Relations in Pennsylvania's Higher Education System," researched and written by J. David Truby, director of Public Relations at Clarion State College.

The research project, which explores the public relation's programs of nearly all of Pennsylvania's colleges and universities, was rated very highly for approach, style, content, and scholarly research by the Association reviewers.

Nearly 60 colleges and institutions have since written to Clarion State College expressing interest in utilizing Mr. Truby's study to aid in structuring local, institutional public relations programs after Clarion's.

Mr. Truby's research project has been the topic of featured articles in several publications, including "College and University Journal," and "Opinion Research Monthly."

Harold Hartley, in charge of the Speech and Hearing Clinic at Clarion, announced that the Sharon Quota Club had made the scholarship available to the College.

The scholarship grant will be utilized in conjunction with the National Defense Education Act loan program. This will make $3000 available, Mr. Hartley explained, under the matching funds provision of NDEA.

The money will be available to a young woman or women at Clarion who is studying in Speech and Hearing Therapy. The recipient must be either a junior or senior, have a good academic record, and be in need of the financial assistance.

The scholarship will be known officially as "The Sharon Quota Club Speech and Hearing Therapy Scholarship for Women."

Mr. Hartley, Walter Hart, director of admissions at Clarion, and the scholarship's recipient or recipients have been invited to the Club's May 26 banquet in connection with the grant.

Strongly Protest Food in Letter

A college education has many expenses, but one expenditure not normally included in the cost of going to college has driven my father to the point where he has threatened to have me tutored.

Because I have complained that the "unreasonable facsimile" the college cafeteria tries to pass off on us as food is horrible and because my parents worry about my health, they send a weekly "CARE" Package. It is the cost of these "CARE" packages that has caused my father to threaten such drastic measures.

Our dormitory room looks like an extension of the local supermarket.

You name it... my roommate and I have it: seven different kinds of crackers, five varieties of cereal, cheese (creamed and brick), peanut butter, marshmallows, fudge, bouillon cubes, tuna fish, canned sausages and other assorted meats.

Black olives, cookies (bought and homemade, instant coffee, tea bags, sugar, fruit cake, bagels, raisins, apricots (dried and canned), doughnuts, instant lemonade mix (enriched with vitamin C), canned peaches, pears, mandarin oranges, figs, applesauce and a conglomeration of candy bars.

On one side of our room in our handy little refrigerator (which is really the window sill, but it serves the purpose), we keep apples, grapes, oranges, tangerines, pomegranates, bananas, jars of grapefruit sections, a thermos bottle, canned fruit juices and butter.

On occasions we have been lucky enough to receive hot pizza, meat loaf and birthday cakes.

Inter-State Roads to Cost State $1.5 Billion More

With almost 60 percent of Pennsylvania's 1,585-mile Interstate road network in use or being built—considerably ahead of the national average—the State Highway Department today estimated it will cost nearly $1.5 billion to complete the remaining 498 miles.

The largest single public works project in Commonwealth history, the Interstate system, when completed, will represent an investment of approximately $2,136,000, according to Highway Secretary Henry D. Harral.

An additional 101 miles of multi-lane, high speed highway will be completed this year, 46 miles of which will be opened. The 55-mile balance, however, will not be useable until connecting and inter-locking portions are finished.

School Rules Change Since 1900 As Editors Find Early Catalog

While leafing through a 1900's edition of the Annual Career of Clarion State Teacher's College, many interesting rules were noted which have changed through the factors of time and growth.

Admissions

Students may be admitted to advanced standing in any course by passing a satisfactory examination in the previous studies of the course or in their equivalents; and all desiring to begin any course must pass a creditable examination in Arithmetic to multiplication of fractions, and in grammar to syntax, and must have a fair knowledge of descriptive geography.

Examinations

The last three days of each term are devoted to a thorough examination of all the classes. It is the object of these examinations, principally, to discipline the student and to discover how thoroughly the work of the term has been done.

Boarding

There are separate halls for ladies and gentlemen. About thirty can be accommodated in the Seminary building under the immediate care of the principal. Teachers room in the building and assist in maintaining order. The price of boarding, including light and room furnished with stove, bedstead, bedding, chairs, table, washstand, mirror, bowl and pitcher is $2.75 per week. Fuel for the spring and fall terms, each, $2; for the winter term, $4. When delivered at the room, 25 percent additional will be charged. Those wishing to board themselves can get rooms partly furnished at 25 cents per week.

Rules and Regulations

Prompt and regular attendance upon all the exercises of the Seminary is required and all absences from chapel, recitations and examinations must be excused.

All students are required to attend Sunday School and Church on the Sabbath.

Ladies and gentlemen are forbidden to visit each others' rooms, and the company of the sexes during study hours, or late hours at night, is strictly forbidden; also visiting and receiving company on the Sabbath.

The use of tobacco in any form in or about the Seminary buildings, and the use of intoxicating drinks under all circumstances, are strictly prohibited.

Rooms are to be kept in order. All sweepings, slops, and ashes are to be carried out to their proper places. In no case is anything to be thrown from the windows or upon the floor.

Gentlemanly, and ladylike conduct is expected of all students in their intercourse with one another, with citizens, or with the faculty.

Freshmen Express Life's Goals

Dr. Nemmer's Students Write

"I want to devote my life to the teaching profession so that I may be able to help someone who will be in the same situation that I was in my early years."

"I have a few major objectives for which to strive: first, I want to learn as much as possible; second, I want to try to acquire the main social graces which I still lack; third, I want to become a good, effective teacher."

"I would like to go on to the University of Dayton, study computer science, make money, get married, and have children."

DR. MAX NEMMER, whose English composition students have been the authors of this feature, is a popular member of the English Department at Clarion.

"My main objective is to make something of myself, to go a little further in education than most high school graduates. I want to take pride in having a profession. I appreciate nothing more than culture, and I am here to gain it."

"When I am qualified to teach, I'm going to teach my students to the best of my ability and hope that they too will serve mankind in some way."

"My main ambition is to further my education through the benefit of a large company, such as General Motors or General Electric. Mathematicians are in constant demand."

"I hope to graduate in 1967 and join the service. I feel that the service has something to offer me that I will never get any other way and that is travel. After my stretch in the service, I would like to return to my hometown and teach there."

"My main goals are to obtain a better education and a secure job. I also hope to have a more open-minded outlook on life and never to be prejudiced."

"My biggest goal is to get a good paying job so that I can get married and raise a family."

"Next June, I will achieve one more large step toward my goal. I will be leaving for a year of study in Valencia. After my study there is completed, I should be able to speak Spanish as I would like to—fluently."

Last September, hundreds of young people arrived in the clean, rather isolated, town of Clarion situated in the Allegheny foothills. They came from all parts of Western Pennsylvania—from the Erie shore, the northern woodlands, the central farm region, and the sprawling industrial complex to the south. Diverse as their backgrounds were, they had one objective—matriculation at Clarion State College. Now, a semester later, they have adjusted themselves to the academic life. New friends have been made. The girl from the forests to the north rooms with the girl from the teeming Pittsburgh metropolis. The boy from the industrious and smokey Mon Valley has class with the lad from the Butler farms. In a short semester, these young people have not only cemented friendships, they have also formulated goals. The following comments reflect their hopes, dreams, and aspirations.

"My main objectives for the present are to pass all my courses and to create new interest in each subject I encounter."

"I want a well-educated mind, an unprejudiced heart, an ear for music, and an eye for art. In short, I want a well-rounded, liberal education so that I will be an interesting person and a useful member of society."

"My life, as I see it, is to be fulfilled as I give myself to mankind in behalf of God who gave me life both physically and spiritually."

"I look to the future with hope—hope of making and finding a career for myself."

"My goal is to gain enough knowledge so that I will be able to face a class of students with confidence."

"I will do the best I can to meet the requirements which make a good teacher..."

"I plan to be a secondary school teacher. I am not sure why I made the choice, but I am quite happy with it so far, and this means as much to me as making ten thousand dollars a year."

"I am hoping that when I do begin teaching, I will be able to help and inspire my students as some of my teachers have inspired me in the past."

"I don't know if I want to teach or not, so I am trying to develop an open mind and at least listen to what people have to say."

"I hope to get a broad education so that I may become proficient in teaching. I hope to rid myself of pretense and prejudice and freely give my services to those in need."

Jonnie Madden in a pensive mood

"I would like to attend graduate school for my master's degree in education. If this works out, I would then like to join the Peace Corps and return to the Orient or anywhere else that I am needed as a teacher."

"As for the future, there is still nothing definite except that I would like to get a degree and, if all goes well, make my home in Austria."

David Woods sees it clearly

"I have matured mentally, and I now find that school activities take second place to studies."

"In addition to teaching, I would like to become a head coach for some high school football team. Later, I would like to do post-graduate work and someday go into the field of guidance counseling."

"I am using my freshman year to uncover my real and final destination."

"I plan to attain adulthood in addition to a degree in special education."

Bob Clapper thinks ahead

"My goal is to teach elementary students for approximately ten or fifteen years and then to obtain a degree which will qualify me for an administrative position in the elementary schools."

Michael Pope ponders the future

"With patience and perseverance I can reach my goal—a master's degree or doctorate in English. I don't merely want a piece of paper. I want the knowledge and ability that accompanies these degrees."

"After teaching for three years, I am going to begin raising a family."

"I hope someday to teach Social Studies and English. Besides teaching, I would like to coach the football, wrestling, or track team."

"My greatest objective is to change the stereotyped picture of the librarian and the library. I want to show people that the library is alive—not breathing—but alive with ideas, adventure and feelings, everything that helps people make their own life better."

"I plan to become a good, not mediocre teacher."

"I hope to graduate in four years with a liberal arts degree and then enter a Lutheran seminary to prepare for the ministry."

look on life and to cultivate my intellect."

"I've decided to become a secondary English teacher because it offers security and a good salary."

"I hope that by the time I graduate, I will not only be a fit person to teach the children of today but that I will also have gained a broader understanding of mankind."

"I decided early in life that God was calling me to a church-related vocation."

"I feel I am searching for identity, and only through a liberal arts background can my purpose in life be attained."

"I want to be educated so that I can appreciate culture, read the best books, and attempt to have a full life."

CSC Wrestlers Have Rolled On

Clarion State College's muscular wrestling machine rolled over its 8th straight opponent this season by whipping St. Francis 42-0. Clarion now has 26 consecutive victories.

In a previous meeting of the two teams, Clarion whipped the Frankie matmen, 32-0. Saturday's victory also was Clarion's fourth shutout of the season and in addition was the Lignellmen's 26th consecutive win over the past three seasons.

The Golden Eagle grapplers used six pins and four decisions to rout the St. Francis matmen, who had been on a winning streak.

In the 115-pound class, Clarion's Tom Todd added another win to his unblemished record as he easily handled Hayes for the second time this season. This time Todd topped his opponent, 13-4.

For the first time this year, Don McCollum dropped down to the 123-pound division where he met O'Connell. McCollum completely controlled the match as he blanked O'Connell by a 7-0 margin.

Jim Cignetti ended all hopes the losers may have had for a win in the 130-pound class as he pinned unbeaten Lawler, of St. Francis. Lawler posted a 6-0 record going into the match.

At 137 and 147, Clarion recorded two first period falls. Undeclared Ken Warnick, 137, had no trouble at all as he pinned Carney in 1:53 of the initial period. Following Warnick, Clarion's "Five-foot Terror," Tony Catalano, added another victim to his growing list as he flattened Murray in 2:29 of the first period.

Then, in the hardest-fought contest of the match, Clarion's Jerry Kemp scored a 3-1 decision over Jandora. This was Jandora's second loss of the season. Before losing to Kemp, Jandora lost to Clarion's Dale Frye and then went on to win eight straight.

In the 167-pound bout, Clarion's Jerry Bish took a 7-0 first period lead which enabled him to coast through the remaining two periods for a 9-2 decision over Krezell.

At this point, the Golden Eagles, leading 27-0, took the last three matches by falls. Clarion's Dale Frye, 177, continued his pace with another first period pin as he put Powers to the mats in 1:54.

In the 191-pound match, Veltri, of St. Francis fell prey to undefeated Frank Grundler. Grundler ended the bout with a pin in 1:50 of the second period.

Clarion heavyweight Paul Sonoski continued his winning streak with his fourth straight fall. Sonoski pinned the losers' Jordan in 1:02 of the second period.

In two preliminary exhibition matches, Clarion's Bill Matthews and Bill Yost both pinned their

The Deltas would like to extend thanks to all who helped to make our informal rush a success, and we'd like to express our special appreciation to the rushees for making the evening completely enjoyable. Also, a special thanks go to the drivers who transported the girls to the party.

Preparing for rush is the main activity in the suite. The sisters are looking forward to our formal party next Thursday.

Pink roses go to Sandra Fallor-etta and Judy Tuminella, who are final contestants in the Miss C. S. C. Contest. All our hearts will be with these sisters on March 10th.

A belated thank-you to Vic Della Betta for representing Delta Zeta as our candidate at the Winter Capades dance.

Very happily the Deltas announce that Connie Woolsey and Janet Susa are recovering very nicely from their accidents a few weeks ago. Karen Chittester also is making a speedy recovery. The sisters appreciate all those who have shown concern for these girls.

Pink roses go to the Deltas who have attained the Dean's List last semester: Virginia Collett, Marilyn Meier, Melissa Pollak, Polly Ritts, Marlene Scardamalia, Mary Jo Sul-

Views on Food in Cafeteria

Besides the food, we have all the provisions for comfortable dining: a card table, tablecloths, place mats, aprons, silverware, cups, glasses, napkins, two can openers, waxed paper, foil, jars and plastic containers for leftovers and last, but not least, soap and dish towels.

You're probably thinking that it is absurd for my parents to have to send the "CARE" packages in addition to paying for cafeteria meals...but you would see things my way (that food has gone out of style in our cafeteria) if you had to eat there.

I know that people in foreign lands are starving...but it is hard for me to decide how I want to pass on...starve to death or be poisoned to death.

The first day I ate in the cafeteria (when the food was reasonably edible), my parents decided to stay and sample one of the meals I would have to eat for the next four years. After eating an indescribable mess that was supposedly chili, my father handed me a $20 bill and said, "Go out to eat tonight!"

I used to be a picky eater, but when I first went away to college, I became so hungry that I would eat anything served...hoping that my stomach was corrosive resistant.

As time went on, things got worse instead of better. The name of our food service is enough to strike fear and nausea into the hearts and stomachs of every student. The meals are positively frightening...even after five months of facing that "stuff" three times a day...I'm still a little overcome with each new creation.

Potatoes two times daily (sometimes three)...mashed potatoes, scalloped potatoes, baked potatoes, boiled potatoes, fried potatoes...potatoes cubed, potatoes sliced, potato chips, potato sticks...yeeecchh! I can't look a potato in the "eye" without turning green.

Their version of spaghetti is enough to make Italians hide their faces in shame. Salt...they must get salt free...everything tastes like they cried on it.

Dear salad greens...raw fish...unemulsified custard...peanut butter icing on chocolate cake...I thought I had tasted everything. But recently they hit their all-time high (or rather all-time low).

The look alone of what they dared to call chicken cacciatore was enough to bring on a dead faint. One bite was all I needed to tell me that this mess wasn't going to go down too well. Chicken cacciatore!! If you ask me, it was kitchen yacatory.

With all my complaining...I realize that I'm only paying a nominal fee for these meals...after all, what can I expect for 27 cents?

I don't mean to be critical...I really love my college...but I just had to tell someone this...now I feel better.

Taking into consideration the fact that I would like to graduate from this college and just in case this article should get into the wrong hands, I will continue to look forward to my "Care" packages and I will have to remain (1) sick of the food, and (2) ANONYMOUS.

Teacher's Problems

and pale. For she then met with calamity. For she took out of her own purse some money to make change, and then she was utterly lost because the bank money came out to be $1 too much, and the carnival money was in a sealed envelope and the picture money was under the blotter on her desk and the United Fund money was tied up in a handkerchief in the desk drawer, and the Bank money had not been out of the box, and the milk pennies were in a pile on the desk, and the cupcake messenger had taken the cupcake money with him, and the teacher was greatly troubled in spirit.

And as she did gaze at the collection on her desk, a child did rise and say, "Let us rise and salute the flag." And behold the flag was saluted, and the children did drink their milk, and a boy said, "You have not heard our reading class," and the teacher did respond, "Lo, I have not."

So the Busby reading class did assemble, and lo, when they had taken their seats, the recess bell did ring. And the teacher was filled with joy, and she did cry out in a loud voice, "Do not run, neither push nor crowd any of your little friends, but go to the playground, neither fight nor get into trouble, for verily, I am going to the principal's office to get an aspirin.

But as for me and my house, we shall depart to a factory where it is said they have hirelings to sell Red Cross buttons and Christmas Seals, because they do not have any teachers there to do it in their spare time.

Study Abroad In Switzerland

Would you like to study a year abroad, 1965-66, in Basal, Switzerland?

The cost of the program will be a little more than tuition and board requirements at Clarion State College. Students are encouraged to travel during holidays throughout the European countries.

For the serious student, this is a rare opportunity to study Europe in depth, while living in the heart of Europe. The core curriculum for this program will feature European Nationalism and Supra Nationalism.

This study program is open to Junior and selected Sophomores.

Appointments for this program will be made through the office of Dr. Elbert R. Moses, Jr., Liaison Representative for the college to the RCIE. Stop in to see Dr. Moses in Music Hall, or call extension 267 for an appointment.

Band Set For World's Fair

Following a most successful Spring Concert, Clarion State College's Concert Band is preparing for its World's Fair Tour which will begin next month.

The Band, under the direction of Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., associate professor of Music, will open at the Tiparillo Band Pavilion on April 26. The following day, they will play at the United States Pavilion.

On April 28, the 79-member Band will present a concert at Boyertown High School and an evening concert in nearby Reading. They will play two concerts the next day also. The first will be at Twin Valley Joint School at Elverson, Pa., while the second one will be at Oley Valley Area School in Oley, Pa.

Clarion's Band is the first Pennsylvania State College Band to be invited to perform at the New York World's Fair.

In addition to the World's Fair Trip, the Clarion College Band will play at the inauguration of the Honorable Grace M. Sloan, auditor general of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on May 4.

They will present the annual Mothers' Day Outdoor Concert on May 9.

CSC Unbeaten For 2 Seasons

Coach Frank Lignelli's Clarion State matmen capped their undefeated dual meet season in fine style last weekend as they captured the 22nd annual Pennsylvania State College Wrestling Tournament Championship at Lock Haven.

The Bloomsburg Huskies, who were aiming for an unprecedented fourth straight title, were heavy tournament favorites. Lock Haven was expected to be Bloomsburg's greatest challenger for the team title.

In spite of the rough competition and what some observers termed "highly disputed calls" by the referees, Coach Lignelli's Golden Eagles came through with 82 team points. Bloomsburg finished second with 77 points and Lock Haven scored 69 points to finish third.

In addition to thousands of fans, other teams and coaches were greatly surprised by Clarion's depth. The Golden Eagles put forth their usual outstanding team effort in winning the tourney. Clarion sent five wrestlers to the finals and two of them won the championships of their weight classes. The other Clarion wrestlers fought hard for additional team points, coming through with two third places and two fourth places.

Clarion's championship marks the first time that a western division team won the team title. A great deal of credit must be given to Coach Frank Lignelli, who brought wrestling back to Clarion State College just six years ago. It was no small task to build a wrestling power, in such a short period of time, that was strong enough to win the state crown, especially with the outstanding competition of today's state college wrestling.

Proving just how keen the competition really was at this year's tournament is the fact that five returning state champions were defeated. They were: Ed Thomas, 115, of Edinboro; Ed Taylor, 137, of Bloomsburg; Bill Paule, 157, of Bloomsburg; Ken Miller, 191, of East Stroudsburg; and Jim Logan, Hwt., of Mansfield.

Four Chosen For Conference

Four Clarion State College students were elected to important posts in the Intercollegiate Conference in Government. The Clarion students, representing the Northwest region of Pennsylvania, and their positions are Dennis Gelvin, of Dallas, Texas, elected to the Rules Committee; Samuel Cangemi, of Oil City, was elected Assistant Regional Director. Cangemi is a student at the Venango Campus of Clarion State College. Tom George, of Rt. 1, Avonmore, was elected Chairman of the Civil Rights and Judiciary Committee; and Jayne Moore, of RD 2, Jamestown, was elected Clerk of the Civil Rights and Judiciary Committee.

The four are students of Mr. Jay Van Bruggen, assistant professor of Social Studies at Clarion State College.

Greeks Try for Trophy

The annual CSC Greek Sing will be held Wednesday, March 31, in the high school auditorium at 8 p.m.

The fraternities will be singing as their required song, "Stout Hearted Men." The sororities will sing "Thee I Love" from "Friendly Persuasion." In addition, each fraternity and sorority will sing a selection of their own choice, however, the required and choice songs will have equal points.

The three judges will base the contest on a point system with a maximum of 100 points for both songs. For each qualification, there is a maximum of 10 points, a maximum of 50 points for each song.

The judging will be based on five qualifications:

- (1) Intonation—is the group in tune? is any section flat or sharp? is there harmony?
- (2) Blend—Do the individual parts combine smoothly and harmonically?
- (3) Balance—Can all parts be heard as they should or does one section seem too loud or too soft?
- (4) Dynamics—Does the group follow the music as it's written, observing rests, crescendos, etc.?
- (5) Interpretation—How effectively has the group combined all the above elements to form one unified song?

A trophy will be awarded to the best fraternity and the best sorority group.

Members of Alpha Gamma Phi and Phi Sigma Kappa will usher for the program.

"WE, THE STUDENTS...."

By WAYNE HARPER and LEN SCOLETTI

The writers of this column would like to apologize for the misprint in the last issue. We used the phrase, "student demonstrations," but when the Call came out, the word demonstrations had been changed to organizations. The original sentence should have read: "The first is action which would be confined to campus itself; that is, action taken by Student Senate, independent petitioning of administration and (or) Student Senate, and, in extreme cases, student demonstrations."

Many students have been complaining recently about conditions in the Student Union. In an attempt to discover whether or not these complaints are valid, we have compiled the following list of observed short-comings in the management of the Union:

1. Perhaps the most irritating to the students is the waiting in line for as long as twenty minutes for an order from the kitchen. This would be rectified if the front grill which has been broken since last semester is fixed.

2. Dirty dishes on the tables, especially during periods six, seven, and eight every day is another result of poor management! This problem could be solved simply by cleaning the tables.

3. The third common complaint is that there is no soap, paper towels, or toilet tissue in the men's and women's rest rooms. Also, the facilities of these rest rooms are extremely dirty. The students of this campus are civilized and should not have to tolerate such unsanitary conditions.

These defects add up to one thing—poor management! There are certain things, however, for which we feel the A. L. Mathias Co. should be congratulated. These are:

1. The replacement of burnt out lights (after all, the ones in the "little room" had been out for several days).

2. The removal of the salt and pepper shakers and sugar dispensers from the tables.

3. The constant lowering of the volume of the juke box so that those who cannot walk to the library may study in the Union.

4. The cleaning of the floor once a week.

This is a student problem, and should be dealt with by the students. We, the students, may take several actions to improve the situation. We may petition the Student Senate and (or) the Dean of Students. A resolution by Senate calling for the improvement of service in the Union would be effective since it would be a concrete expression of student dissatisfaction. Petitioning of the Dean of Students might facilitate the expression of some dissatisfaction on the part of the administration and faculty. Since no business can operate without customers, a student boycott, while drastic, may be the most effective means of attaining better service. (With warm weather approaching, walking downtown for meals would be "no big thing"). In our last column, we asked students to express their opinions. They have done this. Now we ask them to support these opinions. We ask for dynamic student action.

Dr. Moses Gets Appointment

Dr. Elbert R. Moses, Jr., chairman of Clarion State College's Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts, has been appointed by the U. S. Commissioner of Education to represent the Association of Overseas Educators on the National Advisory Committee for the Exchange of Teachers.

Dr. Moses, who is the immediate past president of AOE, heads the committee which is concerned with the advisory capacity for selection of teachers for foreign exchange programs.

"The Clarion" Needs Poetry

Students and faculty are invited to submit poetry for the literary magazine, "The Clarion," currently being edited for publication.

Dr. Gilbert Neiman, advisor, has indicated that enough short stories have been received for the magazine, but that it is still in need of poetry.

All contributions of poetry may be sent to Dr. Neiman, or left with the secretary in the English Department.

Editorially Speaking

Is our infirmary really well-equipped to handle the needs of the 2500 students enrolled at the college? This question may enter one's mind when he hears of the outrageous stories of the treatment that has been received there.

The infirmary boasts of registered nurses who offer medical service on a 24-hour, 7-day basis and a physician who holds office hours for an hour and a half every weekday morning. But what type of service is actually given?

When someone has a fever, sore throat, and a rash on his body, is mouthwash the best prescription to be given? Is not the physician able to diagnose this disease as scarlatina?

When someone has severe headaches and faints, is a remark, "It's only you" a sufficient diagnosis for the symptoms? Would it be too much trouble to take the blood pressure of the student as some determination of the cause of fainting?

Have APC pills, commonly known to students as "All Purpose Capsules" been proven as a cure-all? Why then are they distributed so freely to students with such diverse symptoms as headaches, toothaches and stomach pains.

Is an overly high temperature the only determination of illness? Why then are students who have severe colds with a normal temperature turned away with only throat lozenges and cold tablets?

Since many professors will accept only a doctor's excuse as valid evidence of illness, why cannot the doctor be questioned to write this excuse?

Must this situation continue to exist on our campus? Must students be forced to seek more competent help elsewhere? Would it be too much to expect to leave the infirmary with a secure feeling that a cure had been found???

Campus Views

Editor of the Call:

I read Mr. Harper's last column with great interest. What he says is so very true. The knowledge of this truth prompted this letter.

Mr. Harper says this in his column "Organized action of (sic) the part of any group is the quickest means of attaining results. The problem at Clarion is that even if the student body is dissatisfied, any action taken usually lacks organization." Later he says this action should take one of two ways, one of which is petitioning (sic) Student Senate and (or) the administration. The other, which is off-campus petitioning (sic) of the State legislature, (sic) I will not discuss here because it is not pertinent to my purpose.

On this campus exists an organization named the Clarion State College Student Civil Liberties Union (CSCSCLU). The state (sic) purpose of the CSCSCLU is to define the rights and to establish the procedure for the freedom to learn, as well as the rights of citizenship on and off the campus.

This year we have concerned ourselves with a statement of what we think should be the policy of the College's responsibilities (sic) for the academic freedom of students. The various sections of the statement are concerned with freedom of the students to organize the freedom of the Student Senate to function as it pleases as regards (sic) to regulations concerning student conduct, freedom of the student press without administrative intervention, safeguarding the off-campus freedom of the students and a standardized (sic) procedure for Discipline (sic) Committee.

After the new officers and members of Student Senate take their offices, we plan to submit this statement for their consideration.

If you are interested in joining our organization, our next meeting will be Monday, March 22, at 9:00 in the Library Conference Room.

Sincerely,
GEORGIA ANNE BLANCHARD,
President, CSCSCLU

Silhouettes to Appear Here

The Silhouettes, a well-known jazz group, will appear here Sunday, March 22, at 2 p.m. at the College Chapel.

George Bacasa on sax and flute, Al Secen on vibes, and Ronnie Thomas on bass, compose the group. They have been together since high school. When Ronnie was about to be called up by the draft in 1953, they auditioned in Washington, D. C. for the Air Force. They were accepted as a group, and began serving a four-year enlistment in February, 1953.

After taking Basic Training at Sampson Air Force Base in New York State, they were sent to their permanent base at Cape Canaveral, Florida. This was to be their home for three and a half years.

Although they were stationed permanently at Canaveral, they traveled extensively around the country doing recruiting work in the form of TV shows, dances, special civic affairs, and anything else the Air Force brass planned for them. This was in addition to their duties entertaining visiting Congressmen and dignitaries from foreign countries who were always inspecting the guided missile facilities at Canaveral.

In 1955, they were fortunate enough to win the Air Force World Wide talent contest at Denver, Colorado, and received the Air Force "Roger" statuette which was presented to them by film star Dan Dailey. The "Roger" is patterned after the Hollywood "Oscar."

After their release from the Air Force in 1957, they picked up the civilian life they had broken right after high school. Recently, they have appeared at The Encore, Escapades, and Hilton Hotel. They have been giving jazz concerts at Pittsburgh featuring local talent.

Circle K Club Wins Award

Circle K International, parent organization of Clarion State College's Circle K Club, has been awarded the George Washington Medal for its service programs in 1964.

Circle K is the fastest growing and most active service organization on college campuses. Seventy-eight new clubs were chartered during 1964.

"Circle K is a college level service club sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club which voluntarily assumes the leadership responsibilities in its respective college and host community, as is the case at Clarion," Mr. Slifko explained.

The local chapter at Clarion State College has been active with many services both to the college and to community area. They have performed volunteer work for the Red Cross Bloodmobile, for college productions, for the Concert-Lecture Series, and for charity work.

CSC Champs

Lock Haven's Bill Blacksmith and Jerry Swope won their third straight titles this year. Ken Warnick and Frank Grundler were Clarion's first two state champs since Coach Lignelli re-activated wrestling.

Ken Warnick, 137

Wrestling at 137, Clarion's Ken Warnick became Coach Lignelli's first wrestler to win the state championship. Warnick received a bye in the preliminaries, putting him against Markish, of Mansfield in the Quarterfinals.

After completely dominating the Mansfield grappler for more than a period, Warnick ended the match with a second period pin. The Clarion matman advanced into the finals as he was awarded a forfeit over Jadlocki, of Slippery Rock.

In the finals, Warnick won the 137-pound state crown by defeating Bloomsburg's Ed Taylor, 10-8. Taylor was the defending champion at 137.

Frank Grundler, 191

Clarion's second individual state championship came in the 191-pound division where Frank Grundler eliminated some strong contenders to win the title.

Grundler's roughest match was in the preliminaries when he scored a 2-1 decision over Moritz, of West Chester. In the quarterfinals, he topped Watters, of Indiana, and in the semifinals, he stopped Klutas, of Shippensburg.

These three wins moved the Clarion wrestler to the finals against East Stroudsburg's Roy Miller, the defending state champ. Although he only edged Miller by a 5-4 score, Grundler actually

Tom Todd, 115

A big setback for Clarion in the tourney was Tom Todd's loss to Mansfield's Schuler in the finals. Tom was easily controlling the match until the referee awarded the Mansfield wrestler a takedown which appeared to happen just outside the boundary circle. From then on, Schuler came to life and finally edged Todd, 8-7.

Todd advanced to the final's with two impressive wins. In the quarterfinals, he blanked Lock Haven's Bemis, 10-0, and in the semifinals, he decided the defending state champion, Ed Thomas, of Edinboro.

Jim Cignetti, 130

The final round in the 130-pound division proved to be a big disappointment for Clarion. Up to about midway through the second period, Jim Cignetti had no difficulty in outwrestling Bloomsburg's Jim Rolley. Then, Rolley took over, reversed the match, and dominated the remainder to win, 5-3.

In the quarterfinals, Cignetti scored a 12-5 decision over Simmons, of Slippery Rock. Then Cignetti went to the finals by topping highly-touted Bernie Lomman, of Shippensburg.

Dale Frye, 177

In the 177-pound division, Clarion's Dale Frye turned in an admirable performance as he finished second to the great Jerry Swope, of Lock Haven.

En route to the finals, Frye pinned Ron Hegner, of Indiana and Herb Chereck, of Slippery Rock, and in the semifinals, he decided Shippensburg's tough Glen Ebersole.

Swope, who defeated Frye by a 6-0 score in the finals, has won three straight state titles and is the defending national champion in the NAIA.

Don McCollim, 123

Clarion's Don McCollim rolled over Evans, of Mansfield, 15-2, in the quarterfinals but was stopped in the semifinals. McCollim ran into a fired-up Jeff Lorson, of Lock Haven and dropped a 7-2 decision.

McCollim did not give up, however, and he went on to score some valuable team points with a third place.

Bob Tweedy, 157

In the quarterfinals of the 157-pound division, Clarion's Bob Tweedy lost, 6-3, to Bloomsburg's Rocco Forte in what other teams' coaches called a "very poorly officiated match," which saw Forte gaining a decisive advantage on two disputed calls.

Tweedy, who was extremely angry (to say the least) about the calls, went on to win three consolation matches and gain a third place. In his first two consolation matches, the Clarion wrestler pinned Edinboro's Dietrich and Slippery Rock's Rusnak. Forte had only been able to narrowly decide both Dietrich and Rusnak.

Tony Catalano, 147

As far as practically all spectators except Bloomsburg fans were concerned, Clarion's Tony Catalano won his semifinal match and was robbed of the opportunity to wrestle in the finals. Officially, Catalano lost in overtime by a referee's decision to Bloomsburg's Bill Paule, winner of two state titles.

Catalano and Paule wrestled to a draw in the regular nine-minute match, and then in overtime, they again tied, 1-1. Catalano had over a half minute of riding time while Paule had just a few seconds, and to most observers, the Clarion wrestler was more aggressive. Nevertheless, Paule was officially declared the victor on a referee's decision.

Catalano went on to win two consolation matches to gain a fourth place. To win just fourth, the Golden Eagle grappler wrestled more than 50 minutes in two days; he had one regular nine-minute, two overtime matches, and three consolation matches.

Jerry Kemp, 167

In the preliminary round of the 167-pound division, Clarion's Jerry Kemp was edged, 4-3, by West Chester's Paul Tillman, but he made a fine showing in consolation matches to win fourth place.

Kemp defeated Shultz, of Mansfield in his first consolation match, and then the determined Clarion State wrestler gained another advancement point for the team by surprising a highly-rated Ralph Hegner, of Indiana.

In the final consolation round,

Kemp dropped a 3-1 decision to Lock Haven's John Salander, who placed third.

Paul Sonoski, Hwt.

The only Clarion wrestler not to place in the tournament was heavyweight Paul Sonoski, however, he very nearly advanced to the finals.

Sonoski pinned Edinboro's Don Kerber to advance to the semifinals where he met defending state champion Jim Logan, of Mansfield. Although Sonoski led during most of the match, Logan tied the score, and then in overtime, the Mansfield wrestler won a 2-0 decision.

In his first consolation match, Sonoski dropped a 5-4 decision to Dave DeWire, of Bloomsburg.

WAA Teams Vie for Lead

Under the supervision of Mrs. Betty Simpson and Miss Gloria Yough, girls in W. A. A. are competing in intramural basketball.

The various teams compete two nights a week, either Monday or Thursday nights. The Monday night teams haven't finished playing all their scheduled games, but as of March 8, 1965, the Leftovers and Becht's Bad Girls were tied for first place. The Sig Deltas have already clinched the Thursday night championship with three wins and no losses. After the play-off between the Monday and Thursday night teams, the winners will play the faculty.

Frank Grundler, 191

Clarion's second individual state championship came in the 191-pound division where Frank Grundler eliminated some strong contenders to win the title.

Grundler's roughest match was in the preliminaries when he scored a 2-1 decision over Moritz, of West Chester. In the quarterfinals, he topped Watters, of Indiana, and in the semifinals, he stopped Klutas, of Shippensburg.

These three wins moved the Clarion wrestler to the finals against East Stroudsburg's Roy Miller, the defending state champ. Although he only edged Miller by a 5-4 score, Grundler actually handled the former champ throughout most of the match.

Tom Todd, 115

A big setback for Clarion in the tourney was Tom Todd's loss to Mansfield's Schuler in the finals. Tom was easily controlling the match until the referee awarded the Mansfield wrestler a takedown which appeared to happen just outside the boundary circle. From then on, Schuler came to life and finally edged Todd, 8-7.

Todd advanced to the final's with two impressive wins. In the quarterfinals, he blanked Lock Haven's Bemis, 10-0, and in the semifinals, he decided the defending state champion, Ed Thomas, of Edinboro.

Jim Cignetti, 130

The final round in the 130-pound division proved to be a big disappointment for Clarion. Up to about midway through the second period, Jim Cignetti had no difficulty in outwrestling Bloomsburg's Jim Rolley. Then, Rolley took over, reversed the match, and dominated the remainder to win, 5-3.

In the quarterfinals, Cignetti scored a 12-5 decision over Simmons, of Slippery Rock. Then Cignetti went to the finals by topping highly-touted Bernie Lomman, of Shippensburg.

Dale Frye, 177

In the 177-pound division, Clarion's Dale Frye turned in an admirable performance as he finished second to the great Jerry Swope, of Lock Haven.

En route to the finals, Frye pinned Ron Hegner, of Indiana and Herb Chereck, of Slippery Rock, and in the semifinals, he decided Shippensburg's tough Glen Ebersole.

Swope, who defeated Frye by a 6-0 score in the finals, has won three straight state titles and is the defending national champion in the NAIA.

Don McCollim, 123

Clarion's Don McCollim rolled over Evans, of Mansfield, 15-2, in the quarterfinals but was stopped in the semifinals. McCollim ran into a fired-up Jeff Lorson, of Lock Haven and dropped a 7-2 decision. McCollim did not give up, however, and he went on to score some valuable team points with a third place.

Bob Tweedy, 157

In the quarterfinals of the 157-pound division, Clarion's Bob Tweedy lost, 6-3, to Bloomsburg's Rocco Forte in what other teams' coaches called a "very poorly officiated match," which saw Forte gaining a decisive advantage on two disputed calls.

Tweedy, who was extremely angry (to say the least) about the calls, went on to win three consolation matches and gain a third place. In his first two consolation matches, the Clarion wrestler pinned Edinboro's Dietrich and Slippery Rock's Rusnak. Forte had only been able to narrowly decide both Dietrich and Rusnak.

Tony Catalano, 147

As far as practically all spectators except Bloomsburg fans were concerned, Clarion's Tony Catalano won his semifinal match and was robbed of the opportunity to wrestle in the finals. Officially, Catalano lost in overtime by a referee's decision to Bloomsburg's Bill Paule, winner of two state titles.

Catalano and Paule wrestled to a draw in the regular nine-minute match, and then in overtime, they again tied, 1-1. Catalano had over a half minute of riding time while Paule had just a few seconds, and to most observers, the Clarion wrestler was more aggressive. Nevertheless, Paule was officially declared the victor on a referee's decision.

Catalano went on to win two consolation matches to gain a fourth place. To win just fourth, the Golden Eagle grappler wrestled more than 50 minutes in two days; he had one regular nine-minute, two overtime matches, and three consolation matches.

Jerry Kemp, 167

In the preliminary round of the 167-pound division, Clarion's Jerry Kemp was edged, 4-3, by West Chester's Paul Tillman, but he made a fine showing in consolation to win fourth place.

Kemp defeated Shultz, of Mansfield in his first consolation match, and then the determined Clarion State wrestler gained another advancement point for the team by surprising a highly-rated Ralph Hegner, of Indiana.

In the final consolation round,

Kemp dropped a 3-1 decision to Lock Haven's John Salander, who placed third.

Paul Sonoski, Hwt.

The only Clarion wrestler not to place in the tournament was heavyweight Paul Sonoski, however, he very nearly advanced to the finals.

Sonoski pinned Edinboro's Don Kerber to advance to the semifinals where he met defending state champion Jim Logan, of Mansfield. Although Sonoski led during most of the match, Logan tied the score, and then in overtime, the Mansfield wrestler won a 2-0 decision.

In his first consolation match, Sonoski dropped a 5-4 decision to Dave DeWire, of Bloomsburg.

WAA Teams Vie for Lead

CSC Judo Club Wins Match

On Friday, March 12, the CSC Judo Team won the match with the Kittanning Judo Club.

The CSC team was comprised of members from the main campus and the Venango branch.

Members, judokas, who participated were: Lino Colangelo, John Ego, Ray Kort, Professor Walter Lockhart, Barry Miller, Ron Miller, Terry Miller, Rich Mitchell, Joan Moody, Nancy Noel, and Dennis Pelhan.

The game was played as a continuous elimination.

The opposition promised ten male members and one female member. They came to the game with only six male members and no female members. As a result,

Professor Lockhart and Rich Mitchell had to play a "house game" (both were members from the same team). Because of this lack of opposition, Clarion benefited.

The contest was arranged by weight, by weight and belt degrees, and by any weight and belt degrees. The three minute matches can be won by: (1) Hold downs, osakomwaza, (2) Throws, (3) Choking techniques, shimevaza, (4) Superiority, more aggressiveness.

The contest consisted of 19 games, 1 man's house game, and 1 woman's house game.

Ron Miller won the trophy as the overall winner. Dennis Pelhan won a gold medal for being first on the CSC team. John Ego won a silver medal for second place.

Jim Emmings and Jim Nelson won first and second place medals respectively for the Kittanning Club. All of the winners were given certificates also. The CSC team showed superiority in mat technique.

AWS Elections

The women students of Clarion State College elected officers to the Association of Women Students for the 1965-66 term. Elections were held on March 8. The new officeholders are president, Mary Ann Coleman; vice-president, Gwen Hummel; treasurer, Sharon Freed; and secretary, Bernadette Macuga.

BASKETBALL ACE, Terry Thompson

Terry Thompson Accepts Bid For North-South All-Star Game

Terry Thompson, ace forward and chief point-producer for Clarion State College's basketball team the past three years, has accepted an invitation to play in the North-South College All-Star basketball game being held in Erie on March 27.

Thompson, a senior, set a new single game scoring record for Clarion this year by dumping in 51 points against Grove City. The previous top game performance had been 47 points.

This marked the third consecutive year the slender forward has led Coach John Joy's Golden Eagles in scoring.

Thompson was named to the N. A. I. All-American honorable mention list last season, and was a member of the N. A. I.'s District All-Star team also.

A 1961 graduate of Kittanning High School, where he starred in basketball, Thompson is a native of Kittanning. He will graduate from Clarion this spring—the only member of Clarion's team lost for next year.

Venango Campus News

Two Venango Campus students, Miss Priscilla Green and Miss Penny Umbreit, are contestants in this year's Laurel Festival for the title of Miss Western Pennsylvania.

Miss Umbreit is representing Venango Campus, and Miss Green is representing the Oil City Chamber of Commerce.

The contest, conducted on the same scale as the Miss America pageant, will be held April 3, at the Brookville Area High School. All contestants are judged according to appearance in swim suits and evening gowns and performance of a talent.

Miss Green will perform a pantomime from "My Fair Lady," and Miss Umbreit will do a dramatic reading from Shaw's "Joan of Arc." The winner is eligible for the Miss Pennsylvania contest to be held at a later date.

Both Miss Green and Miss Umbreit are active members of campus organizations. Miss Green was a member of the publicity committee and queen of the Spring Formal in her freshman year. This year, she is president of the Student Senate and a member of the social committee and Madrigal singers.

Miss Umbreit is Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Senate and works in the administration office.

Mr. Ronald Shumaker is the new English instructor at Venango Campus. He began teaching here in the fall of 1964.

The Punxsutawney-born professor completed his undergraduate studies at Clarion State College with his B. S. degree. He has completed his work for his M. A. degree at Purdue University, located in West Lafayette, Indiana. His thesis on Emily Dickinson is in preparation, and upon its completion at the end of next summer, he will have earned his Master's Degree in American Literature and linguistics.

Mr. Shumaker's background career, although short, is an impressive supplement to his qualifications as a promising professor. He began his teaching career in English and French at the Fox Chapel Area Schools in suburban Pittsburgh. At Purdue University, he taught Freshman Composition and Sophomore Expository writing. Presently he is teaching Freshman Composition, Speech, and Novels since 1870 at Venango Campus. He is the advisor of the Freshman Class and of the Venango section of the "Sequelle."

Besides being an accomplished pianist, Mr. Shumaker, as an undergraduate at Clarion, sang with the cappella choir, the Madrigal ensemble, and the male quartet. After graduation, he continued singing with the Pittsburgh Saboyards.

Along with his love for music, Mr. Shumaker is interested in metaphysical poetry, sports and travel. He is a sandlot football player and enjoys swimming and tennis.

Having travelled and lived in the Middle West, he finds Eastern Pennsylvania's rolling hills and picturesque scenery a very pleasant change after the flatness and monotony of the Midwest.

When asked how he likes teaching at Venango Campus, Mr. Shumaker responded that he is very "impressed with its potential."

On Friday, March 12, the third record hop of the semester was held at Venango Campus. It was called the Shamrock Hop. The Social Committee, sponsoring the dance provided pop, potato chips, and pretzels for refreshments.

Jim Howells and Jon Kallmyer, two freshmen, were disc jockeys. They entertained a group of about 50 students.

The record hop, held in the Multi-Purpose Room at the campus, lasted from 8:30 to 12 p.m. Chaparrones were Mr. Dalph Cook and Mr. John Reinhardt.

Things That Cheer A CSC Student

Charles Shulz, the college student's favorite choice for All-American light-hearted cartoonist honors, has published a small book entitled "Happiness Is A Warm Puppy." The popularity with which it met prompted the publication of another book similar in nature entitled "Security Is A Thumb And A Blanket." Both books have been very successful and "Happiness" had its sales spurred by the lefthanded satirists of "Mad" magazine who called their sketches, "Misery is..."

But what could cause a gleeful heart in the chest of the Clarion student? What is his (her) conception of happiness? Is it merely the rigors of survival in an apathetic atmosphere of basketballs?

Happiness at Clarion is service in the Union, between noon and 1 p.m. ... finding you have two cuts in a 3 cut course ... getting a teacher who doesn't take roll ... a ride to programs at Clarion High School ... clear sidewalks on snowy days ... Fridays without a snowstorm.

To a freshman happiness is (among other things) an English comp instructor with a sense of humor ... a warm coed ... a teacher who gives objective tests ... no one in front of you in the registration line ... the latest issue of "Mad" ... a student grader who likes you ...

Happiness to a Sophomore is 11 o'clock's on weekdays ... professors who do not expect walking encyclopedias for exams ... snap top cans that don't amputate your finger ... flirting with a senior girl.

To a Junior, happiness is a psychology teacher who quotes Freud ... even temperatures in Seminary Hall classrooms ... a two inch beard ... a frank associate you respect.

June graduation is happiness to a senior. His heart also warms to a Union table without card playing addicts ... a quiet jukebox ... an "A" in a student teacher report ... no snow on Thursday nights ... a virtuous coed.

A dorm student finds happiness in a quiet roommate ... a short circuit in the public address system ... thoughts of an on (off) campus apartment ... a date for Saturday night ... rugs on the floors ... air conditioners.

Happiness to just about everybody is classes in the same building ... finishing a spaghetti dinner without any sauce on your white shirt (blouse) ... someone who smiles ... an open door. (Adapted from the "Duquesne Duke").

The Pants Trick

It's easy to call a meeting to consider a course of action

It's easy to appoint a committee to study a basic problem

And nothing is easier than turning out a report filled with recommendation

But when all the studying, and the recommending and the discussing are over—someone along the line has to do the PANTS TRICK

Someone has to get off the seat of his pants and do something.

Teacher, Parent Write Letters Before Exams

Last year, as mid-semester exams were approaching, Dr. Elizabeth Pope, Mills College Professor of English, distributed this message to parents:

Courses are drawing tension to a peak in a flurry of reports and long papers; examinations loom, tempers shorten, faces lengthen, tensions tighten, and, to make matters worse, cold weather and pouring rain have settled like a pall over every aspect of life. Physical and psychological ills develop in the damp like mold or fungus. Most of the girls will think they have a cold (some of them will be right); and all of them will want to creep away and die in a quiet spot where people can come and be sorry for them.

"Any date between the twentieth of March and the fourth of April is a good time for an extra letter, a pot of hyacinths, an unexpected check, a new blouse or scarf to wear to tests for luck, a long-distance telephone call (cheerful in character), or a special expression of trust and affection."

Back came this reply from the father of Cabel Cope, of Mill Valley, California:

"Federal taxes are drawing to a close in a flurry of documents and long papers; tuition bills loom, tempers shorten, faces lengthen and checkbooks flatten; budgets tighten, and, to make matters worse, state and county taxes have settled like a pall over every aspect of life. Physical ills and shopping bills develop in the damp like mold or fungus. Most of the parents will feel they are financially ruined (some of them will be right); and all of them will want to creep away and die in a quiet spot.

"This is a good time for an extra letter with no requests, a pot of forget-me-nots, a long-distance call paid at the source, a special expression of trust in the nation's financial future, or even an unexpected check."

It isn't the things that go in one ear and out the other that hurt, as much as the things that go in one ear and get all mixed up before they slip out the mouth.

Education is all too often the development of the memory at the expense of the imagination.

A coed is a gal who would rather be well formed than well informed.

Debaters Place High in Tournaments

Two teams of Clarion State College novice debaters both placed high in varsity tournaments last weekend.

In the State Colleges championships, held at Clarion, freshmen Joyce Boch and Twila Yates on the affirmative teamed with freshman John Mann and junior Ruth Helfrich to win the second place trophy for Clarion.

Four other Clarion novices entered varsity competition for the first time at Westminster, and finished in fourth place at that tournament. Juniors Carol Copenhaver and Deborah McKindree had a three-one record on the affirmative, and freshman Jean Elliott and Liz Stallings were two-two on the negative. Clarion's only losses in the tournament were to varsity teams from Geneva, Duquesne, and Westminster, who finished first, second, and third in the final standings. Copenhaver and McKindree had wins over Grove City, Youngstown University, and Mansfield State, while Elliott and Stallings defeated West Virginia University and St. Vincent's College.

Loan Program Given $4,000

Clarion State College's student loan program is $40,000 richer today because of the ingenuity and kindness of Pennsylvania's State Treasurer, Mrs. Grace Sloan.

Mrs. Sloan turned over a $4,000 check to Dr. James Gemmell, president, and Mr. Darl Callen, business manager of Clarion State College to be used in a matching fund program. This is the amount of the earned commissions of the insurance placed by the Treasury Department during Mrs. Sloan's four years as State Treasurer.

The grant will be applied to the College's National Defense Education Act program, which provides matching federal funds for student loans. Thus, the $4,000 check will bring Clarion $40,000 to be used for loans to financially needy students.

Normally, the money earned through these commissions would have gone directly to the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency for use in their student loan program. Mrs. Sloan wanted to do more with this money, however.

"I was looking for a multiplier effect," she told college officials. "I wanted some means of being able to help more of our young students who need money to attend college."

When she decided upon the Clarion/NDEA program, Mrs. Sloan sought the advice of her attorney with regard to the legal aspects of the grant. He assured her that the idea was legally sound, and of great value, especially to the students at Clarion State College.

In accepting the grant from Mrs. Sloan, Dr. Gemmell praised the effort and told those present "how wonderfully valuable this money is for those students who want to stay in college, who are doing well here, but are having financial problems."

The grant will be turned over to the College's Financial Aids Committee for processing into the NDEA program.

Clarion SC Community Players To Present 'The Hostage,' April 7

The Clarion State College Community Players will present a powerful and dynamic drama, "The Hostage", by the late Irish playwright Brendan Behan.

The play will open Wednesday, April 7 and run through April 10. It is under the direction of Mr. Robert Copeland.

Dean Rishel Resigns Post

Dr. Darrell F. Rishel, dean of student affairs at Clarion State College for the past four years, has resigned his position at the College to become Director of Intermediate Registration at the University of Maryland.

A graduate of the Pennsylvania State University, with B.S., M.Ed., and Ed.D. degrees, Dr. Rishel came to Clarion from Hiram College in Ohio where he had been Dean of Men. While at Penn State, Dr. Rishel was a Residence Hall Counselor and a Graduate Assistant in Counselor Education.

DR. DARRELL RISHEL

He is a Captain and rated pilot in the U.S. Army Reserve and has served two tours of duty with the active army, as an enlisted man and as an officer. Dr. Rishel holds an FAA Commercial Pilot Certificate and has ratings in single-engine aircraft and rotorcraft helicopter.

The author of the play, the late Brendan Behan, ranks with Shaw, Joyce, and O'Casey in the succession of great Irish writers. He was a controversial mixture of wit, intelligence, and insight—usually in a rebellious mood, often drunk—but always with something significant to say.

"The Hostage" is a rare mixture of political insight and human destiny, tragic at times, but also full of Irish humor. It explodes with life at all times.

Produced on Broadway, the show drew raves. Behan's own words about the production seemed to sum up his philosophy: "I respect kindness to human beings first of all, and kindness to animals. I don't respect the law. I have total irreverence for anything connected with society except that which makes the roads safer, the beer stronger, the food cheaper, and old men and women warmer in the winter and happier in the summer."

In writing the play, Behan was determined to cut through the artificiality and hypocrisy out of which our society and times are built. He wanted to share the vigor, warmth, and above all, the truth, with the entire world.

The Clarion production features Barry Bright, Regi Wichrowski, Susan Buhot, Bob Jannone, Caren Brammer, and William Benson in major roles. Sandra Potter is the Choreographer.

DR. JAMES GEMMELL, president of Clarion State College, admires the trophy won by the College's Championship Wrestling Team. The happy occasion was the 8th annual Varsity C Sports Banquet held at the College. This year's Banquet honored the Wrestling Team. Others in the photo are (left to right), Waldo Tippin, director of athletics, Dr. Dana S. Still, assistant dean of academic affairs—who served as Toastmaster, and Rep. George W. Alexander of Clarion.

Varsity C Honors Athletes at Banquet

Clarion State College's 8th annual Varsity C All-Sports Banquet held last weekend quickly turned into a testimonial for the College's unbeaten, Championship wrestling team.

Although the Banquet is held annually to honor all sports at Clarion, this one was mainly for the wrestlers, and by popular agreement among all concerned.

Coach Frank Lignelli introduced his wrestling team and presented each of the ten starters with trophies. The team won the 1965 State College Conference Championship this year.

He also praised the efforts of his team, telling how they shot for "first place, never anything lower, all year." Lignelli was talking "State Championship" as far back as the middle of the season, many recalled.

"Determination and desire were the two keys to the title," he added.

The wrestlers ended their second consecutive unbeaten season. They averaged 32 points per match this year while holding their opponents to an average of 2.8 points per match. They scored five shutouts.

Six wrestlers were undefeated as individuals. Junior Jim Cignetti of Greensburg hasn't lost a dual match in his entire three years of varsity wrestling. Ken Warnick of Blairsville and Frank Grundler of Glenshaw are unbeaten in two years of dual matches.

Grundler, a junior, won the Most Valuable Player Award in Wrestling this season.

Guest speaker for the evening was Pete Dimperio, another amazingly successful coach whose Westinghouse High football teams in Pittsburgh have posted a record of 107 wins and just 5 losses in his 19 seasons of coaching there.

They have won the city league title 15 out of 19 times also.

Dimperio congratulated Clarion's athletic teams and said they have obviously paid attention to his philosophy of athletics: (1) Love what you do. (2) Have desire and determination. (3) Sacrifice.

Dr. James Gemmell, president of Clarion, also paid tribute to the wrestlers, and the other teams. He praised the coaching staffs for recruiting and assembling the fine talent that Clarion has on its athletic teams.

Waldo S. Tippin, director of Athletics and longtime former coach, also had high praise for the successful year which saw the football and basketball teams finish second, in addition to the wrestling championship.

In other honors, Most Valuable Player Awards were presented also to Terry Thompson in Basketball, Dave Phanco for Rifle, Don Hohman (offense) and Bob Garriano (defense) for Football. The golf and baseball winners will be announced after the season is over.

C. Darrell Sheraw of Greensburg was presented with a trophy as the winner of the Varsity C Achievement Award which goes to the varsity letterman with the highest academic average.

Master of Ceremonies was Dr. Dana S. Still, assistant dean of academic affairs. There were about 200 people in attendance.

Editorially Speaking

The question "Why can't the student meal ticket be transferable?" has caused a low, but distinct grumble on campus.

The general student view is that the meal ticket should be transferable. Two major reasons can be cited for this view. The first is that the meals have been paid for in advance and there is no refund if a meal is not eaten. The second reason is that the company is not losing money if a student uses another's meal ticket, as long as only one meal at a time is being eaten from that ticket.

The A. L. Mathias Company has stated that no meal ticket is transferable. They view the meal ticket as similar to a driver's license. This view is that the ticket has been issued by the Company to an individual and that it bears his name only. This attitude can be contested by the fact that the only "test" administered for the meal ticket is that the money be paid, but a driver's license is issued only after a test measuring ability and skill has been administered. Therefore, there is no parallelism between the two.

The A. L. Mathias Company's other reason for making tickets non-transferable is the fining of students excused from eating in the dining hall by a doctor's excuse using someone else's meal ticket. Their attitude on this is, why should the student be able to eat the food in the cafeteria occasionally and yet not all the time? To refute this, the student's second reason can again be cited.

It can only be concluded by the reasons given by the manager for the Company that they oppose transferring of meal tickets because it cuts down on their profits.

The gift of a $4000 check to the College by Mrs. Grace Sloan means that $40,000 will be available for student loans.

The check will be applied toward the NDEA program which provides $9 of federal money for every $1 of local money. This is how $4000 becomes $40,000 for Clarion.

Normally money such as that turned over by Mrs. Sloan would go into the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Act Fund, which is merely a reserve, acting as collateral for individual student loans gained from commercial banks and repayable in full with interest.

Mrs. Sloan's use of the money, on the other hand, will offer direct benefit to the students who need financial assistance. Instead of placing this money on reserve, Mrs. Sloan has graciously turned it over to the College for direct use. The NDEA program gives the grant what Mrs. Sloan called "a multiplier effect."

Our financially needy students are much better off with this type of fund. On behalf of the entire Clarion State College community, students, faculty, and staff, may we say "Thank You" to Mrs. Grace Sloan.

"WE, THE STUDENTS...."

By WAYNE HARPER and LEN SCOLETTI

We would like to compliment the management of the Union for the improved service that has been shown recently. Especially noticeable are the clean restrooms. We would not like to commend the handling of Miss Georgia Blanchard's letter to the editor in the last issue of the Call. The writers of this column have repeatedly called for student opinion, and we do not see how it is possible to get any type of a reaction to any issue if students are publicly embarrassed.

Our major topic for this column is the Disciplinary Committee. In this issue of the Call, both Dean Rishel and the Clarion State College Student Liberties Union have made statements concerning the policy of the Disciplinary Committee. Because of the different points of view expressed in these statements, we would like to announce an opinion poll to be held in front of the library on April 6 and 7. In this poll, the writers of this column would like the students and faculty to indicate whether or not they think that the policy of the Disciplinary Committee should be changed in favor of the proposals set forth by the CSCSCLU.

Because of this poll, we would like to point out some of the more obvious discrepancies in both the Committee's policy and the Union's proposals. According to Dean Rishel's statement, "any student has the right of appeal." However, according to the policy of the committee, no provision for the right of appeal is made. Also, no indication that any student has this right appears in the form letter announcing that a student must appear before the Committee. There is, however, a provision for presidential review. The question that we would like to ask is how can the President accurately review the proceedings of any hearing if no verbatim record is kept of these proceedings?

On the other hand, the second point of the CSCSCLU's statement is, we think, questionable. The printed policy of the Committee, available in the Dean of Student's Office for any student who wants a copy, is obvious proof that a standard procedure does exist. The point dealing with the cross examination by other students and council is also questionable because the Disciplinary Committee is just that, a committee, not a court of law.

We would like each student who reads this column to read also, the statements made by Dean Rishel and the Civil Liberties Union as well as the policy of the Disciplinary Committee. We would like each student and faculty member to give these issues some serious thought and then indicate his or her opinion in the poll. We hope to use information gathered in this poll to present some argu-

Campus Views

Dear Editor:

It has been my impression over the past few years that the Clarion Call has always encouraged the Clarion student body to have an opinion, and more important, to stand behind that opinion. The Call has even volunteered its fine news spreading services to anyone who sincerely wishes to better the voice of representation of the Clarion student.

In the last issue of the Call, the President of the Clarion State College Student Civil Liberties Union (CSCSCLU), Miss Georgia Blanchard, attempted to indicate to the student body that an organization does exist on this campus which believes that the college student is "also" an individual with certain civil rights.

Now it appears to me that articles by Mr. Harper and others surely advocate this ideology. If this is so, why would the editor of this "pro-student" newspaper place such a note at the conclusion of Miss Blanchard's letter?

I am sure Miss Blanchard was in earnest when she wrote the letter, and that a gold medal in literary excellence was not her objective. Granted, there were spelling errors in the letter, but of what purpose did the "Editor's Note" have? It did not correct the mistakes of Miss Blanchard's effort, and much of the effectiveness of the article was lost by the Editor's literary triteness.

If the Call wishes the student body to stand up and be counted, it should not slap those in the face who have the courage to do so.

DARYLL D. BAUER, JR.
Vice-President, CSCSCLU

Dear Editor:

In regard to the letter submitted by CSCSCLU in the last issue, I am in agreement with the Call's stand on the irresponsible typing errors.

A college student should be responsible enough to read over a document that represents the opinion of, not just that person, but a group of people. Certainly a college English professor would not read past the first three mistakes before giving the paper an "E." It is understood that the letter ment either for or against the proposed changes. DYNAMIC STUDENT ACTION.

—Wayne Harper

was written for its ideas, but communication of those ideas was distorted by the numerous spelling errors.

In my opinion, the editor's note questioned the care given to the letter's production, not burrowing to the depths of the foundation of the CSCSCLU.

Sincerely,
B. SHUPE

Dear Editor:

The Clarion Call is constantly exhorting the student body to submit its opinions to the newspaper for publication. In reply to Mr. Harper's and Mr. Scoletti's request for student views or suggestions for means of discerning the rights of college students, a young lady from the campus submitted a letter to the column entitled "Campus Views." The letter appeared in the March 20 issue with none of the girl's typing errors corrected. Even this did not satisfy the editor; she had to add a derogatory remark: "Editor's Note—Is the grammar and spelling in the CSCSCLU (sic) constitution and statement to the Student Senate better than the above sample?" (This statement by the editor was in reference to Miss Blanchard's letter.)

After I had read the letter and the editor's comment, I telephoned a reputable public newspaper office and was informed that good newspapers will correct any spelling errors, grammatical errors, and typing errors which occur in any letters submitted to the editor-in-chief, news editor, or social editor before the letters are printed. If Ruth Bellman has some complaint to express concerning the Clarion State College Civil Liberties Union, she should have presented logical, coherent, and valid statements concerning any flaws in the CSCSCLU.

Few students will take the risk of being publicly belittled because of an attempt to express their views in a newspaper like the Clarion Call. Is the expression of student opinion freedom of speech or is it an opportunity for editors to deride individuals? To what grotesque extreme can freedom of the press be twisted?

se Broad

Editor's Note:

It is the policy of the Call to print letters to the editor as they are written, with no corrections. In the case of a too lengthy letter, it is literally cut, not edited.

Dear Editor:

With recent, increased emphasis on student freedoms and liberties, not only at Clarion State College, but across the nation, it seems advisable to review disciplinary procedures currently in effect at the college, especially as they pertain to the protection of the rights of the individual. Therefore, the enclosed copy of the policy statement governing the operation of the College Disciplinary Committee is submitted for possible publication in the Clarion Call.

The statement was drafted during the summer of 1961; minor revisions were made in September, 1962 and again, in September, 1964. In each case, revisions were made with the intent of clarifying the policy and strengthening safeguards of individual rights.

Some additional comment regarding the type of cases considered by the committee may be of value in evaluating the policy. Incidents involving violations of published college regulations covering the use of alcoholic beverages, etc., have been considered by the committee, regardless of whether the incident took place on or off the campus. All students involved in dishonesty or stealing either on or off the campus come before the committee, regardless of whether or not they may have already been prosecuted by civil authorities. Civil offenses of a minor nature, e.g., traffic violations and minor summary offenses, are not normally referred to the committee for consideration.

In addition to the automatic review procedures outlined in the policy statement, any student has the right of appeal of any Disciplinary Committee decision to the President of the College. Finally, it is interesting to note that our present disciplinary policy conforms in almost all aspects to recommendations presented by Mr. Clark Byse (Professor of Administrative Law at Harvard University School of Law) and Dr. Louis M. Hacker (Chairman, Committee on Academic Freedom, American Civil Liberties Union) at the 1962 annual conference of the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators.

Sincerely,
DARREL F. RISHEL

Editor's Note:

Due to the length of the policy statement governing the operation of the College Disciplinary Committee it is not published in the Call. However, students may obtain copies of the statement on request in the Dean of Student's office.

The policy statement will appear in the 1965-66 Student Handbook.

To the Editor:

Water is recognized as a necessity of life, and in our modern world, hot water, especially in our homes, is recognized as a necessity. Since the importance of this commodity is realized, why do the girls in Ralston Hall have cold water?

Certainly, this condition doesn't exist because the girls don't care or haven't complained. Within the past two months, signs listing the hours of cold water were taken to the administration as proof of the condition. The administration asked for a week to correct the condition and for the girls to be patient. The residents of Ralston Hall agreed to this and waited. The situation was corrected—but not for longer than three weeks! Once again, the hot water is colder than the cold water at unpredictable hours of the day and night.

No satisfactory explanation has been given to the residents of the

Dancers Practice for 'Can Can'

CLARION DANCERS swing with "Can Can" practice. The musical will be presented at the College Chapel the week of May 3.

CSC Students to Present Cole Porter's 'Can Can'

The exciting, leggy look of Cole Porter's "Can Can" will blaze across the stage at Clarion State College beginning on May 3, and running all of that week.

The musical adaptation of Abe Burrows' book is being presented by the Music Department and the Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts in a cooperative production.

The story concerns a love affair between Pistache, a young lady of Paris who owns what appears to be a restaurant, which is really sort of a night club, which appears to be a brothel, and Aristide, a Paris judge. The story develops from the fact that merely owning a night club was illegal in Paris then. Pistache induces Aristide to fall in love with her so she can operate her club and activities without fear of the law, because of his high office.

The rest is a merry mixture of music, dancing, and fine entertainment, until the final moments when love comes through with shining colors and unites the couple and clears them of scandal.

The highlight of the play, of course, is the flashy dancing of Pistache's nightclub dancers. The show features four major dances, including "Quadrille," "Apache Dance," "Garden of Eden Ballet," and of course the famous "Can Can" dance.

The Director for the show is Vernon Pierce, assistant professor of Speech and Dramatic Arts. The Musical Director is William M. McDonald, assistant professor of Music. Choreography is being directed by Mario Melodia, a professional from Penn Hills. Mrs. Louise Girard, choral director at Allegheny Clarion Valley High School in Emlenton, will be the pianist for the production.

The cast for "Can Can" is as follows:

Pistache, Jill Norris, of West Mifflin; Claudine, Judy Tumlinella, of Penn Hills; Aristide, William McDonald, of Clarion; Boris, John Kloss, of Ellwood City; Gabrielle, Patti Grossi, of Burgettstown; Marie, Judy Gaudio, of Ambridge; Celestine, Marti Ricciuti, of Ellwood City; Model, Carol McDonald, of New Bethlehem;

Mimi, Sharon Stahlman, of Zelienople; Girl, Sandra Falloretta, of Ambridge; Girl, Carol Sichak, of Ambridge; Girl, Sharon Weyer, of Pittsburgh; Girl, Laura Hettlinger, of Freedom; Barriere, Dan Preuels, of Carnegie; Marceau, Tom Sacha; Hilaire, Tony Szymkowiak; Hercule, Ron Reed, of Kittanning; Theophile, Dick Locke, of Ellwood City; Etienne, Dick Leppert, of Clarion; Policeman, Tony Treonze, of Coraopolis; Bailiff, Stan Zogas, of New Kensington; Waiter, Louis Trentini, of Clairton; Monarchist, Terry LaPorte, of Tyrone; Doctor, Tom Sacha; Prosecutor, William Sacco, of Glenwillard; Singers, Martha McMinn, of Brockway, M. J. Horstman, Pam Quick of Brookville, and Linda Robinson.

Tickets will be available for distribution at the College Box Office, located in the Chapel Theater.

Curtain time is 8:30, with the production being presented in the Chapel Theater on campus.

Professor Newell has been on an international lecture tour since 1946.

Civil Liberties Union Explains Objectives

Because of recent developments involving the name of the Clarion State College Civil Liberties Union (CSCSCLU), a brief explanation of some of the objectives of this organization is stated here to familiarize the college community with the Union.

Their immediate goals are as follows:

First of all, they advocate the safeguarding of off-campus freedom of students; in other words, college authority and disciplinary powers should not limit the rights of students as members of the larger community. Students who violate civil law risk legal penalties as prescribed by civil authorities. However, not every conviction under the law represents an offense with which the college must concern itself.

Secondly, they suggest a set standard for adequate procedural safeguards in disciplinary cases. Definite standards of conduct should be made known to all students (e.g. through a student handbook or catalogue). Offenses and penalties should be made as clear as possible, avoiding such vague phrases as "undesirable conduct" and/or "conduct injurious to the college."

Furthermore, in cases of alleged misconduct, no form of harassment, "interrogation," or isolation from counsel should be used by college representatives to force admissions of guilt.

Third, the Union advocates some changes for proper Disciplinary Board procedures. No member of the Board who is otherwise interested in the particular case should sit in judgement during that proceeding. Also, the student and his counsel should be given an opportunity to cross-examine adverse witnesses. Finally, the decision of the Board should be based solely upon matters placed in evidence during the hearing. Improperly acquired evidence should not be admitted.

In the statement which the CSCSCLU will present to the Student Senate within the next few weeks, there will be suggested standards and procedures whereby the college responsibility for academic freedom of students may be achieved.

Book Store Burglarized

On March 30, during the early hours of the morning, the College Book Store was entered and the safe tampered with. The culprit relieved the Book Store of currency and coins.

At present, an extensive investigation is being conducted by Mr. Thaddeus P. Droast, College Director of Security who was formerly a State Police Investigator. Mr. Droast is being assisted by Trooper Vern E. Smith of the Pennsylvania State Police and the officers of the Pennsylvania State Police Bureau of Criminal Identification.

The scene has been checked for evidence; however, details of findings are not available at the present time.

According to Mr. Droast, this investigation will also entail other police departments if necessary.

BETA CHI UPSILON

The sisters of the Beta Chi Upsilon on Sorority welcome our new pledges: Jane Hodge, Barbara Gre-so, Lynda McKiernan, Carol Reigard, and Kathy Trella. We hope that they will enjoy their pledge period during which they must wear red and white for a week, wear their pledge pins, carry penny boxes, and collect points by doing chores for the sisters.

The Beta Chi pledging ceremony was held on March 23 in the sorority suite. The pledges entertained the sisters with skits and songs that they composed.

Red roses and best wishes to sister Nancy Schneider, who was pinned on March 19, to Wayne Pierce, who attends Bethany College, West Virginia.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

The Kappas would like to thank Brother Bernie Roskov and Rick Farrel for their dues Saturday. It was a real show. Thanks also to the transportation committee and to our advisors for a job well done.

Best wishes to Brother Denny Shaw and a hope for a speedy recovery.

Brother Wes Semple traveled to Indiana State College this weekend to witness the opening of the newest Phi Sigma Kappa Chapter. The occasion was highlighted by a two-day celebration. This now brings the rolls of Phi Sigma Kappa to 24 chapters.

The Kappas will be going to Brookville on Saturday night, April 3, to see Linda Cooper, Miss CSC—1965, in the Laurel Festival. Good luck, Linda.

The Kappas will be sponsoring a car wash at Emerson's this weekend for 99c per car. We will be washing from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, April 3, so why not have your car cleaned for the I. F. C. Panhellenic Dance?

ZETA TAU ALPHA

The sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha Fraternity extend a sincere welcome to our spring pledges: Judy Darnofall, Mary Ann Greenalch, Karen Rebich, Carla Burgason, Judy Miller, Patricia Sexton, Francine Rickel, Bonnie Young, Karen Skirpan, Sharon Bayuk, Leanne Marcinko, and Patty Grossi. Under the leadership of pledge master Peggy Brammer, these girls are beginning a six-week pledge training program.

Congratulations are extended to sisters Peggy Brammer and Carla Burgason on their recent election to Student Senate.

White Violets are extended to Mary Lou Mourer, song director for Greek Sing. Thank you, Mary Lou, for all your work in our behalf.

The sisters wish a speedy recovery to Mrs. Shirley Sushereba, our general advisor. We hope you'll be back with us soon!

ALPHA CHI RHO

Our Roaring Twenties party last week has been dubbed a great success by all concerned.

The theme was followed as closely as possible, even down to costumes, many of which were authentic, having been rescued from the obscurity of attic trunks and long-unopened closets. A sample of the 1920-type vaudeville included a silent movie, a visit with "Big Mama" (our congratulations to Brother Vaughn Garvin for an indescribable performance), and a series of songs and gyrations from "Lotta Lovin'" (alias Elaine Karch).

Later, while we huddled around cups in the Speakeasy, a couple of underworld hoods (Brothers Krammer and Benson) were eliminated by an exchange of gunfire from which only Brother Kanoff emerged unscathed.

Still later on in the evening, nearly everyone had caught on to the Charleston (most inhibitions had been misplaced by then) and we danced away the rest of the night.

An amusing sidelight occurred after the party when one of our guests on his way home was confronted by a group of local hoodlums. But after he artfully displayed the prop pistol he had taken to the party, the group became very anxious to leave his general vicinity.

This week our Chapter was honored by a visit by our National Secretary, Mr. Henson Watchorn (affectionately known as "Hense"). He, as usual, was full of sound advice and good humor, and we enjoyed his two-day visit.

In keeping with the Fraternity tradition of an annual service project, we Crows collected money for the Red Cross this past week. We would like to thank all those who helped us to help others by contributing.

Our congratulations to Dr. Van Meter, our advisor, for his excellent Piano Recital of March 25.

On the 10th of April, just one week away, the Brothers will sponsor a car wash at Emerson's Dairy Land from 9:00 a.m. until we drop. Anyone interested in a shiny new-looking car should bring his dirty old-looking car to us next Saturday, hand us a dollar, and jump back. A crowd bearing buckets, cloths, and hoses, will descend on your vehicle and when the smoke clears, your car will look as good as new. See you next Saturday.

SIGMA DELTA PHI

Sigma Delta Phi would like to welcome our new pledges, who were pledged March 22: Alice Capp, Barbara Love, Sharon Freed, Kay Feuster, Helen Hastings, Ruth Pushkar, Ester Maykowski, and Joanne Henry. The first of the informal parties with the sisters was a slumber party held last Friday night in the sorority suite.

Pledges Sharon Freed and Kay Feuster are two of the newly elected officers of AWS. Sharon will be their new treasurer, and Kay will become the new secretary.

We would like to congratulate the brothers of Theta Xi on their Open Book Award for having the highest scholastic average among their national chapters.

Sister Maxine Goodrich will be one of the Clarion students to attend the Intercollegiate Conference on Government in Harrisburg. This year's program will center around the functioning of a mock Congress, and it should be a rewarding experience for all those students who attend.

brothers will deal in rare and exotic foods of all lands.

Thanks to the Sig Tau's for extending invitations to their Beach Party.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

Congratulations to Brother Terry Thompson, who was honored by playing in the North-South Invitational Tournament at Gannon College in Erie, Pa.

The following Brothers are playing on the college baseball team: Bill Muka, Gene Floriani, and Jim Dummire. Good-luck this season, guys.

The Pledges went on their Pledge Trips this past weekend. They traveled all over the State of Pennsylvania and into Maryland and Ohio. Hope you had a good time, fellows.

Several of the Brothers are going to Frostburg, Maryland, to visit the Pi Chapter of Sigma Tau Gamma.

Congratulations to Brother Stein Von Kraft, who officially became a Brother on Sunday morning. Keep up the good work, Stein.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

Purple violets go to Linda Cooper on being chosen Miss C. S. C. Congratulations, Linda! We wish you the best of luck in your reign and in the Laurel Festival, April 3.

Also participating in the Laurel Festival is Lorraine Constantino. The sisters of Tri Sigma wish Lorraine the best of luck this Saturday.

Purple violets go to Dixie Nuss for her fine showing in the Miss C. S. C. Pageant. Dixie represented Sigma Sigma Sigma in the contest.

Special thank-yous go to all the committees who made our rush parties a success. The sisters of our sorority hope that everyone had an enjoyable time at these different functions. Honored at our formal rush party was Joanne Hrivnak, who was chosen as our Sigma Sweetheart. Joanne, a senior and past president, was selected because of her outstanding service as a Tri Sigma and for those Sigma ideals which she exemplifies.

The new pledges, formally pledged in a ceremony on March 22, are now performing the duties of their new position. They are: Eddie Bialek, Sharon Bradford, Barb Danvir, Nancy Harr, Alice Hartman, Marty Hemma, Kathy Jones, Merikay Kanour, Karol Koman, Melanie Martin, Joanne Mayhew, Jackie McLendon, Ruth McPherson, Sonja Shaffer, Sandy Steiger, and Jean Westerberg. As their service project, the pledges are making a telephone campaign for the benefit of the Cerebral Palsy Fund of Clarion County. Through their endeavors all children in the area with cerebral palsy will be able to benefit from the clinical services offered.

Also working on this campaign are the sisters of Beta Chi Upsilon.

THETA XI

On the night of March 22, the award ceremony was held at which time the Award from our national was presented to us. We would like to thank all those faculty members who were in attendance and we hope that you enjoyed the ceremony. After the award presentation, refreshments were served and there was a short open house for those persons who had not yet seen the new addition.

The Brothers would like to extend their congratulations to Brother Dave Phanco, who won the Most Valuable Player Award from the rifle team.

With the vacancy made by Thomas Hixson, the new House Manager is Brother Rick Zabrowski. Brother Zabrowski has taken over the responsibilities of this position very well.

Spring might finally be here, and with this, the spring fever for the start of the intramural softball league is coming into full swing. And the Theta Xi's are no exception, for our teams are anxious to start practice and get the season rolling. Good luck to the team.

The night of March 27, saw a combo party at the house at which about 60 people were in attendance. From all reports, this party was another blast such as those which preceded it.

2 Students Attacked By Local Youths

No action will be taken by the College following investigation of an incident which took place two weeks ago between two students and four area youths.

The two students, who are Sigma Tau Gamma pledges, were returning from a pledge hike about 3:20 a.m., when they were attacked near the Chapel parking lot by the four young men.

While the one student went for help, the other fended off the attack by the four young men. Local police arrived and quelled the fracas, however. Despite the four-against-one ratio, witnesses on the scene reported the brief battle was "completely one-sided, in favor of the student."

Senate Plans to Attend 27th Conference

The Clarion State College Student Senate met on March 23 in the Student Government room. Present were: President Jerry Marterer, Vice-President John Cuthbertson, Senators Blosssey, Brammer, Burgason, Crawford, Johnson, Kennedy, Kiehl, Schuricht, Shrum, and Advisors Dr. Rishel, Dr. Hilton and Gene Hausman.

Conditions regarding the sanitary conditions of the rest room in the Union have been considerably improved, President Marterer reported.

Appointed to serve on the Finance Committee were Wayne Schuricht and Al Kennedy.

This year's 27th annual Student Government Conference will be held April 22-24 at Edinboro State College. All members expressed a desire to attend the conference, along with the advisors. Al Kennedy made the following motion regarding our sending of delegates to this conference: "I move that we send a group of delegates to the 27th Annual Conference of the Student Government Association of the State Colleges of Pennsylvania to be held at Edinboro State College on April 22-24, 1965." The motion was seconded and a roll call vote showed the group unanimously in favor of the motion. The motion was carried.

The two students filed assault charges against the four young men. These charges were dismissed by Justice of the Peace Paul Wilshire. However, he did order the four young men to pay the costs of the prosecution.

In reference to the incident, Mr. Thaddeus P. Droast, college Security Officer, said that "while we certainly do not condone fighting by our students, this was clearly a case in which they had no choice but to defend themselves against attack and were perfectly within their rights to do so."

Teaching Career Month Sponsored By N. E. A.

The teaching profession is forming a new image. This is why the theme for Teaching Career Month, 1965, has been designated "The Changing Face of Teaching."

This observance, the eighth sponsored by the National Education Association and its affiliated associations, will focus on various aspects of this changing face.

It will show that today's teachers are better educated and better prepared to teach than they have ever been.

Here at CSC, students should be especially interested in the significant responsibility the teacher plays in preparing young people for their place in society and role in life.

The P.S.E.A. of CSC is joining with the N.E.A. and other groups throughout the United States to point out the importance of today's teachers.

The organization plans to help achieve this goal by meeting with numerous other P.S.E.A. members from various campuses. This will be done at the Regional Meeting scheduled for Saturday, April 10, at Thiel College, with several of the groups' officers attending.

The Banquet, which will be held in the Golden Eagle in Brookville on Saturday, April 3, is open to the public. The price is $2.50, and reservations may be made with Micheal Gula at Clarion State College.

Dr. Yourd received his B.S. degree from the University of Pittsburgh, and received his M.D. degree from the same University.

Corrections

All contributions to the campus literary magazine, The Clarion, must be from students only, and not from faculty and students as the Call reported in the last issue.

The carnations presented to Miss C. S. C., Linda Cooper, were from the sponsor, Phi Sigma Kappa, not Gene Haumann of Student Senate.

Athletes Named

(Continued from page 1) on the current Dean's List at the College. In addition, the grade range of all athletes is higher than a decade ago, or even five years ago.

To be eligible for Dean's List, a student must compile a Quality Point Average of 3.35 or better for a semester. The top possible score is 4.00.

The Football, Rifle, and Baseball teams each had two members named to Dean's List, while Bowling and Basketball had one each.

Named from Football were Ken Gaudi, halfback from Hempfield High School near Greensburg; and Lou Jumerotta, linebacker from Oakmont High School.

The Rifle team has David Phanco, of Youngsville, and David Schussler, of East McKeesport on Dean's List. Phanco is also a member of the Bowling team; the only member of the team named.

Eugene M. Desch of Swissvale represents the Golf team on the Dean's List; while James Haslett of Warren and Ward Beaton of Emporium, are members of the baseball team on the Dean's List.

Terry Thompson of Kittanning, star and captain of the Clarion Basketball team, was the cagers' star in the classroom too, being the member of that sport's team named to the List.

DAN HOFFMAN AND BOB COSTELLO, two members of the Newmen Club Weightlifting Team display their trophies. Other members of the team are Glen Ridinger and Bill Kail.

Dean Rishel Resigns

In addition to his position of Dean of Student Affairs at Clarion, Dr. Rishel is also an Associate Professor of Education.

At the University of Maryland, he will hold the academic rank of Assistant Professor on the graduate faculty of the College of Education, teaching graduate classes in student personnel administration and directing graduate research. He will also have the responsibility for the Pre-College Summer Session, a guidance program for entering freshmen.

Conference Scheduled Here On Anglo and American Law

A conference on Anglo-American law will be held in Clarion on Tuesday, April 6, in the Clarion County Court House, located on Main Street.

Sponsored by the British Culture Center of Clarion State College, the Conference will feature three sessions, including a panel discussion. All of the sessions will be held in Room 1 of the Court House.

Dr. Gould to Give Lecture

Clarion State College's Visiting Scholar's Series will present Dr. Harold A. Gould, department of Anthropology at the University of Pittsburgh, in an illustrated lecture on "Village Life in India," to be presented on Thursday, April 22.

Dr. Gould has specialized in Indian Anthropology since 1954. He received a B.A. in Sociology from the University of Rhode Island in 1951; a Masters degree in Sociology and Anthropology from Ohio State University in 1954, and a Ph.D. in Anthropology in 1959 from Washington University.

Dr. Gould was a Fulbright Scholar in India in 1954-55, and returned for three years of post-doctoral research in Indian society from 1959-62.

His lecture will be at 7 p.m. in the College Chapel, and will be open to the public.

People invariably turn to newspapers for information ranging from the practical arts to the abstract sciences, for entertainment ranging from crossword puzzles to comic strips.

The first session will begin at 1:30 p.m., and will feature Rowland Watts, esq., speaking on "The Law and Regulatory Procedure."

The second session, which begins at 3:15, will be a panel discussion on "Qualities of Great Judges." Panelists for this discussion will be Mr. Watts, Dr. Joel Haines, professor of Social Science and Chairman of the British Culture Center, and Mr. Jay Van Bruggen, assistant professor of Social Science. Both Dr. Haines and Mr. Van Bruggen are faculty members at Clarion State College.

The Honorable Edward Dumbauld will present the third session on "English Precedents of American Constitutional Law" at 8 p.m., Tuesday.

The Honorable Edward Dumbauld is a Judge of the United States District Court of the Western District of Pennsylvania. His book, The Constitution of the United States, has earned him "the gratitude of teachers, students, and of that normally ungrateful group, political lawyers," according to one critical review.

Rowland Watts is a member of the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States, the United States Courts of Appeals for the 4th and 5th Circuits, United States District Court for the District of Maryland, as well as the Maryland Courts.

He is the author of the following works: "Illegal Forced Labor in the United States"; "The Draftee and Internal Security"; and a supplement to "The Draftee and Internal Security."

The public is cordially invited to attend the Conference, according to Dr. Haines, chairman.

Dr. Konitzky To Continue Land Survey

A major archaeological survey campaign will begin here this spring and summer under the direction of Dr. Gustav A. Konitzky, associate professor of Anthropology at the College.

The survey of the Upper Allegheny drainage, which began about a year ago, will be intensified by the students working under Dr. Konitzky.

"We are primarily concerned with the spread of late Prehistoric influences into the tributaries of the Allegheny. Our excavations along the Clarion River last fall brought to light enough evidence to prove that a definite movement of people existed, coming upriver from the south, and bringing distinctive pottery and projectile points with them," Dr. Konitzky pointed out.

These prehistoric Indians, according to the findings, show a close affiliation with known cultures further south, and their presence this far north came as a surprise to archaeologists. So far, scientific evidence for their presence in both the Clarion River and Little Scrubgrass Creek valleys has been gathered, but nothing is known yet about their travels further north.

"I suspect," Dr. Konitzky added, "that we shall eventually be able to trace them to the New York State line."

The work at Clarion is closely coordinated with the Carnegie Museum in Pittsburgh.

The material from last year's excavation has been sorted, catalogued, and restored in the Archaeological Laboratory at Clarion State College.

'The Lettermen' to Entertain Popular Trio Sings May 3

THE LETTERMEN, popular campus group drops in on CSC for a musical go-around on May 3.

Louis Untermeyer to Speak To Students, Public on Mon.

On April 26, nationally-acclaimed poet, anthologist, editor, and critic Louis Untermeyer will appear as guest lecturer of the Clarion State College Concert Lecture Series Program.

Now Honorary Consultant in the Humanities for the Library of Congress, Mr. Untermeyer has been widely celebrated for his service to American letters with the publication of The Letters of Robert Frost to Louis Untermeyer. Untermeyer has disclosed the revealing self-portrait Frost painted of the man behind the public figure he became. He has also provided an enduring record of an intimate literary friendship. Through his anthologies, Mr. Untermeyer presented a version of Frost to the American public and provided the older poet with a line into the literary world of his time.

public. Best known among his books of original verse is perhaps the Selected Poems and Parodies.

During World War II he was associated with the Office of War Information as senior editor of publications and writer of foreign radio broadcasts. Early in 1944 he was transferred to the Armed Services Edition the largest publication venture ever attempted in the United States.

In his capacity as Editor-in-Chief of the cultural progress of Decca Records—a position he resigned in 1955 to devote more time to writing.

Mr. Untermeyer developed the program as a cross between sheer entertainment and the textbooks of tomorrow. "The most versatile genius in America," declared by Amy Lowell, Louis Untermeyer will present his lecture "How to These same "Lettermen" will be coming to Clarion State College on Monday evening, May 3 for an 8 p.m. concert in the High School Auditorium according to Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., chairman of the College's Concert Lecture Committee.

Termed by one music critic as "the freshest, most magnificent vocal blend offered today" The Lettermen will bring the music that has given them top selling records and SRO audiences at over 1500 colleges and universities to Clarion.

Their style is a blend of the nostalgic style of standard ballads, augmented with the modern arrangements of today. Their show always runs the musical range of folk music, old songs, new songs, show tunes—all in their own unique style.

The Lettermen are veterans of television screen appearances too, having had guest shots on the Ed Sullivan, Red Skelton, Bob Newhart, Johnny Carson, and Steve Allen shows. Their nightclub appearances go coast to coast.

Michalski said the usual ticket distribution policy would be followed, in that college students would have the first chance at tickets with the remainder, if any, available to the public.

Thaddeus Droast Recovers $400

A major lead was opened in the Book Store burglary when approximately $400 in negotiables and cash was recovered by Mr. Thaddeus P. Droast, Security Officer for the College.

Mr. Droast said that the investigation would continue and that sixty people have been interviewed in reference to the theft. More interviews are scheduled.

A polygraph exam (lie detector test) has been in use by the Pennsylvania State Police on this case. Members of the State Police and Mr. Droast are conducting this phase of the investigation.

There are still several avenues of investigation open throughout the college.

Denison, Ide To Address Journalists

Clarion State College's local chapter of Alpha Phi Gamma, national honorary journalism fraternity, will hold its second annual Banquet at the Capt. Loomis Hotel on Saturday, April 24 at 8 p.m.

The banquet will be highlighted by a talk on journalism by Mason W. Denison, dean of the "Capitol Hill" correspondents in Harrisburg, who is the evening's main speaker. The guest speaker will be Carl Ide, well known television personality and newsmen from WTAE-TV in Pittsburgh.

MASON W. DENISON

Mr. Denison will discuss his experiences as a Harrisburg correspondent, and will discuss journalism as a career for young people.

Mr. Denison is a native of Harrisburg and a graduate of the journalism school at the then Pennsylvania State College in 1937. He began covering State politics in Harrisburg in 1939, with time out for service in the U. S. Marines during World War II.

Mr. Denison organized The Pennsylvania News Service in 1946 to provide the initial statewide syndicated commentary on Pennsylvania affairs, government, and politics. Mr. Denison's column is known as "The Pennsylvania Story."

His column appears in nearly two score weekly newspapers and more than 30 dailies throughout Pennsylvania.

Currently serving as President of the Central Pennsylvania Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, Mr. Denison is a member of the Pennsylvania Society of Newspaper Editors; the Pennsylvania Legislative Correspondents Association; and a charter member of the Pennsylvania Public Relations Society.

Carl Ide has been a newsmen for WTAE-TV for the past 5 years, doing both the noon news and portions of the 7 p.m. news on that station. In addition, he handles many public service and documentary programs for WTAE-TV.

A graduate of Emerson College in Boston, he is considered one of this area's finest newsmen and personalities. Carl Ide has worked in Pittsburgh-area radio and television since 1945. He left Pittsburgh for a brief stint in New Jersey during the late '40's, returning to Pittsburgh in 1953 with WDTV. Mr. Ide remained with WDTV, which became KDKA-TV until 1960, when he switched to WTAE-TV.

His last appearance in Clarion was as a guest at the Autumn Leaf Festival.

Editorially Speaking

Formal and semi-formal dances on this campus have been proven in the past to be unpopular by the number of couples who attended them. The time and effort of those planning for these formal dances seem to be wasted energy when less than fifty couples usually are present.

Since the students are paying for these dances, and they obviously are not interested in them, some arrangement should be made to change the situation.

A remedy to this situation is that only one formal dance could be held in one year, and dances requiring informal dress could replace the other formal dances. Certain advantages can be seen in this situation. A greater turnout at the informal dances could be expected because students are more interested in informal dances and more apt to go. The single formal dance could become very popular if it is planned at an advantageous time of the year. The cost and effort of the dances would not seem to be wasted because more students would be attending both functions.

When the planning for next year's social events begins, this idea could be considered since the interest of the student body should be the first reason for all social events.

Student Gives Her Opinion On Teaching

This is from "The Interlude," College of St. Francis, Joliet, Ill.: "Class, I would like you to meet Miss..."

(Oh, my heart, that's me. Why, yes, hello to you. Did he really call me Miss? Sounds so old. Why, I do feel even a bit older than a shaky 21.) "She will be assisting me for a while in class."

(How considerate of him to say "assisting"—it fits in with the "Miss." Yes, I do think it sounds more professional than student teacher.) "I will seat you in alphabetical order to make it easier for Miss... to learn your names."

(Yes, of course... row two, seat five—John, with the dimples. Must remember: dimples equals John. Up in front—Julie. I won't play favorites, but I do like her so much. And, those legs extending from row three, it's Mike, star what? Linebacker? I must keep posted on sports events. And Mike? I do hope you like English.) "For class tomorrow, turn to page... dismissed."

(The bell. In just 55 minutes I've been renovated... into a "Miss" who will be "assisting." But more than this. Years of hesitation, qualms and theory are all muddled together, with me in the middle. I feel needed, responsible, in my mixed emotions. I know something now... for sure. School teaching is not a certificate or even a prized degree. It is John, Mike, Julie and the rest. That's why I am here now.

Special Ed Program Gets 5 Trainee Grants

The Special Education Department of the College has received authorization from the U. S. Office of Education to provide 5 student traineeships.

The traineeships involve a $1800 stipend and waiver of tuition for each student chosen. In addition, the Special Education Department will receive $2000 per student to support their program in education for working with mentally retarded children.

The purpose of this grant program is to assist in the preparation of professional personnel in the education of the mentally retarded. Kenneth Vayda, director of the Special Education Department, explained.

"This is a follow-up to the $10,500 stimulation grant we had this year," he continued.

Professor Vayda said that an announcement would be made soon regarding applications for the traineeships. He said they would be open to senior students for 1965-66.

This grant brings the total money awarded to the Clarion Special Education program to $28,500 for the past two years.

Decisions Made On Two Cases

Alumni Association Requests Surplus

The Council of Alumni Associations of the State Colleges of Pennsylvania today called on the state Legislature to earmark $6.7 million of the anticipated state budget surplus for the 14 state colleges.

At the same time, the alumni group urged the leadership in the General Assembly to join forces in preparing a package of "specific legislation which would rid the state colleges of politics and encumbering red tape and aid them in providing low cost, high quality education for all capable Pennsylvania students."

Leon E. Lunn of Mansfield, president of the alumni group, following a weekend meeting of the council in Harrisburg, said that while the legislators could not appropriate the surplus funds in dollar amounts until the exact amount of the surplus is known after the close of the fiscal year, June 30, "there is precedent for the Legislature to direct that the surplus be spent according to a formula it decides upon."

"With 27,000 qualified students refused admission to the state colleges for the 1964-65 term, and admissions already closed for the 1965-66 term at most state colleges, it is readily apparent that the colleges are desperately in need of a crash program immediately if they are to fulfill the obligation assigned them by the Council of Higher Education to provide for the enrollment of 60,000 students by 1972," Lunn said.

At present, the 14 colleges have 34,000 students enrolled.

"No area of the state government can claim higher priority for surplus tax funds than public higher education, which has so long been denied even adequate financing," Lunn said.

The alumni group urged the legislators to agree on a basic four-point program which would provide:

—autonomy for the individual colleges in the areas of fiscal management, curricula planning, faculty selection and placement, and purchasing.

—adequate state appropriations to meet current needs and expansion to provide for 60,000 students by 1972.

—that the state colleges be the direct responsibility of the Council of Higher Education.

—the removal of partisan politics from the planning and administration of the state colleges.

Said Lunn: "Each of these points has been raised previously and well documented by the alumni council and various other individuals and agencies. Yet, until the partisan bickering that has been going on for more than 10 years ceases and agreement is reached on these essentials, no concrete action can be taken."

The council of alumni associations is ready to work with both parties in the Legislature and with the administration to enact specific legislation which would rid the state colleges of encumbering red tape and aid them in providing a low cost, high quality education for all capable Pennsylvania students."

Lunn said the college alumni also urges "non-partisan action on the long-awaited McGrath report when it is submitted," but added that action on the specific state college requirements "cannot wait."

Lunn also announced the appointment of an advisory board to the alumni council headed by Charles Keller, Washington County attorney, chairman; Carl W. Nelson, Dillsburg, vice chairman, and Harold U. Crouse, Shippensburg banker, secretary. The newly formed board elected its officers Saturday at a meeting following the alumni council conference.

"Now, about these resentments of yours—can you go back any further than the safety-pin sticking you?"

'66 Enrollment Now Closed

Enrollment at Clarion State College has officially been closed through the Spring semester, 1966. According to Walter Hart, director of admissions, an unprecedented number of applications for the 1965-66 year have caused this closing of admission. Clarion has witnessed a dramatic increase in enrollment as the student body has nearly quadrupled in the eight years between 1956 and 1964.

In absolute figures the enrollment has risen from 688 in 1956 to 2,490 this year," Mr. Hart said. Mr. Hart suggested that members of the present junior class in high schools schedule the Scholastic Aptitude Test in May or July of this year, as the next test will not be administered until December.

Editorially Speaking

Formal and semi-formal dances on this campus have been proven in the past to be unpopular by the number of couples who attended them. The time and effort of those planning for these formal dances seem to be wasted energy when less than fifty couples usually are present.

Since the students are paying for these dances, and they obviously are not interested in them, some arrangement should be made to change the situation.

A remedy to this situation is that only one formal dance could be held in one year, and dances requiring informal dress could replace the other formal dances. Certain advantages can be seen in this situation. A greater turnout at the informal dances could be expected because students are more interested in informal dances and more apt to go. The single formal dance could become very popular if it is planned at an advantageous time of the year. The cost and effort of the dances would not seem to be wasted because more students would be attending both functions.

When the planning for next year's social events begins, this idea could be considered since the interest of the student body should be the first reason for all social events.

I DON'T CARE how old you are, lady. You're a student and you aren't allowed to drink.

A Peek at Greeks

THETA CHI

The brotherhood extends congratulations to Brother Jesse McGee and his harmonious gang for their outstanding performance, which gave Theta Chi their fourth straight "Greek Sing" trophy in as many years. Also, the brotherhood bestows sincere compliments to the Sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha for a splendid showing in capturing the sorority trophy of the "Greek Sing." A Zeta-Theta party was held to commemorate the highly-esteemed occasion.

The spring semester has been offering plenty of activity for the brothers. Just recently they had the opportunity to attend Corral, which is a gathering of all Theta-Chi chapters in our region. According to all brothers who attended the blast, which was hosted by the University of Pittsburgh, everyone had an unbelievable weekend. Janet Royer represented Epsilon Xi in the Dreamgirl Contest.

Fraternity honors go to Brother Joe Brewer for his superlative performances as Social Chairman. Brother Brewer expects to top all previous functions with his plans for the annual Spring Banquet, which is to be held on May 8.

Best wishes to Brothers Wally Machemer, Larry Neal, and Andy Womeldorf for taking the vows of matrimony.

The pledges wish to thank the Brothers for honoring them with a benefit party on Thursday night.

Brother Joe Izzi, along with 65,000 other all-American college students, celebrated Easter in Daytona Beach, Florida.

Theta Chi would like to send the "best of everything" along with Brother Veli Lahdenpaa, who will leave for his home in Finland on April 24. Veli has been with us since September and became a Brother during the first semester. He is a student in Finland majoring in law, and will return to his studies there.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

The sisters of Sigma Sigma Sigma extend their congratulations to the sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha and to the brothers of Theta Chi for their winning performances in Greek Sing. Thank-yous are extended to Miss Shope, Mrs. Duffy, and Reverend Blair for aiding Tri Sigma in taking second place in Greek Sing.

Installation of new officers was held April 15, in a ceremony in the Sigma Sorority Room. New committee heads for 1965-66 were also appointed at this time.

A tea was held by the officers and pledges on Sunday, April 11, from 2:00 to 3:00 in our sorority room. Its purpose was to acquaint these sisters with our sponsors, alumnae advisory board and patronesses.

Founders Day Banquet was held at Johnny Garneau's on April 20. Besides the sisters, the sponsors, patronesses, the alumnae advisory board and Mrs. Gemmel were present. Following the entertainment, which included a dance by Lo Raine Constantino and our two singing groups, and our banquet, a toast to "Sigmans Now and Always" was carried as a theme throughout the remaining program. Thank you to Margy Himes, the chairman of this banquet, for her fine job of organizing. Awards were presented by Sister Himes to Carol Blair for the highest average, to Carol Perry for the most improvement in her average, and to Frankie Planker for her highest semester average.

Anyone who ordered shaker swa-

ters can pick them up in Room 322 of the Tri Sigma Suite.

The Tri Sigmans are holding their spring fund raising project by sponsoring a car wash on May 15. It will be held at Emerson's Dairyland.

DELTA ZETA

The sisters of Delta Zeta would like to welcome our new pledge class: Doreen Allen, Cindy Bender, Dana Casoli, Marlee Debeleke, Sue Horvath, Janis Kemerer, Anita Liposky, Jackie Sabol, Lynne Schuck, Terry Shettler, Mary Spence, Vivian Walker, and Sharon Weyer. The pledges have elected Mary Spence as president and Lynne Schuck as song leader.

The Deltas are planning a car wash at Emerson's on April 23rd. The pledges are now selling roller caps as part of their sorority project.

The pledges enjoyed a wonderful evening at Joe Izzi's farm for their informal initiation. Thanks, Joe!

The sisters of Delta Zeta held their Formal Rush Party at the Carriage Inn in Knox, March 22nd. Mickey Zabec was presented with a dozen pink roses for being chosen the "Delta Zeta Dream Girl of 1965."

The Deltas would like to extend belated wishes to Judy Tuminella for being chosen first runner-up in the Miss CSC Pageant, and Sandra Falloretta for being chosen the third runner-up. Wishes also go to Andrea Heredia for being chosen second runner-up in the Laurel Festival. Pink roses go to these girls. Congratulations for a job well done.

Pink roses go to Elaine Daniels, Carol Sichak, and Sharon Weyer for their participation in Can-Can. Congratulations to Judy Tuminella for making the lead dancer.

The Deltas wish to congratulate Marlene Scardamalia and Mary Jo Sullivan for being nominated for National Sorority awards.

Although it is a little late, the sisters of Delta Zeta would like to welcome back Connie Woolsey, Janet Susa, and Karen Chittister.

Our congratulations go to Theta Chi and Zeta Tau Alpha for winning first place in Greek Sing.

ALPHA CHI RHO

When our National Secretary was here a few weeks ago, he brought us our Charter, an impressive document which we have since suitably framed. We have also heard from "Hense" lately concerning the prospects for a house for us. Things look pretty good, but we'll keep our fingers crossed.

Shortly before Easter Vacation our pledges took the National Test and passed with rather good marks. Their initiation is planned for the near future.

Many of our Brothers are planning to attend the installation of our newest Chapter, Nu Phi, at Steubenville, Ohio, on May 1. So everyone is going "down the line" to welcome our new Brothers into the Fraternity.

Our car wash held on April 10, was a great success. Everyone was filthy, waterlogged, and tired, but it was worth it. We're looking forward to our next car wash to be held on May 8. Sure we are!

ALPHA GAMMA PHI

The men of Alpha Gamma Phi would like to extend congratulations to President Joseph Tuminella, who recently scored a hole-in-one at Pinecrest Country Club in the third hole, 155 yards.

Get well wishes are extended to Brothers John D'Angelo and Bob Crystol. Brother Crystol is recuperating from a fractured cartilage in his knee suffered at the hands of Brother Stellute during football practice. Brother D'Angelo is still undergoing tests for his mysterious illness at Brookville Hospital.

Brother Crystol would like to announce the adoption of a neurotic parakeet named Woudjel, who has become a mascot in the house.

The men of the Red and Black would like to wish Brother Francis "Butcher" Dunlay the best of luck and congratulations. Brother Dunlay is to marry Miss Patricia Ann Whalen on April 24.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

The sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha are pleased to announce the officers of the spring pledge class: Karen Reibich, president; Patti Grossi, vice president; Judy Darnoff, secretary; and Leanne Marcinko, treasurer. Congratulations!

On Saturday, April 3, sisters Patty Palmer, Sandy Carlin, and Peggy Brammer attended a workshop for all Zetas in this district. Here they received many new ideas for our chapter activities.

On April 30, the sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha are holding our annual spring outing. This year it will be in Cook Forest at the cabin of our patroness, Mrs. Logue.

Annual

MOTHER'S DAY CONCERT

May 9 — Campus Lawn

Campus Views

ED. NOTE: A frequent charge against the State colleges is that they are just over-developed high schools without any culture or sophistication. To combat this impression we are reprinting the following letter from the Indiana Penn which proves also that someone is always "covering up" something at the State college level.

Dear Editor: Without advocating that ISC be transformed into a nudist colony, I would like to draw attention to a great deficiency in our art department. In the entire four years of study, there is but one semester of figure drawing given. In this one semester the student spends a great deal of time drawing his classmates. Unfortunately, our classmates frequently wear clothes. This is all right for fashion illustration but it greatly hinders ones understanding of the human form. When a model is obtained, the situation improves, but a figure strapped up in a bathing suit still leaves something to be desired.

Figure drawing is basic to one's artistic development. If X-ray vision be required of Indiana students the best results produced will be reproductions of pop art. In closing let me ask that any females who are slightly uninhibited and wish to earn the magnificent pay of eighty cents an hour, please contact Mr. Innes in the Art Annex.

Concert Band to Play At N. Y. World's Fair

Clarion State College's Concert Band leaves for New York Sunday to perform at the World's Fair, according to Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., director.

The Clarion Band was invited to play a performance at the popular Tiparillo Band Pavilion and one at the United States Pavilion by Robert Moses, president of the World's Fair.

The Band will present two, hour-long concerts while at the Fair, Mr. Michalski said. In addition, the 80 piece group will be on concert tour with a number of concerts on the return from the Fair.

Following their April 26 concerts at the Fair, the Band will present an afternoon program at Boyertown High School and an evening program in Reading on April 28. On April 29, they will play at Twin Valley High School in Elverson, and at Oley Valley High School in Oley, Pennsylvania.

Clarion's Band is the first Pennsylvania State college band invited to play at the Fair.

Band to Perform On Mothers' Day

On Mother's Day, May 9, the CSC Concert Band will present a program of varied songs.

Veli Lahdenpaa Returns Home To Finland

This past year Clarion State College had a visitor from Helsinki, Finland—Veli Lahdenpaa.

Veli is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Veikko Lahdenpaa. Mr. Lahdenpaa is the president of a businessmen's college in Helsinki. Besides his parents, the only other member of his family is his twin sister, Inkari, who is a secretary for an export-import company. She has done extensive traveling and has studied in Switzerland and is the master of five different languages.

Veli is twenty-three. He spent the summers abroad from 1958 to 1963. During the winters he attended classes at Helsinki University, where he is halfway through the law program. When he finishes at the University, he plans to become a lawyer in foreign trade.

He came to CSC on the invitation of Dr. Gemmell, who became acquainted with his father while studying in Finland on a Fulbright Scholarship.

Some of his reasons for coming to America were to learn English and the American system of government. He fulfilled these purposes by attending classes here at CSC. First semester he attended Dr. Samuel Wilhelm's American Government class, and Mr. Jay Van Bruggen's Constitutional Law class. This semester he attended U.S. & Pa. I and II classes taught by Dr. Helen Knuth and Dr. James King respectively. Concerning his classes, Veli liked the informal dress because in Finland suits have to be worn to all classes.

Veli has visited other parts of the country while here at Clarion. In the fall he visited some of the eastern colleges with the Gemmells and also went with the basketball team on their trips. During Christmas vacation, he went to Mexico.

One major difference, Veli noted, between American and European schools is the student's attitude. From his own observations, he believes the Finnish students take their studies and exams more seriously than American students.

VELI LAHDENPAA

Veli felt very much at home here. He regarded the Gemmells as his "adopted parents" and his acceptance into Theta Chi fraternity made him feel like one of the students. He appreciated and was pleased with his membership in the frat and the polite, helpful, friendly attitude of all the students.

Tennis ranks number one in sports for Veli. While in high school he played soccer, and he finds ice hockey very fascinating. According to Veli, the Finnish eat more fresh fish and less pastries than Americans. He found our food very delicious, at least the way his two roommates cook it. He considers them to be excellent chefs!

First semester Veli lived in Ballentine Hall and second, he lived in an apartment on Wood Street with his roommates, Darryl Bauer and Don Hartley (Hummer).

A Peek at Greeks

THETA CHI

The brotherhood extends congratulations to Brother Jesse McGee and his harmonious gang for their outstanding performance, which gave Theta Chi their fourth straight "Greek Sing" trophy in as many years. Also, the brotherhood bestows sincere compliments to the Sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha for a splendid showing in capturing the sorority trophy of the "Greek Sing."

A Zeta-Theta party was held to commemorate the highly-esteemed occasion.

The spring semester has been offering plenty of activity for the brothers. Just recently they had the opportunity to attend Corral, which is a gathering of all Theta-Chi chapters in our region. According to all brothers who attended the blast, which was hosted by the University of Pittsburgh, everyone had an unbelievable weekend. Janet Royer represented Epsilon Xi in the Dreamgirl Contest.

Fraternity honors go to Brother Joe Brewer for his superlative performances as Social Chairman. Brother Brewer expects to top all previous functions with his plans for the annual Spring Banquet, which is to be held on May 8.

Best wishes to Brothers Wally Machemer, Larry Neal, and Andy Womeldorf for taking the vows of matrimony.

The pledges wish to thank the Brothers for honoring them with a benefit party on Thursday night.

Brother Joe Izzi, along with 65,000 other all-American college students, celebrated Easter in Daytona Beach, Florida.

Theta Chi would like to send the "best of everything" along with Brother Veli Lahdenpaa, who will leave for his home in Finland on April 24. Veli has been with us since September and became a Brother during the first semester. He is a student in Finland majoring in law, and will return to his studies there.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

The sisters of Sigma Sigma Sigma extend their congratulations to the sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha and to the brothers of Theta Chi for their winning performances in Greek Sing. Thank-yous are extended to Miss Shope, Mrs. Duffy, and Reverend Blair for aiding Tri Sigma in taking second place in Greek Sing.

Installation of new officers was held April 15, in a ceremony in the Sigma Sorority Room. New committee heads for 1965-66 were also appointed at this time.

A tea was held by the officers and pledges on Sunday, April 11, from 2:00 to 3:00 in our sorority room. Its purpose was to acquaint these sisters with our sponsors, alumnae advisory board and patronesses.

Founders Day Banquet was held at Johnny Garneau's on April 20. Besides the sisters, the sponsors, patronesses, the alumnae advisory board and Mrs. Gemmel were present. Following the entertainment, which included a dance by Lo Raine Constantino and our two singing groups, and our banquet, a toast to "Sigmans Now and Always" was carried as a theme throughout the remaining program. Thank you to Margy Himes, the chairman of this banquet, for her fine job of organizing. Awards were presented by Sister Himes to Carol Blair for the highest average, to Carol Perry for the most improvement in her average, and to Frankie Planker for her high semester average.

Anyone who ordered shaker swa-

ters can pick them up in Room 322 of the Tri Sigma Suite.

The Tri Sigmans are holding their spring fund raising project by sponsoring a car wash on May 15. It will be held at Emerson's Dairyland.

DELTA ZETA

The sisters of Delta Zeta would like to welcome our new pledge class: Doreen Allen, Cindy Bender, Dana Casoli, Marlee Debeleck, Sue Horvath, Janis Kemerer, Anita Liposky, Jackie Sabol, Lynne Schuck, Terry Shettler, Mary Spence, Vivian Walker, and Sharon Weyer. The pledges have elected Mary Spence as president and Lynne Schuck as song leader.

The Delts are planning a car wash at Emerson's on April 23rd. The pledges are now selling roller caps as part of their sorority project.

The pledges enjoyed a wonderful evening at Joe Izzi's farm for their informal initiation. Thanks, Joe!

The sisters of Delta Zeta held their Formal Rush Party at the Carriage Inn in Knox, March 22nd. Mickey Zabec was presented with a dozen pink roses for being chosen the "Delta Zeta Dream Girl of 1965."

The Delts would like to extend belated wishes to Judy Tuminella for being chosen first runner-up in the Miss CSC Pageant, and Sandra Falloretta for being chosen the third runner-up. Wishes also go to Andrea Heredia for being chosen second runner-up in the Laurel Festival. Pink roses go to these girls. Congratulations for a job well done.

Pink roses go to Elaine Daniels, Carol Sichak, and Sharon Weyer for their participation in Can-Can. Congratulations to Judy Tuminella for making the lead dancer.

The Delts wish to congratulate Marlene Scardamalia and Mary Jo Sullivan for being nominated for National Sorority awards.

Although it is a little late, the sisters of Delta Zeta would like to welcome back Connie Woollister, Janet Susa, and Karen Chittister.

Our congratulations go to Theta Chi and Zeta Tau Alpha for winning first place in Greek Sing.

ALPHA CHI RHO

When our National Secretary was here a few weeks ago, he brought us our Charter, an impressive document which we have since suitably framed. We have also heard from "Hense" lately concerning the prospects for a house for us. Things look pretty good, but we'll keep our fingers crossed.

Shortly before Easter Vacation our pledges took the National Test and passed with rather good marks. Their initiation is planned for the near future.

Many of our Brothers are planning to attend the installation of our newest Chapter, Nu Phi, at Steubenville, Ohio, on May 1. So everyone is going "down the line" to welcome our new Brothers into the Fraternity.

Our car wash held on April 10, was a great success. Everyone was filthy, waterlogged, and tired, but it was worth it. We're looking forward to our next car wash to be held on May 8. Sure we are!

ALPHA GAMMA PHI

The men of Alpha Gamma Phi would like to extend congratulations to President Joseph Tuminella, who recently scored a hole-in-one at Pinecrest Country Club in the third hole, 155 yards.

Get well wishes are extended to Brothers John D'Angelo and Bob Crystol. Brother Crystol is recuperating from a fractured cartilage in his knee suffered at the hands of Brother Stellute during football practice. Brother D'Angelo is still undergoing tests for his mysterious illness at Brookville Hospital.

Brother Crystol would like to announce the adoption of a neurotic parakeet named Woudjel, who has become a mascot in the house.

The men of the Red and Black would like to wish Brother Francis "Butcher" Dunlay the best of luck and congratulations. Brother Dunlay is to marry Miss Patricia Ann Whalen on April 24.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

The sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha are pleased to announce the officers of the spring pledge class: Karen Reibich, president; Patti Grossi, vice president; Judy Darnofall, secretary; and Leanne Marcinko, treasurer. Congratulations!

On Saturday, April 3, sisters Patty Palmer, Sandy Carlin, and Peggy Brammer attended a workshop for all Zetas in this district. Here they received many new ideas for our chapter activities.

On April 30, the sisters of Zeta Tau Alpha are holding our annual spring outing. This year it will be in Cook Forest at the cabin of our patroness, Mrs. Logue.

MOTHER'S DAY CONCERT

May 9 — Campus Lawn

Campus Views

ED. NOTE: A frequent charge against the State colleges is that they are just over-developed high schools without any culture or sophistication. To combat this impression we are reprinting the following letter from the Indiana Penn which proves also that someone is always "covering up" something at the State college level.

Dear Editor: Without advocating that ISC be transformed into a nudist colony, I would like to draw attention to a great deficiency in our art department. In the entire four years of study, there is but one semester of figure drawing given. In this one semester the student spends a great deal of time drawing his classmates. Unfortunately, our classmates frequently wear clothes. This is all right for fashion illustration but it greatly hinders ones understanding of the human form. When a model is obtained, the situation improves, but a figure strapped up in a bathing suit still leaves something to be desired.

Figure drawing is basic to one's artistic development. If X-ray vision be required of Indiana students the best results produced will be reproductions of pop art. In closing let me ask that any females who are slightly uninhibited and wish to earn the magnificent pay of eighty cents an hour, please contact Mr. Innes in the Art Annex.

Debate Team on Tour...

Clarion State College's top debate team of sophomore Barbara Artuso and freshman Jean Elliott compiled an outstanding record at the Pi Kappa Delta National Tournament in Tacoma, Washington last week.

Only two of the more than 100 colleges and universities attending the tournament were able to win more debates in the championship cross-examination division than the Clarion team. University of Pacific, last year's West Point national champions, defeated Northern Illinois (Clarion coach Roger Hufford's former team) in the final round of the tournament to take first place with a 7-1 record. San Fernando State of California was the only other team in the open division to compile a 7-1 record.

Artuso and Elliott had a 6-2 record, with wins over Southwestern Kansas, University of Arizona, Gustavus Adolphus (Minnesota), North Texas State (the college that won the national TV debate championships two years ago), Lewis and Clark (Oregon), and Illinois Wesleyan University, and losses to semifinalists Humboldt State of California, and Illinois State University. The 6-2 record put Clarion in a tie with five other schools: Northern Illinois, Illinois State, Texas Christian, Kearney (Nebraska), and Augustana, South Dakota, for third place honors in their division.

A second Clarion team, sophomore Nancy Caldwell and junior Ruth Helfrich, compiled a 5-3 record in the women's division, to earn a "good" rating. Caldwell and Helfrich had wins over Idaho State, Buena Vista (Iowa), Lewis and Clark (Oregon), River Falls (Wisconsin), and Colorado State at Greeley, the top seeded women's team from the Colorado-Nebraska-Kansas area. They lost to South Dakota State, Whitman (Washington), and Tabor (Kansas).

Darrel Sheraw represented Clarion in men's oratory and in discussion, and earned "good" ratings in both events. Jean Elliott earned a "good" in women's extemporaneous speaking.

Pi Kappa Delta is the nation's largest honorary forensics fraternity. Clarion joined last year, and their charter was presented this year in the opening business meeting at Tacoma.

It was the second year in succession that Barbara Artuso has won Pi Kappa Delta honors. Last year at the province tournament at Grove City, Pennsylvania, she and colleague Jan Callen took first place in the women's division, and this year with colleague Jean Elliott she placed third in the open division at the nationals.

The debate team participated for the first time last weekend in the Novice National Championship tournament, held at Bellarmine College in Louisville, Kentucky.

John Mann and Ruth Helfrich finished in a tie for 12th place among the 136 teams from 24 states and Canada. The tournament included most of the major universities from the Atlantic coast to as far west as Kansas and Nebraska.

Only three teams were able to go through the six round tournament that matched winners against other winners each round without suffering defeat.

Mann and Helfrich had a 4-2 record, with wins over Ohio State, Kentucky, Cumberland, and Ursuline, and losses to Kent State and Evansville. The 4-2 record put Clarion in a tie with such teams as Alabama, West Virginia, Navy, Illinois, Northern Illinois, Kentucky, and Virginia.

A second Clarion novice team, Twila Yates and Joyce Boch, had a 2-4 record against an extremely rugged schedule. Yates and Boch defeated Virginia and Cumberland, but lost to Kansas, Kansas State at Emporia, Kentucky, and Case Institute.

Clarion State College's Debate Team tied for second place at the Debating Association of Pennsylvania's Colleges state championship tournament this past weekend.

Jean Elliott, freshman from Sigo, and Barbara Artuso, sophomore from Arnold, had a 3-2 record on the affirmative, with wins over Penn State, Grove City, and Dickinson. Cathy Edner, sophomore from Falls Creek, and Nancy Caldwell, sophomore from Oil City, had a 4-1 record on the negative, with wins over Pitt, Temple, Mansfield State, and Dickinson.

Hartley to Give Paper At Convention

Harold Hartley, associate professor of Special Education and in charge of the Speech and Hearing Clinic at Clarion State College, will present a scholarly paper at the Sixth Annual Convention of the Pennsylvania Speech and Hearing Association.

The Convention is being held in Pittsburgh from April 8th to 10th.

Professor Hartley's paper is entitled "Tongue Thrust—A Case Report," and deals with those persons with faulty swallowing patterns. The case report was prepared by Professor Hartley, Dr. Robert DeShong, orthodontist of Oil City, Athena Saladis, a senior at Clarion State College from Ambridge, and William Brady, also a senior, from Titusville.

The report demonstrates results obtained in orthodontic therapy after the patient made changes in swallowing and speech patterns.

Violin Recital Presented Here

Mr. Rodney Schmidt, instructor of Music at Clarion State College, presented a violin recital on April 21, in the College Chapel.

Mr. Schmidt's program began at 8 p.m., and included sonatas for solo violin by Geminiani and Ysaye and Dutch composer Henk Badings.

In addition, he presented sonatas by Bach and Beethoven for violin and piano which were performed by Mrs. Joan Schnerer, pianist from Pittsburgh, and Mr. Schmidt.

The program was sponsored by the Clarion State College Concert Lecture Committee and the Department of Music.

Most business men take newspapers for granted because they know newspapers have produced business for them most economically of any medium through the years.

AWS Officers At National Convention

ALLEN RICHMOND

Richmond Will Join Special Ed Staff Next Fall

A new member of Clarion State College's Special Education faculty for next Fall was announced today by Kenneth Vayda, director of Special Education.

Allen Richmond, currently a teaching fellow and candidate for the Ph.D. degree in Speech Pathology at Ohio University, will join Clarion's faculty as associate professor of Speech Pathology and Audiology in September.

A graduate of the State University of New York at Geneseo, Mr. Richmond received a B.S. in Speech. He taught in the public schools of New York for two years, then earned his Master's degree in Clinical Speech at the Pennsylvania State University. From 1961-63, he was a speech pathologist at the Pennsylvania Rehabilitation Center.

Moving to Ohio University, Mr. Richmond became a teaching fellow and a doctoral candidate. In addition he was Director of the Saturday Community Clinic in Portsmouth, Ohio. He expects to receive his Ph.D. this summer.

What colleges need today are more slow readers and fewer fast talkers.

From March 21st through 23rd, three Clarion coeds were in Salt Lake City, Utah, for the national convention of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students.

Miss Pat Ryan (A.W.S. president '64-'65), and Miss Mary Ann Coleman (A.W.S. president '65-'66), and Miss Gwenith Hummel (A.W.S. vice-president '65-'66) constituted one of over two hundred delegations from 49 of the 50 states at the University of Utah for the convention.

The convention was particularly important to the Clarion delegation for our petition for national membership was presented and accepted unanimously. Clarion's A.W.S. which is in its second year of operation had heretofore been merely a provisional member of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students.

The central theme discussed and studied by the more than 600 delegates to the convention was the "Challenge of Creativity." Speakers and workshops were aimed at a more accurate picture of the responsibility and duty of the college woman to become a well-educated woman capable of meeting the challenge of creativity. Among the topics discussed were: "Creativity of Leadership," the "Creativity of Learning," and the "Creativity of Freedom." One of the most noteworthy speakers was Dr. Harold Taylor, who is the special consultant in the Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Foundation.

Our delegates gained many useful suggestions and ideas which it is hoped our A.W.S. will be able to enact during the remainder of this year and during the coming year.

Dr. Dinsmore Compiles Key Of Flowering Plants in U. S.

Two publications have been announced by Dr. Bruce H. Dinsmore, professor of Biological Science.

The one publication, written by Dr. Dinsmore and published commercially last year, is titled Grigg's Key to the Families of Flowering Plants in the Northeastern United States. It is a key designed to help students identify flowers to the family, and then to provide guidance to further identification in Gray's Manual of Botany.

The Key has been revised by Dr. Dinsmore from an earlier edition. His revision has come from advances and through his summer school course in Taxonomy of Vascular Plants. He has dedicated the publication to Dr. Robert Griggs, former Professor of Botany at the University of Pittsburgh, and Director of Pitt's Pymatuning Field Laboratory.

Dr. Dinsmore's work is titled Flowering Plants of Clarion County as Recorded in the Herbarium of the Carnegie Museum of Pittsburgh. This work was prepared by Dr. Dinsmore with the help of Miss Sharon Grove, a former student at Clarion who is now an instructor of Mathematics.

During a visit to the Herbarium last summer, Dr. Dinsmore saw that there were plant specimens in the local Herbarium which weren't recorded in the Pittsburgh Museum, and vice-versa.

"I saw a definite need for a checklist of plants, and with Miss Grove's help, the necessary information was gathered," Dr. Dinsmore explained.

The seven-page mimeographed paper is available to interested persons. Copies may be obtained by writing to Dr. Dinsmore.

"Looking ahead," he continued, "We are preparing a list of ferns in Clarion County and of Flowering plants and ferns in Venango County."

Baseballers Blast Into New '65 Diamond Season

COACH JOE KNOWLES

The 1965 baseball season is well underway for the Clarion State College Golden Eagle diamondmen as four games have already been played. The Eagles currently are 2-2 on the season as they split doubleheaders with California and Lock Haven, respectively. They face Gannon College in Erie today.

Last week Clarion traveled to California State College and won the first game, 4-3, while losing the second game, 5-4.

Debate Team on Tour...

Clarion State College's top debate team of sophomore Barbara Artuso and freshman Jean Elliott compiled an outstanding record at the Pi Kappa Delta National Tournament in Tacoma, Washington last week.

Only two of the more than 100 colleges and universities attending the tournament were able to win more debates in the championship cross-examination division than the Clarion team. University of Pacific, last year's West Point national champions, defeated Northern Illinois (Clarion coach Roger Hufford's former team) in the final round of the tournament to take first place with a 7-1 record. San Fernando State of California was the only other team in the open division to compile a 7-1 record.

Artuso and Elliott had a 6-2 record, with wins over Southwestern Kansas, University of Arizona, Gustavus Adolphus (Minnesota), North Texas State (the college that won the national TV debate championships two years ago), Lewis and Clark (Oregon), and Illinois Wesleyan University, and losses to semifinals Humboldt State of California, and Illinois State University. The 6-2 record put Clarion in a tie with five other schools: Northern Illinois, Illinois State, Texas Christian, Kearney (Nebraska), and Augustana, South Dakota, for third place honors in their division.

A second Clarion team, sophomore Nancy Caldwell and junior Ruth Helfrich, compiled a 5-3 record in the women's division, to earn a "good" rating. Caldwell and Helfrich had wins over Idaho State, Buena Vista (Iowa), Lewis and Clark (Oregon), River Falls (Wisconsin), and Colorado State at Greeley, the top seeded women's team from the Colorado-Nebraska-Kansas area. They lost to South Dakota State, Whitman (Washington), and Tabor (Kansas).

Darrel Sheraw represented Clarion in men's oratory and in discussion, and earned "good" ratings in both events. Jean Elliott earned a "good" in women's extemporaneous speaking.

Pi Kappa Delta is the nation's largest honorary forensics fraternity. Clarion joined last year, and their charter was presented this year in the opening business meeting at Tacoma.

It was the second year in succession that Barbara Artuso has won Pi Kappa Delta honors. Last year at the province tournament at Grove City, Pennsylvania, she and colleague Jan Callen took first place in the women's division, and this year with colleague Jean Elliott she placed third in the open division at the nationals.

The debate team participated for the first time last weekend in the Novice National Championship tournament, held at Bellarmine College in Louisville, Kentucky.

John Mann and Ruth Helfrich finished in a tie for 12th place among the 136 teams from 24 states and Canada. The tournament included most of the major universities from the Atlantic coast to as far west as Kansas and Nebraska.

Only three teams were able to go through the six round tournament that matched winners against other winners each round without suffering defeat.

Mann and Helfrich had a 4-2 record, with wins over Ohio State, Kentucky, Cumberland, and Ursuline, and losses to Kent State and Evansville. The 4-2 record put Clarion in a tie with such teams as Alabama, West Virginia, Navy, Illinois, Northern Illinois, Kentucky, and Virginia.

A second Clarion novice team, Twila Yates and Joyce Boch, had a 2-4 record against an extremely rugged schedule. Yates and Boch defeated Virginia and Cumberland, but lost to Kansas, Kansas State at Emporia, Kentucky, and Case Institute.

Clarion State College's Debate Team tied for second place at the Debating Association of Pennsylvania's Colleges state championship tournament this past week-end.

Jean Elliott, freshman from Sligo, and Barbara Artuso, sophomore from Arnold, had a 3-2 record on the affirmative, with wins over Penn State, Grove City, and Dickinson. Cathy Edner, sophomore from Falls Creek, and Nancy Caldwell, sophomore from Oil City, had a 4-1 record on the negative, with wins over Pitt, Temple, Mansfield State, and Dickinson.

Hartley to Give Paper At Convention

Harold Hartley, associate professor of Special Education and in charge of the Speech and Hearing Clinic at Clarion State College, will present a scholarly paper at the Sixth Annual Convention of the Pennsylvania Speech and Hearing Association.

The Convention is being held in Pittsburgh from April 8th to 10th. Professor Hartley's paper is entitled "Tongue Thrust—A Case Report," and deals with those persons with faulty swallowing patterns.

The case report was prepared by Professor Hartley, Dr. Robert DeShong, orthodontist of Oil City, Athena Saludis, a senior at Clarion State College from Ambridge, and William Brady, also a senior, from Titusville.

The report demonstrates results obtained in orthodontic therapy after the patient made changes in swallowing and speech patterns.

Violin Recital Presented Here

Mr. Rodney Schmidt, instructor of Music at Clarion State College, presented a violin recital on April 21, in the College Chapel.

Mr. Schmidt's program began at 8 p.m., and included sonatas for solo violin by Geminiani and Ysaye and Dutch composer Henk Badings.

In addition, he presented sonatas by Bach and Beethoven for violin and piano which were performed by Mrs. Joan Schnerer, pianist from Pittsburgh, and Mr. Schmidt.

The program was sponsored by the Clarion State College Concert Lecture Committee and the Department of Music.

ALLEN RICHMOND

Richmond Will Join Special Ed Staff Next Fall

A new member of Clarion State College's Special Education faculty for next Fall was announced today by Kenneth Vayda, director of Special Education.

Allen Richmond, currently a teaching fellow and candidate for the Ph.D. degree in Speech Pathology at Ohio University, will join Clarion's faculty as associate professor of Speech Pathology and Audiology in September.

A graduate of the State University of New York at Geneseo, Mr. Richmond received a B.S. in Speech. He taught in the public schools of New York for two years, then earned his Master's degree in Clinical Speech at the Pennsylvania State University. From 1961-63, he was a speech pathologist at the Pennsylvania Rehabilitation Center.

Moving to Ohio University, Mr. Richmond became a teaching fellow and a doctoral candidate. In addition he was Director of the Saturday Community Clinic in Portsmouth, Ohio. He expects to receive his Ph.D. this summer.

What colleges need today are more slow readers and fewer fast talkers.

AWS Officers At National Convention

From March 21st through 23rd, three Clarion coeds were in Salt Lake City, Utah, for the national convention of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students.

Miss Pat Ryan (A.W.S. president '64-'65), and Miss Mary Ann Coleman (A.W.S. president '65-'66), and Miss Gwenith Hummell (A.W.S. vice-president '65-'66) constituted one of over two hundred delegations from 49 of the 50 states at the University of Utah for the convention.

The convention was particularly important to the Clarion delegation for our petition for national membership was presented and accepted unanimously. Clarion's A.W.S. which is in its second year of operation had heretofore been merely a provisional member of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students.

The central theme discussed and studied by the more than 600 delegates to the convention was the "Challenge of Creativity." Speakers and workshops were aimed at a more accurate picture of the responsibility and duty of the college woman to become a well-educated woman capable of meeting the challenge of creativity. Among the topics discussed were: "Creativity of Leadership," the "Creativity of Learning," and the "Creativity of Freedom." One of the most noteworthy speakers was Dr. Harold Taylor, who is the special consultant in the Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Foundation.

Our delegates gained many useful suggestions and ideas which it is hoped our A.W.S. will be able to enact during the remainder of this year and during the coming year.

Dr. Dinsmore Compiles Key Of Flowering Plants in U. S.

Two publications have been announced by Dr. Bruce H. Dinsmore, professor of Biological Science.

The one publication, written by Dr. Dinsmore and published commercially last year, is titled Grigg's Key to the Families of Flowering Plants in the Northeastern United States. It is a key designed to help students identify flowers to the family, and then to provide guidance to further identification in Gray's Manual of Botany.

The Key has been revised by Dr. Dinsmore from an earlier edition. His revision has come from advances and through his summer school course in Taxonomy of Vascular Plants. He has dedicated the publication to Dr. Robert Griggs, former Professor of Botany at the University of Pittsburgh, and Director of Pitt's Pymatuning Field Laboratory.

Dr. Dinsmore's work is titled Flowering Plants of Clarion County as Recorded in the Herbarium of the Carnegie Museum of Pittsburgh. This work was prepared by Dr. Dinsmore with the help of Miss Sharon Grove, a former student at Clarion who is now an instructor of Mathematics.

During a visit to the Herbarium last summer, Dr. Dinsmore saw that there were plant specimens in the local Herbarium which weren't recorded in the Pittsburgh Museum, and vice-versa.

"I saw a definite need for a checklist of plants, and with Miss Grove's help, the necessary information was gathered," Dr. Dinsmore explained.

The seven-page mimeographed paper is available to interested persons. Copies may be obtained by writing to Dr. Dinsmore.

"Looking ahead," he continued, "We are preparing a list of ferns in Clarion County and of flowering plants and ferns in Venango County."

Mom's Day Concert Ready For May 9

The Clarion State College Concert Band has completed its 1965 Annual Spring Tour of April 25-29.

They made appearances at the New York World's Fair and in the Reading area. Concerts were performed at the Tiparillo Band Pavilion and the United States Pavilion and in Boyertown, Twin Valley, and Oley Valley.

The band members enjoyed touring the Fair and sightseeing in New York City on their free time between concerts. They were also given tours in the schools where they visited.

This organization provided a direct contact for these schools with Clarion State College.

The band will present its Annual Mother's Day Concert on May 9, 1965 at 3:00 p.m. on the college campus. A varied program of music from all periods and styles of composition and transcription will be presented.

Soloists appearing with the band will be John Day, tuba soloist, from Karns City, a junior majoring in secondary English, and Dave Kaufman, trombone soloist, from Ellwood City, a senior majoring in library science.

All students and visiting parents, relatives, and friends are invited to attend the concert as part of the campus activities on Mother's Day.

Editorially Speaking

Comments concerning the "Lettermen" performance last Monday night gave praise to the fine trio, but certainly did not applaud the way in which admission was handled. Such remarks as, "It was great once we were seated," and "I guess it was worth it, but I'll tell you for sure when my feet heal," were heard when the performance ended and the MOB began to evacuate.

Since good viewing seats were wanted by all, the MOB began to arrive at five o'clock, only to see a sign posted on the window that the doors would not open until 7:15 p.m. Their only choice was to wait in line, for the MOB increased and became more compact as each long minute passed. However, certain "privileged" students were allowed to enter and choose choice seats one hour before the performance, while the equal, yet "unprivileged" students, had to stand outside up to two and a half hours to gain admission.

Finally, after more than two and a half hours of waiting, for some, the outside doors were opened. Excitement ran high until the inside doors were closed in the faces of the MOB. After another long fifteen minutes and many squashed, perspiring bodies, the MOB was carried into the auditorium.

The reason that the auditorium was not opened until such a late hour was that the wiring inside was not completed in accordance with the contract, and late changes had to be made. Sufficient planning of the wiring before the night of the performance would have eliminated this unnecessary difficulty.

It was sad to see college students acting with MOB RULE, but it was even sadder to see the poor regulation on the part of the officials, referees, or whatever one wishes to call those in charge.

Although college students were given preference to faculty members, it was a little aggravating to see a few high school and even grade school students in choice seats.

Poor planning caused this stampede. Until pre-planning of such events becomes complete, regulation of a hostile crowd cannot be expected.

Most students do not come into personal contact with the Trustees and the Business Management of the College.

It is too bad, for if they did, many students would realize that two good friends are gone from Clarion.

Mr. R. R. Whitmer, formerly president of the Board of Trustees, and Mr. Darl Callen, formerly Business Manager, are no longer with the College. Mr. Whitmer has been replaced on the Board because his "time was up." Mr. Whitmer, a Democrat, has been replaced by a Republican because the Republicans are in the driver's seat of State government. Mr. Callen, also a Democrat, resigned his position here to take another job. It is interesting to ponder how long Mr. Callen would have been here or how secure his job would have been since the take-over of the College's Board by Republicans.

All of this quiet overtone of politics is really bad for the image our college is trying to build. Students resent the interference of any political party in the working operation of the College.

Clarion will miss the leadership and unselfish devotion that Mr. Whitmer devoted to the College. Likewise, the day-to-day operations of the business administration will be lessened with the leaving of Mr. Callen.

Maybe someday the "grown up adults" will learn to leave well enough alone when a job is being well done.

Board Reaches Four Decisions

Hearings held by the College Disciplinary Board last week resulted in a suspension for one student, probation for three others, a year's probation for a fraternity, and a referral for the other case to the Dean's Office.

Three freshmen women were placed on immediate disciplinary probation for the remainder of this semester and for all of the fall semester for drinking in their residence hall room.

A freshmen girl was suspended immediately for the remainder of this semester and for next fall's semester also as a result of an incident of stealing. She was also one of the three freshmen women caught drinking.

The third case involved a student charged with profanity and threatening a student resident. This was referred back to the Dean of Student Affairs.

Alpha Gamma Phi Fraternity was brought before the Board on charges of violation of their probationary status. An inspection of their house by the landlord resulted in a complaint which was investigated by the College. The Fraternity was placed on probation for another year with the stipulation that the penalty would be reviewed at the end of the first semester.

Alumni Day Set For Sat., May 22

The Annual Alumni Day will be held May 22.

Venango Campus News

U.N.—World's Fair Tour

Twenty students from Venango joined six busloads of Clarion students to enjoy three days in New York City—April 22, 23, 24. The trip was sponsored by the main campus's history department under the auspices of Dr. James King.

The Woodstock Hotel, located a short distance from Times Square and Broadway, was "home base" for the tour's duration.

After a night long bus ride, those interested, left at 9:00 a.m. Thursday morning for a guided tour of the U.N. The afternoon found a majority of the students enjoying a three hour boat ride around Manhattan, viewing such points of interest as the Statue of Liberty, Yankee Stadium and the New York skyline. After a fruitless attempt at trying to get tickets for Radio City Music Hall's Easter Pageant, many students found other diversions. At 1:00 a.m., proctors took groups to Greenwich Village to get first-hand knowledge of how our "beat" generation really lives.

Everyone was awakened at 8:00 a.m. the next morning to catch the subway for the World's Fair. Saturday was relatively free to do anything you wished, until departure time at 1:00 p.m. when the Ritchey Transportation Line returned the students to Clarion and Oil City.

The Madrigalians of Venango Campus travelled to Erie on April 27 to perform two concerts. The first was presented to the English theatre at Gannon College. The program consisted of English madrigals.

The second concert was performed at St. Benedict's Academy for girls. They sang most of the same songs that were presented at Gannon, but it was changed a little in the respect that a few religious songs were added.

In 1948, at the request of Dr. Paul Chandler, president of the college then, and Miss Rena Carlson, head librarian, Miss Stewart came to Clarion.

The first 15 years here she was first assistant librarian and the past 2 years she was head librarian.

Mr. Flack has been on the faculty since 1941. He will move to Pomona, California when he ends his work on August 10, to join his wife who is in social service work for the state of California.

Two Lettermen Lead Winning Golf Team

With only two lettermen back to provide the nucleus for the golfers of Coach Thomas Carnahan, it appears that the Clarion State College linksters have come up with the successful formula as they are off and running in the State College Conference.

Carnahan's boys are currently 5-2-2 on the season as they disposed of highly-touted competitors enroute to their present record.

Leading the team are Joe Tuminella of Penn Hills and Gene Desch of Swissvale, Carnahan's two letter winners.

At the present time Tuminella is playing the number one position on the team and Desch, the third spot. However, they are shifted to different positions depending on the opponent. For example, Tuminella has played the number two position before.

On Clarion's golf team there are seven positions for candidates to vie for and the following boys comprise the 1965 golf team for Clarion.

Number one spot, Tuminella; second position, Bill May of Erie; third, Dave Kulas of West Mifflin; fourth, Jim Leighton of Butler; fifth, Ramo Circignano of Sewickley, sixth, Dennis Cargnel of Export.

Desch also plays in the number three position from time to time, however, all the boys may be seen playing in different positions from the number one spot through the seventh, depending upon the decision of Coach Carnahan.

Enroute to Clarion's present 5-2-2 record, they scored impressive victories over Slippery Rock, 11-7; Geneva College, 7-0; Indiana, 9½-8½; Edinboro, 14-4; Alliance, 15-3.

The linksters scored ties with Baldwin-Wallace, 12-12; and California, 9-9. Their only losses came at the hands of Youngstown, 13-11; and Indiana in the return match, 15-3.

Coach Carnahan has high hopes of this year's team and expects a fine showing of his squad at the Bob Garritano has been elected captain of the football team at Clarion State College for the 1965 season, according to Al Jacks, head coach.

Garritano, a junior from North Braddock, lettered three years for the Golden Eagles. He was named to the Pennsylvania State College All-State squad and received recognition on the Small College All-American teams.

Garritano is better known on campus as "Bo" and stands at six feet and weighs 230 pounds.

CSC Splits Two Doubleheaders

During the past week the baseball team of Coach Joe Knowles split two doubleheaders while playing Indiana State College last Tuesday and Youngstown University last Saturday.

Against Indiana State College, Clarion's Fred Harkness pitched his visiting team to a 6-2 verdict over the Indians in the first game of the twinbill.

Collecting hits for Clarion in the first game were Beaton with two; Dunmire, one; Bono, two; and Harkness, one hit.

In the second game at Indiana, the home team fired back to score three unearned runs in the nip-tuck contest to win, 3-1.

Hits for Clarion in the second contest saw Beaton again with two; Beebe, one; Racchini, one hit.

Then, last Saturday Youngstown University came to Clarion for a twinbill with Knowles' Eagles and went home with a win and a loss for the afternoon.

In the first game Clarion won quite easily to whip Youngstown, 6-1, but lost the nightcap, 4-3.

Coach Knowles will take his boys to Canton, Ohio, today for a doubleheader against Malone College. Clarion's record stands at 6-4.

In accordance with the wishes of the National Fraternity that there be close relationships between the Chapters, some of the Brothers recently visited for a few days our Chapters at Columbia University and at Lafayette College. Without going into detail, let it suffice to say that they thoroughly enjoyed themselves at both places. A group of Brothers were also present recently when our newest Chapter Nu Phi, was instituted at Steubenville, Ohio.

This Saturday, we Crows are conducting another Car wash at Emerson's Dairyland. We hope it will be as successful as the last one. So have your car nice and clean for finals (if that means anything to you). We will be there from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

In a few weeks, four of our Brothers will be graduating. Our best wishes go out with them for their success in future years.

Since this is the last Call before summer vacation, we hope everyone has a pleasant and profitable summer. Keep it cool!

Scribes Choose Plischke As Journalism Beauty

Clarion State College's journalism fraternity, Alpha Phi Gamma, is aware that spring and beauty go together, and they have a glamorous "Miss Journalism" to prove it.

The lovely lass with the title "Miss Journalism of Clarion State College" is Glendora Plischke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Plischke, 138 Grant Street in Greensburg.

She's a senior majoring in elementary education, and minoring in special education. She is, naturally, a member of the Clarion chapter of Alpha Phi Gamma, national honorary journalism fraternity. In addition, Miss Plischke is a student resident, a member of the Council for Exceptional Children, and the Pennsylvania State Education Association. She is class editor of the Sequelle, the year-book.

A sparkling, pretty brunette, Glendora Plischke is a 1962 graduate of Greensburg Salem High School. She was a cheerleader, member of student government, National Forensic League, Audio-Visual Club, French Club, Future Teachers, and a staff member of the school newspaper.

When not studying or gracing the classrooms here, Miss Plischke can be found reading, knitting, or water skiing (in season, of course).

Vayda Named Class Advisor

Mr. Kenneth Vayda, Director of Special Education who was chosen advisor of the Junior Class has seen the Juniors through a successful year.

Mr. Vayda is also Director of Special Student Services and a sponsor of the Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity. He succeeds Dr. Glen Waite in this Post.

One activity of the Junior Class was a jam session held in Harvey Gym. Through the cooperation of the Caravelles, the Junior Class, and the other students attending, the jammie was rated a huge success.

Shenandoah National Park in Virginia. The park is located in the scenic Blue Ridge Mountains, so named because of the ever-present bluish haze. The group enjoyed the beauty of the ridges and valleys that could be seen for miles along the Skyline Drive.

Camp was pitched at an elevation of 3500 feet in the camping area of Big Meadows. From this central location trails were taken and the general ecology of the area was studied. Here the ornithologists observed forty species of birds of which all are familiar in the Clarion area with the exception of the Raven.

It was noted enroute up the mountains how the spring conditions changed. In the valley the dogwood and redbud were in bloom and the trees were leafing; but, at the higher elevation the very early spring flowers were just beginning to bloom. These plants are all common to the Clarion area but the Shenandoah Valley marks the extreme southern extension of many species.

Hiking was the principal activity of the group. A two mile hike was taken along the Swamp Nature Trail where several species of salamanders were caught, observed and returned to the area. Here the bloodroot, Marsh marigold and trillium were in flower. Another hike was taken to Dark Hollow Falls where brook trout, several species of birds and several species of wild flowers were observed.

On the last day in Camp the group hiked to the summit of Stony Man Mountain, elevation 4010 feet, for a marvelous view of the Shenandoah Valley. In the afternoon the Luray Caverns were toured. The entire trip was of interest to the group. The Geology students were interested in the outcropping of the various rocks and in the formation of the ridges and valleys. The Astronomy students took advantage of the clear nights to observe the various constellations.

Excitement was added to the trip when on the first night a skunk ventured into a tent full of girls, fed on peanuts and then woke the girls up trying to get out. Fortunately neither the 4 girls or the skunk panicked and the skunk was let out only to return the next night to the other tent of girls. But all mishaps with the skunk were escaped.

The Bios Club will now return to activities of electing new officers and preparing for next year's activities which will include working in Cook Forest State Park.
